Hi, Happy Quilters!

The saying "March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb" has been proven half-true. We just have to wait for April to prove the saying this year. Three northeasters and one coming in...What a lion! We'll have to wait for April to prove the second half of that saying.

Now about April - we have our "Everything is Coming Up Quilts" Guild Quilt Show in Poquoson on April 7-8. Tricia Lent and Janet Dyer have been fantastic co-chairing the show, as have all the other members of the guild working on it. If you haven't volunteered, call up. And of course, don't forget to bring your PPQG membership card for a discount on your entrance fee.

The nominating committee is working hard on a slate of candidates. If you have a special talent or interest in helping the guild, please don't hesitate in letting the committee know. They are Janette Doucette, Linda O'Dell, Susan Waddles, Cathy and Mark Fowler and Candy Byrd (me).

As I am writing this, I hope you are all battened down and have all your fabric. I am working on my UFOS. What are you sewing?

Candy Byrd
President

Volunteers Needed!!

A Parliamentarian is needed for both the Day and Night Chapters. The role of the parliamentarian is to make sure we follow the proper procedures during the business part of our meetings each month. We follow Robert's Rules of Order so if you are familiar with those rules of order, this is the volunteer opportunity for you.

Thanks to Maggie Wampler for stepping up to help with Night Chapter Programs. Look for an announcement soon about local Workshops.

Please contact Gala Damato gala.damato@gmail.com or 757-746-0599, if you are interested in the Parliamentarian positions.

ARE YOU READY?

There is a WONDERFUL quilt show coming April 7 & 8 at Poquoson Middle School. A large group of fellow guild members have worked for months to make the show happen and it is going to be great! Are you entering a quilt? Thank you. Are you volunteering? Thank you. Will you attend and bring a friend or several? Thank you.

We need a little more from you. If you have something that could sit in one of the corners of the quilt racks, would you please bring it to the school between 3-5 on April 6? We had so many comments on how much that added to the show last time. What to bring? Something not more than 2-2 1/2' square...like a crock, a butter churn, an old fashioned high chair, a small wagon, a kid's rocker. Just something to dress up the corners a bit.

Thank you in advance for helping us out in so many ways. Remember this is YOUR quilt show.

Update on Service Projects

Thank you to those that brought in quilts, fabric hearts and pillowcases to the March meetings. We received four lap quilts, seven baby quilts and fifty fabric hearts. You ladies really like to make the pillowcases for the children with cancer at MCV Hospital in Richmond. At the day chapter meeting, I received 81 pillowcases. Fifty were made by Carolyn Evanoff. At the night chapter meeting, I received 35 pillowcases. Sixteen were made by Sherry Behun and Rosemary brought me eight more. These will go to the Blue Crab Quilt Company in Richmond in addition to the forty seven Denise Vassar took there in February. You can continue to support small service projects in the following ways:

Small baby quilts for families with need at Riverside Hospital and comfort quilts for babies in CHKD NICU palliative care. A good size for these quilts is approximately 30" x 36" or 26 inch square for the bereavement quilts.

Fabric hearts for Mothers with babies in NICU at Riverside and CHKD.

Full size pillowcases made with bright, happy novelty fabric are for children with cancer at MCV in Richmond. They should be made with 100% cotton fabric. Don't use flannel or fabric with glitter. It takes 3/4 of a yard of bright novelty fabric and about 1/4 yard contrasting fabric for the band. Instructions are on the web site and or use your favorite method of making pillowcases. Finished pillowcases will be taken to the Blue Crab Quilt Co. in Richmond for distribution at MCV Hospital.

Members of the Service Project Committee are Joan Cochran, Maggie Haley, Pat Winters, Brenda Smith and Gala Damato.

Day Chapter Programs

April showers bring quilt shows – to include a fabulous trunk show by Randee and Darrel Tassara from Williamsburg for our Day Program in April. Randee and Darrel have been quilters for several years. Randee from the age of 5, when she treadled her grandmother's machine for her. She did not actually start making her own quilts until she was in her 30's. Darrel, on the other hand, started making miniature quilts about 15 years ago. Although they do not have the same taste in quilts, they do work together on new baby quilts, graduation quilts, and wedding quilts for family members, plus comfort quilts for the community. Come enjoy their humorous presentation and rich display of double quilting talents, with quilts dating as far back as 1947!

And a future program note for your calendar: May's Day Meeting lecturer comes from the Northern Virginia area. Diane Henry is a thread specialist, and she will have a presentation about types of threads and their uses. More to come in the next newsletter.

also relatively new to quilting and she has learned that she doesn't need to buy everything that is available. She has started taking classes at the Community Center and has learned a lot through these classes. Tricia Lent shared her love of receiving in the mail a monthly surprise of different tools, fabrics and miscellaneous items. She shared with us what she gets in these boxes each month. Isobel Meekins shared some of her secrets in how to keep our fabric organized. One tip was when you buy fabric for a particular project and you don't want to forget what you bought it for, to use a pen to write on the selvage what pattern the fabric was bought for. She gave tips about different types of markers that are useful on fabric. Lots of interesting tips were shared by all.

- Meeting was adjourned.

Night Chapter Program for April

The April Night Chapter meeting is right after our Quilt Show. So we thought we would celebrate our successful Quilt Show and Mother's Day a month early. The program will be all about Motherhood. Members are asked to bring a quilt that was made by or for your Mother or Grandmother and tell us a little about it. In addition, we are asking members to bring in a baby quilt for CHKD and have a chance to win a bundle of Aurifil thread. These baby quilts can be from a 26 inch square to approximately 30 x 38. This will help CHKD NICU replenish their closet of comfort quilts.

Contact Gala Damato 872-6823 if you have questions.

At the Night Chapter in May, Lee Taylor will present a program called "What's your angle?" Lee is a PPQG member and owner of Sewlovelee in White Stone Virginia.

Free Table At Chapter Meetings

Please note that the "Free Table" we have at our meetings is for sewing and quilting items. Only bring things that you think your quilting friends will want. Check at the end of the meetings to see if your items were taken. If they are still on the table, please take them back with you.

Honor Quilts

On February 28th, Terri McHenry and Karen Whitley traveled to Ft. Belvoir in Washington, DC to distribute honor quilts. We greeted members attached to the Wounded Warrior Care Center. The wounded soldiers are there to transition back into service or into the civilian community as productive veterans.

The soldiers we met were from states along the eastern coast. We distributed twelve quilts to active duty wounded who were in the process of transitioning back to community life. They were impressed with the workmanship and thrilled that they were made specifically for them. Karen and I were honored to represent the PPQG in presenting these young men and women with your quilts.
