The best meal ever!

by Ann Redding

The word “love” is often used glibly. I “love” the color you painted your living room - or don’t you just “love” the way she designed the office?

Genuine “love,” the kind that lasts through thick and thin, is rooted in wanting what’s best for our “loved one,” even if that means putting their needs above our own.

A woman now in her sixties told me one way her father demonstrated his love and gratitude for her mom. After every dinner he’d say, “That is the best dinner I have ever had!” smiling at his wife. The children, now adults (and their father deceased) would groan, “Dad! That can’t be the “best.” Mom’s meals can’t keep getting better every day!”

“My dad was being sincere, I now understand,” the woman told me. “It was how he expressed his love and gratitude to his wife. It taught us a good lesson, which we didn’t fully comprehend as children.

Love needs nourishment, which this man obviously understood. Today, not many children see their parents show love or respect for each other.

Pornography has a long track record of poisoning love, and it plays a part in this tragic loss. Pornography is adultery with women who are not only exploited by the pornographer but by millions of men.

Pornography’s allure is now ubiquitous: Netflix, HBO, smart phones, mainstream magazines as well as those which are blatantly pornographic serve as constant temptations.

Sadly, few children today see their parents demonstrate love and gratitude toward each other. The “best meal ever” may be eaten while staring at a smart phone instead of one’s spouse.

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.”

1st Corinthians 13:4-5

A warning that bears repeating!

“Do not give pornographers the access to your children that they seek. They know that children and teens are most likely to find porn on phones, and that’s why they’ve made a gargantuan effort in recent years to create porn that can be viewed and streamed on mobile devices. They know how to access your children through a smart phone.”

“Don’t give them one.”

La mejor cena!

por Ann Redding

La palabra "amor" a menudo se usa con soltura. Por ejemplo, "Me encanta el color de tu cabello!"

Amor genuino, amor duradero, quiere lo mejor para el otro.

Una mujer de unos sesenta años me contó cómo su padre demostró su amor y gratitud por su madre. Después de cada cena, le decía a su esposa, con una sonrisa, "Esa fue la mejor cena de la historia!"

Los niños, ahora adultos, gimió, "Papa, no puede ser la mejor! Las cenas de Mami no pueden mejorar cada día!"

"Mi papá era sincero, ahora entiendo," la mujer me dijo. "Fue como el expresó su amor y gratitud a su esposa. Nos enseñó una buena lección. El amor necesita alimento, mi padre entendió claramente."

La pornografía venenos amor y su camino de destrucción es ancho. Netflix, HBO, la internet seducir y destruir.

Hoy, "la mejor cena" está comido en silencio mientras mira un celular en lugar de el cónyuge.

Ann Redding es presidenta del Christian Action League of Minnesota y editora del Beacon. Su dirección de correo electrónico es contactcalofmn@gmail.com

"El amor es paciente, es bondadosa. El amor no es envidioso ni jactancioso ni orgulloso. No se comporta con rudeza, no es egoista, no se enoja fácilmente, no guarda rencor."

1 Corintios 13:4-5

"La forma de amar cualquier cosa es darse cuenta de que podría perderse."

G. K. Chesterton, 1874 - 1936

Un mensaje que lleva repetición!

No dé a los pornógrafos el acceso a sus hijos que buscan. Saben que los niños y adolescentes son más propensos a encontrar porno en los teléfonos inteligentes y que hecho un esfuerzo gigantesca en los últimos años para crear porno que se puede ver y transmitir en dispositivos móviles.

Saben cómo acceder a sus hijos a través de teléfonos inteligentes. No darles uno. De: Las historias de terror son reales. No dar a sus hijos un teléfono inteligente.
