Pastoral Letter

Since we canceled our in-person worship, church events, and other ministries, we have had only one ongoing ministry: Drive-Thru Food Pantry. In April, we served 30 visits of families in total. In detail, 15 different families visited our church and received food bags. Of the 15 families, 11 were new families—9 from Nokesville, 1 from Manassas, and 1 from Midland. In the beginning of April, we had a few visits, but we had 8 visits on the third week and 15 visits on the fourth weeks. Since we started this ministry, I was worried about lack of food because we cannot order food for the food bank. However, God filled our lack of food through a lot of Nokesville neighbors. They constantly stopped by with canned and dried food as well as cleaning supplies. I realize that our food pantry is not our ministry but God's ministry. God wanted to feed His hungry people through us. We will keep opening our food pantry even though we still cannot order food for the food bank, so we have to rely on our neighbors' donations. In May, we will witness how God works through us.
