Just a note ...

Dear Sam.

Sorry I didn't get a chance to see you. However, my girls said you did a good job, so that's what matters.

Thanks a lot and if we need more painting, I'll keep you in mind.

Rae

There was nothing typical about hiring someone to paint my brothers barn. He was in Florida, I was on Long Island. I had wanted to have this painting project done for him when he came back up north for a family reunion. Everything had to be accomplished without ever meeting the painter in person. From the first time I spoke to Tom Kellogg, I knew he was the right person to pull off this surprise. I was impressed by his confidence; I knew right off the bat that he was a professional. Since I had never hired a painter before, he reminded me that not every company was credible and that hiring individuals who probably painted as a second income, might not take the job seriously enough. He wanted to be sure I didn't waste the money I had put aside for this good intention. When the work was completed, I was able to take the time off and travel to Catskill to see the finished project. It was outstanding! Even the neighbors commented on the way Tom and his crew went about their work. To put the icing on the cake, Tom took before and after photos of the barn so I could e-mail them to my brother in Florida. What can I say; He and his wife were thrilled! All in all, it was a great experience! Never once did I lose any sleep wondering what would go wrong, hiring a company, and then not being there at the sight. In the end, I understood why Tom Kellogg is so confident in his work. Thank you Kelloggs Painting, for helping me pull off this wonderful surprise. I can't say enough!! Except..God Bless You. We hired Kellogg's Painting Company to refurbish our 40-year old log house in May and we are delighted with the results. It looks almost like new! They washed it, bleached it, checked it all over for mold, mildew and bugs. Then they coated it with a natural stain of Sikkens. It took only 4 days for the whole, huge job. They followed the contract to the letter, were extremely pleasant to deal with, worked hard and carefully, and left us with a beautiful job well done. We recommend Kellogg's Painting Company to anyone.

Please write your comments as to how we did on your project	We can't say enough about Thomas and his entire crew. And we weren't even at the house when they did the job! We do know (from our neighbors) that they started bright and early every morning, and the entire job (2800 square foot house with multiple angles) was complete in a matter of days. We saw the results this weekend, and the house looks fantastic! We highly recommend Kellogg's Painting.
