President's message ~ July 2013

Where does the time go? The year is half over and I have only accomplished half of what I've wanted to do so far this year. I feel as though I just sat down and finished the last president's letter for the newsletter, and it is time for another. The calendar says it is the first day of summer and the heat is telling us that is correct. I don't mind the heat as much as the cold, but I wish the heat would come with much less humidity. Humidity and wind chill are words I really dislike.

Congratulations to all of the members of the club that have competed at regionals so far this year. Julie Koch has kept us informed on Facebook of how well most of you did. You can send her your results from the out-of-state shows you attend and she will put them on Facebook.

Good luck to everyone who has remaining regionals to attend and to the youth of AHAN that will be competing the end of this month at Youth Nationals. Pictures and results can be emailed to Julie so everyone knows how you did.

We will be at the Lancaster Event Center in August for the Lancaster Super Show Aug. 10 and 11. These one-day shows are Region 6/Region 8 qualifying shows and also AHAN high point shows. Entries for the shows are due Aug. 1. The premium book is on the AHAN website. There are some classes in the schedule that are open to ALL breeds.

Last year we had a few horses other than our Arabian/Half-Arabians participate. And remember, you may show your Arabian/Half-Arabian in the all-breed classes. Those classes are not restricted, so anyone may show in them. Holding the all-breed classes during our show gives other horse owners a chance to see the beauty of the breed we all love so much. The premium book has entry forms for Saturday, Sunday and all-breed classes. Make sure you are filling out the correct entry form for the day(s) you are showing.

The AHAN Royalty contest will be held on Saturday, Aug.10. during the show. Anyone with questions about the contest should contact Sheri Savig.

Hoping to see you all in August. If you want to volunteer to help out during the show, please contact me.

HORSE WANTED: Hi, everyone. I used to be a member on your club years ago. I am 64 years old now. I am looking for an older Arabian that is well broke, something that is calm and does not jig. I had an accident and now need a smoother-riding horse. Does anyone in the club have a nice, well broke gelding or mare that they want to go to a loving home? I would like something around 13 -15 years old. Cannot afford very much, but have 40 acres and good feed, and TLC.

Cathy Racicky, 308-430-5905.
