Who will be the primary handler/rider?

Name: _____

Age: _____ Height: _____ Weight: _____

Rider experience level

Beginner - Rider is new around equine, comfortable riding at a walk, still establishing balance and basic riding skills/aids.

Intermediate – Comfortable at all gates on a loose rein, has a working knowledge of equine behavior, herd dynamics, and movement.

Advanced – Able to read subtle cues from the equine on the ground and under saddle, understands balance, impulsion, and feel as its second nature.

Trainer – Has an advanced skill set plus several years of successfully teaching multiple types of green equines.

Wanted Equine level

Companion/Pet – Equine is not to be ridden, handler may not be a rider, but is comfortable with grooming, leading, and ground handling.

Beginner - Equine is calm and gentle, beginner / child could handle

Intermediate – Equine can be reactive in rare instances, occasionally tests rider and/or acts up (i.e. bucking or spooking)

Advanced - Equine can be spooky and/or unconfident; may continually test rider, act up, or have special needs

Trainer required - Equine is green or untrained/hot/very sensitive

For untrained Equines – training costs can exceed $400/month, are you planning to hire a trainer if you adopt a equine above your experience level?
