An Islander Who Cares

- Lifelong Shelter Island Resident and the first of his family to be born on Shelter Island. (Not technically a 'Harelegger' as he spent the first 5 days of life in Greenport hospital.)
- Schooled on Shelter Island from Mrs. Klenawicus's pre-school in Eel Town, 1974 through 12th grade, graduating in 1987.
- Studied developmental and cognitive psychology for two years at University of Helsinki, Finland.
- Dual major in Economics and Finance at Temple University, Philadelphia, PA Class of 1995.
- Licensed general contractor on Shelter Island since 1991.
- Successful Island businessman, self employed as a carpenter and furniture maker.
- A nurturing father with a 12-year-old in the Island school system.
- Passionate fisherman dedicated to protecting our water and bays.
