Last Week's Run Report

Location; Richmond Raceway

Hare; Cookie

Spills and Thrills On the Raceway ... !

A great turnout of Hashers paraded at the famous Richmond Raceway, now a luxury suburb. There was a nip in the air so jumpers (!) were the order of the day. The Hare, Cookie, gave some instructions for both runners and walkers and off we went, thundering hooves (err .... feet ...) As usual we went in eager anticipation of the drink stop. Couldn't believe how well the trail was marked, considering some of the previous dubious markings, and for walkers at least, there was no problem keeping on trail, most of the way.

The promised drink stop was ....well .... fantastic ... with one of the best Sangria's ever. Delish ... so worth getting to !

Only a gallop, trot and canter & it was on to the home straight and walkers were back first by a furlong ! (Oh droll...!)

Seeing as Hashing is not competitive, it was of no consequence who was back first, (unless you had a bet on ...) just that we were all back in time for the circle. The run was judged with high marks from all. Of course, there were the usual tardy's (scratched were you Butless .... ?) long time no see's & visitors (maybe ...)

Some people got significant awards >>>> INSERT YOU NAME HERE <<<<< coz I forgot ...!!! Bell Boy, Spackle, Dirty Deeds, AC/DC, & X. Rated were all presented with their 200 run Mermaid Mugs which have been in the pipeline for some time.... There was again a mystery (bet) RA so charges were short and mostly from the pack so odds on *favorites* got a down-down (Oh stop it !) There were true story tellers and jokers and nags, but we were hungry so we "neighed" through the song and got our noses in the feed bags. Yummy pulled pork, beef & chicken rolls with salads and sauces. Fab as usual Cookie, thanks !

On-On

PS. For those of you who read the run reports ... A heads-up ... For my run on 7th March the theme is going to be BAD TASTE FASHION ...

Guys - you usually excel at this but ladies.... its quite hard to find a good miss-match. Dress in things you always meant to put in op shop bags ....
