

Sarah Bivins - 1968-1972; Family Relations and Clothing Construction

“My most vivid Southeast memory is the Roundtable in the first floor hall, and Mr. Herron standing near it as classes changed.”

Memories of Southeast

The teachers and classes I remember best are second Hour Family Relations, 1971-72; Doris Bailey, Jeanne Finter, Barbara McKinney, Vivian Bassa. I also taught Study Hall and I was an advisor to Future Homemakers of America.

I spent my time away from school Sewing, reading, traveling. I also loved Chiefs Football. I always purchased the program booklet on game day to share with Southeast students.
