residents and visitors of the enduring commitment that these individuals and organizations have made to Ottawa. "The Wall of Inspiration is about bringing together outstanding volunteers and celebrating the positive imprint their work has left on our community. Beyond our wishes to recognize their valuable work, we also want to inspire the rest of the community to become involved and play their own role in making Ottawa a stronger community," says Michael Allen, President and CEO, United Way Ottawa.

Tommy Glatzmayer was joined by his sister, Melanie, left, as he received the United Way Community Builder Award from Boom 99.7 FM radio personality Dylan Black at Algonquin College last Wednesday.

Manotick fire

Members of the Manotick Fire Department fought a blaze in the village last week that caused $200,000 in damages to the home and $50,000 to the contents. One man was taken to hospital, while he and an elderly woman were displaced from their home.
