If You Go He Will Flow - Rev. Blaine Young

After several trips over seas to minister in various nations. I can attest that God will show up and honor His Word, if we are simply willing to go and be his mouthpiece, hands, and feet. Very often as Christians we fall into the trap of "waiting on God" to do something, to "give us a sign" in order to take a step, when all the while, He is waiting on us to simply "Go."

In Mark 16:15, Jesus said "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

Whether we do that in our own community, our country or around the world, the reward is the same and so is the fulfillment of the Great Commission.

There is nothing more fulfilling as a Christian than to see another person confess Jesus as Savior and Lord, and begin life anew in Him. By telling people what Jesus has done for humanity and what He has done for us as individuals - that is preaching the Gospel, that is fulfilling the Great Commission. You may never preach to masses of crowds but you are fulfilling His Commission when you share your faith with another person.

"There is nothing more fulfilling as a Christian than to see another person confess Jesus..."

Healing miracles and other supernatural manifestations of God's Spirit are wonderful, but the miracle of the New Birth is still the greatest miracle of all. Why? Because it is the only miracle that makes an eternal difference. If a man gains the whole world, including health, riches and material posessions, and losses his soul

Faith Must Have Feet

The Book of Hebrews, chapter 11, is often referred to as the Hall of Faith because it summarizes what faith looks like through people, highlighting the heroes of faith who have gone before. Hebrews 11:1 Says "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen..." In other words, where faith is in operation, there will be evidence, proof. You will see results. That proof can come in multiple forms, but it will always be evident that God is moving in the situation.

When the parting of the Red Sea occurred (Exodus 14:21), only Moses' faith was involved. He stretched out his rod in obedience to the Lord's instruction and the Red Sea parted. All of the Hebrew children benefited though. They all safely crossed over on (Mark 8:36), it profits him nothing.

The whole purpose of the Great Commission "Go", is so they will "Know". There is no other name under Heaven by which men are to be saved but by the name of Jesus. It is the only name!

Trust me when I tell you there is nothing special about me. And yet God has allowed me to minister in remote places in India, the Philippines and Costa Rica, to present His Gospel. Of even greater amazement, is when I have simply gone, He has always confirmed His Word with salvations, infillings, healings, and restoration of lives.

I know He is no respecter of persons. What He has done through me, He will do through you, through anyone, anywhere. As we "Go", He will flow.

God is so faithful to hear and answer prayer that aligns with His will. Taking the Gospel to the nations is the heart beat of the Father and of Jesus Christ, the Son. It is right in the middle of His will. And it is the heartbeat of the Holy Spirit to confirm the Gospel when it is preached.

For me, taking His Gospel means going to the nations, including the United States of America. For you, it may be that as well, or it may be ministering in your church, teaching the children or youth. It may be working in hospitality or going into nursing homes or jails. It may be street evangelism. Whatever He has placed on your heart, be obedient to that and you will see, if you will go, He is always faithful to flow. As we open our mouths. He will fill them. As we "Go", He will flow. Let's keep going and fulfill the Great Commission until He comes again.

Later, when crossing the Jordan (Joshua 3:14-18), the Hebrew priests themselves must step onto the Jordan for it to part—they had to put feet to their faith. That's still how it is for us today. God shows us something in our heart but it will only remain in our heart until we do something about it. We have to step out on what God has shown us. Once we do, we will begin to see the results of what faith saw all along. Faith saw the outcome of what was hoped for.

One example in the life of Teri and I putting feet to our faith was when we believed the Lord was calling us to attend Rhema Bible Training Center and we took steps to do so. I resigned from my job of almost ten years, accepting a contract position in Tulsa that, at the time, was only slated to last five weeks. The Sunday of my departure (I was traveling to Tulsa ahead of my family), someone in our congregation that I barely knew, slipped a one thousand dollar check in my hand as I was leaving.

I had not even gotten out of the door of the church and God was already proving His provision because my wife and I took a step of faith. He proved it time and again while we were in Bible school, including providing the perfect job.

We have taken several such steps of faith since going to Bible school and every time, He has proven His faithfulness. He never changes, He is always faithful to provide as we step out in faith. The only requirement is that we simply take the step.

Peru — Another Land Down Under

The Lord continues to open doors for Kingdom Freedom Ministries (KFMI) to go into new nations. It is one of the pillars of the tri-fold commission the Lord gave my wife and I for KFMI when the ministry was birthed - "take the Gospel to every nation." An opportunity has come about for KFMI to go to South America for the first time, to the nation of Peru.

Peru is a nation of approximately 30 million people, with 10 million of them concentrated in and around the city of Lima. The history is rich in Peru. Civilization there dates back several thousand years. The Inca civilization dates back to at least the thirteenth century and at one time ruled much of South America. Inca culture and roots can still be observed all over Peru.

In terms of topology, Peru is broken into three distinct regions: desert, mountains (Andes) and Amazon basin (rain forest). All three regions possess their own beauty. Without a doubt, the greatest beauty of Peru is its people. They are proud of their heritage. But they also are very welcoming and always ready to share their rich history with those visiting their nature.

A great Christian evangelistic work has been underway in Peru for some time. While many souls have already been won to Christ in Peru, there is still much work that needs to be done. On a personal level, Peru is a nation that has been on my heart for well over five years now, so having this upcoming opportunity to minister is the culmination of something the Lord planted there some time

I would ask that you pray for the ministry team I will be joining, including Manny Garcia, from Costa Rica, and Henok xxxxxxx, from Tulsa, Oklahoma. We are agreeing with the hosting ministry team in Peru that there will be many salvations, healings and miracles. We are also believing for pastors and other ministers to be strengthened and encouraged and church congregations to be blessed as the ministry gifts flow.

Please look for an update on the Peru missions trip in the next Kingdom Freedom Ministries News letter.

Extending His Kingdom to all Nations

Kingdom Freedom Ministries P.O. Box 472092 Fulsa, Oklahoma 74147 Kingdom Freedom Ministries is honored to be commissioned by the Lord Jesus Christ to fulfill a three-fold purpose and vision:

- 1. Impart the realities of the Kingdom of God to the Body of Christ
- 2. Prepare an army of Gospel labors to reap an End-Time Harvest
- 3. Take the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the Nations

In Ephesians 2:10, Paul writes "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." NKJV

There is no greater "good work" at this time than to preach the Gospel to every person, every nation.
