

Canadian Critical Incident Stress Congress and Training

SPONSOR
OPPORTUNITIES

APRIL 2 - 5, 2019

The Canadian Critical Incident Stress Foundation would like to invite you to take part in the Canadian Critical Incident Congress and Training taking place from April 2 - 5, 2019 at the DoubleTree Fallsview Resort in Niagara Falls. Each year we bring together hundreds of First Responders, organizational leaders, mental health professionals and Crisis Management Teams from across Canada and internationally with a common interest in the field of CISM. The Canadian Congress is an exciting agenda of anticipated sessions and speakers, accredited training, along with a diverse group of delegates to explore the ever-changing field of Crisis Management. The Canadian Congress was initiated to ensure quality training, education and resources are provided to our First Responder organizations nationally.

Why Sponsor Us?

The Canadian Critical Incident Stress Foundation is the largest initiative of its kind in Canada. With the increasing prevalence of PTSD and work-related stress injuries we strive to foster a healthy workplace and best practices among Emergency Services and Crisis Management Practitioners.

Sponsoring the Canadian Congress can help your company by:

- Increase awareness of your brand
- Highlight what your organization has to offer
- Provide valuable information for our attendee's
- Recruit potential clients

The Canadian Congress and training would not be possible without sponsors such as you and your support will help in every aspect of the event. Contributions will go towards facilitating this amazing educational opportunity for our delegates.

Thank you in advance for reviewing this sponsorship package and we hope that you will ultimately decide to be part of this years amazing Congress and Training.
