By signing this Agreement and Release, I am acknowledging my understanding that the practicing, training and competing in martial arts is an inherently dangerous activity and that I am assuming all risks of doing so. I am hereby assuming the risk of bodily injury and/or death that may result from engaging in martial arts activities and agree to hold Hybrid Martial Arts, LLC, its members, owners, instructors, business invitees, other students, and participants in martial arts activities harmless from any and all liability as it relates to martial arts activities. This Release and Agreement to hold harmless shall apply to all situations involving Hybrid Martial Arts, LLC, its members, owners, instructors, business invitees, other students, and participants in martial arts activities including, but not limited to, martial arts conducted at any facility owned or operated by Hybrid Martial Arts, LLC, or its members, any tournaments or training performed outside of the facility, and any travel to, or from, any martial arts activity.

I understand that I am voluntarily releasing my rights to seek compensation for all manner of damages that I may otherwise have had. The damages I am releasing include, but are not limited to, compensation for bodily injury, medical expenses, pain and suffering, lost wages, loss of future earning, workers' compensation, wrongful death, loss of consortium, punitive damages, attorney's fees, and court costs.
