

Imagine That Childcare

Where children are encouraged to explore, experience, discover and grow!

Manners are a vital part of doing well in society. At Imagine That, we strive to demonstrate politeness to all of your children in our care. We find the gift of treating them with warmth and respect provides dignity to them as small people. We hope by modeling being considerate, responsive, and kind in our dealings with them, they too will treat parents and "friends" with good manners.

Thank you all, Miss Julie, Center Director
