2016 Adjudicators

Janet Scott-Hoyt – Piano

Alberta-born pianist Janet Scott Hoyt is a performer and pedagogue with a wealth of experience on the concert stage and in the teaching studio. A professor at the University of Alberta from 1998-2014, she supervised a graduate program in Pedagogy and was the Associate Chair of Undergraduate Studies. In 2010 she won the prestigious "Rutherford Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching" - a university-wide award which acknowledges outstanding commitment to undergraduate teaching. She is now a Professor Emerita and is the Artistic Director of the Edmonton Recital Society.

A highly sought-after collaborative pianist, Ms. Scott-Hoyt has performed across Canada, the United States and in Europe (Paris, London, Prague). She is known for her sensitive musicality and collaborative skills. These traits have allowed her to share the stage with internationally renowned artists including violinists Sydney Harth, Oskar Shumsky; flautists Robert Aiken and Jeanne Baxtresser; horn players Barry Tuckwell and David Hoyt; and cellists Shauna Rolston, Raphael Wallfisch, Tanya Prochazka and Tsuyoshi Tsutsumi. In many of her performances, she has premièred works by acclaimed composers Violet Archer, Srul Irving Glick, Malcolm Forsyth and Oskar Morawetz.

An active recording artist, Janet Scott-Hoyt's discography includes five recordings with some of Canada's finest musicians including Erika Raum, David Hoyt, Martin Riseley, Tanya Prochzka and Lidia Khaner. These recordings are often heard on radio across Canada, including CBC radio. Ms Scott-Hoyt is committed to sharing her wealth of knowledge with the Canadian musical community. She is in great demand as an adjudicator, coach and workshop clinician across Canada. She holds a Masters Degree in Piano Performance from the University of Alberta where she studied with Robert Stangeland, supported by numerous scholarships and awards. Further studies were done in Europe with Cecile Genhart and at The Banff Centre with Gyorgy Sebok and Menahem Pressler.

Leanne Maitland – Strings

Edmonton-based violist Leanne Maitland is an active chamber musician, orchestral player, and soloist. This season, she is playing regularly with the Edmonton Symphony and the Enterprise Quartet. Recent projects include touring Europe with the Obsessions Octet, Bicycle Symphony at the Kaleido Festival, a recital on the Holy Trinity Concert Series, alt-folk band Dead Red Pine, and organizing Phil Kline's Unsilent Night. She has also performed with Alberta Baroque Ensemble, and at the Citadel Theatre. She has music degrees from the University of Alberta and the Eastman School of Music, and an Artist Diploma from McGill University. Leanne teaches violin and viola private and group classes at the Society for Talent Education in Edmonton, as well as private lessons at Taylor Conservatory and Alberta College Conservatory.

Laurelie Nattress – Band/Instrumental/Handbells

Laurelie Nattress is a southern Alberta native, born in Lethbridge and raised in Milk River. She holds bachelor's degrees in Science, Music, and Education from the University of Alberta, a graduate diploma in Wind Band Literature and Conducting from the University of Calgary, and a master's degree in Band Conducting from the University of Oregon.

Laurelie's teaching experience includes all levels of musicians, from kindergarten through university as well as adult students. In 2010, she retired as the longest serving conductor and music director of the St. Albert Community Band, an organization that received recognition and awards at local, provincial, and national levels.

Laurelie has been active as an adjudicator, teacher, private instructor, and saxophonist. She is a member of the Edmonton Musicians' Association, the Alberta Band Association, the Alberta Teachers' Association and Phi Beta Mu, an international honorary organization of band directors.

Sarah Jane Schaub – Vocal

Sarah Schaub completed her Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance at the University of Alberta in 2010, and an Artist's Diploma in Musical Theatre from Randolph Academy in 2003. Sarah has worked as a performer, adjudicator and educator throughout Canada. Selected performances include Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel as Gretel, Handel's Serse in which she played the title role, Dido in Purcell's Dido and Aeneas, Handel's Messiah with the Regina Symphony Orchestra and the Okanagan Festival Singers, Bach's Cantata 209 and a performance of the Benedictus in Haydn's Little Organ Mass with the Alberta Baroque Orchestra. Sarah has also performed as Soprano Soloist in many choral works including Haydn's Nelson Mass, Schubert's Mass in G, Orff's Carmina Burana, and both Vivaldi's and Poulenc's Gloria, working with such groups as Mercury Opera, the Scona Chamber Singers, Pro Coro Canada, the Madrigal Singers, Da Camera Singers, Luminous Voices, and the Richard Eaton Singers. Selected Musical Theatre credits include The Witch in Alberta Opera's Rapunzel, Helena in the Mystery of Edwin Drood, and Lucinda in Into the Woods. Sarah teaches Choir and Musical Theatre at Archbishop Jordan High School in Sherwood Park, Alberta.

Heather Bedford-Clooney – Choral/Recorder/Orff Ensembles

Heather Bedford-Clooney has a BEd in Music, an ARCT (voice), an ATCL and a Licentiate in Speech and Drama from Trinity College, London. She has done graduate work at the University of Alberta, Dartmouth University and the Westminster Choir College.

Ms. Bedford-Clooney has maintained a voice studio in Edmonton for thirty years. Her students have competed at the local, provincial and national level of the festival movement. She is the Artistic Director of the Edmonton Columbian Choirs and conducts Chanteuses which has been a finalist twice in the CBC Amateur Choir Competition. She is also the conductor of the Festival Singers of Sherwood Park.

She is currently the Executive Director of the Edmonton Kiwanis Music Festival. Ms. Bedford-Clooney received the Richard S. Eaton Award from the Alberta Choral Federation at the 2008 Alberta Music Conference.
