Celebrating its 120th birthday in 2018, 51 North Prairie Street, in downtown Galesburg, was once in fact 49 North Prairie Street. It was the original gym for Galesburg's first YMCA, built in 1898, complete with a weight room in the basement, a basketball court on the main floor, and even a running track around the top of the building. Since then, it has been the home to two local radio stations, a pizzeria and steak house, as well as the victim of three separate fires. Now under new ownership, our new menu is Creative, Colorful & Fresh...
