CARF

Congratulations CFC for achieving another 3-year accreditation. A special thanks to all the staff who made this possible. The recommendations given will help us to improve services and we look forward to another successful CARF accreditation in 2019, where we will be eligible for a 10-year accreditation.

Let's Welcome the New Staff

- Kent Williamson
- Maria Baca
- Jaqueline Kane
- Rose Alvarez
- Pearl Quintana
- Judith Enriquez

The new Employment Supervisor

- Lydia Lucero

CFC Community Integrated Employment Program has been awarded the 2016 Exemplary Supported Employment Agency Award by the Partners for Employment. Partners for Employment is a conglomerate of the Center for Development and Disability. CFC has been working on a pilot project involving the discovery process as a tool for finding meaningful employment. Tanya Baker-McCue, Director of Partners for Employment, in conjunction with Darlene Fatorusso recognized CFC for their perseverance in creating meaningful job opportunities in the Albuquerque Metro Region using this process. Christina Gonzales, Director of Community Integration, accepted the award on October 4, 2016 during the Southwest Conference on Disability.

CFC Website:

www.mycfcn.com

CFC now has a website that can be accessed at www.mycfcn.com.

The website gives information about CFC services, commitment and mission. If you are interested in obtaining more information about services offered please visit the contacts tab and fill in the information, someone will be in touch. Also, if anyone is interested in joining the CFC team the website has a tab labeled Employment Opportunities and you can view open positions or just fill out an application and return it to any one of our locations.

CFC has participated in the DDSD and Carino art shows. The individuals were able to sell their beautiful art work and earn some extra money. There are still some items left for sale and if you are interested please contact us.

Broadway Show "City Lights"

The CFC Performing and Visual Arts Site at Montano will be doing a Broadway Show called "City Lights". The performance will be on Wednesday February 8, 2017 and Thursday February 9, 2017 from 1:00 pm to 2:15 pm. If you would like to attend, please RSVP as seating is limited and fills up quick. "City Lights" follows the lives of young dancers fighting to live their dreams. This story is told through a collaboration of dialogue, music and movement. Everyone in the site has been participating in creating each scene and costumes.

If you are interested in attending the show, please RSVP with Chris Smith or Anna Lopez at 505-322-2403. If you miss this show don't worry, we will be having more plays soon. Until then, we have artwork displayed at the center for sale. The artwork was conceived and designed by all the individuals and Chris Smith at CFC Montano. If you wish to purchase any of the artwork, please contact Chris Smith at the Montano Center.

A special thanks to all the stakeholders, individuals and employees for giving their all to make CFC a great facility with outstanding services.
