

www.milduradrive.com
0419 27 1300

Mildura School of Driving

What if English is not my first language?

As part of your driving lesson plan, Martin will review communication and its impact on the lesson running smoothly. Where required, Martin may suggest an interpreter and discuss with you how this can be arranged. In many instances, student drivers have friends or family who are willing to take part in the lesson to assist with communication.