

Daily in Your Presence
Day 24
Greatness

Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom.
Psalm 145:3

From the Father's Heart

My child, there is nothing insignificant in your life. I care about it all. You may feel small in My presence because I am a God who moves beyond the finite mind. But you are important to Me. Your worship is sweet music to My ears that makes our relationship close.

A Grateful Response

Down through the ages men and women have tried to understand Your greatness. Each generation searches for words to describe You, Lord. And even when I open my mouth to voice Your praise, I am speechless. I stand in awe with all of creation and applaud You, God. How great You are!

Simple Truth

When we are right with God, we are at home in His presence.
