Fill circle in when you've booked an appointment.

Make an 'X'-mark
thru circle when you've spoken to the person.

Put a slash-mark thru circle when you've left
a message.
