Spring/Summer 2016

Message from the President

by Wesley F. Fong

Kung Hee Fat Choy! Sun nien fai lock! Happy New Year in the year of the fire monkey.

People born under this sign are said to be witty, intelligent and have a magnetic personality but at the same time are mischievous, curious and clever which make them naughty.

Mahalo to Chair Theresa Chun and her installation committee for coordinating an excellent and impressive installation of officers, trustees and directors. It was also the first time that the directors were also installed along with the officers and trustees.

Mahalo to chair Betsy Lum for the melodious Christmas caroling at the Rehab Center of the Pacific. It was great singing, music, and enthusiasm. We also made a small donation to the Rehab Center. Also mahalo to chair Charlene Chang for organizing another enjoyable Christmas party. All the kids went home with a present and even a few adults.

Mahalo to chair Thomas Ching for organizing an enjoyable walk on Hotel Street as part the annual Chinatown parade. It was fun passing out candy and monkey balloons!

Mahalo to Rena Ochse as our newsletter editor for over five years. Thank you to new director Vernon Tam for volunteering to be our new editor. He comes with a lot of experience being a newsletter editor – he said for five or six organizations. Mahalo Rena and Vernon.

Jackie Chan brought See Dai Doo Society action again thanks to chair Thomas Lai. Thomas did not disappoint us with another exciting action movie with complimentary popcorn.

A few See Dai Doo members were fortunate to be invited to visit the Chinese ships that visited Honolulu in January. It was interesting to note that there were quite a few female sailors and high ranking female officers on board.

Congratulations are in order to: Baldwin Au, president of Zhongshan Association, and officers Vivian Loo, Robert Ching, Riley Yuen and directors Marsha Au Maxwell, Wesley Fong, Leonard Kam, Betsy Lum, William Lum, Rena Ochse and John Young; Tina Au, president of Hawaii Mainland Chinese Overseas Association, and Marsha Au Maxwell and Betty Leong (dec), trustees of the United Chinese Society.

A SDDS delegation will be visiting China – Yangtze River and Zhongshan in May.

A very sad note: Past President Betty Leong passed away suddenly on 3 March. We will all miss her and thank her for all of her contributions to our society to make it a better society. (See tribute to Betty)

Let me end on a happy note. One of my three goals as president was to cool down the society hall. Thanks to Clif Yim and the Board of Trustees, we now have ceiling fans installed in our hall. Because it is so cool, our meetings can be longer!

A SEE DAI DOO SOCIETY TRIBUTE TO BETTY KAM OI LEONG

by President Wesley F. Fong

Betty Kam Oi Leong

Betty Leong was a pioneer, a visionary, a mentor and a good friend.

In 1997 Betty was elected as the first female president of the See Dai Doo Society after 92 years of male dominance. She was a pioneer in breaking the barrier in having a female play a major role in shaping the destiny of the society. Although some may have tried to dissuade her as a female from being the president, she never faltered in her determination and perseverance in becoming the first female president. As a result of her leadership she encouraged more women and their daughters to get involved in the society.

Before becoming president, in 1988 she was instrumental in producing the first video show of her ancestral village. This was a new and innovative project that was well received by the society.

She believed in the importance of education. She supported scholarships for our young SDDS members with hopes that they would return to participate and share their knowledge and innovations with the society. She believed that education was an investment in the future.

In 1999 she was elected President of the Zhongshan Association. That year as president she was able to have the international Worldwide Zhongshan Convention in Hawaii. It was no small feat but Betty was up to the challenge and the convention was a great success due to her leadership.

Subsequent to that challenge, Betty Leong served as President of the Kwangtung Community Honolulu Lin Yee Hui, formed in 1975, to provide mutual aid among Kwangtung immigrants and descendants in Hawaii.

She was very active in the Chinese community. She later served as President of the Chinese Women's Club.

During the society's centennial celebration in 2005, she helped produce and narrate a historical DVD entitled "Trace Our Root." Because of her close ties with the Zhongshan government the first SDDS tour to visit our villages in Zhongshan was very well received and a big success due to the efforts of Betty. She was the society's liaison with the Zhongshan government and they all knew her and respected her.

Betty continued to contribute to the society. By her knowledge of the culture and traditions of the society, she became a mentor to many future presidents, including myself. She always looked to the future and strived to improve the society. As a trustee she supported the maintenance and improvement of the SDDS building. Also realizing that the society needed to keep up with the changing times and laws affecting the society, she played a key role in helping to amend the society's by-laws after 25 years. She was truly a Renaissance woman.

Aside from all her achievements and accomplishments, she was a devoted wife to her husband Lum Nip, mother to her children, Wendy and Colin and grandmother to her grandchildren, Kimberly Ann, Chelsie Ann, Brandon and Leighton (deceased). But most important to many of us in the See Dai Doo Society, she was a friend, a good friend ... a friend that you could always count on for help and guidance.

Betty, See Dai Doo Society thanks you for all that you have done for our society. We will miss you.

Aloha and mahalo, Betty.

CHINATOWN PARADE

by Tom Ching

On Saturday, January 30, 2016, we met at the SDDS Great Hall at 12 noon to blow up balloons and get everything ready for the parade. We got the candy, toy cars (donated by Mrs. Lyau), baskets, balloons and our SDDS banner and pole ready. A lesson on making balloon monkeys was taught to the volunteers. After a few popped balloons, we got some creative and colorful balloon monkeys to give to the children along the parade route. We also inflated over a hundred round red and yellow balloons using D'Wayne Wong's compressor. After taking a group picture at the Hall with our balloon creations, we left the hall at 3 pm and walked down to the Hawaii State Capitol grounds to get in line for the parade.

We were number 36 in the parade lineup which is about the middle of the parade. D'Wayne and Robert Wong were our SDDS banner bearers. The brass gong, loaned by Rod Tam, announced the SDDS contingent's arrival to the parade spectators. SDDS marchers gave the round and monkey balloons, candy and toy cars to the excited kids watching the parade. Notable marchers were Mabel Lee, 94 years young and Vivian Loo, who pushed her husband's wheelchair the entire way. After taking a final group picture with the Narcissus Court at River St., we walked back to SDDS and arrived at 4:30 pm. My smart phone measured over 13,000 steps which included walking all the way from SDDS and back.

See Dai Doo Society members in the Annual Chinese New Year Parade on January 30th. Members handed out candy, toy cars, balloons and balloon monkeys. Some members made it a family affair.

After the parade we returned to SDDS for a light dinner and fellowship. Our kitchen crew was ready with dinner for the hungry marchers. We ate jai, char siu bao, rice, hot dogs and potato chips. Everyone had a great start to The Year of the Monkey. Goong Hee Fat Choy!

THE 2016 SDDS INSTALLATION LUNCHEON by Theresa Chun

The music of “Dai Hoi Moon” in the background and the pealing of the bells at 12 noon signaled the beginning of the SDDS 2016 Installation festivities and the installation of officers, trustees and for the first time the installation of the 2016 Directors. This was followed by the roar of firecrackers and the joyous and heart-stopping performance of the lion dance by the Chinese Physical Culture Association.

The ceremonial table laden with traditional food and symbols of longevity and good luck surrounded the traditional whole roast pig.

The master of ceremonies Hiram Au then introduced the past Presidents of SDDS and they were presented an appreciation gift by SDDS. Nominating Committee chair Baldwin Au introduced the Nominating Committee members and named the newly inducted SDDS Officers and Trustees. The Honorable Edward Kubo, Jr., impressive in his judicial robe then installed the 2016 Officers and Trustees. Officers and Trustees were handed an appreciation gift as they walked down the center aisle.

SDDS Directors were then called forward to be installed by Judge Kubo. The special guests were then acknowledged and invited to say a few words.

The ceremonial roast pig was then carried out by Bradley Au and Jason Lum .

President Wesley Fong addressed the audience and was followed by an excellent video of SDDS professionally done by Thomas Lai. VP Leonard Kam came forward for his acknowledgement presentation. Robert Ching’s invocation signaled the start of the serving of lunch of gon lo mein, chicken with beans, dim sum, roast pork, char siu bao and custard tart for dessert.

A heartfelt Mahalo to the installation committee for executing this memorable event:

Program: Leonard Kam, Decorations: Blossom Au Wong and her efficient family and friends; Firecrackers: John Young and James Acopan; Invitations and Seating: Betty Leong, Clifton Yim and Florence Au; Greeters: Jackie Lai and Betsy Lum; Gift Coordinator: Wendy Mow ; Ceremonial Table: Steph Yim; Photographer: Robert Kuwahara; Maintenance Support: Wendy Chun, Darren Chun, Kevin Chun; Food Service: James and Norma Acopan, Lucy Wong and June Tong. Special aloha to Directors and other members who helped. And MAHALO TO ALL SDDS members who attended this function to help us celebrate the BEGINNING OF THE YEAR 2016 in grand style.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Bits ‘N’ Pieces — from the editor

Here’s where the latest details and musings go about upcoming events at press time.

- Palolo Chinese Home Visitation — As per standard SDDS procedure, a sign up sheet will be put up at the SDDS Great Hall about 1-2 months before the event, set for Sunday, June 26, 2016. Those interested need to sign up as Chair Anna Chung needs to get a headcount for lunch.
- The Dragon Boat Races. Event set for July 30, 2016. Chair Tina Au indicates an information sign-up sheet will be posted on the events easels/bulletin boards at the entrance to the SDDS Great Hall. So, if you are a Dragon Boat Racing aficionado, come down and check or have someone check for you. Understand that last year, the SDDS dragon boat came in second.

Dragon Boat Races coming! July 30, 2016. Stay tuned.

June Kam Tong Presents See Dai Doo's Cooking Demonstration

Despite competition from the University of Hawaii Men's basketball game occurring at the same time, approximately 40 to 50 people attended the SDDS cooking demonstration on March 20, 2016, 1 pm, at the Great Hall. Those present witnessed the creation of a delicious three-course meal and tasted a full-size plate of samples with two scoops of mochi rice, three black bean sauce spare ribs and two dau lau.

Under the direction of Chef June Kam Tong (author of Popo's Kitchen 1 and 2), Stephanie Miwa and Normie Acopan started making sticky mochi rice. While the rice was cooking, our Vice President Leonard Kam and James Acopan created spare ribs with black bean sauce. In addition, they showcased how the spare ribs could be placed upon a bed of look fun for another dish. Another variation shown was the spare ribs stir-fried with bitter melon. As we waited in anticipation for the rice to be cooked, there was nothing wrong with having dessert first. Lucy Wong, D'Wayne Wong and Stephanie Miwa under the watchful instruction of June Tong made mochi balls rolled in coconut flakes, chopped peanuts and brown sugar for a sweet delight of dau lau. Samples were distributed to the audience on toothpicks. Stephanie Miwa and Normie Acopan completed the three-course meal with the sticky mochi rice by adding ham, baby shrimp, lup cheong and mushrooms to make the tasty treat.

Eight lucky winners won door prizes and had a choice to pick from two plates of spare ribs on a bed of look fun, three full size plates of food or three plates of dau lau.

"An oh so easy recipe, but oh so good!"

FLOUR MIXTURE

- 1 Lb Mochi Flour
- 15 Oz Water

TOPPING MIXTURE

- 1 Cup Shredded Coconut
- 1 Cup Chopped Peanuts
- 1 Tbsp Brown Sugar

1. Combine flour mixture and mix well. Pinch dough and form a small ball.
2. Boil a pot of water. Drop mochi balls into rapidly boiling water. When dough floats, remove with a slotted spoon.
3. Roll balls in topping mixture.

Below: Lucy Wong watches as D'Wayne Wong drops mochi balls into the boiling water, while Stephanie Miwa forms more balls of the sticky stuff.

Left: June Kam Tong looks on as VP Leonard Kam pours oil into wok held by James Acopan. Noticeably, both James and VP Leonard were very intent about their cooking as they sautéed the juicy spareribs in the black bean sauce.

Much thanks goes out to the above chefs, as well as Clifton Yim, Sharlene Chun, Donna Chang, Debbie Lum and Verna Lee who helped out in the kitchen. Once again thanks to June Kam Tong for her teaching and instructions, as well as the KitchenAid dish rack she donated to the SDDS kitchen.

Above: Bird's eye view — James Acopan shows his stir-fry technique as he puts finishing touches on his bitter melon with black bean sauce spareribs. They were mm-mmm good!

Next cooking demonstration on September 18, 2016, 1 pm, at the SDDS Great Hall will include Ip Jai (Mrs Li) , Kau Yuk with Taro (Charlene Chang), Vegetarian Noodles (Bixby Ho) and East-West stir-fry done by our President Wesley Fong, You don't want to miss it, so mark your calendars!

See Dai Doo Society Scholarships

by Wendy Mow, Education Committee Chair

SDDS offers graduating high school seniors and current college students scholarships each year. The amounts awarded vary each year depending on the number of applicants and amount available. We also award scholarships to students attending Chinese schools as well.

Eligible applicants are those undergraduate students attending or entering accredited universities or colleges whose ancestor or ancestors came to Hawaii from the historical See Dai Doo district in Zhongshan, Guangdong Province, China. Scholarship criteria include a minimum 3.3 grade point average, community service, two recommendations, a transcript and an application essay.

See Dai Doo Society College Scholarship applications for 2017 will be available from late April 2016. Hard copies of the application can be picked up from the See Dai Doo Society Great Hall (Please call the SDDS office — (808) 533-4756 — before coming down.).

Please check the SDDS website (www.seedaidoosociety.org) for more information and requirements. Deadline for submission of ALL documents is July 1, 2016 (postmarked).

See Dai Doo Society Chinese School Scholarships will be given out by the respective schools. Please inquire with the school for more information.

Dear Society Leader:

Re: 2016 Student Summer Camp

The Zhongshan Overseas Affairs Office has announced that the 2016 Student Summer Camp will be held in July 2016 in Zhongshan, China.

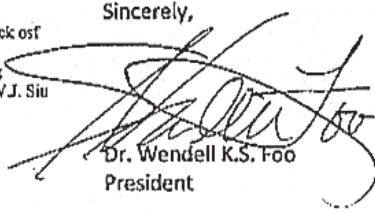

This approximately two week camp in mid-July is co-sponsored with the United Chinese Society of Hawaii and will give local students ages 16-26 years old an opportunity to learn Chinese history, arts and crafts and kung fu. Students will also be able to mingle with local Zhongshan students, visit historic sites and have a chance to root seek their parental villages.

For more information, please call Ms. Lani Kwong, Executive Assistant, at the United Chinese Society of Hawaii at 536-4621

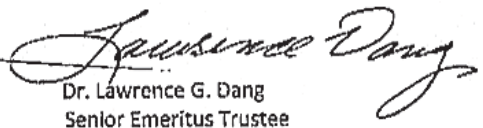

In a notice to follow, we will give exact dates, expenses and an interview schedule for student applicants. We will also at that time consider an adult student leader for the camp.

Please hold July 2016 open for this very educational experience in China co-sponsored by the Zhongshan Overseas Affairs Office.

Sincerely,

Dear Society Leader:

Subject: Model Chinese Mother and Father of the Year

The United Chinese Society every year for 60 years is currently searching for candidates for our 2016 Model Mother and Father of the Year.

The purpose of this annual project is to honor and give community-wide recognition to a Chinese Mother and Father, who by their dedication, hard work and integrity, have reared a successful family as evidenced by the character, education and accomplishments of their children. You are invited to submit your nominees by filling out the enclosed forms.

Only forms received by the United Chinese Society before 5:00 p.m., Saturday, April 2, 2016, will be eligible for consideration.

The nominees will be judged by a panel of leading citizens, and the winners will be honored at the annual banquet of our society in June.

Further information may be obtained by calling Ms. Lani Kwong, Executive Assistant of the United Chinese Society at 536-4621.
