Construction Work Rules & Regulations

All Shareholders and visitors shall observe and abide by all Breakwater Towers' policies, as well as state, city and county codes and regulations. Failure to observe and abide by these policies, codes, and regulations may result in non-approval or stoppage of work and additional expenses incurred by the Shareholder, for which Breakwater Towers accepts no responsibility or liability.

- All work requires Shareholder to complete "BT Application to Make Alterations and/or Improvements".
- All workers (contractors and Shareholders) are responsible for all clean up of all activities.
- Messy work, work creating tracking dust, work with concrete or other filthy materials require drop cloth on the catwalk and foyer.
- Work related vehicles may park in front of the building to unload or load materials only.
- All workers must only use Elevator 1. While working when maintenance staff is not present, owners are responsible to put up and take down elevator pads.
- Work may not begin prior to 8:00am and must be completed by 5:00pm, Monday – Friday, and 3:00pm on Saturday. Work is not permitted on Sundays. Work involving excessive noise or loud disturbance may only begin after 9:00am.
- Construction related trash and bulk garbage can not be put in the Corporation dumpster. The dumpsters are for household trash ONLY. REMOVAL FROM THE PROPERTY of all construction debris, such as old cabinets, doors, appliances, plumbing fixtures, plaster and furniture, is the responsibility of the shareholder and their contractor.
- If new floor is being installed, Building Superintendent must inspect to ensure proper insulation (cork) is utilized.
- All contractors performing work in the building must be properly licensed and insured and must present proof to lead concierge prior to commencement of work.
- When required, proper Building Permits must be obtained and supplied to Management upon request prior to the start of any work.
- No construction work such as cutting tile, wood or sheetrock, is to be performed on the walkways, balconies or elevator lobbies. Any work required outside of unit must be done in the designated work area located outside the north side dumpster room or other area designated and approved by management.
- A $500 deposit may be required at the request of Management.
- Contractors must utilize their equipment for transporting materials. The corporation's carts can not be used by anyone for hauling construction materials, debris, tools, etc.

BREAKWATER TOWERS CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION OF CORPORATION

Section 1. The name of this corporation is BREAKWATER TOWERS CORPORATION. Its principal office is located at 1013 Centre Road, Wilmington, Delaware 19805

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE

Section 1. The purpose of this corporation is to provide its members with housing on a non-profit basis consonant with the provisions set forth in its Certificate of Incorporation.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility. Any natural person approved by at least two (2) Board of Directors shall be eligible for membership.

Section 2. Application for Membership. Application for membership shall be presented in person to the Board of Directors and all such applications shall be acted upon promptly by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Apartment Deposits. All deposits received from applicants shall be deposited promptly without deduction in a special account to be designated "Escrow Account to Membership in Breakwater Towers Corporation", with a federally insured banking institution approved by the Board of Directors located in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Such funds shall be subject to withdrawal or transfer to the account of the corporation only upon certification by the President and Secretary of the corporation to the above-named bank that:

- (a) The Purchase Agreement of a named applicant has been terminated pursuant to its terms and such withdrawal is required to repay the amount paid by him under such agreement.

Section 4. Members. The members shall consist of the incorporators as have been approved for membership by the Board of Directors and who have paid for their membership and received membership certificates as well as Certificates of Occupancy for their unit.

Section 5. Transfer of Membership. Except as provided herein, membership shall not be transferable.

- (a) Death of a Member. If, upon death of a member, his membership in the corporation passes by will or intestate distribution to a member of his immediate family, such legatee or distribution may, by assuming the written terms of the Occupancy Agreement within sixty (60) days after member's death, and paying all amounts due thereunder, become a member of the corporation. If member dies and an obligation is not assumed in accordance with the foregoing, then the corporation shall have the option to purchase the membership from the deceased member's estate in the manner provided in paragraph (b) of the Section, written notice of the death being equivalent to notice of intention to withdraw. If the corporation does not exercise such option, the provisions of paragraph (c) of this Section shall be applicable, the references to "member" therein to be construed as references to the legal representative of the deceased member.
- (b) Option of Corporation to Purchase. If a member desires to sell his membership in the corporation and has a written offer from any third party, he shall notify the Corporation in writing of such notice and also attach a copy of the offer to sell and the corporation shall have an option for a period of thirty (30) days thereafter to purchase the membership under the same terms and conditions as set forth in the aforementioned offer. It is understood and agreed that the corporation has the option and not the obligation to purchase the member's membership and Occupancy Agreement. The purchase by the corporation of the membership will immediately terminate the member's rights and the member shall forthwith vacate the premises.
- (c) Procedure Where Corporation Does Not Exercise Option. If the corporation waives in writing its right to purchase the membership under the foregoing option, or if the corporation fails to exercise such option within the thirty day period, the member may sell his membership to any person who has been duly approved by the corporation as a member. All amounts due the corporation shall be paid by the member or his/her estate until such time that their interest has been divested.

Section 6. Termination of Membership. In the event the corporation has, pursuant to the provisions of the Membership Agreement /Occupancy Agreement terminated the rights of a member under said Membership Agreement/Occupancy Agreement and repossessed the dwelling unit, the retiring member shall be required to deliver promptly to the corporation his membership and his Membership Agreement/ /Occupancy Agreement, both endorsed in such a manner as may be required by the corporation. The corporation shall thereupon at its election either (1) repurchase said membership at its current fair market value as determined by the corporation and established by the mean average of three independent appraisers or (2) proceed with reasonable diligence to effect a sale of the retiring member's rights under such membership to a purchaser and at a sales price acceptable to the corporation. The retiring member shall be entitled to receive the current fair market value (if the corporation has exercised election (1) above) or the sales price (if the corporation has exercised option (2) above) but in either case less the following amounts (The determination of such amounts by the corporation to be conclusive):

- (a) Any amounts due to the corporation from the member under the Membership Agreement/Occupancy Agreement;
- (b) The cost or estimated cost of all deferred maintenance, including painting, redecoration, floor finishing, and such repairs and replacements as are deemed necessary by the corporation to place the dwelling unit in suitable condition for another occupant; and
- (c) Legal and other expenses incurred by the corporation in connection with the default of such member and the resale of his membership.

Section 7. Current Fair Market Value. Whenever the corporation elects to purchase the membership as set forth in Article III, Section 6 of these By-Laws, the term "Current Fair Market Value" shall be understood to mean the mean average of three independent appraisers as determined by the corporation.

Section 8. Lien. The corporation shall have a lien on the membership in order to secure payment of any sums which shall be due or become due from the members thereof for any reason whatsoever, including any sums due under any membership agreements/Occupancy Agreements.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the membership shall be held at the principal office or place of business of the corporation or at such other suitable place convenient to the membership as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The annual meetings of the corporation shall be held on the 1st Monday of February each year. At such meeting there shall be elected by ballot of the members a Board of Directors in accordance with the requirements of Section 3 of Article V of these By-Laws. The members may also transact such other business of the corporation as may properly come before them.

Section 3. Special Meetings. It shall be the duty of the President to call a special meeting of the corporation as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors or upon a petition signed by twenty percent of the members having been presented to the Secretary. The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice unless by consent of four-fifths of the members present, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail a notice of each annual or special meeting, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place where it is to be held, to each member of record, at his address as it appears on the membership book of the corporation, or if no such address appears, at his last known place of address, at least 15 but not more than 45 days prior to such meeting. The mailing of a notice in the manner provided in this Section shall be considered notice served.

Section 5. Quorum. The presence, either in person or by proxy, of a majority of the voting interests of record of the corporation shall be requisite for, and shall constitute a quorum for, the transaction of business at all meetings of members.

Section 6. Adjourned Meetings. If any meeting of members cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may, except as otherwise provided by law, adjourn the meeting to a time not less than forty-eight hours from the time the original meeting was called, and those who attend such an adjourned meeting, although less than a majority of the membership, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose or purposes of said meeting, provided at least 25% of the membership is present either in person or by proxy.

Section 7. Voting. At every meeting of the members, each member present, either in person or by proxy, shall have the right to cast one vote on each question and never more than one vote, without regard to the membership standing in the name of the member on the books of the corporation. The vote of the majority of those present, in person or by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of statute or of the Certificate of Incorporation or of these By-Laws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control.

Section 8. Proxies. A member may appoint any other member as a proxy. Any proxy must be filed with the secretary before the appointed time of each meeting. No proxy, limited or general, shall be used in the election of Board Members, however, limited and general proxies may be used to establish a quorum. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting and any lawfully adjourned meeting thereof.

Section 9. Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the members shall be as follows:

- (a) Roll Call.
- (b) Proof of notice of meeting or waiver of notice
- (c) Reading of minutes of preceding meeting
- (d) Reports of officers.
- (e) Reports of committees.
- (f) Appointment of inspectors of election.
- (g) Election of directors.
- (h) Unfinished business.
- (i) New business.

ARTICLE V

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Qualification. The affairs of the corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors composed of 7 persons, the majority of whom shall be members in the corporation.

Section 2. Powers and Duties. The Board of Directors shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and may do all such acts and things as are not by law or by these By-Laws directed to be exercised and done by the members. The powers of the Board of Directors shall include but not be limited.

- (a) to accept or reject all applications for membership and admission to occupancy of a dwelling unit in the cooperative housing project, either directly or through an authorized representative;
- (b) to establish monthly carrying charges prescribed in Occupancy Agreement, based on an annual operating budget formally adopted by such Board;
- (c) to authorize in their discretion patronage refunds from residual receipts when and as reflected in the annual report prescribed in the Certificate of Incorporation; and
- (d) to promulgate such rules and regulations pertaining to the use and occupancy of the premises as may be deemed proper and which are consistent with these By-Laws, the Occupancy Agreement and the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 3. Directors, Election and Term of Office. The directors will be elected by the membership to serve a term of three (3) years, The directors shall hold office until their successors have been elected. All elections of the Board Members shall be conducted in accordance with these Bylaws and applicable provisions of Chapter 719, Florida Statutes as same presently exists or may be amended from time to time.

Section 4. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors caused by any reason other than the removal of a director by a vote of the membership shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining directors, even though they may constitute less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a director until a successor is elected by the members at the next annual meeting.

Section 5. Removal of Directors. Any one or more of the directors elected by members may be removed with or without cause at any time by a vote of the majority of the entire membership of the corporation at any regular or special meeting duly called, and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any director whose removal has been proposed by the members shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

Section 6. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to directors for their services as directors. No remuneration shall be paid to a director for services performed by him for the corporation in any other capacity, unless a resolution authorizing such remuneration shall have been unanimously adopted by the Board of Directors before the services are undertaken. A director may not be an employee of the corporation.

Section 7. Organization Meeting. The first meeting of a newly elected Board of Directors shall be held within ten (10) days of election at such place as shall be fixed by the directors at the meeting at which such directors were elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly elected directors in order legally to constitute such meeting, providing a majority of the whole Board shall be present.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined, from time to time, by a majority of the directors, but at least two such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, personally or by mail, telephone or facsimile at least three (3) days prior to the day named for such meeting.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on three days notice to each director, given personally or by mail, telephone or facsimile which notice shall state the time, place (as hereinabove provided) and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of at least three directors.

Section 10. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board of Directors, any director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 11. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Directors. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 12. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors shall require that all officers and employees of the corporation handling or responsible for corporate funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the corporation.

BREAKWATER TOWERS CORPORATION

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this ____ day of, _____ 200__ by and between BREAKWATER TOWERS CORPORATION, (hereinafter referred to as the (Corporation), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and _____ (hereinafter referred to as Member);

WHERE AS, the corporation has been formed for the purpose of constructing, owning and operating a cooperative housing project to be located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida with the intent that its membership shall have the right to occupy the dwelling units thereof under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth; and

WHERE AS, the Member is the owner and holder of a membership in the corporation and has a bona fide intention to reside in the project;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of ten Dollars ($10.00) to each of the parties paid by the other party, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, the corporation hereby lets to the member, and the member hereby hires and takes from the corporation dwelling unit number # _____ located at, 1900 S. Ocean Dr. Ft. Lauderdale Florida 33316

TO HAVE AND HOLD said dwelling unit unto the member, his executors, administrators and authorized assigns, on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the corporate Charter and By-Laws of the corporation and any rules and regulations of the corporation now or hereafter adopted pursuant thereto, from the date of this agreement, for a term terminating on this ____ day of _____, renewable thereafter for successive three year periods under the conditions provided for herein, provided that member shall continue to be a member in good standing.

ARTICLE 1. MONTHLY CARRYING CHARGES

Commencing at the time indicated in ARTICLE 2 hereof, the member agrees to pay to the corporation a monthly sum referred to herein as "Carrying Charges", equal to one-twelfth of the member's proportionate share of the sum required by the corporation as estimated by its Board of Directors to meet its annual expenses including but not limited to the following items:

- (a) The cost of all operating expenses of the project and services furnished.
- (b) The cost of necessary management and administration.
- (c) The amount of all taxes and assessments levied against the project of the corporation or which it is required to pay, and ground rent, if any.

- (d) The cost of fire and extended coverage insurance on the project and such other insurance as the corporation may effect or as may be required by any mortgage on the project, if applicable.
- (e) The cost of furnishing water, electricity, heat, gas, garbage and trash collection, and other utilities, if furnished by the corporation.
- (f) All reserves set up by the Board of Directors, including the general operating reserve and the reserve for replacements and improvements to the Corporate property.
- (g) The estimated cost of repairs, maintenance and replacements of the project property to be made by the corporation.
- (h) The amount of principal, interest, mortgage insurance premiums and other required payments on the hereinafter mentioned insured mortgage if applicable.
- (i) Any other expenses of the corporation approved by the Board of Directors, including deficiencies, if any, for prior and future periods.

The Board of Directors shall determine the Carrying Charges from time to time. Said sums shall be estimated on an annual basis and divided by the number of months remaining in the then current fiscal year; but in no event shall the member be charged with more than his proportionate share thereof as determined by the Board of Directors.

Until further notice from the corporation, the monthly Carrying Charges for the abovementioned dwelling unit shall be $ _____ / Month. Late charges apply from the 5th of the month at the rate of $1.00 per day.

ARTICLE 2. WHEN PAYMENT OF CARRYING CHARGES TO COMMENCE.

After thirty days' notice by the corporation to the effect that the dwelling unit is available for occupancy, or upon acceptance of occupancy, whichever is earlier, the member shall make a payment for carrying charges covering the unpaid balance of the month. Thereafter, the member shall pay carrying charges in advance on the first day of each month.

ARTICLE 3. PATRONAGE REFUNDS.

The corporation agrees on its part that it will refund or credit to the member within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year, such sums as may have been collected in anticipation of expenses which are in excess of the amount needed for expenses of all kinds, including reserves, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 4. MEMBER'S OPTION TO RENEW.

It is covenanted and agreed that the term herein granted shall be extended and renewed from time to time by and against the parties hereto for further periods of three years each from the expiration of the term herein granted, upon the same covenants and agreements as herein contained unless: (1) notice of the member's election not to renew shall have been given to the corporation in writing at least four months prior to the expiration of the then current term, and (2) the member shall have on or before the expiration of said term (a) endorsed his membership for transfer in blank and deposited same with the corporation, and (b) met all his obligations and paid all amounts due under this agreement up to the time of said expiration, and (c) vacated the premises, leaving same in good state of repair. Upon compliance with provisions (1) and (2) of this Article, the member shall have no further liability under this agreement and shall be entitled to no payment from the corporation.

ARTICLE 5. PREMISES TO BE USED FOR RESIDENTIAL PURPOSES

ONLY.

The member(s)/owner(s) shall occupy the dwelling unit covered by this agreement as a private dwelling for himself and his immediate family, and for no other purpose, and may enjoy the use, in common with the other members of the corporation, of all community property and facilities of the project, so long as he continues his membership in the corporation, occupies his dwelling unit and abides by the terms of this agreement. For the purposes of this Article, "immediate family" shall mean and refer to a member/owner's spouse, children, grandchildren, parents, grandparents, sisters and brothers.

The member shall not permit or suffer anything to be done or kept upon said premises which will increase the rate of insurance on the building, or on the contents thereof, or which will obstruct or interfere with the rights of other occupants, or annoy them by unreasonable noises or otherwise, nor will he commit or permit any nuisance on the premises or commit or suffer any immoral or illegal act to be committed thereon. The member shall comply with all of the requirements of the Board of Health and of all other governmental authorities with respect to the said premises. If by reason of the occupancy or use of said premises by the member the rate of insurance on the building shall be increased, the member shall become personally liable for the additional insurance premiums.

The number of permanent residents per apartment shall be as follows:

- (i) Studio Apartment – two (2) persons;
- (ii) One Bedroom Apartment – three (3) persons;
- (iii) Two Bedroom Apartment – four (4) persons;
- (iv) Three Bedroom Apartment – four (4) persons.

In the event of extraordinary circumstances or if a hardship shall arise, any owner/member may apply to the Board of Directors for a variance or exception to the occupancy limitations and requirements stated herein. The Board of Directors shall consider each request on a case by case basis and the decision of the Board shall be final. Except when granted additional time in writing by the Board of Directors, no visitor may occupy the premises for more than fourteen (14) days in the absence of the unit owner/member.

ARTICLE 6. MEMBER'S RIGHT TO PEACEABLE POSSESSION.

In return for the member's continued fulfillment of the terms and conditions of this agreement, the corporation covenants that the member may at all times while this agreement remains in effect, have and enjoy for his sole use and benefit the property herein above described, after obtaining occupancy and may enjoy in common with all other members of the corporation the use of all community property and facilities of the project.

ARTICLE 7. NO RENTALS

The member hereby agrees not to assign this agreement or sublet, lease or rent his dwelling unit under any circumstances. Violation of this provision shall, at the option of the Corporation result in termination or forfeiture of the members rights under this agreement.

ARTICLE 7(a). PETS

No pets of any kind are permitted in the building or upon the property of the corporation at any time.

ARTICLE 8. TRANSFERS.

Neither this agreement nor the member's right of occupancy shall be transferable or assignable except as provided in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this Article.

(a) Death of Member. If, upon death of the member, his right of occupancy under this agreement, together with his membership in the corporation, pass by will or intestate distribution to a member of his immediate family such legatee or distributee may, by assuming in writing the terms of this agreement within sixty (60) days after member's death and paying all amounts due hereunder, become the member hereunder. If member dies and this agreement is not assumed in accordance with the foregoing, then the corporation shall have an option to purchase the equity from the deceased member's estate in the manner provided in paragraph (b) of this Article, written notice of the death being equivalent to notice of intention to withdraw. If the corporation does not exercise such option, the provisions of paragraph (c) of this Article shall be applicable, the references to "Member" therein to be construed as references to the legal representative of the deceased member.

(b) Option of Corporation to Purchase. If a member desires to sell his membership in the Corporation and has a written offer from any third party, he shall notify the Corporation in writing of such notice and also attach a copy of the offer to sell and the corporation shall have an option for a period of thirty (30) days thereafter to purchase the membership under the same terms and conditions as set forth in the aforementioned offer. It is understood and agreed that the corporation has the option and not the obligation to purchase the member's membership and Occupancy Agreement. The purchase by the corporation of the membership will immediately terminate the member's rights and the member shall forthwith vacate the premises.

- (c) Procedure Where Corporation Does Not Exercise Option. If the corporation waives in writing its right to purchase the membership under the foregoing option, or if the corporation fails to exercise such option within the thirty day period, the member may sell his membership to any person who has been duly approved by the corporation as a member.
- (d) Corporation to Cooperate in Locating Purchaser. If the member notifies the corporation of his intention to remove from his dwelling unit and to sell his membership and occupancy agreement, and the corporation waives or fails to exercise its option to purchase same, the member may deliver his occupancy agreement to the corporation for cancellation and endorse his membership for transfer in blank and deposit same with the corporation. The corporation will thereupon (without any obligations, however) reasonably assist the member to find a purchaser at a price designated in writing by the member. The corporation shall be entitled to charge the member a fee it deems reasonable for this service. It is understood, however, that the member shall not be released from his liability under this agreement until such time as a sale has been effected to a purchaser acceptable to the corporation and such purchaser has assumed this agreement or executed a new occupancy agreement.

ARTICLE 9. MANAGEMENT, TAXES AND INSURANCE.

The corporation shall provide necessary management, operation and administration of the project; pay or provide for the payment of all taxes or assessments levied against the project; procure and pay or provide for the payment of fire insurance and extended coverage, and other insurance as required by any mortgage on property in the project and such other insurance as the corporation may deem advisable on the property in the project. The corporation will not, however, provide insurance on the member's interest in the dwelling unit or on his personal property. As to the effect of a fire loss on the interests of the member, see Article 15 below.

ARTICLE 10. UTILITIES.

The corporation shall provide water, electricity, heat and gas utilities in amounts which it deems reasonable.

ARTICLE 11. REPAIRS.

(a) By Member. The member agrees to repair and maintain his dwelling unit at his own expense as follows:

- (1) Any repairs or maintenance.

- (2) Interior decorating and maintenance of grounds, if any appurtenant to his dwelling unit.

(b) By Corporation. The corporation shall provide and pay for all necessary repairs, maintenance and replacements of common property only.

ARTICLE 12. ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS.

The member shall not, without the written consent of the corporation, make any structural alterations in the premises or in the water, gas or steam pipes or electrical conduits, plumbing or other fixtures connected therewith, or remove any additions, improvements or fixtures from the premises.

If the member for any reason shall cease to be an occupant of the premises, he shall surrender to the corporation possession thereof, including any alterations, additions, fixtures and improvements.

The member shall not, without the prior written consent of the corporation, install or use in his dwelling unit any air conditioning equipment, washing machine, clothes dryer, electric heater or power tools, all of which are expressly excluded even from occasional use by the member unless the required written consent of the corporation has been obtained. The member agrees that the corporation may require the prompt removal of any such equipment at any time, and that his failure to remove such equipment upon request shall constitute a default within the meaning of Article 13 of this agreement.

ARTICLE 13. DEFINITION OF DEFAULT BY MEMBER AND EFFECT THEREOF.

It is hereby mutually agreed as follows: if at any time after the happening of any of the events specified in clauses (a) to (i) of this Article, the corporation shall give to the member a notice that this agreement will expire at a date not less than thirty (30) days thereafter, this agreement and all of the member's rights under this agreement will expire on the date so fixed in such notice, unless in the meantime the default has been cured in a manner deemed satisfactory by the corporation, it being the intention of the parties hereto to create hereby conditional limitations, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the corporation to re-enter the dwelling unit and to remove all persons and personal property therefrom either by summary dispossession proceedings or by suitable action or proceeding at law or in equity or by force or otherwise, and to repossess the dwelling unit in its former state as if this agreement has not been made:

- (a) In case at any time during the term of this agreement the member shall cease to be the owner and legal holder of the membership in the corporation.

- (b) In case the member attempts to transfer or assign this agreement in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of Article 8 hereof.
- (c) In case at any time during the continuance of this agreement the member shall be declared a bankrupt under the laws of the United States.
- (d) In case at any time during the continuance of this agreement a receiver of the member's property shall be appointed under any of the laws of the United States or of any State.
- (e) In case at any time during the continuance of this agreement the member shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.
- (f) In case at any time during the continuance of this agreement a member's membership shall be duly levied upon and sold under process of any Court.
- (g) In case the member fails to effect and/or pay for repairs and maintenance as provided for in Article 11 hereof.
- (h) In case the member shall fail to pay any sum due pursuant to the provisions of Article 1 hereof.
- (i) In case the member shall default in the performance of any of his obligations under this agreement.

The member hereby expressly waives any and all right of redemption in case he shall be dispossessed by judgment or warrant of any Court or Judge; the words "enter", "re-enter" and "re-entry", as used in this agreement are not restricted to their technical legal meaning, and in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the member of any of the covenants or provisions hereof, the corporation shall have the right of injunction and the right to invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity, as if re-entry, summary proceedings, and other remedies were not herein provided for.

The failure on the part of the corporation to avail itself of any of the remedies given under this agreement shall not waive nor destroy the right of the corporation to avail itself of such remedies for similar or other breaches on the part of the member.

ARTICLE 14. MEMBER TO COMPLY WITH ALL CORPORATE REGULATIONS.

The member covenants that he will preserve and promote the cooperative ownership principles on which the corporation has been founded, abide by the Charter, By-Laws, rules and regulations of the corporation and any amendments thereto, and by his acts of cooperation with its other members bring about for himself and his co-members a high standard in home and community conditions.

ARTICLE 15. EFFECT OF FIRE LOSS ON INTERESTS OF MEMBER.

In the event of loss or damage by fire or other casualty to the abovementioned dwelling unit without the fault of negligence of the member, the corporation shall determine whether to restore the damaged premises and shall further determine, in the event such premises shall not be restored, the amount which shall be paid to the member to redeem the Class 1 membership and to reimburse him for such loss as he may have sustained.

If, under such circumstances, the corporation determines to restore the premises carrying charges shall abate wholly or partially as determined by the corporation until the premises have been restored. If on the other hand the corporation determines not to restore the premises, the carrying charges shall cease from the date of such loss or damage.

ARTICLE 16. INSPECTION OF THE DWELLING UNIT.

The member agrees that the officers and employees of the corporation, shall have a right to enter the dwelling unit of the member and make inspections thereof at any reasonable hour of the day.

ARTICLE 17. NOTICES.

Whenever the provisions of law or the By-Laws of the corporation or this agreement require notice to be given to either party hereto, such notices may be given in writing by depositing the same in a post office or letter box, in a postpaid, sealed wrapper addressed to the person to whom the notice is to be given, at his or her address as the same appears in the books of the corporation, and the time when the same shall be mailed shall be deemed to be the time of the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE 18. FISCAL REPORTS.

At the end of each fiscal year, the corporation shall furnish to the member a statement of the income and disbursements of the corporation.

ARTICLE 19. ORAL REPRESENTATION NOT BINDING.

No representations other than those contained in this agreement, the Charter and the By-Laws of the corporation shall be binding upon the corporation.
