The awards are commemorative of persons in both the public and private sector organizations and companies. Public Service Extraordinaire honorees were Milton Collins, Desmond Alufohai both employees of Miami –Dade International Aviation Department, and Manual “Manny” Mencia of Enterprise Florida. Captains of Industry honorees were Roberto Muñoz wearing two hats as the President of Capital Bank/Miami and World Trade Center/Miami, Juliet Roulhac of Florida Power & Light, and William “Bill” Talbert, III of the Greater Miami Convention & Visitors Bureau. The Chief Captain of industry Lifetime Achievement honoree was Merrett R. Stierheim (retired), former Miami-Dade County Manager and President a pioneer in the international tourism industry in Miami-Dade County.

The Hallmark/Measure: “Heights by great men reached and kept, were not attained by sudden flight; for they while their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night.” -- Longfellow.

On this day, the gathering consisted of a “Who Is Who” list of honored government officials, guests of business owners, executives, and international representatives in attendance primarily from Palm Beach, Broward and Miami-Dade.

The 2019 Honorees were in attendance with the exception of the Chief Captain of Industry, Merrett Stierheim - Retired Miami-Dade County Manager and Pioneer (who was in attendance as speaker at a friend's funeral, sent his regrets having William "Bill" Talbert who also recommended Mr. Stierheim's recognition, accepted on his behalf).

Leonard ‘Lenny’ Feldman, Esquire - Sandler, Travis & Rosenberg, PA, one of the largest law firms in Miami, Florida. The completion of 100% who made reservations plus an additional count in attendance, and we are grateful for the abundant support.
