Subject: Neutral FOBL suggestion.

Hi FOBL interested folks:

I received answers to my questions from Nancy and Scott regarding FOBL. From my neutral review of this information, it seems clear that FOBL is a legal entity with its basic foundational rules intact. I have not paid membership dues for 2019 yet, so what I'm saying is from an "outsider". (I do intend to join as soon as I know what the dues are!) I would suggest that for this second decade of operations, that the members go back to their basic rules for operating as a (presumably) NonProfit Corporation:

HAVE A MEMBER CALL A REORGANIZATION MEETING

Members elect a Board of Directors for three years (or what the by-laws say)
Elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer to serve for one year.

Adjourn and have the new President set the next meeting.

Suggest at the meeting to decide on a method for resolving disputes to try for a period, like 6 months or a year or until a new proposal is adopted.

All the folks who have done what needed to be done to accomplish the marvelous results of the first decade be thanked and acknowledged and proceed as a reborn organization to focus on what needs to be accomplished in the next three years or whatever!!

We've got a working model own place, my take is we should use it!!!

Sincerely,

Stu Webb
