Going to Kindergarten!

By: Smartie Pants

Summer is almost over and it is time to go to kindergarten!

I'm so excited to go to school
like a big kid!

I'm a little scared too. It is O.K.
to be a little scared. Everything is new to you, but school will be great!

I get to meet my new teacher.
My teacher is ready to teach me a lot of new skills in reading and math!

I will have other teachers too!
They teach art, music, physical education, and library/media.

I will also meet my new principal.
My principal is there to make sure everyone is safe and happy.

When I get to school, I will have to unpack my book bag and give any notes or papers to my teacher.

I will have to put my lunch in the right spot or sign up for lunch with my teacher.

I will have to sit in my seat and follow my teacher's directions.

When I am at school, I will work with my friends to learn letters and numbers.

I will meet a lot of new friends at school to play and work with.

My teacher will also read me many great stories.

In the middle of my day I get to eat lunch with my friends.

I will also get to play with my friends during recess.

At the end of the school day, I will pack up my book bag to go home.

My teacher will make sure I know how I'm going home and get me to the right place.

Then I will go home and tell my family all about my fun day!

Kindergarten is going to be
