Last Week's Run Report

The Quiet Achiever.....

For a Pommie to set the Aussie Day Run is indeed BRAVE. Then again Nilly Willy is known for his Daring and Chivalry.

We were given some instructions and with a (right royal) wave of the hand, off we ventured towards a marked trail and a promised drink stop. It was evident from the start that something was amiss ... as the runners were soon milling about like ants, Unfortunately, this went on for some time and as the walkers caught up it was getting embarrassing for them so they took off in some direction with D-Cell coming up the rear ... (well at the back then ...) with chalk and madly marked trail (phantom trail ...) It was enough to convince some of us that we were on trail but sadlywe were NOT !

An executive decision was made and the pack split upsome in the direction of the start - some following the runners. Not sure what happened but we think Nilly is still waiting for some of the walkers to turn up at his drink stop Oh dear still we lost no-one and all returned to the start.

The circle was called and, of course, Nilly Willy got charged for absolutely everything including setting the run on a bicycle with trail markings far and few between ! As the RA had returned from (in her words - important overseas business-) she was in fine form and charged (rightly so !) all the RA stand-ins over the past month or so. Things got a bit heated with so many charges that Slushy and others had to be put on the ice to cool down ! All those dressed up in Aussie Day garb were charged as were a couple of visitors and late arrivals. All drank their down-downs with gusto and so on, till the GM had to put a stop to the merriment as nosh was ready. Song sung we headed to the BBQ area for a truly traditional Aussie Lancashire Hot Pot, Cane Toad in the Hole, Mushy P's, Mint Saws, Grrr-aavy and, piece de resistance * Spotted Dick* Cor blimey, ee by gum, what a feast ! It were GRAND so thanks to Nilly Willy and helper you did a super job !
