President's Message

It is time for the reveal of the 2018 PPQG Challenge, "Have Passport, Will Travel". Marilyn Rivera did a great job organizing the Challenge this year. Now, we get to see how creative our members can be. Thank you to all those that participated. The Challenge quilts will be displayed at both meetings. Voting will take place with the winners announced at the Day Chapter meeting. These quilts will be displayed at Mid-Atlantic in 2019. Debra Gabel from Zebra Patterns will be visiting in October as our National Speaker. We still have openings in her workshops. In order to bring in National Speakers we have to fill their workshops. As fall approaches, we start our Winter Mystery quilt. The first clues will be given in September. Please sign up to volunteer and loan your quilts to support our booth at the Newport News Fall Festival on October 6 and 7. I am looking forward to fall weather and more time to quilt.

Gala Damato, PPQG President

Volunteers for 2020 Symposium

It is time to start planning the 2020 Symposium even though we had our Quilt Show in April. For those that are new to the Guild, Symposium is where we bring in instructors for different classes, vendors and one National Speaker on a Saturday. We alternate a Quilt Show and Symposium every two years. In 2016, we used Hilton Baptist Church as the venue and it would possibly be available again. We need some members to step up as chair or co-chairs so we can hold a 2020 Symposium. A big thank you to Linda Odell for stepping up to be our 2020 Symposium Chair. Please say yes when she asks you to help with Symposium. Many hands helping makes the work lighter.

PPQG Executive Board

Linda Odell is our leader!
We need you for
Symposium 2020!

UFO CHALLENGE

Your UFO #5 is due in September which then leaves UFO #4 for November.

It is great how many of you have done so well with this year's challenge. Keep up the good work!

If you have not finished any that you signed up to complete, you still have these 2 opportunities to cross some off your list! Don't miss out on the year end prizes and chocolate each month!

Thank you very much to Sandy Barnes and her bee for taking on the task of making the 2019 Raffle Quilt. This Raffle Quilt will be on display at Mancuso's Mid Atlantic Quilt Show in February where we will sell raffle tickets. PPQG had a Raffle Quilt at Mid-Atlantic in 2017 for the first time. We will need members to volunteer at our raffle table and to white glove. The dates are February 28 thru March 3, 2019. Don't forget to buy raffle tickets for the beautiful Lone Star quilt that Gina Vivian made.

V.P. News: And the Winner is.....

Survey results are in! First of all, thank you for trying out Survey Monkey, Hopefully it was user friendly so that we can use it in the future. We had several suggestions for future speakers and I thank you!

So, in 2019 the National Speaker will be Mark Sherman! I look forward to filling up those workshops!

You may continue to support Small Service Projects in the following ways:

- Small baby quilts for families are in need at Riverside Hospital and comfort quilts for babies in CHKD NICU palliative care. A good size for these quilts is approximately 30" x 36".
- Fabric hearts for mothers with babies in NICU at Riverside and CHKD are also needed.
