INTRODUCTION

Since its founding in 1851 by Republican Henry Jarvis Raymond, The NY Times has been a big player in shaping public opinion. But it was not until 1896 that the Times took a turn to the internationalist Left when it was purchased by a German-Jew named Adolph Ochs. In 1897, Ochs himself would coin the paper's now famous self-serving slogan, printed on its masthead every day ever since: "All the News That's Fit to Print".

Adolph Ochs

Ochs' daughter married Arthur Hays Sulzberger, who became publisher when Adolph died. Ochs' great grandson Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, Jr. is the publisher of the NY Times today. So, for 1.2 centuries, America's most influential propaganda sheet has been in the hands of the same Zionist-Marxist family. Count on The Times to promote big government, Globalism, phony environmentalism, Israel, the Fed, and endless wars.

Just how powerful is what your fighting author likes to refer to "Sulzberger's Slimes"? The erudite writer Gore Vidal may have been a morally degenerate sodomite who was wrong about many things, but his reference to the Slimes as "the Typhoid Mary of American journalism" was as spot-on as it was witty. One need only glance at the morning headlines of "the paper of record", and then take note of how the superficial infomercials known as "the Nightly News" will so often pick up on whatever front page fairy-tale that the Manhattan Mendacity Machine spun that very same morning.

Like some journalistic plague; the virus of lies, half-truths and cherry-picked data then infects the unguarded minds of the whole country, and indeed, the world. Such is the indisputable power and undeserved "prestige" of this dreadful "Orwellian" institution.

The Anti-New York Times was originally established as, and still is, a pay-to-view daily sub-page of TomatoBubble.com. Beginning in 2015, the collected rebuttals to the Slimes' Spin were published in Quarterly book format – which you now hold in your hands. To best understand the bare-knuckled and often humorous rebuttals, it is recommended that readers also purchase and study, Planet Rothschild: The Forbidden History of the New World Order. That will give you a firm grounding in REAL history while The Anti-New York Times informs you of the contemporary world which had grown out of that tragic history.

When gathered in one place, the rebuttals expose The Slimes as a deceitful naked Emperor. If the Slimes is the disease of deception, let The Anti-New York Times be your antidote of truth.

Isabel Rose with her "daughter" Sadie (formerly Samuel) in their Tri-Be-Ca home

New York Times: My Son, My Daughter: A Mother's Evolution

By JACOB BERNSTEIN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

It's wasn't enough that the Jewish elite of Sulzberger's Slimes have "normalized" - no - sanctified that fraction of a fraction of the general society who are tranny freaks. Now they are giving their all-mighty blessing to the parental child-abusers who, by either criminal negligence or by deliberate design, are causing their own child's mental / moral sickness.

The bizarre nightclub / cabaret performer Isabel Rose (cough cough) is an heiress to one of New York's real estate dynasties. Among Ms. Rose's best known acts is a 2014 video for her single "Trouble in Paradise" which features her cavorting about in a rhinestone-encrusted outfit, flanked by a trio of Drag Queen backup singers. Now comes news, publicized with great fanfare and evident pride by the notoriously attention-seeking Ms. Rose, that her 8-year-old son, Samuel, wants to be a "Drag Queen" himself (surprise surprise).

Mom surrounds herself with tranny performers -- little boy Samuel now wants to be a tranny. What a "coincidence," eh?

On Feb. 24, shortly after President Trumpstein signed an Executive Order that rolled back federal bathroom ~~protections~~ privileges for trannies, Rose published an open letter addressed to Ivanka Trump, in which she asked the First Daddy's Girl to take a stand on behalf of parents like herself. The deluded drama queen wrote:

"We are both from prominent New York real estate families, we both attended private all-girls schools and went on to earn degrees from Ivy League colleges, and we both married smart Jewish men and now have young children ... Ivanka, put yourself in my Jimmy Choos (high-end fashion shoes) for a minute. What would you do if you were me? Because I know exactly what I would do if I were you: I would take my father aside and explain that failing to protect innocent children's rights to use the bathroom of their choice is wrong and unfair and un-American."

No, bitch. What is "unfair and un-American" -- and un-human is you enabling and even encouraging your SON's mental sickness. And as the article itself goes on to reveal, it may have been more than just your on-stage acts and videos with trannies that led to little Samuel's destruction. The psychological perversion of baby Samuel and his subsequent "withdrawal" were deliberately engineered. Brace yourselves:

"As fervent gay rights activists, Ms. Rose and Mr. Fagen joked to friends that evening that they were going to raise their baby gay but would "love him all just the same" if he turned out straight. 'What we weren't predicting was door No. 3,' Mr. Fagen said.

It wasn't just that their son, Samuel, wanted to play mermaids at age 2, which led Ms. Rose online to numerous articles that described this as a typical predictor of "gender dysphoria," the mental state typically used to describe pre-transitioners.

It was also Samuel's refusal to smile for photographs with Lily and the violent tantrums that transpired while getting suited up for a relative's bar mitzvah.

'I'm a girl, Mommy,' Ms. Rose recalled being told, over and over.' ... Friends didn't really know at first what the exact nature of the problem was. They simply saw a child, according to Mr. Fagen's close friend Mitch Epner, who was "totally withdrawn."

When Ms. Rose began to express the belief that Samuel might be transgender, friends doubted her. (More than a few also wondered privately: Why does the dramatic stuff always happen to her?)"

In a sane and just society, this wicked monster, on the basis of just what this article alone has revealed, would have been arrested for extreme child-abuse years ago, and the boy would be adopted out to a loving family. Instead, as the article describes, Ms. Rose has been exalted for her "courage" TM and has become a heroine among the New York City jet-set crowd. New York State Governor Andrew M. Cuomo actually called and congratulated the she-devil on her letter to Ivanka.

1920's Weimer Republic of Germany -- the same tranny insanity had been imposed by the usual suspects.

More madness:

"Even Mr. Fagen did a certain amount of blaming his wife, which she found surprisingSo Ms. Rose took the good-cop role, becoming the confidante her husband wasn't ready to be.

On vacation in Palm Beach, Fla., she took Samuel, then around 4, to the Lilly Pulitzer shop and watched with curiosity as pink poplin turned a depressed child turn into a happy nymph. Back in New York, they watched David Bowie videos and went to the set of Ms. Rose's video, where the first introductions to drag queens like Hedda Lettuce were made."

Samuel is now Sadie, and purportedly "happy" being a freak. And Sulzberger's Slimes, as part of the Globalist agenda to subvert the God-designed emotional, mental and physical distinctions between the sexes -- which serve as the complimentary foundation of marriage, family and healthy society -- is also happy to present this wicked cultural Marxism as "normal." You see, what scum like Ms. Rose and Mr. Sulzberger really want is for your child to succumb to this Satanic insanity.

From infancy, Isabel Rose sacrificed her son just to draw attention to herself. Governor Andrew Cuomo and his ilk all think it's oh-so-"courageous" TM.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today about a cabaret performer that has a son that transitioned to female. She published an open letter to Ivanka Trump asking her to tell her father to protect transgender rights.

Boobus Americanus 2: Wow. What a courageous woman.

Sugar: Boobuss, you frickin' cretin! How is being a libtard in a city that is 75% libtard "courageouss?"

New York Times: Dwindling Odds of Coincidence

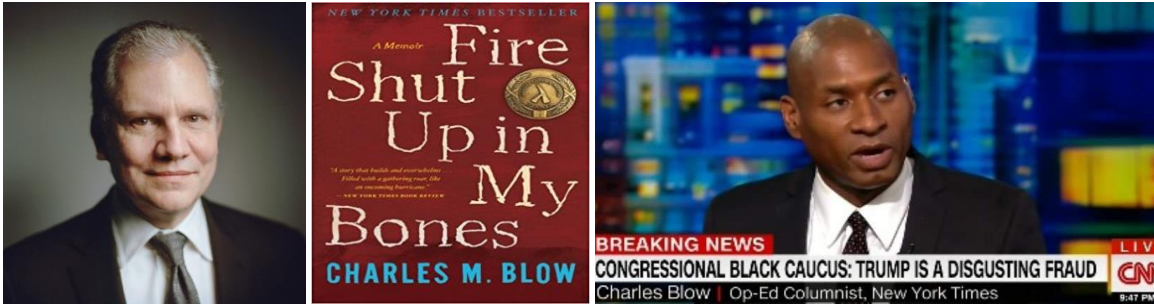

By CHARLES BLOW

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Charles Blow is the "affirmative action" house-negro at Sulzberger's ironically and noticeably non-diverse Jew York Slimes. A divorced father of three, he is also an admitted "bi-sexual" and a graduate of all-Black Grambling State University. And, of course, he hates Trumpsptein -- or rather, to be more precise, the many millions of White people who think Trumpsteint represents their interests.

Hazmat suits and goggles on! Let's dig into Blowhard's bull-shine, shall we?

For his service to "Massa" Sulzberger, the pet token house-negro is given New York Slimes bestseller status and TV appearances.

Blowhard: We are still not conclusively able to connect the dots on the question of whether there was any coordination or collusion between members of Donald Trump's campaign

Rebuttal: Never mind connecting these "dots" -- tell us what "dots" even exist in the first place.

Blowhard: .. and the Russians who interfered in our election to benefit him,

Rebuttal: What evidence do you have that the Russians "interfered." Define this "interference."

Blowhard: ... but those dots do continue to multiply at an alarming rate.

Rebuttal: If the "dots" are indeed "multiplying," then you should be able to point out a few of these "dots" for us. Please enlighten us, Mr. Blowjob.

Blowhard: First, and we have to keep saying this because this fact keeps getting obscured in the subterfuge of deflection, misdirection and ideological finger-pointing about what has yet to be proven: It is absolutely clear that the Russians did interfere in our election.

Rebuttal: If Russian "interference" is as "absolutely clear" as you say it is, then show us the "dots."

Blowhard: This is not a debatable issue.

Rebuttal: Ah yes! The good ol' "this is not open to debate trick" -- an effective rhetorical device for the manipulation of the simple-minded, but it has nothing to do with evidence. Show us the "dots," please.

Blowhard: This is not fake news.

Rebuttal: That's all well and good, Mr. Blowjob. But we are still waiting for you to cite a single one of these "dots."

Blowhard: This is not a witch hunt.

Rebuttal: Show us the damn "dots!"

Blowhard: This happened.

Rebuttal: The "dots," you weasel-worded son-of-a-whore! Give us the frickin' "dots!"

Blowhard: The investigations, rightly, are seeking to figure out exactly how and to what degree, and those questions obviously depend on knowing more about campaign contacts with Russian meddlers.

Rebuttal: Don't change the subject, sodomite! Give us the "dots," --- just one!

Blowhard: We continue to learn of new contacts between people in Trump's orbit and Russians during the campaign.

Rebuttal: We do? We must have missed these discoveries. Exactly what have you "learned of," Mr. Blowjob, and from where?

Blowhard: Last week we learned from The New York Times:

Rebuttal: A Slimes scribbler cites another Slimes' scribbler as his source. Are you bloody serious, Blowhard?! Dear Lord, having to read and rebut this deceitful dung every day is going to give us a heart attack.

Classic circular logic --- After finding no "dots" to reveal a Putin-Trump conspiracy, Blowhard uses the unfounded allegations of his own newspaper to "prove" that he (a writer for the same newspaper!) is correct.

Blowhard (quoting his own newspaper): “Michael T. Flynn, the former national security adviser, has offered to be interviewed by House and Senate investigators who are examining the Trump campaign’s ties to Russia in exchange for immunity from prosecution, according to his lawyer and a congressional official.”

Rebuttal: So, General Flynn has been called to testify by the very same witch-hunters who invented the "Russian interference" scandal to begin with. This proves what, exactly, Mr. Blowjob?

Blowhard: This signals another area of possible collusion.

Rebuttal: Could you define what you mean by "collusion?" But first, and pardon the redundancy here, show us the damn "dots!"

Blowhard: There is something here, but I can’t yet put my finger on what it is.

Rebuttal: So, you "can't yet put" your excrement-stained finger on it, eh Blowjob? In other words, you have no "dots!" Game over, sodomite.

Blowhard: To be sure, Donald Trump is a despicable man and an awful president who deserves whatever he gets. He is crude, a liar, a bully and a cheat. He is vainglorious and vengeful.

It is not clear to me that America — and indeed the world — can survive a full-term Trump presidency.

Translation: There it is! The true purpose behind the invention of the fake Russia/Trump scandal is to cripple and impeach Trumpstein -- and, in so doing, further isolating Putin, saving Obongo's domestic "legacy," putting the Congress and / or Senate back under Communist Demonrat control after the 2018 mid-term elections, and finally, installing a Communist female in the White House after the 2020 QFS (Quadrennial Freak Show).

Now that's how you connect "dots," Mr. Blowjob.

Speaking of "foreign interference" in American politics, when are we ever going to have an investigation to connect the "dots" clearly revealed in the images above? (Clinton, Bush, McCain, Obongo, Romney --- Presidential candidates all.)

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today about how the dots linking Trump to Russia are beginning to show an incriminating pattern.

Boobus Americanus 2: No nation should influence in the internal politics of another.

Sugar: Tell that to frickin' AIPAC -- aka the Issrael Lobby --- and its 100,000 check-writing memberss!

Editor: A loony lobby that is pissed-off at Putin for saving the government of Syria!

New York Times: Worst Chemical Attack in Years in Syria; U.S. Blames Assad

By ANNE BARNARD and MICHAEL R. GORDON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Oh look. The boys at LHS (Langley-Hollywood Studios) -- using crisis actors and staged photos -- are playing the "chemical weapons" and "dead children" heart-cards against Syrian President Assad, again. (Palm to face, shaking head, sighing)

DEAD BABY PROPAGANDA WOWS EM' EVERY TIME!

1 & 2: World War 1: The "babies on bayonets" hoax was used to inflame the world against Germany.

3: Gulf War 1: Daughter of a Kuwaiti official -- pretending to be a nurse -- sheds fake tears as she testifies before the US Senate about Iraqi troops slamming babies on the hospital floor.

Flashback time; an excerpt from our popular piece: World War 3 For Dummies:

SUMMER 2013: Phony Gas Attack Blamed On Assad

Predictably, and right on cue, an alleged 'gas attack' of dubious origin occurs in Syria - just a few weeks after Obama's warning! It is claimed in the hysterical Western Yellow Press that children were among the victims of Assad's "gas."

"Now children. We are going to play the sleepy-sleepy game now. Everyone lay down and close your eyes." -- Images of the "poison gas" attacks had a fake, staged quality to them. Did the attacks actually happen? If so, would it not have been more to the 'rebel's' advantage to blame Assad and draw the US directly into the conflict?

SUMMER 2013: Assad Denies the Accusation

President Assad strongly denies the accusation and invites an international investigation into the alleged occurrence. Assad compares the accusation to the false claims of "Weapons of Mass Destruction" which were leveled against Iraq in 2002 & 2003.

Pulitzer Prize winning investigative journalist Seymour Hersh is convinced that Assad was framed for gas attacks. It wasn't the first time that the US government and the New York Times tried to lie America into a war.

SUMMER 2013: American-Jewish Lobby OPENLY Demands War

The leaders of the America's major Jewish organizations combine to issue a joint statement in support of waging war against Syria. The Washington Post refers to the Israel Lobby's campaign for war as "full court press."

McCain's annual anti-Syria & anti-Iran rants before the all mighty AIPAC (America's Israel Lobby) always draw wild applause.

SUMMER 2013: Americans Say 'NO!'

The American public awakens from its slumber and begins inundating White House and Congressional switchboards with angry phone calls against the war.

Angry Americans show up at a 'town hall' to rip John McCain a new butt-hole over his support for bombing Syria.

Four years have passed since Obongo blinked at the prospect of World War 3 and a new President now sits in the White House. Yet, the great game for Greater Israel, with all its component stunts and scams, continues -- only this time, with what now appears to be a committed Zionist in the White House, rather than a reluctant one. Trumpstein's harsh and accusatory condemnation of an attack that he surely knows to be fake is not a good sign: Without a shred of evidence, and in spite of Syrian denials, the dishonest combed-over clown declared of the stunt:

"A chemical attack that was so horrific, in Syria, against innocent people, including women, small children and even beautiful little babies --- their deaths was an affront to humanity. These heinous actions by the Assad regime cannot be tolerated. ... It crossed a lot of lines for me. When you kill innocent children, including little babies, with a chemical gas that is so lethal-- that crosses many many lines -- beyond a red line. That attack on children has had a big impact on me...

My attitude towards Syria and Assad has changed very much."

How soon will it be before his Trumpstein's "attitude" on Russia and Putin also "change very much?"

Trumpstein's own language towards Syria and North Korea has painted him into a corner. What will he do when the next stunt is staged... and the next? Surely, a man as cunning and as egoistic as Trumpstein must have figured out by now that the only way to salvage his troubled Presidency and maintain his name-brand for posterity is to become a wartime President. Should Trumpstein attempt to deliver the head of Assad to the Jewish Mafia on a silver platter, "youse guys" just watch and see how quick the 'anti-Trump" Piranha Press, the Republican'ts and even the Demonrats all do an "about face" and rally around the twittering buffoon.

Will Trumpstein finally pull that Syrian trigger that Obongo couldn't? How conveenient that US troops are now in Syria -- sent there by Trumpstein / Kushner to ostensibly confront the phony "beheaders" of mercenary ISIS -- but actually to overthrow Russian-backed Assad.

The scam worked!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the recent gas attack on babies in Syria has caused Trump to change his opinion of Syrian President Assad.

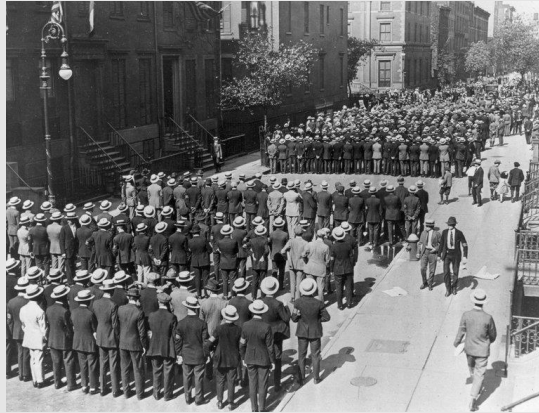

Boobus Americanus 2: Assad has got to go. The civilized world cannot tolerate the killing of innocent babies.

Sugar: But it'ss tolerable when innocent babiess are ACTUALLY killed by frickin' US bombss, droness or ssanctionss -- or if they are dissmembered in the mother'ss womb. Ain't that right, Boobuss?!

Editor: You hoisted Boobus on his own bayonet! Well done, Sugar.

Army recruits filled a street in New York in April 1917 soon after President Woodrow Wilson declared war on Germany.

New York Times: Should America Have Entered World War I?

By MICHAEL KAZIN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

As far as historical accounts go, this particular piece about America's entry in World War I, submitted to Sulzberger's Slimes by Georgetown University History Professor and "noted author" Michael Kazin (cough cough), isn't so bad. Nonetheless, in spite of its relative objectivity, some important elements are missing. ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times is pleased to add a bit of much-needed muscle to this skeletal narrative.

VS.

The B-student from Rutgers and the crazed Conspiracy Cat get it 100%.*

(Yet Kazin rakes in millions of dollars while we have to plead for donations and book sales! (hint-hint) Go figure.)

Kazin: One hundred years ago today, Congress voted to enter what was then the largest and bloodiest war in history. Four days earlier, President Woodrow Wilson had sought to unite a sharply divided populace with a stirring claim that the nation "is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she has treasured."

Analysis: Nothing wrong with what Kazin wrote in those two sentences, but get a load of Woody Wilson gleefully spewing idiotic platitudes about "spending the blood" of young American men for the sake of "principles" and "peace." Disgusting.

Kazin: The war lasted only another year and a half, but in that time, an astounding 117,000 American soldiers were killed and 202,000 wounded.

Analysis: Horrible numbers, yet only a fraction of what each of the major European powers lost in that bloodbath. What a tragic waste!

Kazin: Still, most Americans know little about why the United States fought in World War I, or why it mattered...World War I is less easy to explain (than World War II).

Analysis: Actually, Professor Pointyhead, World War I is very easy to explain. Here it is in just 111 words:

The Jewish Globalists wanted to restructure the sovereign states of Europe along Communist and/or "democratic" lines -- while the Jewish Zionists (many of whom were also Globalists) wanted to crush the Turkish Empire (which was allied with Germany & Austria-Hungary) so that Palestine could be stolen on their behalf.

Toward those evil ends, the main states of Europe were pitted against each other in a game of mutual destruction in which the sole innocent party was Germany. Under false pretenses, the US was brought into the war, on the side of Britain and France, only after the British agreed to steal Palestine from Turkey and allow Jews to start settling there.

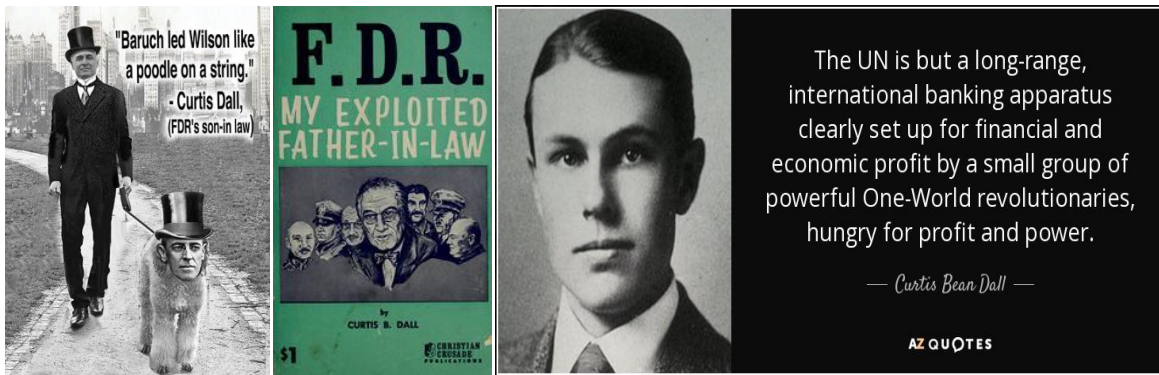

Bada bing, bada boom -- done!

Kazin: America intervened nearly three years after it began, and the “doughboys,” as our troops were called, engaged in serious combat for only a few months. More Americans in uniform died away from the battlefield — thousands from the Spanish flu — than with weapons in hand.

Analysis: Kazin neglects to mention that the "Spanish"-flu (which actually originated at a US Army base in Kansas) had all the indications of a US-engineered bio-weapon -- one that killed many Germans before getting out of hand and killing as many as 75-100 MILLION people worldwide!

Kazin: After victory was achieved, Wilson’s audacious hope of making a peace that would advance democracy and national self-determination blew up in his face when the Senate refused to ratify the treaty he had signed at the Palace of Versailles.

Analysis: Kazin makes it sound as if Wilson was a well-meaning idealist who screwed things up. In reality, Wilson (a black-mailed puppet of the Big Jews), wasn't out to "advance democracy and self-determination." Those high-sounding platitudes were just bits of bait to lure in starry-eyed suckers. The real plan for the post-war world was to begin the drive towards world government -- a New World Order whose real purpose, ironically, is and has always been to impose a global structure that is very anti-democratic and anti- "national self determination."

"...Occasionally, on a Saturday morning in the summer of 1912, Bernard Baruch would walk into the Democratic Headquarters with Woodrow Wilson in tow, leading him like one would a poodle on a string. Wilson would be quite solemn-faced in appearance....According to my friend Wilson would be given his special "indoctrination course" in politics, by several of the top advisers assembled there. The course consisted chiefly of outlining to him and his agreeing in principle to: Aiding and pushing the projected Federal Reserve Bank Legislation through Congress when Paul Warburg approved the final draft of the opposed Act, then being worked on....(And) if called upon, to lend a sympathetic ear and aid indicated "policy" if war should break out in Europe....Wilson dutifully received and absorbed his indoctrination, shook hands all around, and then departed...."

-- From: FDR: My Explited Father-in-Law, By Curtis Dall, son-in-law of FDR (Image 3)

Kazin: But attention should be paid. America's decision to join the Allies was a turning point in world history. It altered the fortunes of the war and the course of the 20th century — and not necessarily for the better.

Analysis: The professor gets one right.

Kazin: Its entry most likely foreclosed the possibility of a negotiated peace among belligerent powers that were exhausted from years mired in trench warfare.

Analysis: Correct! Britain and France were seriously considering Germany's request to simply stop the war and return to the pre-war status quo. It was only US entry (engineered by the usual suspects) that encouraged the Allies to drag out the war until the "Yanks" could arrive.

Kazin: Although the American Expeditionary Force did not engage in combat for long, the looming threat of several million fresh troops led German generals to launch a last, desperate series of offensives. When that campaign collapsed, Germany's defeat was inevitable.

Analysis: True, but Kazin omits the reason why the great German Spring Offensive of 1918 (after stunning initial success) ultimately fizzled out and failed - namely, because Jewish-Marxist-Zionist Labor Union leaders called for factory strikes right when Germany was about to win the war before the Yanks arrived. Adding to the internal subversion were the Jewish-owned newspapers which suddenly turned pessimistic and negative on the war effort. After the war, this undeniable Jewish subversion came to be referred to as "the stab in the back."

Kazin: How would the war have ended if America had not intervened? The carnage might have continued for another year or two until citizens in the warring nations, who were already protesting the endless sacrifices required, forced their leaders to reach a settlement. If the Allies, led by France and Britain, had not won a total victory, there would have been no punitive peace treaty like that completed at Versailles, no stab-in-the-back allegations by resentful Germans, and thus no rise, much less triumph, of Hitler and the Nazis. The next world war, with its 50 million deaths, would probably not have occurred.

Analysis: All true. But notice how Kazin references the "stab-in-the-back allegations" without defining the context of the term in regard to the bizarre German surrender of November 11, 1918. This clearly indicates that Kazin knows what happened but cannot (or will not) to tell us -- not if he expects to keep his cushy tenured position at Georgetown.

Post-World War I cartoons depict the fact that Germany was "stabbed in the back" by home-front Jews (Zionists and Communists) who wanted Germany and Turkey to lose the war.

Kazin: The foes of militarism in the United States had tried to prevent such horrors. ... They mounted street demonstrations, attracted prominent leaders from the labor and suffrage movements, and ran antiwar candidates for local and federal office.

Analysis: Again, all true. But Kazin makes it sound as though only "liberals" (labor and women's suffrage) opposed the war, ignoring the fact that many conservatives were also against Wilson's warmongering.

Kazin: They also gained the support of Henry Ford, who chartered a ship full of activists who crossed the Atlantic to plead with the heads of neutral nations to broker a peace settlement.

Analysis: Kazin omits the fact that Henry Ford blamed the "International Jew" for driving America into World War I.

Kazin: Once the United States did enter the fray, Wilson, with the aid of the courts, prosecuted opponents of the war who refused to fall in line. Under the Espionage and Sedition Acts, thousands were arrested for such "crimes" as giving speeches against the draft and calling the Army "a God damned legalized murder machine."

Analysis: Spot on.

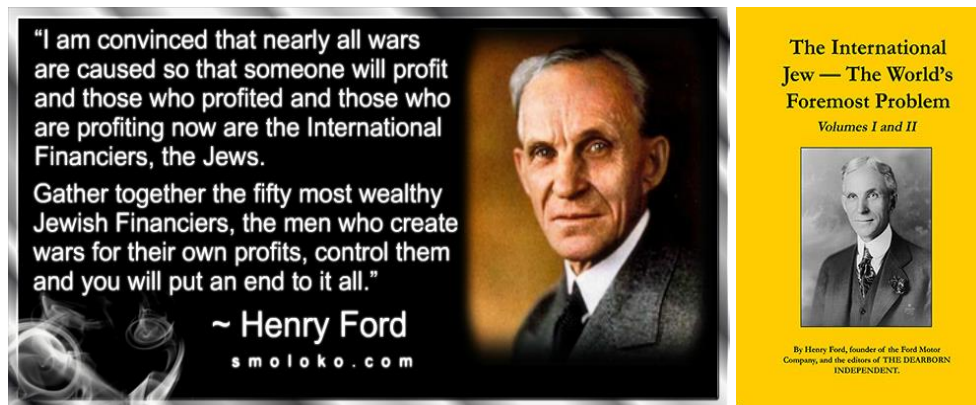

Kazin: The intervention led to big changes in America, as well as the world. It began the creation of a political order most citizens now take for granted, even as some protest against it: a state equipped to fight war after war abroad while keeping a close watch on allegedly subversive activities at home.

Analysis: Spot on.

Kazin: The larger aim of American foreign policy under both liberal and conservative presidents had remained much the same: to make the world "safe for democracy," as our leaders define it. To achieve that purpose required another innovation of World War I: a military-industrial establishment funded, then partly and now completely, by income taxes.

Analysis: Spot on.

Though there is nothing overtly false in Kazin's piece, and it does offer up quite a bit of useful data, we still have to grade it a "C-" for the simple reason that the unsuspecting reader will come away with the grossly mistaken impression that American entry into World War I was a historical "blunder" based upon misguided idealism when, in reality, the event was a stroke of genius -- evil genius to be precise.

Henry Ford knew the truth about World War I. Not long after Ford's death in 1947, the Globalists seized control of his foundation and have used it ever since to promote the very Globalism that Ford had tried to expose (before being pressured into shutting up).

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an interesting piece by a Georgetown professor in today's New York Times. He makes a compelling argument that Woodrow Wilson's entry into World War I was, in retrospect, a huge mistake.

Boobus Americanus 2: Why did we enter World War I anyway?

Stephen Bannon, left, and Jared Kushner in the Oval Office. Tensions have been growing between Bannon, President Trump's chief strategist, and Kushner, his son-in-law and senior adviser.

New York Times: In Battle for Trump's Heart and Mind, It's Bannon vs. Kushner

By MAGGIE HABERMAN, JEREMY W. PETERS and PETER BAKER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The "conventional wisdom" TM among both the Establishment Piranha Press and the "Alternative Media" TM holds that "nationalist" Steve Bannon and libtard Jared Kushner (cough cough) are locked in a heated personal battle for the "heart and mind" of Donald Trumpstein. The belief is that Kushner holds the upper-hand because he is married to Baby Girl Ivanka Trump (converted cough cough) -- herself a top-level adviser to the President.

She went from using her name, inherited wealth, and sex appeal to sell shoes and perfumes --- to possibly triggering World War 3. The ultra-libtard, Democrat, Jewish bimbo Ivanka is actually advising daddy on policy decisions from her White House office!

From the article, a typical assessment of the "power struggle":

"On one side are Mr. Bannon's guerrilla warriors, eager to close the nation's borders, dismantle decades of regulations, empower police departments and take on the establishment of both parties in Washington. On the other are Mr. Kushner's "Democrats," an appellation used to describe even Republicans who want to soften Mr. Trump's rough edges and broaden his narrow popular appeal after months of historically low poll numbers.

In the middle is Mr. Trump himself, seemingly torn between the two factions, tilting one way or the other depending on the day, or even the hour, while he seeks to recapture momentum after a series of defeats in Congress and the courts. As he did throughout his career in business and entertainment, Mr. Trump plays advisers off one another, encouraging a sort of free-for-all competition for influence and ideas within his circle, so long as everyone demonstrates loyalty to him."

~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times no longer accept this narrative, for it implies that Jewish kiddies Jared & Ivanka and their clique of New York Democrats have "won" the "heart and mind" of Trumpstein. It suggests that Trumpstein is some malleable, weak-minded, weak-willed fool who can easily be played by the 30-something-year-old brat who dirtied up his daughter. No. We give Trumpstein far more credit than that.

We believe that Jared & Ivanka "won the battle" because the game was rigged against the Nationalists all along. The object of the game was to paint the Democrat Trumpstein as a born-again nationalist, then draw in Christians, proliferators, union workers, "angry White guys" and all the various sub-groups of "alt-right-wingers" (including us, though we always had some doubts), and then discard us all like used-up lemon rinds soon after the election --- making it look like the result of a lost "power struggle," rather than the calculated, pre-meditated betrayal it was intended to be all along.

1- Kushner is purging the White House and empowering libtards and warmongers 2- All three of Trumpstein's adult children are married to Jews (youngest daughter Tiffany (not pictured) is dating a Jew). 3- Bloodthirsty Ivanka pleaded with daddy to bomb Syria. She even tweeted her approval afterwards.

National Security Adviser General Mike Flynn is gone, his side-kick KT McFarland is gone, adviser Kelly Anne Conway is no longer visible, and strategist/adviser Steve Bannon is fading fast. Imperfect as they all were by our standards, those Gentiles were at least somewhat tolerable, somewhat conservative, friendly towards Russia, and somewhat non-interventionist in foreign affairs. Ascending in their place are the Jewish kids Jared and Ivanka, Economic Adviser and Democrat-Globalist Gary Cohn (cough cough), Foreign Policy Adviser and Bush-Republican-Globalist Dina Powell, National Security Adviser General H R McMaster (from the Globalist Council on Foreign Relations), Treasury Secretary and Democrat-Globalist Steven Mnuchin (cough cough), and Kushner's 28-year-old "right-hand man," Avi Berkowitz (cough cough).

On the media front, Trumpstein no longer appears on the Alex Jones or Michael Savage radio shows which had helped him to get elected. Instead, the warmonger suddenly finds himself basking in the approving glow of positive media coverage from the very same "fake news" that he once condemned --- the same "fake news" that gave him billions of dollars worth of 24/7 free publicity during the campaign. There certainly was no "Ron-Paul-silent-treatment" for Trumpstein.

A "power struggle," my foot! Kushner's warmongering Globalist-Zionist faction didn't have to win Trumpstein's "heart and mind." They had him by the balls all along.

The nationalists never had a chance. Jared & Ivanka's New York Jews were meant to be calling the shots. Above: young Avi Berkowitz of Harvard (cough cough), billionaires Gary Cohn (cough cough) and Steve Mnuchin (cough cough) -- both of Goldman Sachs.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in today's New York Times about the power struggle among Trump's top advisers.

Boobus Americanus 2: Blood is thicker than water. Jared & Ivanka should win that battle.

Sugar: Got newss for ya Boobuss! Jared & Ivanka are the real President & First Lady.

New York Times: U.S. Reroutes Warships Toward Korean Peninsula in Show of Force

By MARK LANDLER and CHOE SANG-HUN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Regardless of what one may think of the North Korean system -- and we suspect, as rare western visitors to the country have alleged, that the situation is not quite as bad as what the Piranha Press leads us to believe -- North Korea poses no threat of any kind to any of its neighbors. So then, why the harsh sanctions and perennial warmongering toward North Korea by the Globalist-Zionist Axis of Evil? There are two familiar reasons:

1. North Korea fiercely guards its sovereignty and has no use for The New World Order.
2. Israel regards North Korea as an enemy state because it sells advanced technology to Syria, Egypt and Iran.

It's that simple.

It's them --- it's them --- it's always bloody them!

Such is Israel's hatred for North Korea that it murdered 10 visiting North Korean scientists / technicians during an air-strike on an alleged Syrian nuclear reactor in 2007. But you didn't hear of this event on the "Fake News" because we aren't supposed to know that America's perpetual wars have anything to do with eliminating Israel's innocent enemies. From The Great One of Germany, to Hussein of Iraq, to Qaddafi of Libya, to Assad of Syria, to Kim of North Korea, it's always some phony pretext about "human rights" or "weapons of mass destruction" that's fed to us as the reason for hating on the "bad-guy-of-the-month." And with every "regime change," the usual suspects will pop open a bottle of Manischewitz and drink and masturbate to the death of yet another "evil dictator" as TV-addicted Boobus Americanus cheers: USA! USA! USA!

1- Operation Orchard was blacked out of the Israeli and US press for 7 months, even though the CIA knew that it had happened. Most of the dead were North Koreans. 2. Trumpstein-Satanyahu-Kushner-Ivanka are now simultaneously threatening the same two countries that were targeted by Operation Orchard -- North Korea and Syria.

 Notice the matching Israeli blue stripe ties on Trumpstein & Netanyahu (The Euphrates and Nile river borders of "Greater Israel.")

How conveenient, as the "Church Lady" of old Saturday Night Live fame used to say.

This piece by Slimes' scribbler Mark Landler (cough cough) offers up the usual disinformation regarding true motives behind Trumpstein's sabre-rattling across the Pacific Ocean. Let's examine just a few lines.

Landler: President Trump's deployment of an aircraft carrier to the waters off the Korean Peninsula ...

Analysis: Isn't it interesting how Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press, in the wake of Trumpstein's recent warmongering, have started respectfully referring to him more and more as "President Trump" and less and less as "Mr. Trump?"

Landler: But the show of American force conceals a lack of better options for dealing with the provocations of the rogue government in North Korea.

Analysis: What "provocations?" Why is North Korea a "rogue government?" Unlike Israel and its America attack-bitch, North Korea has neither attacked nor threatened any other nation. To the contrary, the North Koreans have expressed a desire to sit down and talk with Trumpstein.

Landler: China's president, Xi Jinping, did not make any public commitment to tighten the pressure on North Korea during his meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., last week with President Trump. Even privately, officials said, he was circumspect.

Analysis: In other words, China knows that the North-Korea is harmless and should be left alone.

1. Mark Landler (cough cough) conceals the real reason behind Trumpstein's foreign policy. 2. China and North Korea have good relations. 3. Trumpstein's missile attack on Syria occurred while the Chinese President was a guest in his Florida home! Undaunted by the classless attempt at intimidation, Jinping has since responded by placing 150,000 troops on the North Korean border.

Landler: And an attack on North Korea carries far greater risk than the missile strike ordered last week to punish President Bashar al-Assad of Syria Analysis: Darn right, it's risky. North Korea has "nukes" and a super-powered friendly neighbor to its north (China).

Landler: .. to punish President Bashar al-Assad of Syria for his deadly chemical weapons attack.

Analysis: Liar! The attack was a false-flag -- if it even happened at all.

Landler: The White House is likely to pursue so-called secondary sanctions, which target Chinese firms and banks that help North Korea earn foreign currency and finance its weapons programs. The question is whether the Chinese government will cooperate with the effort, and if it does not, whether Mr. Trump will impose the sanctions unilaterally, even at the risk of rupturing the relationship between Washington and Beijing.

Analysis: The North-Korea-hating Zionists don't care if we end up at war with China. And pay no mind to the dangerous disinformation we keep hearing about how China has grown sick & tired of North Korea's antics and wants to see the Kim Dynasty fall. The two nations have, since 1961, been party to the Sino-North Korean Mutual Aid and Cooperation Friendship Treaty, whereby China is bound to render military aid by all means to North Korea against any outside attack. This treaty was extended twice and is currently valid until 2021. Funny how Landler and his ilk never seem to mention that Treaty.

As it is in Syria, so too it is in the Korean peninsula. We are just one Israeli false-flag attack from being stampeded into another "Remember the Maine" moment. Such a stunt would actually be easier to pull-off under Korean waters than on Syria's land. You see, Israel's state-of-the-art submarines, sold to them at a deep-discount by the pathetic Germans, have the capacity to prowl all of the world's waters and even launch missiles. Who would dare to accuse "our ally" of taking out an American vessel in Korean waters? Or of hitting Hawaii? No, sir. That would be "anti-Semitic," don't you know?

We are not predicting this nightmare submarine scenario. Suffice it to say that the arrival of American warships in Korea and China's front yard will be an event fraught with danger on many levels. Thank you, President Kushner.

The public has already been conditioned to fear North Korean submarine and missile attacks. Who would ever suspect Israel?

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump is sending warships to the Korean peninsula.

Sean Spicer, the White House press secretary, said on Wednesday that he “made a mistake” in his comments on the Holocaust the day before.

New York Times: "‘I Screwed Up’: Sean Spicer Apologizes for Holocaust Comments

By MICHAEL M. GRYNBAUM

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

There is a great quote that has been mis-attributed to the French philosopher Voltaire. Though the French polymath (a person learned in many different fields) never actually said it, the observation is profound and true nonetheless. The Voltaire impostor said:

"To learn who rules over you, simply find out who you are not allowed to criticize"

White House Press Secretary Sean Spicer did not criticize the Tribe in any way, of course, but he did inadvertently go off script -- which is still enough to merit a public flogging from the usual suspects.

The Judenpresse feeding-frenzy proves "who rules over you." Though that quote was not from Voltaire, the French philosopher (Image 3) DID author the following gems:

"They are, all of them, born with raging fanaticism in their hearts, just as the Bretons and the Germans are born with blond hair. I would not be in the least bit surprised if these people would not someday become deadly to the human race."
(Letter of Memmius to Cicero - 1771)

"You have surpassed all nations in impertinent fables, in bad conduct and in barbarism. You deserve to be punished, for this is your destiny." ('One Must Take Sides - 1772)

So, what exactly did Mr. Spicer say to set off the Piranha Press?

Spicer: "You had someone as despicable as Hitler who didn't even sink to using chemical weapons. So you have to, if you are Russia, ask yourself: Is this a country and a regime that you want to align yourself with?"

Poor little Sean. In trying to please and impress the chosenites with a strong denunciation of the hated Bashar al-Assad of Syria, he dared to suggest that Assad is even worse than The Great One of Germany. Silly Sean. I'm sure your masters appreciate your effort, but no one can ever bump The Great One down to 2nd place on the all-time list of Bad Guys. Don't let it happen again!

Slimes' scribbler Michael Grynbaum's (cough cough) dramatic description of Spicer's "screw-up" is typical of how the entire school of attack-fish responded. From the article:

"One day after he delivered a stunner of a gaffe from the White House lectern — favorably comparing Hitler to President Bashar al-Assad of Syria, then clumsily referring to Nazi death camps as "Holocaust centers" — Mr. Spicer gave an abject apology on Wednesday, saying,

A "stunner of a gaffe?" Really Mikey? Putting aside the fact that the Holohoax was, well, a dad-gum hoax -- it's obvious that Spicer was only referring to the use of chemical weapons during warfare -- which The Great One never did. In no way did his comments deny the Holohoax or the existence of "zee gas chambers" TM. In light of the false belief that chemicals were used to kill "6 million Jews" TM, Spicer's comment was indeed awkward -- but hardly worthy of kicking-up such a firestorm.

*Zyklon B was a pesticide used to kill typhus-bearing-head-lice, not people!
That's why camp inmates had their heads shaved too.*

The most pathetic part of this spectacle-of-the-day was Spicer's immediate, and oh-so-predictable, groveling act which followed.

Spicer: "It really is painful to myself to know that I did something like that."

"Painful?!" (palm to face, shaking head, sighing) Did you cry over your sin? The article continues:

"I made a mistake; there's no other way to say it," Mr. Spicer said, his face taut, during a scheduled interview in Washington. "I got into a topic that I shouldn't have, and I screwed up."

His "face was taut?" (bent over toilet, vomiting) -- What a typical Washington weasel!

"Oh forgive me rabbi, for I have sinned! No one is more evil than Hitler --- not Assad, not Qaddafi, not Hussein, not Putin, not even Kim Jong Un! Forgive me!"

It's not so bad, Sean. At least a chunk of your income wasn't chopped off by the fearful owner of Amazon (but I digress). Even if ~~Mordecai & Esther~~, er, Jared & Ivanka eventually replace you with someone more telegenic and with a stronger presence, you'll be fine. As long as you stay on your knees and keep that theatrical "taut face" on during your apologetic self-flagellation, the insiders will always take care of their own.

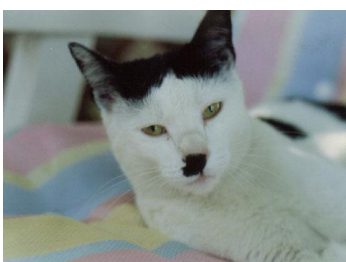

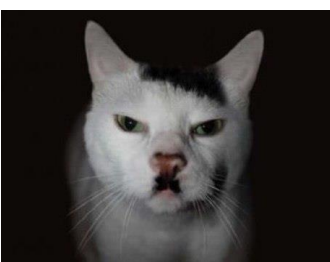

We too are "sorry" --- sorry we didn't write THE BAD WAR many years ago!

Boobus Americanus 1: What do you think about Sean Spicer putting his foot in his mouth by saying that Hitler didn't use chemical weapons?

Boobus Americanus 2: He needs to be replaced. You can't make mistakes like that. But at least he apologized.

Sugar: Boobuss, you frickin' credulouss cretin!!! The only 'chemical weapon' that the Great One ever ussed was life-ssaving bug sspray!!!

Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, the former Iranian president, was surrounded by members of the news media after registering to run on Wednesday

New York Times: Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, Ex-President of Iran, Files to Run Again

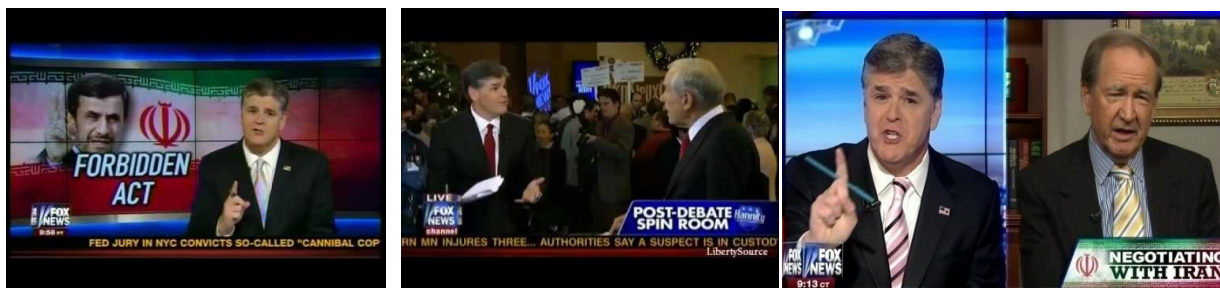

By THOMAS ERDBRINK

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Mahmoud Ahmadinejad making a comeback? Sweet!

We really miss this ballsy little fellow from Iran who had a unique talent for really pissing-off the Zionists and their hired henchmen. The despicable Sean Hannity of Mossad-Fox would refer to him as Mahmoud "Adolf" Ahmadinejad -- a damn fine compliment in our book! On hundreds of different occasions, warmonger Hannity reminded his radio listeners and FOXtard viewers that Ahmadinejad had threatened to "wipe Israel off of the map." In reality, the Farsi translated to "the Zionist occupation regime will vanish from the pages of time, like the Soviet Union." And yet, Trumpstein's butt-boy Hannity still continues to sell the big lie about the "wipe Israel off the map" quote.

Mossad-Boy Sean Hannity foams at the mouth when discussing Iran. His particular hatred for Ahmadinejad extended to American "isolationists" who argued for improved relations with Iran (above: attacking "isolationist" Ron Paul and Pat Buchanan)

It would be really fun to have the colorful and outspoken ex-President back for another round. Ahmadinejad was "notorious" for denying the Holocaust TM. (Actually, he only questioned it, which means he doesn't buy it.) The entertainment highlight of his Presidency, for us, came in 2006 when his government sponsored a two-day conference called the International Conference to Review the Global Vision of the Holocaust.

Iran's Foreign Minister declared that the conference sought "neither to deny nor prove the Holocaust, but to provide an appropriate scientific atmosphere for scholars to offer their opinions in freedom about a historical issue." Notable attendees included David Duke (oh horrors!), Robert Faurisson, Gerald Fredrick Toben, and Yisroel Dovid Weiss, a representative of the anti-Zionist Jewish sect, Neturei Karta.

1. "Holocaust Deniers" TM David Duke & Ahmadinejad 2. With anti-Zionist Neturei Karta 3. With the brilliant & courageous Holocaust debunking pioneer from France, Robert Faurisson.

The western Piranha Press widely condemned the gathering as a "Holocaust Denial" TM conference. Among the pathetic grovelers to obediently express their "shock" and dismay were Pope Benedict, President George W. Bush and British Prime Minister Tony Blair. Although the conference itself generated much controversy and negative publicity, the data presented and the opinions expressed during the meeting were blacked-out by the Judenpresse. Isn't that interesting?

After Ahmadinejad's re-election in 2009, CIA-NGO "color revolution" attempt broke out "spontaneously." College kiddies and remnants of the old "pro-western" ruling class took to the streets claiming that Ahmadinejad's re-election had been tainted by "voter-fraud." Recall the "international outrage" over that fake killing of that pretty crisis-actress "Neda" -- a staged stunt which our man Ahmadinejad called out as "suspicious." Little Mo held firm and the Green Revolution fizzled out. The Soros-CIA-NGO gang hasn't been able to bring it back since.

"Neda" from Tehran and her comical fake blood / fake death act.

But our fondest memory of Ahmadinejad is that of the beautiful open-letter from November 2006, that he penned to the American people at a time the Bush-Cheney-Wolfowitz neo-con gang had a war option against Iran "on the table." Of course, Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the evil Piranha Press deemed his letter "not fit to print" (or air) and totally blacked it out of public view -- save for a few bottom-page-posted versions which appeared on a few network websites. "Youse guys" were never supposed to read this latter, and we suspect that most of you never even knew about it. An abridged version is pasted for you here -- with a link to the CNN source at the end. It is a bit lengthier of an excerpt than what we would prefer for our daily briefing, but highly informative and well worth your time.

Ahmadinejad sure doesn't sound like a "monster" to us. We challenge anyone to rebut the logic and truth of his arguments. His case, mainly the "politically incorrect" remarks about the terrorist state of Israel, are the reasons why this letter was given the Orwellian "disappearing" treatment by the same crowd that loves to lecture us all on the importance of "a free press."

The "Bad Guys" --- with Assad (Syria), Putin (Russia) and the most-likely-murdered Chavez (Venezuela)

Noble Americans,

Were we not faced with the activities of the US administration in this part of the world and the negative ramifications of those activities on the daily lives of our peoples, coupled with the many wars and calamities caused by the US administration as well as the tragic consequences of US interference in other countries; were the American people not God-fearing, truth-loving, and justice-seeking, while the US administration actively conceals the truth and impedes any objective portrayal of current realities; and if we did not share a common responsibility to promote and protect freedom and human dignity and integrity; then, there would have been little urgency to have a dialogue with you.

While Divine providence has placed Iran and the United States geographically far apart, we should be cognizant that human values and our common human spirit, which proclaim the dignity and exalted worth of all human beings, have brought our two great nations of Iran and the United States closer together. Both our nations are God-fearing, truth-loving and justice-seeking, and both seek dignity, respect and perfection.

We all deplore injustice, the trampling of peoples' rights and the intimidation and humiliation of human beings. We all detest darkness, deceit, lies and distortion, and seek and admire salvation, enlightenment, sincerity and honesty. The pure human essence of the two great nations of Iran and the United States testify to the veracity of these statements.

Noble Americans,

Our nation has always extended its hand of friendship to all other nations of the world. Hundreds of thousands of my Iranian compatriots are living amongst you in friendship and peace, and are contributing positively to your society. Our people have been in contact with you over the past many years and have maintained these contacts despite the unnecessary restrictions of US authorities.

As mentioned, we have common concerns, face similar challenges, and are pained by the sufferings and afflictions in the world. We, like you, are aggrieved by the ever-worsening pain and misery of the Palestinian people. Persistent aggressions by the Zionists are making life more and more difficult for the rightful owners of the land of Palestine. In broad day-light, in front of cameras and before the eyes of the world, they are bombarding innocent defenseless civilians, bulldozing houses, firing machine guns at students in the streets and alleys, and subjecting their families to endless grief.

No day goes by without a new crime. Palestinian mothers, just like Iranian and American mothers, love their children, and are painfully bereaved by the imprisonment, wounding and murder of their children. What mother wouldn't? For 60 years, the Zionist regime has driven millions of the inhabitants of Palestine out of their homes. Many of these refugees have died in the Diaspora and in refugee camps. Their children have spent their youth in these camps and are aging while still in the hope of returning to homeland.

You know well that the US administration has persistently provided blind and blanket support to the Zionist regime, has emboldened it to continue its crimes, and has prevented the UN Security Council from condemning it. Who can deny such broken promises and grave injustices towards humanity by the US administration?

Governments are there to serve their own people. No people wants to side with or support any oppressors. But regrettably, the US administration disregards even its own public opinion and remains in the forefront of supporting the trampling of the rights of the Palestinian people. Let's take a look at Iraq. Since the commencement of the US military presence in Iraq, hundreds of thousands of Iraqis have been killed, maimed or displaced. Terrorism in Iraq has grown exponentially. With the presence of the US military in Iraq, nothing has been done to rebuild the ruins, to restore the infrastructure or to alleviate poverty. The US Government used the pretext of the existence of weapons of mass destruction in Iraq, but later it became clear that that was just a lie and a deception.

Although Saddam was overthrown and people are happy about his departure, the pain and suffering of the Iraqi people has persisted and has even been aggravated. In Iraq, about one hundred and fifty thousand American soldiers, separated from their families and loved ones, are operating under the command of the current US administration. A substantial number of them have been killed or wounded and their presence in Iraq has tarnished the image of the American people and government.

Their mothers and relatives have, on numerous occasions, displayed their discontent with the presence of their sons and daughters in a land thousands of miles away from US shores. American soldiers often wonder why they have been sent to Iraq. I consider it extremely unlikely that you, the American people, consent to the billions of dollars of annual expenditure from your treasury for this military misadventure.

Noble Americans,

You have heard that the US administration is kidnapping its presumed opponents from across the globe and arbitrarily holding them without trial or any international supervision in horrendous prisons that it has established in various parts of the world. God knows who these detainees actually are, and what terrible fate awaits them.

You have certainly heard the sad stories of the Guantanamo and Abu-Ghraib prisons. The US administration attempts to justify them through its proclaimed "war on terror." But every one knows that such behavior, in fact, offends global public opinion, exacerbates resentment and thereby spreads terrorism, and tarnishes the US image and its credibility among nations.

The US administration's illegal and immoral behavior is not even confined to outside its borders. You are witnessing daily that under the pretext of "the war on terror," civil liberties in the United States are being increasingly curtailed. Even the privacy of individuals is fast losing its meaning. Judicial due process and fundamental rights are trampled upon. Private phones are tapped, suspects are arbitrarily arrested, sometimes beaten in the streets, or even shot to death.

I have no doubt that the American people do not approve of this behavior and indeed deplore it. The US administration does not accept accountability before any organization, institution or council. The US administration has undermined the credibility of international organizations, particularly the United Nations and its Security Council. But, I do not intend to address all the challenges and calamities in this message.

The legitimacy, power and influence of a government do not emanate from its arsenals of tanks, fighter aircrafts, missiles or nuclear weapons. Legitimacy and influence reside in sound logic, quest for justice and compassion and empathy for all humanity.

Is there not a better approach to governance? Is it not possible to put wealth and power in the service of peace, stability, prosperity and the happiness of all peoples through a commitment to justice and respect for the rights of all nations, instead of aggression and war? We all condemn terrorism, because its victims are the innocent.

But, can terrorism be contained and eradicated through war, destruction and the killing of hundreds of thousands of innocents?

What has blind support for the Zionists by the US administration brought for the American people? It is regrettable that for the US administration, the interests of these occupiers supersede the interests of the American people and of the other nations of the world. What have the Zionists done for the American people that the US administration considers itself obliged to blindly support these infamous aggressors? Is it not because they have imposed themselves on a substantial portion of the banking, financial, cultural and media sectors?

To sum up:

It is possible to govern based on an approach that is distinctly different from one of coercion, force and injustice. It is possible to sincerely serve and promote common human values, and honesty and compassion. It is possible to provide welfare and prosperity without tension, threats, imposition or war.

We should all heed the Divine Word of the Holy Qur'an:

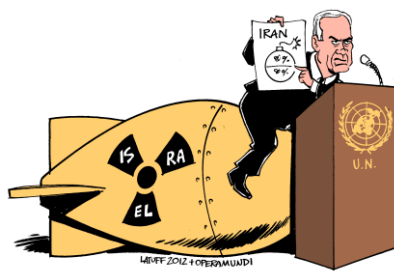

"But those who repent, have faith and do good may receive Salvation. Your Lord, alone, creates and chooses as He will, and others have no part in His choice; Glorified is God and Exalted above any partners they ascribe to Him." (28:67-68)

I pray to the Almighty to bless the Iranian and American nations and indeed all nations of the world with dignity and success.

In this piece about his love for mathematics, he reveals, albeit not intending to do so, the hidden psychological reason behind why many of today's "scientists" have gotten carried away with creating and solving math equations when they should be conducting experiments and making observations instead. The great, and we do mean great Nikola Tesla (1856-1943) warned about this 20th Century trend when he trashed Einstein's "Theory of Relativity" as:

"... a beggar wrapped in purple whom ignorant people take for a king" --- a mass of error and deceptive ideas violently opposed to the teachings of great men of science of the past and even to common sense... the theory wraps all these errors and fallacies and clothes them in magnificent mathematical garb which fascinates, dazzles and makes people blind to the underlying errors. Its exponents are very brilliant men, but they are metaphysicists rather than scientists. Not a single one of the relativity propositions has been proved." (NYT, 7/11/1935, p. 23).

Apart from the "big picture" problem of the deliberate and politically-motivated scientific fraud behind such theories as Big Bang TM, Evolution TM, Relativity TM, and Global Warming TM, there is a reason why so many otherwise honest scientists who are not "in on it" come to actually believe, quite passionately, in so many of these bogus theories. And that reason is revealed in Friedman's article.

*As students, the blackboard masturbaters Stephen Hawking -- that over-rated stiff from Weekend at Bernie's -- and St. Albert Einstein (cough cough) struggled with applied (experimental) physics. They only "excelled" in the less demanding, purely math-based field of "theoretical physics."*

Friedman: I was doing KenKen, a math puzzle, on a plane recently when a fellow passenger asked why I bothered. I said I did it for the beauty. O.K., I'll admit it's a silly game: You have to make the numbers within the grid obey certain mathematical constraints, and when they do, all the pieces fit nicely together and you get this rush of harmony and order.

Analysis: Friedman gets "a rush of harmony and order." Who among us has not experienced a similar "rush" by solving a challenging math problem back during school days, or piecing together a jig-saw puzzle, or figuring out how to assemble something. The more challenging the problem, the greater the "rush."

Friedman: I've loved math since I was a kid because it felt like a big game and because it seemed like the laziest thing you could do mentally. After all, how many facts do you need to remember to do math?

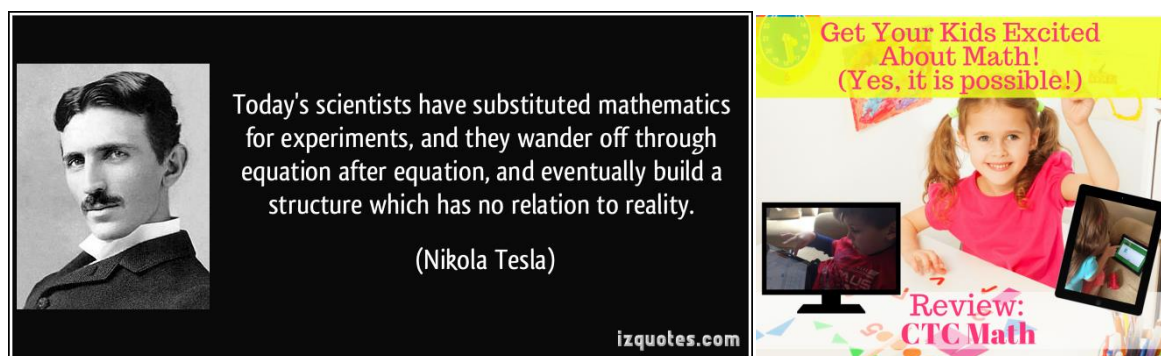

Analysis: Once one has mastered the basic principles of mathematics, it really does become "a game" which, in spite of its seeming complexity, does not require the type of creative mental work needed to devise sound experiments. As counter-intuitive as it may seem to the mathematically-challenged among us, there really is a certain "laziness" to basing science upon math-games instead of experiments.

Friedman: Later in college, I got excited by physics, ...

Analysis: In college, the only thing your charming reporter here got excited by was the girls-gone-wild, but I digress. The word "excited," like "rush," again conveys pleasure and emotion.

Friedman: ... which I guess you could say is just a grand exercise in applying math to understand the universe.

Analysis: More like mis-applying math to "understand the universe." Tesla also warned about this trend of pushing mathematics way beyond the limits of its useful purpose -- one of our favorite Tesla quotes (below):

1. Tesla warned about this disturbing trend, and even questioned the sanity of the "relativists." 2. Children can indeed become "excited" by math, once they understand it. When the emotional gratification of solving equations becomes addicting, a "scientist" can fall into the trap of mistaking math equations (the language of science) for the actual "science" in and of itself.

Friedman: We all know that art, music and nature are beautiful. They command the senses and incite emotion. How can a mathematical idea inspire the same feelings? Well, for one thing, there is something very appealing about the notion of universal truth ...

Analysis: Emotion. Emotion. Emotion.

Friedman: But our brains also appear to respond to mathematical beauty as they do to other beautiful experiences. In a 2014 study, Semir Zeki, a neuroscientist at University College London, and other researchers used M.R.I. scanners to observe the brains of 15 mathematicians while they were thinking about various equations.

...

The researchers found a strong correlation between finding an equation beautiful and activation of the medial orbitofrontal cortex, This is the same area that has been shown to light up when people find music or art beautiful, so it seems to be a common neural signature of aesthetic experience.

Geeks, take heart: While you can't see or hear mathematical ideas, they too are capable of arousing a sense of beauty.

Analysis: "Arousal," eh? I was wondering what you were doing in the bathroom with that math book, Friedman.

Emotion. Emotion. Emotion. Now, here comes the truly scientific kicker.

Friedman: The medial orbitofrontal cortex is also active when we find something pleasurable or rewarding, which isn't surprising either, since you'd expect beautiful experiences to be both.

Analysis: In other words, these oh-so-logical and oh-so-dispassionate thinkers who refer to themselves as "theoretical scientists," are operating under the intoxicating influence of their medial orbitofrontal cortex. In essence, they are getting "high" on math -- even as they mock their doubters for being guided by "emotions!"

The reason that these dorkie druggies react so irrationally, or even violently, when challenged (again, we are talking about the duped true-believing scientists here, not the master fraudsters who originate the fake theories) is because their chemically-intoxicated egos (which are really just infantile psyches) cannot cope with having their drugs -- their "rush" -- taken away from them.

Crackpots are actually getting high on elaborate math equations with no basis in reality. Their Fake Science is then peddled by the Fake Media.

The psuedo-scientists invest so much emotion into the elegant mathematics of the theory-of-the-month that they never pause to reflect upon whether or not the underlying assumptions behind the equation were ever relevant to reality to begin with. Nor do they seem to notice that the theory which a given equation purports to "prove", as dazzling as the calculations may be, may not actually be observable. Sorry, professor, but the most important equation of all, when it comes to true science, is this: NO = NS (No Observation = No Science).

In short, the "theoretical scientists" may be skilled at crafting and solving the math equations which "excite" and "arouse" them so much, but they absolutely suck at the underlying skill of philosophy which should serve as the basis of any true scientific hypothesis and subsequent experiment. So don't be intimidated by these ass-clowns, their "credentials," their blackboards, and their Nobel Prizes. Just laugh at them.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an interesting piece in today's New York Times about how the pleasure centers of the brain are activated when a mathematician solves a problem.

Boobus Americanus 2: I always enjoyed the mental challenge of math when I was in school.

Sugar: I enjoy the mental challenge of playing cards. That doesn't make me a frickin' sscientisst!

Editor: You always cheat at cards.

Washington Post: It's Not Easy Being the New Conservative Columnist At the New York Times

FOX News: New York Times Hire of Conservative Scribe Bret Stephens Seen as Move to Widen Readership

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The fact that both the "left" Washington Compost and the "right" FAUX News both chose to describe the Slimes' hiring of "conservative" columnist Bret Stephens, formerly of the "conservative" Wall Street Urinal, as an attempt by Sulzberger's Slimes to "broaden its audience," proves the both wings of America's ruling Idiocracy, notwithstanding their different twists of flavor, are all essentially part of the same PRC (Predatory Ruling Class). In spite of his English name and mild skepticism for Global Warming TM, the new kid on 8th Avenue -- just like that other Slimes scribbler with an English name and a "conservative" label, "David Brooks -- is as Jewish, as Globalist, as warmongering and as rabidly Zionist as they come. Stephens' occasional girly-punches leveled at the warmist scam or this or that liberal only serve the all-important purpose of "sheep dipping" his wolfish face in the eyes of gullible conservatives.

Stephens' "conservative" resume includes a degree from Rothschild's London School of Economics, a stint as Editor of the Jerusalem Post, a Pulitzer Prize, and a series of scathing anti-Trump (hence, pro-Hillary) columns inked during the 2016 QFS (Quadrennial Freak Show). With credentials such as those, tagging Stephens as a "conservative" is like calling the morbidly obese Chris Crispy Cream Christie a health-food fanatic. But that's how the PRC's Left-Right mind-control scam rolls on, year after year after year.

This dirty business of the Press controlling both sides of any given political divide has been going on a long time. And no one nailed it any better than The Great One (that's Hitler for you newbies and normies). From His Munich speech of July 28, 1922, given when he was still relatively unknown, -- take it away boss:

The Boss figured had the Left-Right "March of Tyranny" all figured out a long time ago.

"The master-stroke of the Jew was to claim the leadership of the fourth estate (the press). He founded the Movements both of the Social Democrats and the Communists. His policy was twofold: he had his 'apostles' in both political camps.

“Under the concept of Democracy, it was possible to create a State-form by which the mastery over the herd by the Jewish intelligentsia who control the organs of information is guaranteed. Though small in numbers and therefore completely hidden in the body of the people, who quite unconscious of whom they were obeying, in the end did but serve the purposes of this small stratum of society.”

You see, Sulzberger's Slimes will graciously allow you to have a choice between high-salaried in-house "liberals" like Paul Krugman (cough cough) and Tom Friedman (cough cough) -- or high-salaried in-house "respectable conservatives" like David Brooks (cough cough) or Bret Stephens (cough cough). Meanwhile, writers like ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times are confined to the outer reaches of the Internet -- at least until it remains legal. How bloody unjust is the world in which we live in!

The Jewish "liberals" Friedman & Krugman agree with the Jewish "conservatives" Brooks and Stephens on just about every damn thing that really matters!

Boobus Americanus 1: The New York Times just brought in a conservative columnist from the Wall Street Journal.

Boobus Americanus 2: It's important to give voice to both sides of an issue -- as long it is not one of those right-wing conspiracy extremists.

Sugar: Let me do a frickin' column! I'll sshow them uppity New York libtardss a right-wing consspiracy extremisst like they never sseen before!

New York Times: Aircraft Carrier Wasn't Sailing to Deter
North Korea, as U.S. Suggested

By MARK LANDLER and ERIC SCHMITT

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

In our controversial Easter Sunday TomatoBubble piece titled, "Could Trump, Putin & Xi Be Conspiring For Peace?" -- we speculated that Trumpstein's anti-Syrian and anti-North Korean sabre-rattling-over-chocolate-cake with Xi may have been nothing more than theater intended to hold the world-warmongers at bay. This story about the "armada" that was said to have been headed towards North Korea, when, in reality, it was actually sailing away from North Korea, only strengthens the hypothesis that Trumpstein does not intend to make war against Lil' Kim.

1. Trumpstein's "armada" was actually heading away from the Korean peninsula. 2. "Xi, I'm gonna make everybody think that an attack on North Korea is imminent. Then you step in and make it look like we all came to an agreement, because of my leadership. Putin and Assad are all in as well."

From the article:

"We're sending an armada," Mr. Trump said to Fox News last Tuesday afternoon.

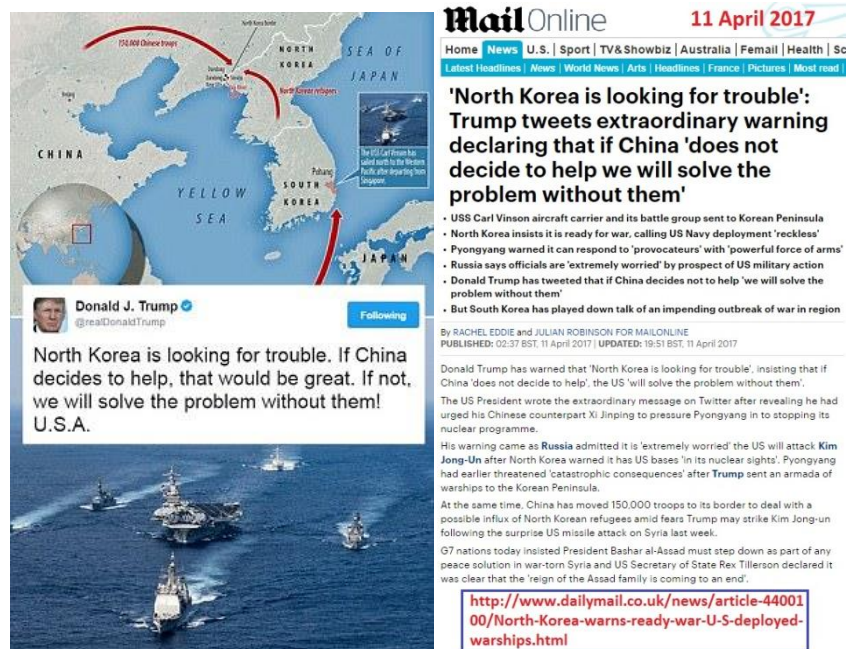

The problem was that the carrier, the Carl Vinson, and the three other warships in its strike force were that very moment sailing in the opposite direction, to take part in joint exercises with the Australian Navy in the Indian Ocean, 3,500 miles southwest of the Korean Peninsula."

White House officials said Tuesday that they had been relying on guidance from the Defense Department. Officials there described a glitch-ridden sequence of events ... which perpetuated the false narrative that a flotilla was racing toward the waters off North Korea.

By the time the White House was asked about the Carl Vinson, its imminent arrival had been emblazoned on front pages across East Asia, fanning fears that Mr. Trump was considering a pre-emptive military strike. It was portrayed as further evidence of the president's muscular style days after he ordered a missile strike on Syria that came while he and President Xi Jinping of China chatted over dessert during a meeting in Florida.

With Mr. Trump himself playing up the show of force, Pentagon officials said, rolling back the story became difficult."

South Korean and Japanese news media, as well as Sulzberger's Slimes, had all hyped-up the "armada" as evidence that the crisis was intensifying. Even Sugar and I, er, "the Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times ripped into Trumpstein for provoking World War 3 after Trumpstein himself stoked fears of military action with an early AM Twitter rant: "North Korea is looking for trouble. If China decides to help, that would be great. If not, we will solve the problem without them! U.S.A."

Trumpstein tweeted against North Korea and China; and the Piranha Press took the bait.

Now it seems that the Piranha Press is catching on to the possibility that the White House, as it did with the Syrian missiles-strikes-to-nowhere, is playing them on North Korea as well. For its part in the global drama, the Chinese are expressing "concerns" about the big showdown as they plead with Sherrif Trumpstein for calm and diplomacy. Meanwhile, Vice President Mike Pence continues to play his assigned supporting role by visiting vassal-state South Korea and spewing out more "tough guy" war rhetoric to add to the effect. Of course, this is not in any way to suggest that the Trumpstein-Kushner co-presidency is going to turn against the Masters of the Universe (cough cough) and finally liberate us from the Globalist-Marxist-Zionist Axis of Evil and restore Jefferson's America. No way.

Our interpretation of this game-playing scenario (assuming it turns out to be correct) is that among the ranks of the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class), and even within the government of Israel and the Mossad itself, there are a number of elites who just don't think World War 3 is a good idea. You see, even the greasiest of gangsters love their children too!

1. "By conquest or consent." Evidently, there is a faction of the Predatory Ruling Class which prefers the long game towards World Order to the World War 3 route. 2. Kissinger, who speaks with hope and optimism of Trumpstein, has always been one of those Globalists who seems to prefer multi-decade strategic subversion to the World War scenario.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times that Trump's armada wasn't even sailing towards North Korea.

Boobus Americanus 2: His missile strike on Syria and his Pacific armada seem to have been tricks to boost his popularity.

Sugar: *Happy frickin' Birthday to you. Happy frickin' Birthday to you.
Happy frickin' Birthday Mein Fuhrer. Happy frickin' Birthday to you!*

New York Times: Ruth Sulzberger Holmberg, Newspaper Publisher, Dies at 96

By ROBERT D. McFADDEN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Ruth Sulzberger Holmberg (cough cough), an aunt of Slimes head-honcho Arthur Ochs Sulzberger Jr., has died in Chattanooga, Tennessee at the age of 96. Sugar and I, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times had never heard of this woman before, but a close "reading-between-the-lines" deciphering of this puff-piece eulogy tells us all we need to know to feel good about saying, with remorseless righteousness, to this influential wench -- rot in hell Ruthie, rot in hell.

Slimes: Growing up in a newspaper family in New York, Mrs. Holmberg was imbued from adolescence with journalistic traditions of social responsibility, Translation: Growing up as a Sulzberger, Red Ruthie saw it as her divine mission to spread Marxist poison through the press.

Slimes: ... and that heritage became manifest in Chattanooga as she presided over a newspaper known for editorials that denounced racial segregation,...

Translation: The she-devil went down to Dixie to stir up the happy bruthas and sistas against the big bad White Man.

Like Ruth Sulzberger, most of the "White" outside agitators who went to states like Tennessee to help Marxist Loser King promote "civil rights" were Jewish. They didn't give a damn about Blacks, of course. Their true cause was to subordinate the White Man and prepare him for his ultimate extinction.

Slimes: ... exposed government corruption and demanded cleaner air in a city of heavy industry and belching smokestacks.

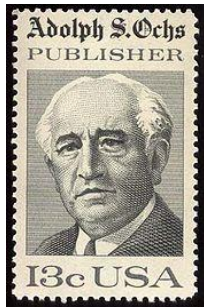

Translation: ... attacked conservative politicians and the business community.

Slimes: For years she was a pariah in a city where many regarded her as an Eastern liberal interloper.

Analysis: She was seen as an "Eastern liberal interloper" because that's exactly what she was.

Slimes: She was a granddaughter of Adolph S. Ochs, who bought The Chattanooga Times in 1878 and The New York Times in 1896...

Analysis: For more than a century now, this evil communist clan has been at this ghoulis game of manufacturing public opinion. Amazing, isn't it?

That's Fit to Print"

The Ochs-Sulzberger Crime Dynasty --- 121 years of influence, answerable to no one.

Slimes: A Smith College graduate who had been a Red Cross volunteer in England and France during World War II,...

Analysis: Elite Jews don't volunteer for anything unless there is something in it for them. Red Ruthie worked with the Red Cross in England and France only to support the Jewish war against peaceful Germany.

Slimes: Chattanooga, a city of 140,000 in southeastern Tennessee, was nothing remotely like the New York City where Mrs. Holmberg had grown up, in Manhattan.

Translation: The people may not have been "sophisticated," but unlike New York elite, they were honest and decent.

Slimes: It (Chattanooga) did not welcome Eastern liberals or Jews, even secular Jews who were married to Christians, as she was.

Translation: Wherever "Eastern liberals or Jews" touch down, they immediately start acting as if they own the place.

Slimes: Racial segregation was practiced there and "outsiders" were distrusted.

Comment: Sounds like Israel --- only we don't recall Tennessee ever dropping white phosphorous and cluster bombs on Black neighborhoods.

Slimes: Music, art and other cultural offerings were limited.

Translation: The good Christian folk of Dixieland didn't take to kindly to the type of pornography, vulgarity and degenerate art that scum like the Sulzberger's bring with them like a plague.

Slimes: The Chattanooga Times, a morning paper with a circulation of about 40,000, turned profits but was shunned by many readers and advertisers, who preferred a rival paper that often skirted local controversies and offered a deeply conservative viewpoint.

Translation: Sulzberger's Marxist filth was deeply resented by many locals.

Slimes: "I was born into the Sulzberger-Ochs family," she declared, "and am deeply committed to the quality of journalism that these two names have come to exemplify."

Translation: "I will shove my Marxism down the throats of these racist rednecks whether they like it or not."

Slimes: The Chattanooga Times championed the racial integration of schools and universities, supported civil rights legislation in Congress...

Translation: The Chattanooga Times was anti-White.

Slimes: The Times also endorsed reforms to ... expand the voting franchise and give black residents, a third of the population, a larger voice in municipal affairs.

Translation: Red Ruthie, like Karl Marx, advocated universal voting rights for all, including the illiterate, the indigent, the moron-level IQ crowd and the dead.

Slimes: As her influence widened, Mrs. Holmberg became nationally prominent. She was elected president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association in 1984 and later became the second woman, after Katharine (Meyer) Graham (cough cough), the longtime publisher of The Washington Post, to be elected as a director of The Associated Press, one of the dominant news service in America.

Translation: Jews run the media.

Slimes: After leaving The Chattanooga Times, she remained active in philanthropy and civic affairs.

Translation: She used her wealth to promote the spread of Marxist cancer throughout Dixie.

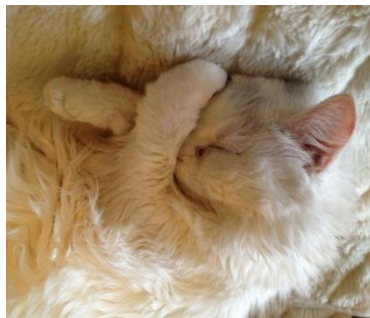

The Big 3 Yentas of the Yiddish Yellow Press are all gone now, but oh what damage they did!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times about a Jewish lady who owned a newspaper in Tennessee and has just died. She was one of the Sulzberger family that runs the New York Times. The racists down there really hated her.

Boobus Americanus 2: The South has not yet learned to be multi-cultural.

James & Kathryn Murdoch / Lachlan & Sarah Murdoch

New York Times: In House of Murdoch, Sons Set About An Elaborate Overhaul

By BROOKS BARNES and SYDNEY EMBER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

For the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class), the neo-con propaganda outlet FOX News has, for the past 20 years or so, served the important purpose of keeping conservatives on a leash long enough to allow to them vent off their frustration, yet just short enough to keep them from wandering off into the land of total truth. The sole saving grace of the network was that, in allowing just enough cosmetic "conservatism" to air before millions of viewers, a percentage of the more astute elements of the massive audience would eventually wander off the plantation completely and join the ranks of the full truth "conspiracy theorists" TM. Indeed, during the late 1990's, your now fully enlightened Editor here passed through the FAUX News / Rush Limbaugh halfway-house before growing out of the "Left-Right" control cage altogether.

For that reason, in spite of our disdain for Rupert Murdoch's FAUX, we are nonetheless troubled by the recent and much-publicized rise of his de-balled sons (Lachlin & James) and their stupid and controlling communist wives (Sarah & Kathryn). The scuttlebutt, coming from multiple sources within FOX, is that the contemptible, yet immensely popular, Bill O'Reilly was forced out by these beautiful women. O'Reilly's coveted 8 PM slot will be filled by Tucker Carlson, whose first guest as the new 8-PMer under the reign of the Bolshevik Bitches will be a man that O'Reilly once mocked -- the freakish trannie, Bruce Jenner (now referred to as "Caitlyn").

1. Kathryn made no effort to hide her love for Hillary and red-hot hatred for Trump & Bannon (She likes Ivanka though!)
2. Kathryn's "kinder, gentler" FOX will feature the degenerate freak Bruce Jenner.

Expect some of O'Reilly's elderly following to have heart attacks when Jenner appears with Carlson this coming Monday (April 24th)! But don't blame Carlson (who is actually not that bad) for having such a vile Satanic creature on his program. You can be sure that the Murdoch women, Kathryn in particular, are behind this obscenity. The Sisters-in-Law Murdoch had already previously amended the company's benefits package to include "expanded coverage for our transgender colleagues."

Both Kathryn and Sarah are known to be "progressives." Of the two, Kathryn (much like another silly little rich girl, Ivanka Trump) wields more power in her own right. She is a real fanatic when it comes to Trump-bashing, homosexuality, trannies and the Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM hoax. Since the Murdochs swallowed up National Geographic in 2015, that pseudo-scientific rag has continued to aggressively push the hoax while not allowing any real scientists to rebut the "settled science." The "philanthropist" Kathryn also worked for both the Clinton Climate Initiative and the Environmental Defense Fund.

Old man Rupert once dismissed the Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM hoax as "alarmist nonsense." We expect this attitude at FOX News to "evolve" and eventually align with the views of the young Murdochs' National Geographic and Kathryn's beloved Environmental Defense Fund.

Now if you thought those National Geographic covers were bad, get a load of the EVIL boy-trannie child-abuse abomination that the next generation of the House of Murdoch recently put out. It's enough to almost make us want to plead with wretched old man Rupert Murdoch and that arrogant ass-clown Bill O'Reilly -- "Please, stay!"

Childhood psycho-sexual abuse --- coming soon to FOX's conservative audience.

The modern trend of men allowing their deranged women to rule over them is yet another symptom of the decay and decline of Western Civilization. Another high profile example of this alarming phenomenon is baby girl's Ivanka Trump-Kushner's uncontrolled White House antics -- such as her uninformed public support for the Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM hoax, "women's workplace issues," and her meeting with the baby butchers and baby body-part dealers of Planned Parenthood. Neither "The Donald" nor Ivanka's typically P-whipped Jewish husband, Jared Kushner, could reign in this spoiled little brat even if they wanted to.

And speaking of P-whipped, can it get any more pathetic than Pro Football Super Star and Trumpstein supporter, Tom Brady, failing to show up at the White House ceremony to honor the New England Patriots Super Bowl victory? You see, boys and girls, Brady's super-model wife, Giselle Bundchen, is an outspoken pro-abortionist, an anti-Trump tweeter, and a "Climate Change" TM libtard who is evidently embarrassed and fed-up with her husband's support for Trumpstein. We'll bet you dimes to doughnuts that the lovely Giselle put her high-heeled foot down and threatened to close down the candy store until pretty Tommy put an end to his public support for Trumpstein.

Your old-school Editor here at The Anti-New York Times has the utmost gentlemanly respect for the ladies. That respect does not extend to any "man" who allows a woman, no matter how blonde and beautiful, to de-ball and dictate to him. Unless and until men rediscover their balls and tell the Ivanka Trumps, the Giselle Bundchens, the Kathryn Murdochs and the Sarah Murdochs of our diseased and decaying society: "Shut up and sit down, you silly woman!" -- there will be no hope for the recovery of our collective sanity. Then again, in fairness to such men and in consideration of what our Marxist courts allow these wayward women to inflict upon husbands and fathers, many bullied men have no choice but to meekly accept the mischief of their wives -- or face alienation from their children.

Sick upside-down world!

Proverbs 21:19: Better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and angry woman.

* * * * *

1 & 2. On the very day that Giselle tweeted out her support for the coming anti-Trump "Climate, Jobs & Justice" communist rally in DC, pussy-boy Tommy, (who had openly endorsed Trump!) pulled an inexplicable and disrespectful White House snub.

3. James & Kathryn Murdoch --- you can just tell who rules that roost!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times that the Murdoch sons and their wives are much more liberal than the old man.

Boobus Americanus 2: It would be nice if they overhaul FOX News and make it more objective. As it stands now, I can't stomach it.

Sugar: Hey Boobusss! Ya think your panssie-ass could stomach a ssubscription to the Anti-New York Times?

Editor: *If Boobus can't even handle the watered-down half-truths of FAUX
News, then he'd surely puke his guts up over the pure brew that we serve up.*

Geoffrey Rush as the older Albert Einstein in "Genius," a series beginning on National Geographic.

New York Times: Review: 'Genius,' a Portrait of the Man Behind the Equation

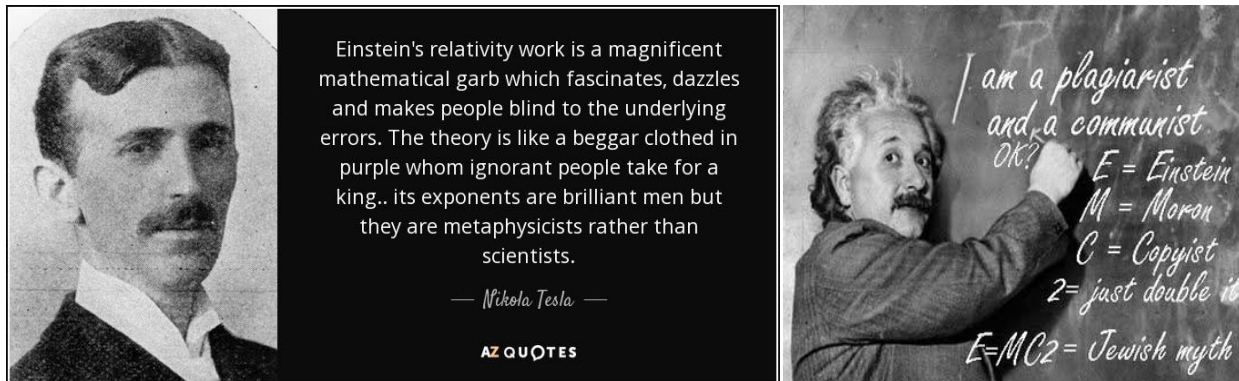

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Even for those of us who watch a minimal amount of television each week, a bit of channel-surfing was sure to stumble across the hype over National Geographic's just-released 10 part mini-series titled "Genius" --- about the communist, crackpot, plagiarist, warmonger and Time Magazine's "Man of the 20th Century," St. Albert Einstein (cough cough). The artificial exaltation of the slovenly sock-less fiend, that the great Serbian-American scientist / inventor Nikola Tesla referred to (in a private letter) as "a long-haired crank," ranks right up there with the Holohoax and the 9/11 scams as the most elaborate con jobs of all time.

Even if, purely for the sake of argument, we were to accept Einstein's stolen "Theory of Relativity" TM as mathematical proof that space is curved, time is "relative," and nothing can ever exceed the speed of light, the fact remains that none of Einstein's "discoveries" ever had any practical application. So why is he so endlessly hero-worshipped whereas his contemporary applied scientists -- great men whose work has improved and even saved countless lives - such as Roentgen (X-Rays), Tesla (commercial electricity and so much more), Marconi (wireless technology), Fleming (anti-biotic), Carrier (father of refrigeration & air conditioning), Von Braun (rocket science) and so many others remain unknown in the popular culture? Need we even answer that rhetorical question for you?

Tesla the Great had that Jewish ass-clown and his "relativity" nonsense all figured out.

Totally unconnected to the recent TV hype of "Genius," while randomly browsing through the historical pdf archives of the New York Slimes last night -- a service made possible by the generous support of our readers (hint-hint) -- the cosmic hand of fate dropped us on a very interesting 1940 puff-piece about this wretched monster who had fled "Nazi" Germany (because of his Communist affiliations) and was in the process of becoming an "American." We decided to incorporate our rebuttal to the hypocrisy and openly-expressed political subversion of the "genius" into today's feature.

EINSTEIN PREDICTS AN ARMED LEAGUE

Scientist Says Wilson's Work Will Be Revived by Nations in a More Powerful Form

Times, 1940: Professor Albert Einstein advocated a world-wide federation of nations with "control over the whole military power of its members" soon after he had taken his final examination for American citizenship here today. He predicted the recreation of Woodrow Wilson's League of Nations "in a more powerful form."

Rebuttal: Why did this piece of filth even bother to take an American citizenship exam if his wished to see America (and all nations) ended and rolled up into a "federation of nations" stripped of all individual self-defense and subject to a "powerful" world government?

Times, 1940: The author of the theory of relativity asserted that "a Federal organization of the nations of the world is not only possible but an absolute necessity if the conditions on our planet are not to become unbearable for men."

Rebuttal: Sounds exactly like the Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM hoax of today, doesn't it? You see, in order to "save the planet," we need a New World Order. Get it?

Times, 1940: From Princeton, where he is a Professor of Mathematics, ...

Rebuttal: You see, he was only a college math teacher -- not an experimental scientist.

1. Math equations are only the language of science --- not the science in and of itself. 2. Tesla the Great warned about the growing use of "dazzling math" to obfuscate truth.

Times, 1940: Professor Einstein came to Trenton accompanied by his daughter, Margot ... both seeking citizenship.

Rebuttal: Einstein didn't believe in nations, so why even bother? He once said: "I am by heritage a Jew, by citizenship a Swiss, and by makeup a human being, and only a human being, without any special attachment to any state or national entity whatsoever."

Times, 1940: The white-haired German emigre ...

Rebuttal: "German" my ass! (cough cough)

Times, 1940: .. talked affably with newspaper men as he entered the court house.

Rebuttal: The newspapermen of the day followed ugly Albert about like puppy dogs, and the egomaniac who H.L. Mencken once referred to as a "fiend for publicity" loved every moment of it.

Times, 1940: In his interview with Mr. Dimock, Professor Einstein said:

"Several years ago, when asked why I had given up my position in Germany, I made this statement: "As long as I have any choice, I will only stay in a country where political liberty, toleration and equality of all citizens before the law is the rule."

Rebuttal: Oh, cut the crap, Albert! You left Germany because the new Boss wasn't going to put up with your Marxist bullshine anymore. That, plus the fact that so many of Germany's great men of science openly scoffed at your crackpot theory, is what prompted you to come to America and maintain your "rock star" status.

Einstein mania ended in the Great One's Germany. It reignited 10-fold upon his arrival to Jewish-run America. Reporters swarmed the "genius" wherever he went and the fame-addicted fraud loved every moment of it.

Times, 1940 (quoting Einstein): "I think from what I have seen of Americans since I have come here is that they are not suited by temperament or tradition for existence under a totalitarian system."

Rebuttal: If you were so put off by "totalitarian systems", St. Albert, then why did you refuse to sign a 1934 petition condemning the very "totalitarian" Stalin's mass killings and imprisonments? In refusing to sign, you wrote: "The Russians have proved that their only aim is really the improvement of the lot of the Russian people."

Times, 1940 (quoting Einstein): "Among the outstanding statesmen, Woodrow Wilson is perhaps the truest example of the intellectual type. ..."

Rebuttal: The man that King Jew Bernard Baruch and others blackmailed into prolonging a nearly-ended war, and getting 125,000 of his countrymen killed for Globalism and Zionism, is, in the twisted view of the great "genius" and "pacifist," an "outstanding statesman" and "intellectual." (palm to face, shaking head, sighing).

Times, 1940 (quoting Einstein): "His greatest achievement, the League of Nations, appears today a failure on superficial observation. But in spite of the mutilation by his contemporaries and the boycott of his fellow countrymen,..."

Rebuttal: Ah yes. Those stupid "isolationists" who "mutilated" the "great achievement" of Woodrow Wilson Warmonger. Albert, your politics is as screwed up as your fake science --- but then again, you already know that, dontcha?

Times, 1940 (quoting Einstein): "Wilson's work will be created, in my opinion, in a more powerful form. Then only will the importance of this great innovator be fully recognized. A worldwide organization cannot insure peace effectively unless it has control over the entire military power of its members."

Rebuttal: All military power concentrated in a single global entity? Sure sounds a lot like "totalitarianism," eh, Professor?

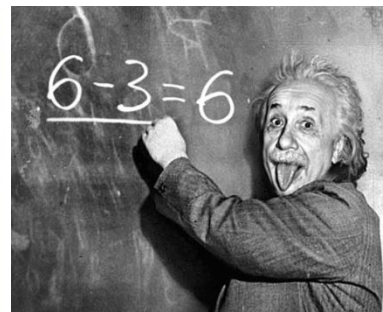

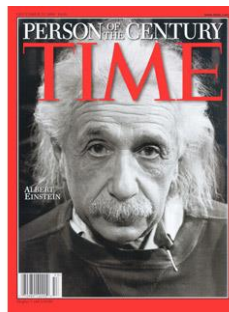

The Globalists immortalize their own as the "intellectual" boobs guzzle down their liquid excrement as if it were mothers' milk.

Boobus Americanus 1: Are you going to watch that mini-series about Einstein on National Geographic?

Boobus Americanus 2: I am looking forward to it very much. The genius of Einstein is without parallel.

Sugar: Hey Boobusss! Your brain is as curved as Einsstein'ss imaginary universse!

Graves on Isle of the Dead in Tasmania. The Warmists claim that the island on which the graveyard lies is being "chewed away" by the sea.

New York Times: Review: As Rising Seas Erode Shorelines, Tasmania Shows What Can Be Lost

By JUSTIN GILLIS

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

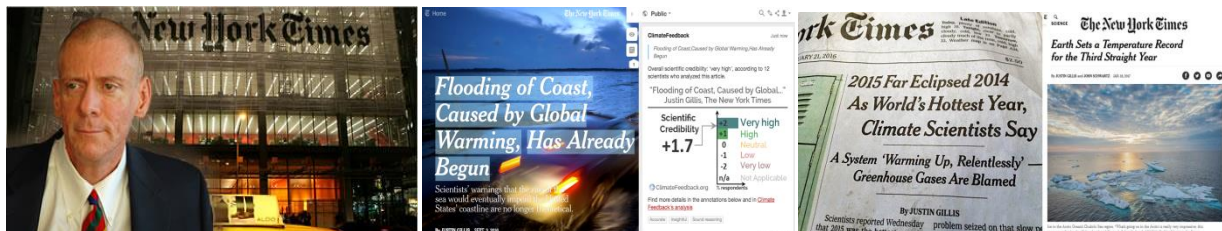

Justin Gillis is a single-issue propagandist for Sulzberger's Slimes. His personal Slimes archive page reads:

"Justin Gillis covers the science of global climate change and the policy implications of that science."

TomatoBubble.com and the excellent ClimateDepot.com have rebutted the outrageous false claims of this seditious snake on several occasions. But that hasn't caused him to tone down his works of science-fiction to a more plausible-sounding level. His libtarded audience evidently buys his bullshine, so why should he? Far from even pretending to be objective or reasonable, greasy Gillis' garbage appears to be getting even more anti-scientific. Even by his standards, this piece about shoreline erosion ranks as one of most dishonest examples of "Fake Science" that we have seen on the subject.

Haz-Mat suits and goggles on, boys and girls. Into Gillis' goofy Globalist garbage we now wade.

Gillis' nonsense would be comical, if its hidden agenda of world government weren't so dangerous.

Gillis: The schoolmaster Benjamin Horne went to his repose in 1843 with this sentence chiseled above his head: "Sincerely regretted by all who knew him." If he ever managed to sleep peacefully beneath that pungent epitaph, Mr. Horne can rest no longer.

Rebuttal: Oh the bloody drama!

Gillis: The very island on which he lies (Tasmania) is being chewed away by the sea. The roots of trees that have stood for decades now dangle perilously over a fast-eroding shore. A few miles away, a seaside coal mine once worked by the convicts is under similar assault by the waves.

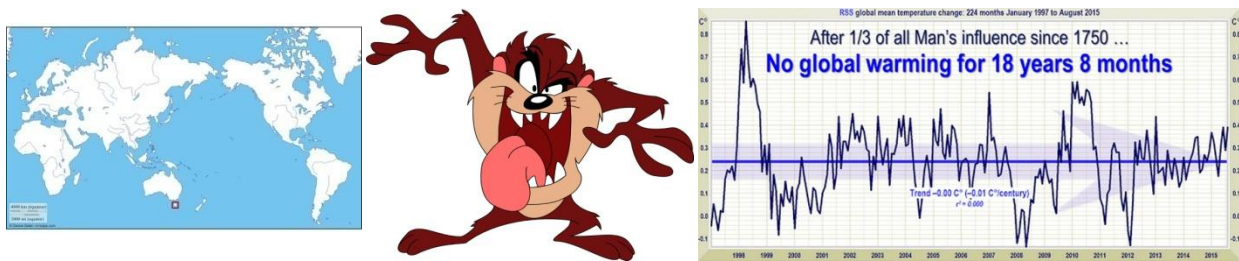

Rebuttal: Why does Gillis need to go to other side of the world to cherry-pick an allegedly "fast-eroding shore." If the oceans were rising and wreaking havoc as much as claimed, the damage should be global, right? Why not just go to Long Island or the New Jersey shore?

Gillis: The ocean is rising in large part, of course, because people the world over have burned so much coal, pumping planet-warming carbon dioxide into the air.

Rebuttal: According to the satellite data -- the gold-standard of temperature reading -- the planet is not even warming, at all. And even it was, periods of rapid cooling and rapid warming took place long before the industrial revolution.

Gillis: Chris Sharples, a coastal consultant, has lately been spotting such problems all over southern Tasmania, including once-sturdy electric poles in danger of falling over as the ocean strips the land away. ...

Rebuttal: The natural and unpredictable phenomenon of beach and/or soil erosion, like temperature fluctuations, has been observed for many centuries pre-dating the industrial revolution. There is always old sand being removed and new sand being added to beaches. Depending on factors such as storm frequency and intensity, wind patterns and ocean currents; the cycle of less sand / more sand can change drastically and unpredictably from year to year or decade to decade.

1. Tasmania, eh? This devious devil sure went a loooooong way to make his case for "beach erosion by CO2." 2. The satellite-based data doesn't lie -- so scum like Gillis just ignore it and cite rigged land-based data instead.

Gillis (quoting Sharples): "It's a smoking gun for sea-level rise causing an acceleration of erosion," he said. "And it's coal! Mined for burning!"

Rebuttal: Actually Sharples, that claim is only a "smoking gun" for your dishonesty. Apart from the fact that there is no evidence linking increased CO2 (plant food) to the warming of the planet, termites actually emit more CO2 than coal-burning. Indeed, the New York Slimes itself once reported this fact about about termite emissions.

Gillis: It (Port Arthur, Tasmania, Australia) is also under costly siege by a rising sea, ...

Rebuttal: How can the sea be rising if the polar icecap coverage (as confirmed by satellite images) is the same as it was 50 years ago? Where would the added water be coming from? Even NASA, as corrupted as it has become, confirms for us that the Antarctic has been gaining ice.

Gillis: In country after country, managers of national parks and other historic sites are realizing that climate change, represents a profound risk to the heritage they are trying to preserve.

Rebuttal: Really? Give us another example that we can shoot down as false, Gillis.

Gillis: Venice, home of architectural and artistic masterpieces, is under such grave threat that $6 billion worth of sea gates are being installed to protect against increased tidal flooding.

Rebuttal: Gillis! You dirty stinking lying communist son-of-a-whore! The reason why Italy is investing in "$6 billion worth of sea gates" to protect Venice is not because the Adriatic Sea is rising, but because the city itself, for centuries, has been slowly sinking and even tilting toward the Adriatic. This is caused by a portion of the Adriatic plate "subducting" beneath the Apennines Mountains. Look it up!

Of course, you know this -- and we know that you know.

The Adriatic Plate Subduction is about geology --- not "climate science." In due time, wet Venice, like other sunken cities of antiquity, is doomed anyway.

Gillis: In the United States, most of the glaciers that in the 19th century dotted what is now Glacier National Park have already melted,...

Rebuttal: More cherry-picked data! On every continent of the world, there can also be found glaciers which are expanding. As is the case with specially selected examples of "beach erosion," the warmists only focus on shrinking glaciers, never the expanding ones -- of which there are many.

Gillis: and the rest are expected to be gone within this century.

Rebuttal: "Expected to be gone?" Who expects this to happen, Gillis? Answer: His cherry-picked and government-funded fake scientists, that's who!

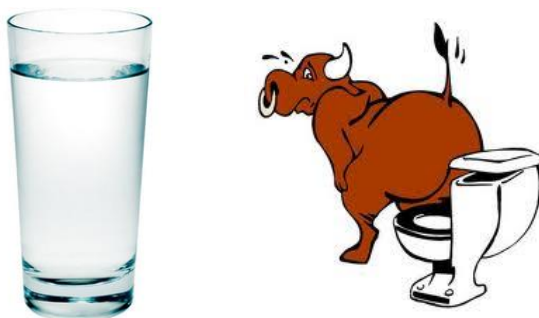

Gillis: The very symbol of America, the Statue of Liberty, cannot be considered safe. Flooding from Hurricane Sandy, made worse by a century of sea-level rise, destroyed much of the infrastructure on Liberty Island in 2012 and closed the monument to visitors for months.

Rebuttal: Hurricane Sandy was, well, a damn hurricane! And it just happened to strike during a full moon high tide (one week before Obongo's re-election). Hurricane + High Tide = Erosion. Duh. It had nothing to do with CO2.

Gillis: Rising ocean temperatures and rising sea levels are two sides of a coin: Most of the excess heat trapped by human emissions of greenhouse gases is absorbed by the ocean, and the water expands as it warms, accounting for much of the rise in the sea over the past century.

Rebuttal: New lies for old! You see, boys and girls, because the easily observable ice at the poles is clearly not "melting," the warmists have had to tweak their Fake Science to attribute the imaginary rise in sea levels to the "heated" and "expanding water." Methinks the academic ass-clowns are confusing air (which rapidly expands when heated) with water.

Experiment: Fill up a glass with cold tap water. Let it sit at room temperature for 10 minutes. Tell us if the level "expands" after just a few degrees of warm up.

According to the new crackpot theory-of-the-day, just a few degrees of room temps, near the surface only, should cause the water level to rise?

Gillis: Over the long term, the rise of the sea appears to be accelerating because of runaway growth in greenhouse emissions, and scientists fear much bigger effects this century, perhaps so large they could ultimately force the abandonment of entire coastlines.

Rebuttal: (palm to face, shaking head, sighing) And self-proclaimed "educated" people actually believe this crap.

Gillis: David Luchsinger was in charge of the Statue of Liberty for the National Park Service when Hurricane Sandy ravaged Liberty Island in 2012, ... said the issue with historic sites was not just finding the money to make them more resilient, but also slowing the emissions that are putting them at risk in the first place.

Rebuttal: Warmists like Mr. Luchsinger (cough cough) just love using the good ol' Statue of Liberty Scare. Indeed, your rebutting reporter here was in the 8th grade -- more years ago than I care to count -- when teacher taught us that "some scientists" say that the Statue of Liberty could be under water by the Year 2000. I suppose we need to bump Disaster-Day up by a few more decades, again... and then again... and then again.

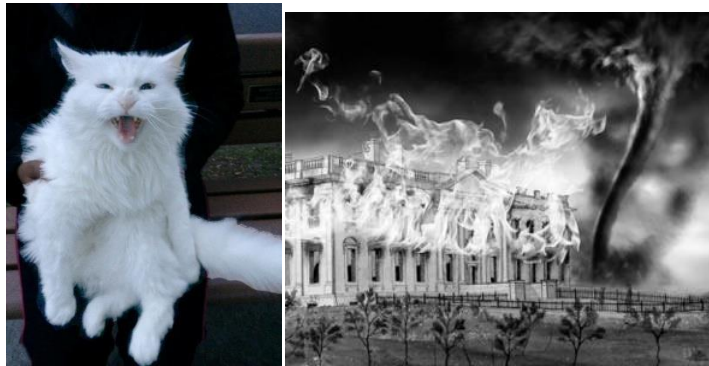

National Geographic and NBC News use ridiculous Statue of Liberty flood imagery to scare us into the "solution" to the problem --- bigger government & world government!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an interesting piece in today's New York Times about how the Tasmanian shoreline is being ravaged by the effects of Climate Change.

Boobus Americanus 2: Yeah. We still haven't recovered from Hurricane Sandy -- another climate-change-related disaster.

Sugar: Hey boobusss! A freak tornado put out the Washington DC fire that the Britissh sset in 1814. But there were no carss and coal-fired electricity plantss back then! What caussed that sstorm, idiot?!

Trumpstein's Jewish Money Boys, Gary Cohn and Steve Mnuchin roll out big tax cut proposal.

New York Times: Tax Overhaul Would Aid the Wealthiest

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Sulzberger's Slimes shows its Marxist colors with a predictable playing of the C-Card (Class Card) -- a time-tested and highly effective cousin of the "R-Card" (Race), the "W-Card" (Women) and the dual-purpose "H-Card" (Hitler / Holocaust TM). Out of the ugly emotion of envy, we are expected to oppose the idea of being able to keep more of what we earn solely because "the rich" will also benefit from the reduced rates -- as if the money would be better invested by the useless politicians and bureaucrats who want it all.

1. The Globalist-Communist-Central Bank complex taxes the economy at nearly 50% of GDP (Fed, State, Local combined).
2. Then, their propagandists play the "C-Card" by telling us that it's cigar-smoking rich "fat cat capitalists" in top hats who are robbing us; and that bigger government is the solution. 3. That image sums up the real problem.

Now, notice how these communists talk as if the money is rightly the government's:

Slimes: President Trump on Wednesday proposed sharp reductions in individual and business income tax rates and a radical reordering of the tax code that would significantly benefit the wealthy, but he offered no explanation of how the plan would be financed.

Rebuttal: "How the plan would be financed?" This is ass-backwards! It is taxpayers who "finance" the government, not the other way around.

Slimes: The proposal envisions slashing the tax rate paid by businesses large and small to 15 percent. The number of individual income tax brackets would shrink from seven to three — 10, 25 and 35 percent — easing the tax burden on most Americans, including the president, although aides did not offer the income ranges for each bracket.

Rebuttal: "Easing the tax burden on most Americans." That is all that should concern "most Americans" -- nothing more. Only a petty and envious libtarded loser would be preoccupied with how much money the new rates would save the big bad "rich" --- who just so happen to employ "most Americans."

Slimes: The president would eliminate the estate tax and alternative minimum tax, -- both moves that would richly benefit Mr. Trump.

Rebuttal: The dirty insinuation that Trumpstein's proposal was crafted to "richly benefit" himself, under the pretext of helping the economy, makes for one heck of a "conspiracy theory" TM. Evidently, such childish unfounded accusations are socially acceptable if sanctioned by the Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press.

Slimes: Corporations would not have to pay taxes on their foreign profits, an unusual proposal for a president who has championed an "America first" approach and railed against companies that move jobs and resources overseas.

Rebuttal: Why would the fact that US corporations also make profits in overseas markets run contrary to America First? Cutting taxes on money parked overseas would actually encourage them to bring those cash resources back to America.

Slimes: Mr. Trump wants to double the standard deduction for individuals, essentially eliminating taxes on around $24,000 of a couple's earnings.

Rebuttal: Now that tax cut is what should have been in the headline! "Untax the working poor!"

Slimes: That proposal was met with alarm by home builders and real estate agents, who fear it would dis-incentivize the purchase of homes. The proposal would scrap most itemized deductions, such as those for state and local tax payments, Rebuttal: Don't pop the champagne just yet. An elimination of the Federal tax deduction for local property taxes can, in some states, amounts to a nice tax increase. In a very high property tax state like our native New Jersey, the elimination of that deduction would offset a nice chunk of the cut in individual rates that Trumpstein is proposing.

Slimes: But the president would leave in place popular breaks for mortgage interest, charitable contributions and retirement savings.

Rebuttal: Good. But keep the local property tax deduction in there just the same.

Slimes: "This will pay for itself with growth and with reduction of different deductions and closing loopholes," Mr. Mnuchin said, repeating his optimistic estimate that the plan would spur the economy to grow at a rate of 3 percent annually. "The economic plan under Trump will grow the economy and will create massive amounts of revenues, trillions of dollars in additional revenues."

Rebuttal: What Mnuchin (cough cough) is saying here is actually true. Because these cuts will certainly fuel a few percentage points of economic growth, revenues to the Treasury will actually increase. Nonetheless, when did "increasing revenue" -- by any means -- become "conservative?" We should be slashing tax rates, slashing gross revenues, and "paying for it" by slashing spending even more. That exactly how President Warren Harding rapidly ended the Wilson Depression in 1921 -- which is part of the reason why modern court-historians rate him as "the worst President ever."

Harding didn't tinker with the existing rates. His administration healed America by rolling back both Wilson's taxes and Wilson's spending by a whopping 50%! The result was an instantaneous and sustained recovery (finally killed by the Fed in 1929).

Slimes: Democrats rejected what they described as magical thinking behind the plan and condemned it as a giveaway to the rich ...

Rebuttal: There goes that "C-Card" again. God these Demonrats are such scum.

Slimes: "This is an unprincipled tax plan that will result in cuts for the 1 percent, conflicts for the president, crippling debt for America and crumbs for the working people," Senator Ron Wyden of Oregon, the ranking Democrat on the Finance Committee, said in a statement.

Rebuttal: All of a sudden, after 8 years of Obongo deficits which averaged $1.2 Trillion per year, Senator Wyden (cough cough) is now concerned about "crippling debt for America?"

Slimes: "We don't need a tax plan that allows the very rich to use pass-throughs to reduce their rates to 15 percent while average Americans are paying much more,"

Senator Chuck Schumer of New York, the Democratic leader, said Wednesday. “That’s not tax reform. That’s just a tax giveaway to the very, very wealthy that will explode the deficit.”

Rebuttal: Don't worry about "exploding the deficit," Senator Schumer (cough cough). For years, Nobel Prize winning economist and Jew York Slimes columnist Paul Krugman (cough cough) has said that Obongo's massive annual deficits didn't matter. So why sweat about Trumpstein's smaller deficit-spending?

Actual Headlines!

Pre-Election Day / Post Election Day. Krugman (like all Demoncraps) was in favor of deficit spending before Trump was elected.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump's tax cut plan would favor the rich.

Boobus Americanus 2: He's going to blow up the budget deficit if he does this.

Sugar: Now, all of a sudden, you're worried about deficitss, #@&^ for brainss?!

Editor: Boobus has been trained to worry-on-command over whatever crisis the Slimes instructs him to worry about.

New York Times: How Macron Would Fix the French Economy

New York Times: Macron Denies Access to 2 Russian Media Outlets in French Campaign

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

It is quite obvious that Sulzberger's Slimes prefers Globalist Emmanuel Macron over the "far right" Marine Le Pen to win the upcoming Presidential LFS (Le Freak Show) de France. Just to keep the record straight, in the sick twisted lexicon of European politics, "far right" actually means center-left. The twice-divorced Le Pen cohabitates with a man of half Algerian Jewish descent and she is benefiting greatly from the oh-so-convenient fake terror attacks in France in much the same way that Trumpstein benefited from the fake terror attacks in America, (hmmmm, Netanyahu's war against the EU Globalists?). Of course, Le Pen is preferable to the usual Marxist scum of the French Left, but in no way is she a secret "fascist" -- unfortunately.

Following the template of America's young Golden Boy Obongo, and Italy's young Golden Boy Renzi, young Macron (39) is also being hyped-up to the stars as a "centrist" and an "outsider" who will shake up the establishment. True to the Globalist script, the Macron campaign, citing the phony pretext of "Russian hacking," has just confirmed that Russian media outlets Sputnik and Russia Today will be denied accreditations to cover the final week of the Macron campaign. Just the familiar stink of this usual recipe alone should suffice to tell us all we need to know about this putrid little Euro-commie creep. But a bit of basic research confirms that the rotten smell is exactly what we suspected it to be.

We learned and confirmed, just from the opening paragraph of his Wikipedia summary, that in 2008, the then-30-year old Macron became an investment banker at the "prestigious" Rothschild & Cie Bank of Paris -- the modern day version of which was "re-created by David de Rothschild, Eric de Rothschild and Edouard de Rothschild in 1984." Enough said.

1. Macron (center) with David de Rothschild (older man with gray hair) --- You know the story. 2. Le Pen allegedly opposes Globalism.

There really was no need to read any further at that point. "Youse guys" already know what the Rothschild connection means. But Sugar the Crazy Conspiracy Cat insisted we keep digging. And lo and behold, we found that in addition to Macron being a faithful servant of the usual suspects, his deranged, and we really do mean in a literal sense, deranged libtard wife totally rules over him. This is to be expected. For not only is Macron a "modern man," but his wife (who should have been locked up in prison or a mental asylum many years ago) is old enough to be his mother.

Macron is married to his former school High School drama teacher, Brigitte Trogneux, now age 64. They first met when he was her 15-year-old student and she was already a married 40-year-old mother of three -- her middle daughter a classmate of teen-age Macron! Over his parents strong objections and numerous attempts to keep crazy Brigitte away from their son, the two "officially" became a couple when he turned 17. They eventually married in 2007.

Sacre bleu!

It gets even freakier. The best man at the wedding of Macron and Mom was the late Henry Hermand (1924-2016), a billionaire businessman and socialist who loaned 550,000 Euros to Macron for the purchase of his first apartment in Paris. Hermand, a bachelor rumored to have been homosexual; also let his boy toy use his offices on the Avenue des Champs Élysées in Paris. As with the flaming sodomite Obongo, homosexual rumors have swirled about Macron as well -- the most recent linking him to a French Radio mogul named Mattieu Gallet.

From what we understand, Le Pen (who has been kissing kosher butt more and more lately) has been rapidly closing ground on Golden Boy and his surrogate mother. We suspect that if elected on May 8th, Le Pen, like Trumpstein, might apply a few bandages to badly bleeding France. But we only expect her to "negotiate a better deal" in regard to the European Union instead of the needed pullout from the Beast of Brussels. As for the long term prospects of France, well, regardless of the outcome of this election, any nation that would allow the perverted likes of Macron and Mom to come this close to the Presidency is one that is already a dead nation walking. Same goes for America.

1. After mom-wife Brigitte ruined Macron's young mind, Sugar Daddy Hermand busted his butt-hole. 2. Macron and president of France Radio, Mathieu Gallet, both 40, have been sodomistically linked. 3. I know Monsieur Bonaparte, I know.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Russia is trying to help the far right Le Pen get elected.

Boobus Americanus 2: Who is she running against?

Sugar: A French faggot and his communisst mother.

Editor: It HAS been downhill for France ever since Rothschild's proxies defeated Napoleon.

Demonstrators held a rally in Seoul on Saturday to oppose a plan to deploy a missile defense system known as Thaad.

New York Times: U.S. Confirms It Will Pay for Antimissile System, South Korea Says

By CHOE SANG-HUN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

After saying that South Korea should pay for its own "missile defense," Trumpstein was again contradicted and overridden by one of the serpents that the "Powers That Be" have strategically placed around him. A "reading-between-the-lines" of excerpts from just the opening paragraphs confirms that the evil "National Security Adviser" from the CFR (Council on Foreign Relations), General H.R. McMaster, is beyond Trumpstein's control:

"The Trump administration has reaffirmed that the United States will pay for a missile defense battery it is deploying in South Korea, despite President Trump's recent statement that he wanted Seoul to cover the cost... Mr. Trump caused alarm here on Thursday when he told Reuters that he wanted South Korea to pay for the Terminal High Altitude Area Defense system, known as Thaad, which is being installed as a defense against North Korean missiles.

On Sunday, the White House national security adviser, Lt. Gen. H. R. McMaster, called his South Korean counterpart, Kim Kwan-jin, and “the two reconfirmed what has already been agreed” about the system’s costs ...General McMaster “explained that the recent statements by President Trump were made in a general context in line with the U.S. public expectations on burden sharing with allies.”

There it is. McMaster has got Trumpstein's balls in a jar and there doesn't seem to be much that the big-talking billionaire can do about it.

The difference in body language tells the tale. Trump seemed comfortable with General Mike Flynn (Image 1), but not so much when Soros agent McMaster was forced upon him after pro-Russian Flynn was squeezed out (Image 2).

The Thaad system had been a very contentious issue in South Korea well before Trumpstein came on the scene. Just as Bush-Obongo used the phony pretext of a threat from Iran to place US missile systems on Russia's doorstep, so too is the shadow government steamrolling Trumpstein using the equally phony pretext of a threat from North Korea to place missile systems on China's doorstep. China, a major trading partner of both Koreas, has always objected strongly to Thaad, which it rightly sees as a threat to its security. Its news outlets have already published threats of economic retaliation against America's vassal state of South Korea.

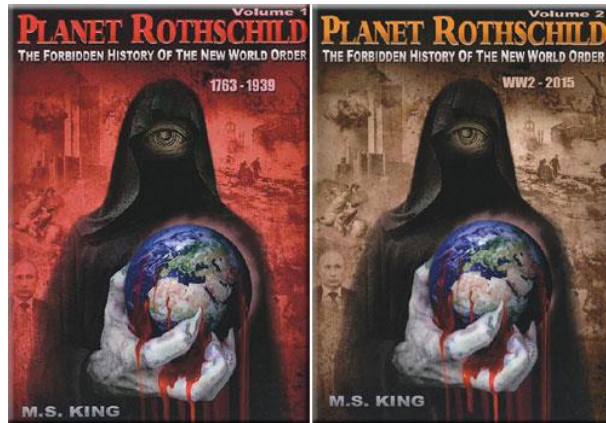

The US has completely surrounded China and Russia with missiles, defense systems, vassal states, and bases. For what purpose?

The truth about these "defensive missile shields" is that they are intended to encircle Russia and China. The insane warmongers believe that the combination of a devastating first strike upon the allied powers of Eurasia, combined with a system capable of neutralizing their inevitable attempt at a counterstrike, could actually make a nuclear exchange winnable. Even without such a first strike, the Globalists wishful thinking is that Russia and China might submit peacefully due to ~~America's~~ the Jew World Order's dominance. Russia and China's only hope to prevent such an advantage may lie in launching a justified preemptive strike against the installations before they become fully capable -- at which time, Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press will shriek before Idiot America, "You see? You see? We told you Russia and China were evil!" Like Pearl Harbor, such an event would likely lead to a world war which we believe the de-balled and "in-over-his-head" Trumpstein does not want but -- unless he, Putin and Xi can somehow outmaneuver the warmongers -- may be unable to avoid.

Some excerpts from the last page of "Planet Rothschild" -- original version published in 2011:

Based upon our study of the past, and our assessment of the present, we can confidently forecast that some, or all, of the following events are coming in the near future (2011 – 2025).... Confrontation/Limited War with China -- Confrontation/Limited War with Russia

An emergency conference of world leaders and bankers convenes. Our "saviors" then propose a New World Order to solve the world's problems. ...

Let's hope we get that forecast wrong.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that General McMaster is openly contradicting Trump's plan to have South Korea pay for its own missile defense.

Boobus Americanus 2: I hate to agree with Trump, but why shouldn't South Korea have to pay?

Sugar: Beaussse Boobuss, if Ssouth Korea is assked to pay, then the sscheme to menace China won't happen. Thatss all that frickin' psycho McMasster really wantss.

Editor: *Trump is starting to look more and more like Neville Chamberlain -
- a reluctant warrior, surrounded by snakes, who may end up taking his country to war against his own wishes.*

Ivanka Trump said in an interview that her goal was to be a "moderating influence" on the administration of her father.

New York Times: Ivanka Trump's West Wing Agenda

By JODI KANTOR, RACHEL ABRAMS and MAGGIE HABERMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Because this unusually long feature article about Jewish princess Ivanka -- penned by a whole trio of female Jewish propagandists -- is such a puff-piece love letter, we have no reason to believe that any of it was invented to embarrass the silly little girl who now fancies herself as a "White House Adviser." And that's what is so troubling about it. The high priests and priestesses of Jewish libtardism absolutely love Baby Girl Ivanka Kushner-Trump, and this homage to the converted yenta explains why.

New York communist yentas Jodi Kantor (cough cough), Rachel Abrams (cough cough) and Maggie Haberman (cough cough) embrace Ivanka as one of their own.

The 3 Yentas: A month before Donald J. Trump was elected president, he and his aides watched his daughter's coolly composed surface crack open. Inside Trump Tower, the candidate was preparing for a debate when an aide rushed in with news that The Washington Post was about to publish an article saying that Mr. Trump had bragged about grabbing women's private parts. ...

... Mr. Trump's reaction was grudging: ... Ivanka Trump made an emphatic case for a full-throated apology, according to several people who were present for the crisis discussion that unfolded in Mr. Trump's 26th-floor office. ...As she spoke, Mr. Trump remained unyielding. His daughter's eyes welled with tears, her face reddened, and she hurried out in frustration.

Analysis: Daddy's little brat cried and stomped out because she didn't get her way.

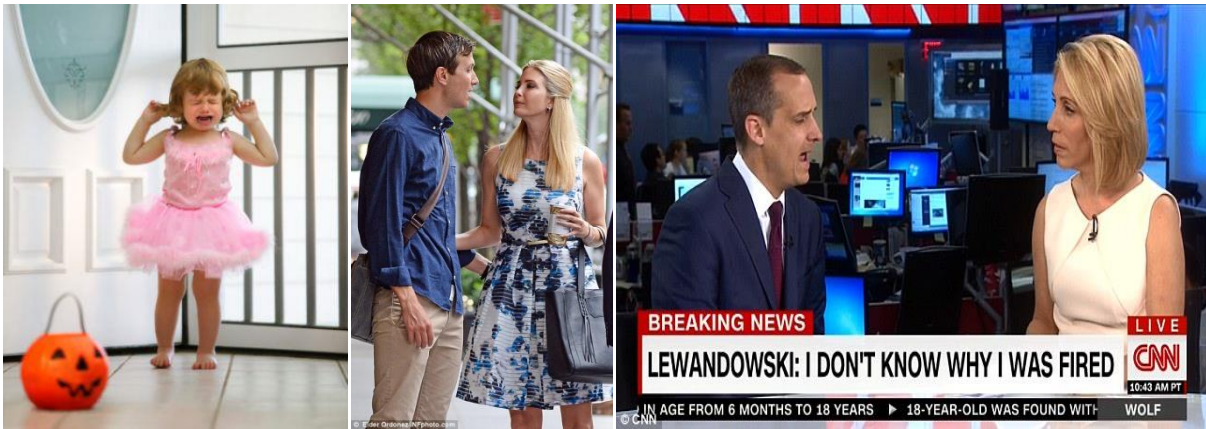

The 3 Yentas: Seven months later, Ms. Trump is her father's all-around West Wing confidante, an adviser whose portfolio appears to have few parameters, making her among the highest-ranking women in a senior staff stocked almost entirely with men.

Analysis: Did she cry and stomp her way into that position as well?

The 3 Yentas: The two trade thoughts from morning until late at night, according to aides. Even though she has no government or policy experience, she plans to review some executive orders before they are signed, according to White House officials.

Analysis: Again, because the 3 yentas are sympathetic to sister Ivanka, and because former Trump campaign insiders like Corey Lewandowski have corroborated Ivanka's influence and libtardism, we do not doubt that cry baby Ivanka and her crooked husband, Jared Kushner, are influencing daddy.

1. Baby Girl Ivanka cried and threw a tantrum in October 2016. 2. Ivanka & Jared had Corey Lewandowski, Trump's conservative nationalist campaign manager, fired not long after Lewandowski was falsely accused of manhandling a female reporter.

The 3 Yentas: She calls cabinet officials on issues she is interested in, recently asking the United Nations ambassador, Nikki R. Haley, about getting humanitarian aid into Syria.

Analysis: Ivanka and Nikki talking Syria, eh? Can that pair of dippy know-nothing broads even locate Syria on a frickin' map? May God protect us from the silly deranged females who now sit at or near the pinnacle of every western nation.

The 3 Yentas: She set up a weekly meeting with Steven Mnuchin, the Treasury secretary.

Analysis: So, not only is Baby Girl an expert on geo-politics, she is also steeped in monetary and fiscal policy. (rolling eyes sarcastically)

The 3 Yentas: In interviews last week, she said she intended to act as a moderating force in an administration swept into office by nationalist sentiment.

Translation: Baby Girl is a New York City libtard who looks down her nose at the folks in "flyover country" that elected her father.

The 3 Yentas: Other officials added that she had weighed in on topics including climate, deportation, education and refugee policy.

Analysis: Baby Bitch is an expert on everything!

1. Baby Girl Ivanka has become rather chummy with Russia-hater Nikki Haley. 2. It was Ivanka's stupid idea to invite Leonardo DiCaprio to Trump Tower to lecture the then-President-Elect on "Climate Change" TM. Just last week, DiCaprio led a protest against Trump.

The 3 Yentas: Even as Ms. Trump said she was seeking to exert more influence, she acknowledged she was a novice about Washington. "I'm still at the early stages of learning how everything works," she said,...

Analysis: This chick is actually stupid enough to believe that one can "learn how everything works" in a few weeks time.

The 3 Yentas: (quoting baby girl): "but I know enough now to be a much more proactive voice inside the White House."

Analysis: (palm to face, shaking head, deep breath) You "know enough now," eh? Tell us, Baby Girl, what exactly do you really know about the proxy war being waged against Syria; and our debt-based monetary system; and about "Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM?" Oh what ~~Sugar~~ and-I, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times wouldn't give to be able to publicly beat this idiot-doll down with the Socratic Method of interrogation. We would have her "eyes reddening" in a matter of seconds, and then laugh at her as she stomped off the stage crying for daddy.

The 3 Yentas: Ms. Trump, 35, a former model, entrepreneur and hotel developer, says she will focus on gender inequality in the United States and abroad, by aiming to create a federal paid leave program, more affordable child care and a global fund for women who are entrepreneurs, among other efforts.

Analysis: The former model who used her name and wealth to sell clothes and fragrances is a feminist who doesn't care about the stay-at-home moms.

The 3 Yentas: In the two interviews last week, Ms. Trump talked about unleashing the economic potential of women — some of her phrases sounding uncannily like those of Hillary Clinton — and effused about finding a new role model in Eleanor Roosevelt, whose autobiography she is reading.

Analysis: Baby Girl, we're quite certain that you never learned this in prep school, but your "new role model," Eleanor Roosevelt, was a mentally unstable Communist lesbian. Ditch ugly Ellie's autobiography, and read "The REAL Roosevelts," by yours truly, instead.

Communist Eleanor is no "role model."

The 3 Yentas: "I hope she will go on to become a great champion in this area," said Jim Yong Kim, president of the World Bank, which is working with Ms. Trump on funding female entrepreneurs.

Analysis: Why can't White male entrepreneurs get funding assistance? Isn't that discriminatory?

The 3 Yentas: Mr. Trump summons Ms. Trump to the Oval Office to ask her questions and hear her ideas. She calls him "Dad," not "Mr. President."

Analysis: (palm to face, shaking head, deep breath)

The 3 Yentas: If he asks his daughter about an unfamiliar subject more than twice, she will often do research so she can develop a view.

Analysis: You see, Baby Girl becomes an instant expert on any subject by a few minutes of reading Wikipedia.

The 3 Yentas: Sometimes she seeks out Mr. Trump, telling other staff members, "I need 10 minutes alone with my father." Alone with her father, Ms. Trump makes the case on what she sees as priorities, she said. "I'll go to the mat on certain issues and I may still lose those," she said.

Analysis: "Daddy! Daddy! I need to talk to you about Climate Change and funding Planned Parenthood--- alone!"

The 3 Yentas: When her parents' marriage ended before she turned 10, photographers snapped her picture on the way to school and helicopters circled over Mar-a-Lago, Mr. Trump's resort in Palm Beach, Fla. His public and private statements raised eyebrows. "There were definitely times when I was younger I was going, 'Did you have to say that, Dad?' " she told Oprah Winfrey in an interview.

Mr. Trump was always working. "He was not the father to go and play games with them in Central Park or take them for a walk," Ivana Trump, Ivanka's mother, told Michael D'Antonio, a biographer who shared his interviews with The Times.

Final Analysis: That tells us A LOT! A materially spoiled and insecure child of divorce who was neglected by a driven businessman father. Daddy's guilt now makes it hard for him to say "no" to Baby Girl, even when the over-compensating airhead asks for a say in running the damn country!

Compounding this pathetic spectacle of arrested development is Ivanka's own insecurity-driven exaggerated sense of "accomplishment." Someone needs to tell this brat that an Ivy League degree (Penn) and a fashion-line built with inherited capital and fueled by her daddy's famous name do not in any way qualify her to be Queen of the world.

Let us hope that Daddy Trumpstein, a skilled manipulator, is only playing a game with silly Ivanka -- one in which Baby Girl gets to have her way in a few minor matters, while believing she is actually helping to "change the world." Partly to get things done, and partly to instill some self-esteem, your clever reporter here recalls similarly playing with my own children's heads when they were little.

Papa Mike King: "Son, do you really think you are strong enough to take out the garbage? Those cans are pretty darn heavy, you know."

Little Boy King: "I can do it, dad! Watch, I'll show you!"

Papa Mike King: "I am soooo proud of you, son! You are a real asset to this family!"

Such tactics used to work every time. But that was back when my boy was only about 9 years old. Dipstick Ivanka is 35.

Mr. President, give your stupid busy-body libtard daughter a long-overdue spanking and send her back to New York.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Ivanka Trump is having a moderating influence on her father.

Boobus Americanus 2: She is a very successful woman in her own right. Trump would be wise to listen to her advice.

Sugar: Ssuceessssful my assss! How frickin' hard iss it to get a product line placed into the major department sstoress when your name iss already sso famouss. That'ss why sshe didn't take Jared'ss lasst name!

President Vladimir V. Putin of Russia and Chancellor Angela Merkel of Germany spoke at a news conference in Sochi, Russia

New York Times: Angela Merkel Presses Vladimir Putin on Treatment of Gays and Jehovah's Witnesses

By NEIL MacFARQUHAR and ALISON SMALE

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The Frumpy Frau of Germany used the opportunity of a visit to Russia to raise "human rights" TM issues with Vlad the Bad. Although it's a good sign that the nominal leader of post-Obama Germany and Putin are talking again, Marxist Merkel's sanctimonious posturing over "human rights" TM -- likely an election year bone thrown to the degenerate base of the German Left -- is very hard for ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times to stomach.

Hazmat suits and goggles on, boys and girls. Into Sulzberger's cesspool we now dive for a bit of cleansing clarification.

Now that the Frumpy Frau is free from Obongo's surveillance and pressure, will Germany return to a more sensible policy with regard to Russia?

Slimes: Ms. Merkel said she had talked to Mr. Putin about her concerns on civil rights in Russia, including, among other issues, the persecution of gay men,...

Rebuttal: Fags are not being "persecuted" in Russia. Common sense laws protect innocent children from degenerates and prohibit the vulgar public spectacles known as "Gay Pride" parades. That's all.

Slimes: ...a new ban on Jehovah's Witnesses ...

Rebuttal: Aren't we all sick and tired of these annoying nut-jobs knocking on our doors and trying to convert us? The reason why Russia recently shut down this cult is because their written mockery of other religions violated Russia's "anti-extremism" laws. If Merkel is truly concerned about protecting religious freedom, then why does Germany ban Christian home-schooling? In Germany, parents who refuse to send their children to state-approved schools face fines, imprisonment and the removal of the children.

1. Jehovah's Witnesses go door-to-door handing out literature that is often offensive to other religious sects. Russia put an end to their practice. Agree or not, it is no big deal and does not constitute "persecution."

2. Uwe and Hannelore Romeike came to the US in 2008 seeking political asylum. They fled Merkel's Germany in the face of religious persecution for homeschooling their children. The Romeikes were initially given asylum, but Obongo's radicals objected – claiming that German laws against homeschooling do not constitute persecution. After support from America's Home Schooling Association and an increased awareness, the Devil Obongo was forced to back down and allow the Romeike Family to stay.

Slimes: ... and the arrests of anti-Kremlin protesters.

"I have, in my talks with the Russian president, indicated how important is the right to demonstrate in a civil society and how important the role of NGOs is," Ms. Merkel said at a news conference in Sochi, Russia, referring to nongovernmental organizations.

Rebuttal: NGO's and "anti-Kremlin protesters" are tools that the Globalists use to subvert Russia. Typically, a trouble-making "protester" who gets arrested will spend a night or two in jail before being released -- as compared to Germany's "Holocaust Deniers" TM who will spend up to 5 years in prison, or extradited 90 + year-old SS men who will die before trial (due to stress) or shortly thereafter in prison.

Look at these "dangerous" German criminals sent to die in Merkel's prisons.

Holocaust Denier TM Ursula Havebeck (86) / SS heros Reinhold Hanning (94) Oskar Groenig (95)

Damn you to hell, Ms. Merkel!

Slimes (quoting Merkel): "I also spoke about the very negative report about what is happening to homosexuals in Chechnya and asked Mr. President to exert his influence to ensure that minorities' rights are protected."

Rebuttal: In Russia, the natural rights of the normal majority take preference over the artificial dictates of the degenerate minority. You wanna "protect" something worth protecting, Angie? How about shutting down Germany's bestiality brothels, where demonic bestiophiles go to rape tied up dogs, cats, horses and sheep.

No jail time for the German sickos who rape tied-up animals!

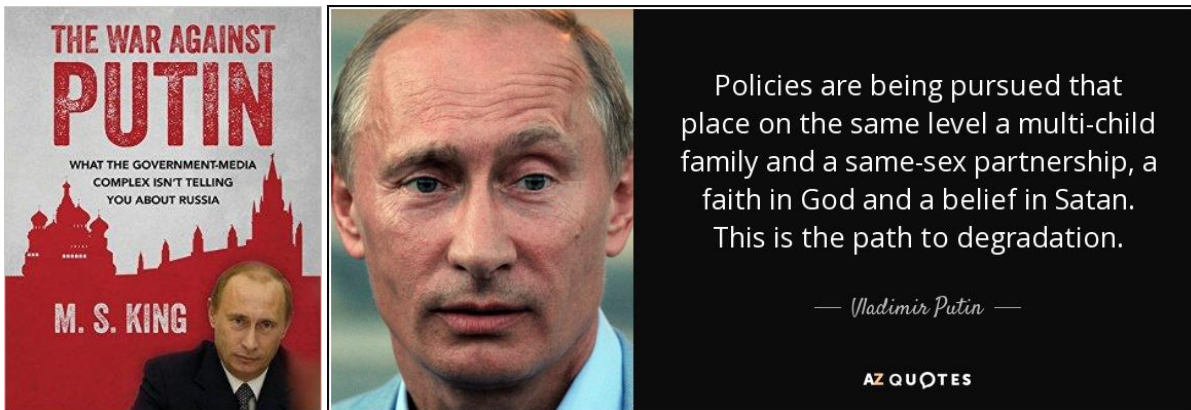

Huffington Post: Bestiality Brothels Are Taking Germany By Storm

Slimes: In Germany, the talks are important for the Chancellor as she faces a difficult race for a fourth term in elections scheduled for Sept. 24.

Rebuttal: This hideous hag has already been Chancellor of Germany about as long as The Great One was! And now she is seeking a 4th 6-year term? At least the "dictator" Vlad the Bad took a term off.

Slimes: Asked about recent arrests of protesters in Russia, Mr. Putin said, “Our law enforcement and judicial organs act within the framework of the laws that exist in Russia and will continue to act in that way, observing order and discipline.”

Rebuttal: You have to admire a man who doesn't back down when the Fake News of the Globalist West tries to rattle him.

Tell it Vlad, tell it.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Angela Merkel just schooled Putin on human rights.

Boobus Americanus 2: That's good to hear. Now that we have a US President who adores Putin, it will be up to Merkel to uphold the West's values.

Sugar: What frickin "valuess" are thosse, Boobuss? Arressting home-sschoolerss, throwing innocent old people in jail and raping animalss?

Editor: Germany has fallen a long way since The Great One banned vivisection of animals

Dr. Julius Youngner, right, with Dr. Jonas Salk

New York Times: Dr. Julius Youngner, Polio Vaccine Pioneer, Dies at 96

By SAM ROBERTS

REBUTTAL BY

 DISCLAIMER

We are indeed aware of the counter-claim that the hazards of the polio vaccine outweigh the benefits. It is a debate that we are not well-versed in and therefore will not take a definitive position on, either way. But whether the polio vaccine is a blessing for mankind or not is not at all relevant to the hidden history revealed in this article.

Dr. Julius Youngner, a virologist and a key member of the team that developed the Salk polio vaccine in 1955 has died at his home in Pittsburgh at the age of 96. His death is a good occasion to expose Dr. Jonas Salk (cough cough) for the selfish and over-rated, self-aggrandizing jerk that he really was.

Dr. Youngner was the last surviving member of a predominately Jewish-dominated research team (Salk, Youngner, Lewis & Friedman) assembled by Salk at the University of Pittsburgh to develop a vaccine to fight polio, which had peaked in the United States in the early 1950s. Salk was actually in a race to develop the vaccine -- against another glory-seeking Jewish scientist named Albert Sabin, from Chicago. Salk's team got there first, but when Salk announced the development of the polio vaccine on April 12, 1955, he soaked up all of the press hype for himself while barely mentioning the critical contributions of the other team members.

"Me! Me! Me!"

*After rushing his vaccine and announcing it to Judea's Piranha Press, media-hound Salk was all about Salk. Just weeks after the vaccine had been declared safe, more than 200 polio cases were traced to lots contaminated with virulent live polio strains. Almost all of those stricken became paralyzed and eleven died. The haste (both of Salk and the Federal government under Eisenhower) to rush the vaccine to the public was responsible for this tragedy.

Though this Slimes article about Youngner downplays and rationalizes St. Salk's selfish snubbing of his colleagues, its portrayal of the team members' resentment is accurate.

From the article:

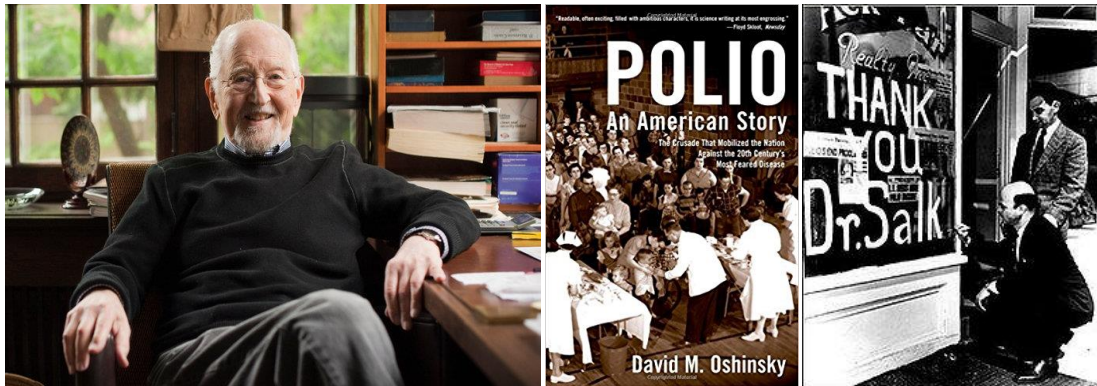

"While Dr. Youngner, who was 34 at the time, remained at the university and made further advances in virology, he and other members of the team remained embittered that Dr. Salk had not singled them out for credit in his announcement speech.

In 1993, Dr. Youngner crossed paths with Dr. Salk for the first time since Dr. Salk had left for California in 1961. According to "Polio: An American Story" (2005), by David M. Oshinsky, Dr. Youngner raised the 1955 announcement speech in confronting Dr. Salk.

'Do you remember whom you mentioned and whom you left out?' - the book quoted him as saying to Dr. Salk. 'Do you realize how devastated we were at that moment and ever afterward when you persisted in making your co-workers invisible?'"

Dr. Youngner's contribution to the team were critical -- particularly the method he developed for generating the necessary quantities of the virus for experiments and production of the vaccine. He was also able to deactivate the virus while still allowing it to produce antibodies. And finally, he devised a test to measure antibodies in the blood to determine whether or not the vaccine was working. Without Youngner, the vaccine would not have been developed -- at least not at that moment in time.

1. A recent photo of Youngner. 2. Oshinky's book revealed how Salk's team members were "devastated" at being rendered "invisible." 3. As it was with Albert Einstein, the nation was instructed to worship the newest Jewish superman, St. Jonas Salk -- who was only the project manager.

Later on in life, Youngner published hundreds of scholarly papers and was awarded 15 patents. He served as president of the American Society for Virology from 1986 to 1987. But in spite of his impressive resume, he (as well as the other forgotten team members) never let go of their justified resentment at the publicity-seeking scumbag Jonas Salk. In a talk given before a local chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women in 1992, Youngner described what happened. From the obituary in the Pittsburgh-Post Gazette:

"Dr. Salk's announcement of the success of the polio vaccine in field trials in 1955 created a sensation, he said, and the group that had funded the effort, then known as the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, knew that 'it was much easier to continue raising money when you have a hero, and they had an enormous public relations department that took up Jonas' name as the hero. But in the meantime, Jonas was, how shall I say, not very generous to his colleagues and he made sure that nobody else was ever mentioned.'

To add insult to injury, Dr. Salk's wife later called Mrs. Youngner and said, 'You know, we're really disappointed in your husband, because he hasn't called Jonas and congratulated him.' Mrs. Youngner responded with a brusque reply, and the two couples, who had once been close, never socialized again."

Wow! Just wow. Can you believe the unmitigated "chutzpah" of Salk's yenta bitching to Youngner's yenta about Salk not receiving a congratulatory phone call from Youngner?!

To put it all in terms of an analogy to American Football, Salk's "accomplishment" is the equivalent of a third-rate football player coming off the bench with only seconds remaining on the clock, punching the winning "touchdown" into the end zone from just 1 yard away, showing off by spiking the football in celebration and doing an end-zone dance, accepting the Most Valuable Player of the game award, granting interview after interview to the fawning Piranha Press, and finally, solely on the basis of that single 1-yard score, being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame -- all while the grueling work of the talented players who had driven the ball for the other 99 yards is ignored.

The Jewish super-hero has been honored with headlines, statues, postage stamps and award after award after award -- all based on the research and creativity of others who have been ignored. The Slimes headline reveals that the hasty nationwide administering of the shots was set to begin in less than two weeks!

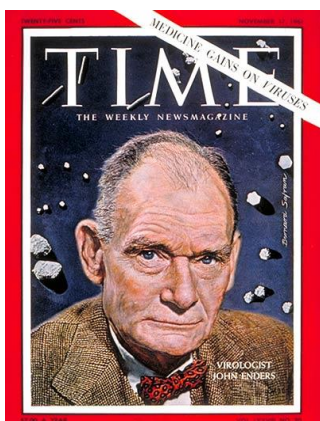

Youngner does not deny that Salk was a capable scientist. But St. Salk's intentional, pre-meditated and selfish hogging of all the credit - even to the exclusion of the fellow tribesman who probably deserved the most credit of the 6-member team - tells us a whole lot about the low down and dirty character of yet another of history's "great men" that has been placed upon a pedestal for us to worship.

Apart altogether from the contributions from other members of Salk's Jewish research team, there was the pioneering work of several HUGE contributors to the field, whose earlier independent research was critical to understanding the polio virus and developing a vaccine. Four of these non-Jewish scientists (Enders, Hammon, Bodian, Horstman) were briefly mentioned on page 21 of the Jew York Slimes issue dated April 13, 1955 --- the same issue that had tribesman Salk, and only Salk, splattered across its front page.

So, in a nutshell, the story of the polio vaccine, as it relates to the animosity between Tribesmen Salk and Youngner, goes something like this:

A well-funded, publicity-seeking Jewish scientist from Pittsburgh assembled a team of other Jewish scientists for the purpose of beating yet another well-funded, publicity-seeking Jewish scientist from Chicago in the race to develop a polio vaccine. To achieve their objectives, they all had to rely upon the earlier ground-breaking research of long-since-forgotten White Gentile scientists. When the team of Tribesmen in Pittsburgh developed the vaccine first, the organizer of the team then cheated his fellow Jewish scientists out of the credit that they wanted as well!

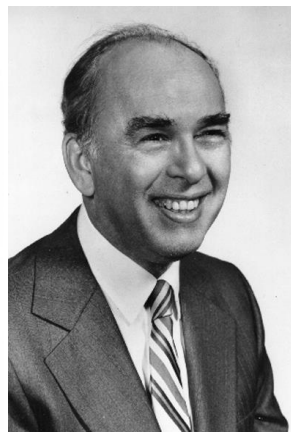

Oy vey, as the chosenites like to say! Ya just can't make this stuff up.

WILLIAM Mc.D. HAMMON, MD.

Bill Hammon was a working member of the AFB system practically from its beginning. As a protégé and associate of R. F. Meyer, Bill was actively involved in the initial isolation of the western equine encephalitis virus in California in the 1930s. Later, he directed the development of the Department of Epidemiology at the University of Pittsburgh School of Public Health. He developed the data there that showed, in a large field trial, that immune serum prevented poliomyelitis. This major contribution to the understanding of poliomyelitis was an essential forerunner to its control, first by inactivated (Salk) and later by attenuated (Sabin) poliomyelitis vaccines.

Bill was straightforward, meticulous, and thorough. He was able to use historical information to single out leads that were likely to uncover new data. He made long, productive field trips to the Far East for epidemiological and laboratory studies of the encephalitis and the hemorrhagic fevers, including dengue. Dr. John Paul, director of the Commission on Virus Diseases until 1966, leaned heavily on him for help. Bill was Director of that Commission from 1956 to 1960, and was appointed to the Board in 1965.

The Forgotten White Scientists

Salk and Youngner stood upon the shoulders of these scientists that Sulzberger's Slimes relegated to a small corner of page 21.

Why weren't any of the other researchers ever honored?

- 1. Salk, with his family, honored by the fiend Eisenhower at a White House ceremony. 2. About 25 years later, Salk is awarded the "Medal of Freedom" by President Jimmy Carter.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that the last remaining member of Jonas Salk's team that developed the polio vaccine has died.

Boobus Americanus 2: I didn't know Jonas Salk was part of a team.

New York Times: Oswiecim (Auschwitz) Killings Places At 4,000,000

By C L SULZBERGER

Soviet Commission Reports Death Camp in Poland Was Founded by Himmler

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

How poetically appropriate that today's 72nd anniversary of "Victory in Europe Day" (V-E Day) should almost perfectly coincide with "Death in Europe Day, 2017." Yesterday's election of a barely-closeted French faggot, cocaine addict, open borders champion and Rothschild banker boy -- who married his formerly married-with-three-children High School teacher 24 years his senior -- marks the final nail in the coffin of whatever little chance France (and any other remaining province of Soviet Europe) had of ever escaping the EU Monster and saving itself. Au Revoir France!

1. Emmanuel Macron & Mom wife. 2. Macron topless on Garçon, a French homosexual & tranny magazine 3. Turd-World invaders living in tents under a subway bridge in Globalist France.

Enough of this miserable little Marxist mangina. Today's May 8th rebuttal will focus on a May 8th, 1945 (V-E Day) piece about what Stalin's gang of NKVD cutthroats discovered at Auschwitz (bow your head in solemn reverence when you say that word) in January of 1945, but waited until the very day of Germany's unconditional surrender to make public -- thus rendering the suddenly shut-down and silenced German government and press powerless to deny any of the absurd allegations being made against Germany.

Haz Mat suits and goggles on, boys and girls, into the time machine for a dip in Sulzberger's cesspool of yesteryear.

C L Sulzberger: Moscow- More than 4,000,000 persons were systematically slaughtered in a single German concentration camp - that at Oswiecim in Poland, near Cracow from 1939 - 1944. The Germans thus accomplished with scientific efficiency the greatest incidence of mass murder in recorded history.

Rebuttal: For nearly 50 years, the "4,000,000 dead" of Auschwitz stood as an unchallenged "fact" of history. Then, after certain "Holocaust Deniers" TM began poking about Auschwitz and researching the claims, the official number, though still a big lie, was suddenly chopped down to 1,000,000 during the late 1990's. So, right from the start, this article was Fake News!

Lowered from 4 million to 1 million ...Ooops!

C L Sulzberger: This slaughter exceeds in barbaric intention and method not only the greatest brutalities of such infamous conquerors as Genghis Khan but also surpasses even Germany's own record in previous prize exhibitions at Maldenak, Dachau and Buchenwald.

Rebuttal: And how exactly would you know this, Mr. Sulzberger?

C L Sulzberger: Such is the miserable tale made public today - on the eve of the official end of the European War - by the Soviet Union's Extraordinary State Commission investigating the extermination center at Oswiecim.....these are the first statistical data of the camp's record.

Rebuttal: Oh, Stalin's "Extraordinary State Commission" says so. Well now, that changes everything. For a moment there, we thought you were making these numbers up. But now that we know that Stalin's gang is your source, it must be true. (rolling eyes, heavy on the sarcasm).

By the way, this was the very same "Extraordinary State Commission" (Its full ceremonial name was: "Extraordinary State Commission for Ascertaining and Investigating Crimes Perpetrated by the German-Fascist Invaders and their Accomplices") which tried to falsely blame the Germans for slaughtering 10,000 Polish officers at Katyn Forest; and the Finns for slaughtering Russian civilians and putting whole villages in concentration camps. Such allegations were so ludicrous that even the Stalin-loving Allies wouldn't allow them to be considered during the Nuremberg Kangaroo Court trials of 1946.

C L Sulzberger: According to the Soviet Commission, "more than 4,000,000 citizens of the Soviet Union, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and other countries.....were exterminated at Oswiecim. The methods used were "shooting, famine, poisoning and monstrous tortures."

Rebuttal: All this in between soccer games and concerts; and right under the noses of the Red Cross inspectors who were given regular access to Auschwitz.

1. St. Joseph would NEVER engage in atrocity propaganda! 2. The Soviets massacred 10,000 Polish officers at Katyn. The "Extraordinary Commission" that the Sulzberger clan trusted so much tried to pin the blame on Germany. 3. Journalist C L Sulzberger, like the rest of his criminal family, loved Joe Stalin and ignored all of his REAL atrocities for decades!

C L Sulzberger: The report states that gas chambers, crematoria, surgical wards, laboratories and clinics were erected around Oswiecim to accomplish this mass production monstrosity.

Rebuttal: "The report states," eh? Because as we all know, Stalin and his henchmen at the "Extraordinary State Commission for Ascertaining and Investigating Crimes Perpetrated by the German-Fascist Invaders and their Accomplices" (rolling eyes) were honest and honorable men.

C L Sulzberger: According to the Soviet report...

Rebuttal: There you go again! "According to the Soviet report," eh? Because as we all know, and as previously stated, Stalin and his henchmen were honest and honorable men.

C L Sulzberger: German doctors conducted their experiments on healthy persons, including castration, sterilization of women, artificial infection with cancer, typhus and malaria germs, tests of the effects of poisons and the destruction of children by injections into the heart of carbolic acid or the simpler method of heaving them into furnaces.

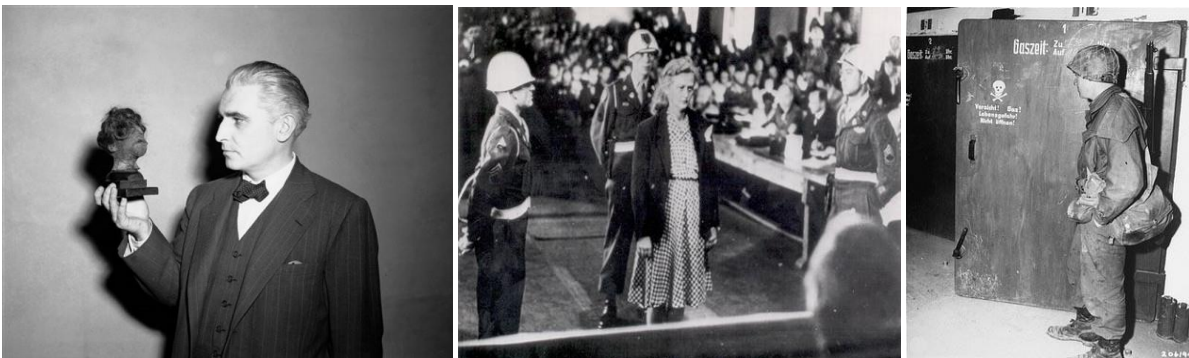

Rebuttal: Yeah, sure. Just like the Germans shrunk the heads of dead Jews and made soap and lampshades from their bodies (American claims).

C L Sulzberger:Public baths were installed for group cyanide poisoning.

Rebuttal: Says who, Sulzberger? Says who?

C L Sulzberger:The report states ...

Rebuttal: Again! "The report states." Because as we all know, Stalin and his "Extraordinary Commission" were honest and honorable men.

The American and the Soviet script-writers competed for best work of literary fiction.

1. Albert Rosenberg (cough cough) was put in charge of documenting the shrunken heads of Buchenwald. He worked for the Psychological Warfare Division of the US. 2. Ilsa Koch -- wife of the camp commander at Buchenwald -- was convicted of having lamp shades fashioned from human flesh. Today, even the Jewish High Priests of Holocaustianity admit that the lamps were made of goat leather, not human flesh. Ilsa committed suicide in prison. 3. The Jewish High Priests of Holocaustianity also admit that the "gas chamber" at Dachau was not a gas chamber after all.

C L Sulzberger: ... that in 1943 the frugal Germans decided to sell the unburned bones to the firm of Schterheim....in addition to the 113 tons of crushed bones, loads of women's hair were sold for industrial purposes.

Rebuttal: If Stalin says so, well ...

C L Sulzberger:human guinea pigs were kept alive for experimentation.

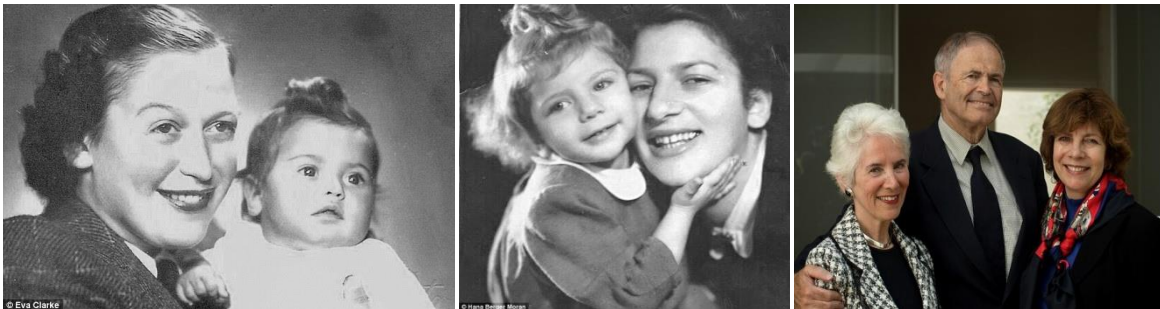

Rebuttal: Anything you say, Stalin, anything you say.

C L Sulzberger: It is also reported ...

Rebuttal: By Stalin and friends.

C L Sulzberger: ... that hundreds of thousands of children, from infants up to 16 years of age were exterminated. Babies in the camps were killed if they survived the attempted abortions on their mothers.

Rebuttal: As even the Jewist-Marxist Forward now confirms, as many as 3000 babies were born at Auschwitz. So this claim of forced abortions and baby-killing is Fake News!

1 & 2: Auschwitz babies: Anka Nathanova and Priska Lowenbeinova // 3: Auschwitz "Miracle Babies" reunite as elderly adults.

C L Sulzberger: Pravda, commenting on the monstrous tale, repeats the Allied pledge to hunt the criminals to the ends of the earth, adding "were it not for the Red Army, Europe would still be covered with packages of women's hair and crushed human bones trademarked from Oswiecim."

Rebuttal: Pravda, eh? (trying not to laugh out loud) --- Anything you say, Mr. Stalin and Mr. Sulzberger. Anything "youse guys" say.

Sp, there you have it, boys and girls. Belief in the Auschwitz Fairy Tale requires, by necessity, absolute blind trust in the declarations of Stalin's murderous commissar underlings of the "Extraordinary State Commission for Ascertaining and Investigating Crimes Perpetrated by the German-Fascist Invaders and their Accomplices." Just think about that, really think about that --- and let the astonishing reality of it all settle in.

Quote to Remember:

"History is Fake News in the rear-view mirror."

New York Times: Angela Merkel's Party Wins Unexpectedly in German State Elections

By MELISSA EDDY

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

On the same day that the suicidal libtards of Globalist France elected a effeminate man claiming to be a "centrist" as their next President, the equally suicidal and equally libtarded fools of Globalist Germany sent a clear electoral signal that they intend to re-elect a masculine woman, who also claims to be a "centrist," to a 4th term as Chancellor, later this year. In spite of all the crime and rape and murder and welfare cases being imported into Communist Germany from the Turd World, there is no sign that the obedient self-abusers of de-balled Germany will ever get rid of the Frumpy Frau, Angela Merkel.

This nasty bitch and her new French manlet, Emmanuel Macron -- the not-so-closeted, cocaine-snorting fag who married his "mom," are destined to get along beautifully. You see, not only is the Frumpy Frau used to "modern men" groveling in fear at her feet, but the French Faggot is equally accustomed to much older women (and men!) dominating him. It's a match made in Marxist Hell -- where up is down and black is white.

"Art" imitating life -- or vice versa?

1. An anatomically reversed portrayal of Adam & Eve, by British "artist" Marc Quinn, recently exhibited in Germany. 2. Macron LITERALLY at Merkel's feet.

On a personal and serious note, the sorry spectacle of today's Europe is all so truly heartbreaking to behold from afar -- all the more so because it portends (a $10 word for 'foretells of') a similar destiny for us Americans. Compounding the sadness over the tragedy is our clear understanding of how it all came about, step by step, as a direct consequence of the result of that grand history-altering event which we refer to as "The Bad War." The Great One saw this all coming, which was why he and the once-great German people ferociously resisted with everything they had -- not just for Germany's sake, but for France's sake and the rest of "Europa" as well.

The words of the prophet and martyr, St. Adolf:

- "Why should this war in the West be fought? ... I have always expressed to France my desire to bury forever our ancient enmity and bring together these two nations, both of which have such glorious pasts." (1939)
- "If the Providence has so willed that the German people cannot be spared this fight, then I can only be grateful that it entrusted me with the leadership in this historic struggle which, for the next 500 or 1,000 years, will be described as decisive, not only for the history of Germany, but for the whole of Europe and indeed the whole world." (1940)
- "Lord God, give us the strength that we may retain our liberty for our children and our children's children, not only for ourselves but also for the other peoples of Europe, for this is a war which we all wage, this time, not for our German people alone, it is a war for all of Europe and with it, in the long run, for all of mankind." (1942)
- "I myself thank Providence and my Creator not for preserving me—my life consists only of worry and work for my People—I thank him only for allowing me to continue to bear this burden of worry, and to carry on my work to the best of my ability." (1944)
- "This Jewish Bolshevik annihilation of nations and its western European and American procurers can be met only in one way: by using every ounce of strength with the extreme fanaticism and stubborn steadfastness that merciful God gives to men in hard times for the defense of their own lives." (1945)

1. 1940: Hitler makes peace with French Nationalist Marshal Phillippe Petain. 2. 1960's: East German Communist Angela Merkel marches with her commie girl youth group. 3. Emmanuel Macron & his degenerate Mom-Wife

The European cancer is only now metastasizing toward the death throes. But the illness actually became terminal soon after May 8, 1945 --- "Victory in Europe Day." Once the Jewish-owned United States started showering the continent that it had shattered with Marshal Scam cash, the political game in Mother Europe was rigged for good. Concurrent with the financial domination of Europe, the CIA (established in 1947), through its control of crooked or frightened politicians, "opposing" political parties, European media outlets and "spontaneous" activist-terrorist groups, made sure that no European state could ever escape the New World Order's slave plantation, even after it did get back on its feet economically. Europa never had a chance!

After the collapse of the Soviet Union, a similar deadly embrace was extended to the formerly Russian vassal states of Eastern Europe which -- although they have not yet degenerated to the level of mass insanity as their western counterparts -- are slowly but surely degenerating along similar lines. As much as we would like to offer a bit of a false hope to our European brothers, we just can't. Indeed, America isn't too far behind "youse guys."

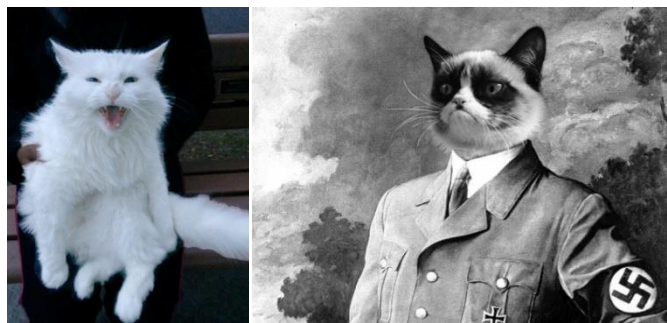

Marshall Plan + CIA = EU

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Angela Merkel is likely to get elected to a 4th term.

Boobus Americanus 2: Four terms? What is she trying to do? Become the female Hitler?

Sugar: Boobuss, you blassphemous @$#@&^%#!!!! Don't you EVER compare that nasty Bolsshevik Bitch to Mein Fuhrer!*

Editor: Sugar, sweetie. I appreciate the catcentric artwork. But The Great One was a man, not a cat.

New York Times: At Russia's Victory Day Parade, Putin Calls For Alliance

By NEIL MacFARQUHAR

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The pro-Putin duo of ~~Sugar and Mike~~, er, the "Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times have mixed feelings about the annual "Victory Day" spectacle held in Moscow each year -- an event which Putin has raised to new levels of emotional intensity. From the article:

"In his 17 years as the leader of Russia, Mr. Putin has gradually made Victory Day the most important holiday of the year, tying his presidency to the national unity, sacrifice and centralized authority required to defeat Nazi Germany.

"The lessons of the past war call on us to be vigilant, and the Russian armed forces are ready to counter any potential aggression," Mr. Putin said, after some 10,000 troops paraded and 114 pieces of equipment — by official count — rumbled across the cobblestones of Red Square."

An impressive show of power and patriotism --- all based on deeply entrenched national mythology.

We fully understand and appreciate how essential it is for Russian leaders to not only prepare their people for the potential of conflict with the Axis of Evil, but also to send a clear message to those who would destroy Russia: "Don't mess with Mother Russia, Amerikanski!" Factor in the reality that old myths die hard and "Victory Day" becomes a hard-to-kill legend that no Russian leader would dare to debunk or deemphasise.

Nonetheless, as much as we absolutely love watching that sea of disciplined White bad-asses goose-stepping through Red Square with lots of tanks and missiles behind them, your compulsive truth-tellers here are compelled to respectfully set Putin the Good straight as the truth about "Victory Day."

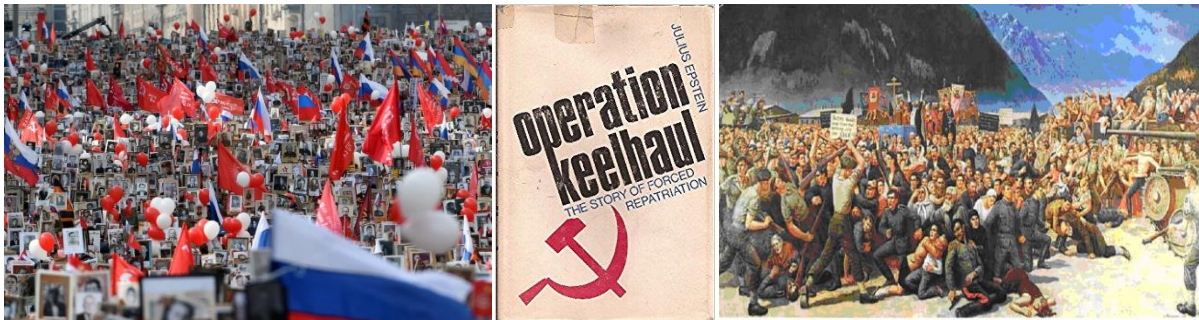

From the Article: The parade marked the 72nd anniversary of the defeat of the Nazis in World War II, during which the Soviet Union lost more than 20 million people.

Analysis: The "20 million dead" is to Soviet / Russian mythology what the "6 million dead" is to Jewish mythology. It is a number pulled out of thin air and accepted by "historians" without any critical analysis whatsoever. Not only is there no way of independently verifying Stalin's claim of having lost "20 million" (an obscenely exaggerated number which gave Stalin the pretext for keeping all of eastern Europe after the war, for "self-defense") -- but no mention is ever made of the fact that millions of Soviet soldiers taken prisoner, and millions more Soviet citizens who had fled westward with the retreating Germans, were classified as traitors and killed or gulaged after the war. Stalin and his henchmen are to blame for those dead and missing, not Hitler!

From the Article: Victory Day military parades in major Russian cities are followed by marches of ordinary citizens carrying pictures of relatives who fought in the war. Hundreds of thousands, if not millions, take part in the tribute to the “Immortal Regiment.”

Analysis: It is tragically ironic that many of those pictures are surely of Russian Prisoners-of-War condemned as traitors and killed by Stalin after the war ended. The relatives of these murdered men were probably never told of the true circumstances surrounding their death or disappearance.

How many of the "Immortal Regiment" that Russians honor with framed pictures were actually murdered by Stalin after the war? The book, "Operation Keelhaul" tells the gut-churning story of how US and British forces violently rounded up Russian refugees and POWs for forced repatriation to Stalin's NKVD mass killers.

From the Article: “There was not, there is not and there will never be a power that could defeat our people,” Mr. Putin said at the main parade ...

Analysis: Actually, the Germans did indeed defeat the Soviets. It was the massive transfer of war materials from FDR's "Lend Lease" scheme, the opening of 2nd and 3rd fronts (south and west), and the merciless aerial bombardment of German cities that relieved the stress upon the Soviet Union and allowed them to recover and back into the game.

From the Putin's Address (RT News): "This horrible tragedy could not be prevented due to the connivance of the criminal ideology of racial supremacy and due to the disunity of the world's leading countries which allowed the Nazis to appropriate the right to decide the destinies of other peoples, unleash the cruelest and bloodiest war, enslave and make almost all European countries serve their deadly goals."

Analysis: It would be redundant to tell regular readers of The Anti-New York Times that the preceding statement represents a complete inversion of reality that breaks the bullshit meter. But with regard to the German-Soviet/Russian element of World War II, let us quote the undeniable truth of The Great One, spoken before the German nation on the day that the German-Soviet war began:

"Moscow not only broke our treaty of friendship, but betrayed it! They did all this while the powers in the Kremlin, to the very last minute, hypocritically attempted to favor peace and friendship, just as they had with Finland or Romania. I was forced by circumstances to keep silent in the past. Now the moment has come when further silence would be not only a sin, but a crime against the German people, against all Europe.

Today, about 160 Russian divisions stand at our border. There have been steady border violations for weeks, and not only on our border, but in the far north, and also in Rumania. Russian pilots make a habit of ignoring the border, perhaps to show us that they already feel as if they are in control. During the night of 17-18 June, Russian patrols again crossed the German border and could only be repelled after a long battle. Now the hour has come when it is necessary to respond to his plot by Jewish-Anglo-Saxon warmongers and the Jewish rulers of Moscow's Bolshevik headquarters.

German people! At this moment, an attack unprecedented in the history of the world in its extent and size has begun. With Finnish comrades, the victors of Narvik stand by the Arctic Sea. German divisions, under the command of the conqueror of Norway, together with the heroes of Finland's freedom and their marshal, defend Finnish soil. On the Eastern Front, German formations extend from East Prussia to the Carpathians. From the banks of the Pruth River, from the lower Danube to the Black Sea, German and Romanian soldiers are united under state leader Antonescu.

The purpose of this front is no longer the protection of the individual nations, but rather the safety of Europe, and therefore the salvation of everyone. I have therefore decided today once again to put the fate of Germany and the future of the German Reich and our people in the hands of our soldiers. May God help us in this battle."

The beast Stalin had already invaded Poland, Finland, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, and Romania, before Germany's preemptive invasion saved the rest of Europe.

In a subsequent speech, The Great One further detailed the truth about the Soviet build-up:

"Already in 1940 it became increasingly clear from month to month that the plans of the men in the Kremlin were aimed at the domination, and thus the destruction, of all of Europe. I have already told the nation of the build-up of Soviet military power in the East during a period when Germany had only a few divisions in the provinces bordering Soviet Russia. Only a blind person could fail to see that a military build-up of world-historical dimensions was being carried out. And this was not in order to protect something that was being threatened, but rather to attack that which seemed incapable of defense ... I may say this today: If the wave of more than 20,000 tanks, hundreds of divisions, tens of thousands of artillery pieces, along with more than 10,000 airplanes, had not been kept from being set into motion against the Reich, Europe would have been lost."

*The Great One knew what the Soviet-British scheme in the east was. Millions of Soviet troops were quickly taken prisoner because they were packed along the front line, in OFFENSIVE positions. The Germans then advanced easily across undefended territory. There was so little defense behind the front lines because Stalin was planning an invasion of eastern Europe, NOT a defense of Russia. After the war, the prisoners shown above would be condemned to death in Stalin's gulags. Stalin declared: "There are no prisoners of war, just traitors." The great sacrifice of Germany and the 500,000 foreign SS Waffen volunteers prevented Stalin from taking ALL of Europe.

Mr. Putin, we really hate to rain on your "Victory Day" parade, and we suspect that you also know that the underlying theme of it is all a fairy tale. Nonetheless, we understand, that in the face of the Globalist menace, you must keep the flame of patriotism burning hot, while keeping the CIA's fake "Nazis" of Russia under control and surveillance at all times. What a pity that the sheeple of Russia cannot see that the Globalist-Bolshevik force which schemes ceaselessly to conquer Russia today, was the very same demonic power which destroyed and enslaved Germany yesterday. How ironic!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times about Russia's intimidating Victory Day Parade, which commemorates the defeat of the Nazi invaders.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, you can't blame them for remembering how Hitler started a war which killed 20 million Russians.

Sugar: You sstupid ass-clowns! Mein Furr NEVER sstarted fightss. He only finisshed them!

Editor: "Mein Furr?" -- (palm to face, shaking head, sighing) ... I can't with you, Sugar. I just can't.

Hania Rosenberg, who now lives in Stockholm, Sweden, survived the Holohoax and is now trying to get back the properties that her family had in Poland

New York Times: Holocaust Survivors in Poland Find Restitution Claims ‘Like a Carousel’

By NINA SIEGAL

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Today's twist on the song that doesn't end, sung for us by Slimes scribbler Nina Siegal (cough cough), features a Polish (now Swedish) Jewess named Hania Rosenberg whose family lost property during World War II. Of course, the many millions of Europeans who lost lives, limbs or property during the great bloodbath for Globalism & Zionism don't merit any of our tears 70+ years after the fact. No sir, only the chosenites must be made whole again.

The ever-groveling Germans catch a break with this piece as the government of increasingly uppity Poland is slammed for not being efficient enough when it comes to restoring lost property to the "survivors." Pass the tissues and cue the violins. Let's clean up some of this mushy filth from the article:

Nina Siegal (cough cough) serves up the usual sappy slop about the Holohoax.

Siegal: Hania Rosenberg was born in 1934 in Oswiecim, an industrial town in the Galicia region of southern Poland. The concentration and extermination camp the Germans built there after their 1939 invasion, called Auschwitz-Birkenau, would take the lives of 1.1 million people.

Analysis: There is not one shred of evidence that 1.1 million people (suddenly reduced from 4 million about 20 years ago) died at Bullschwitz. No bodies, no paperwork, no forensic evidence.

Siegal: Her grandparents had a three-story house and a general store, farmland and two garden plots in the nearby town of Ledziny. During the Communist era, the house and store were expropriated. A shopping mall and new houses stand on what was once farmland. But two garden plots — still in the name of her grandfather — remain, and Ms. Rosenberg is fighting for their ownership...

Analysis: Amazing. After all these years and with one foot already in the grave, this old yenta still can't let go of the material things.

Siegal (quoting Hania): “In Poland, there was no official process for this: You have to go to the courts,” she said in a phone interview from Stockholm. “We did go to the courts, but it was like a carousel: You go around and around and around and around.

Rebuttal: Cheese and crackers! What's with these frickin' people? Let it go already, Hania -- just let it go.

Siegal: Poland is the only European Union nation that has not established formal procedures to resolve claims made by people whose property was seized during the Holocaust, according to a new report by the European Shoah Legacy Institute.

Rebuttal: And who advocates for the return of land and property taken from the 8 million dispossessed Prussians and Sudetenland folks who were ethnically cleaned after the war? No one!

In many of those Prussian cases, Polish Jews would go "shopping" for German homes with armed Communist-Jewish partisans acting as their "realtors." Upon finding a home that the yenta of the family liked, the German family would be told, "She likes your home. Now get the hell out!" -- and that was the end of the transaction.

1. Three Million Sudetenland Germans robbed and expelled. 2. Five Million Prussian Germans robbed and expelled.

Siegal: The report, more than 1,200 pages, was based on three years of research in 47 countries that endorsed a 2009 pledge, known as the Terezin Declaration, to establish a restitution process for "immovable property" like land, homes and businesses. It found that Poland had only partly complied with an obligation to return communal Jewish property like synagogues and cemeteries.

Analysis: From "stolen" artwork to "stolen" gold to "stolen" properties, the "gimme gimme gimme" emanating from the people who suffered the least during the war never ends.

Siegal: The issue of restitution is especially fraught for Poland, which had Europe's largest Jewish community before the war. About three million Polish Jews were murdered in the Holocaust...

Analysis: This claim of 3 million Polish Jews is completely unverifiable because the Soviet "Iron Curtain" descended over Poland at wars' end. We have no exact figures as to how many of these "3 million" returned to Poland, how many moved to Israel, or how many relocated to another European country (in Hania's case, Sweden). Then there were the "survivors" that left Europe altogether for the United States, Canada, Australia, South America etc.

The same "Iron Curtain" difficulty arises when we attempt to calculate the numbers of killed or missing Hungarian Jews, Romanian Jews, Ukrainian Jews, Baltic Jews, Russian Jews etc. What we do know is that nearly one million European Jews arrived in Israel between 1947 and 1955, and about a half-million settled in the United States. Add in about another half-million like Hania who were settled throughout Western Europe as "DP's" (Displaced Persons), and many more who returned to their Eastern European homes -- and voila, there you have the "missing Jews."

Siegal: The report says that Holocaust victims across Europe — not only Jews, but also Roma, gays, disabled people and others ...

Analysis: You see that? The Jews come first, the fags and thieving Gypsies also get an honorary shout-out (as do the disabled), but the countless millions of dispossessed and displaced normal White people throughout Europe are ignored by the "European Shoah Legacy Institute."

Siegal: Although the issue is longstanding, it has been complicated by the rise to power in 2015 of the right-wing Law and Justice Party. Party ... they emphasize that many minorities suffered.

“On what basis should Poland decide that those with Jewish ancestors get compensated, whereas Belarussians, Poles, Ukrainians or Crimean Karaites, or Tatars and Germans — all of whom used to live here before the war — shouldn’t be compensated?” Jaroslav Kaczynski, the leader of the governing party, asked supporters last year.

Analysis: How "right wing" TM and even borderline "anti-Semitic" TM of the Law and Justice Party to point out that people of all nationalities, including ethnic Germans, lost property during the war.

Siegal (quoting Kaczynski): “Is Poland able to turn back time and compensate all those who suffered in those tragic events?” he asked. “Does it mean that the descendants of poor Poles are supposed to pay the descendants of those who were rich? This is what it comes down to."

Analysis: If Jaroslaw Kaczynski keeps talking like that, he's liable to end up suffering a similar fate as his twin brother Lech -- the Polish President whose plane crashed while on a trip to Russia. Party boss Jaroslaw, like his late brother, is not at all liked by the Globalist crowd. In recent months, Poland's government has come under fire from the EU over its anti-immigration policy and overhaul of the country's court system, which Brussels says "undermines democracy."

If Kaczynski and his fellow Poles are smart, they will all drop the silly anti-Russian crap and realize who the true enemy is. A Polish defection to the Russia-China bloc would do much to diffuse the possibility of World War III and save Poland from turning into France.

1. Nationalist Lech Kaczynski and many other high-ranking Poles were killed in a mysterious 2010 plane crash. 2. Twin brother Jaroslaw Kaczynski, though still talking nonsense about Russia, has also defied the Globalist EU.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Poland is giving Holocaust survivors a hard time in getting their pre-war property back.

Boobus Americanus 2: After all these years, haven't the Jews suffered enough? The Poles should be ashamed of themselves.

Sugar: The only thing that the Polackss have to be be assshamed about iss picking a fight with Germany at the behesst of the Globalisst Wesst.

Editor: Sugar! The ethnic slur is totally uncalled for and will not be tolerated here. The proper terminology is "Poles."

New York Times: For Liberals, Is It Time to Move to Norway?

By LEE SIEGEL

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Author and "cultural critic" Lee Siegel (cough cough) pens a pathetically predictable and platitudinous whine about how America in the age of Trumpstein has "fundamentally changed for the worse." There is really no point in rebutting his self-righteous posturing because it's the same old bullshine about "xenophobia" TM, "the poor" TM, "anti-democracy" TM, "possible Russian collusion" TM. The reason that ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times picked this piece out for today's discussion is because it gives us the opportunity to debunk the annoyingly persistent libtard myth of Scandinavian Communist paradise that liars and fools like Siegel (who once lived in Norway) continue to parrot.

From his editorial:

"No wonder my thoughts turn more and more these days to Norway, where health care and world-class higher education are free."

1. Lee Siegel (cough cough) sells the myth of Utopian Norway 2. Beautiful scenery and people, to be sure -- but there is real trouble in Marxist paradise.

REALITY CHECK

1: Brutal Taxation

Norway taxes its slave-citizens at a total burden of about 45% of GDP – that's almost twice the United States! The VAT (hidden sales tax) stands at a whopping 25% and personal income tax rates top out at 55%. Corporate profits tax range from 28% to as high as 78%. Yes sir, all that "free" stuff that Norwegians get ain't so "free" after all.

2: A Stolen Sovereign National Wealth Fund

The government of oil-rich Norway rakes in about 1/3 of its annual revenue from its owned/controlled oil industry. It currently holds the equivalent of $170,000 for each citizen in a national fund. With a population of only 5 million, and an oil-producing rank of 13th in the world, why then, with the state making such a killing on oil sales, are these people paying any taxes at all? The United Arab Emirates is also a small, oil-rich federation of 9 million that relies upon oil revenues to fund the state. Yet, even with good-quality universal health care, their citizens pay hardly any taxes, at all!

1 & 2: As Norwegians struggle under the highest tax rates in Communist Europe, the oil-rich government collects and hoards enough money to fund the government and relieve everyone's personal tax and debt burdens as well. 3: Contrast Norway's nasty stinginess to the pro-people policy of the oil-rich emirate of Dubai which neither taxes workers nor investors, at all!

3: Highest Personal Debt Levels in Europe

As the Communist regime of Norway holds onto the equivalent of $170,000 per citizen (or about $500,000 per household) the mostly-contented tax slaves of Norway are also left to bear the oppressive burden of the highest personal debt levels in Europe. The problem is worse among the youth. If this oh-so-caring Nanny-State in Oslo was really so concerned about its "children," then why not dip into the massive Sovereign Fund and just payoff everybody's car loans, credit cards and mortgages? To hold onto such an enormous oil fund for "a rainy day," as people stress and struggle is unnecessary, criminal and tyrannical.

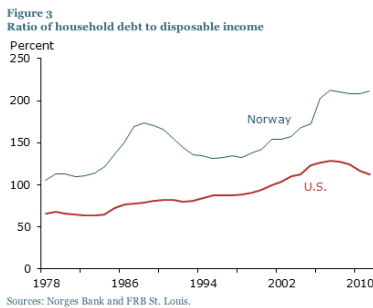

4: Alcoholism and Suicide Rates

According to the Norwegian Institute of Public Health, consumption of alcoholic beverages in Norway in recent years has never been higher. The suicide rate among these oh-so-happy people stands at 10 per 100,000 per year, which ranks Norway at only about the middle-of-the-pack amongst developed nations. Evidently, paying for life in Utopia is grinding people to despair.

5: 10% of Children Now Live in Poverty

Ten percent of Norwegian children live in low-income homes, and about half of those are White Norwegians, not Turd World invaders (who just keep on coming!). Norway's poverty problem is chronic and as more and more citizens of taxed-out indebted Norwegians fall into despair, fewer and fewer will ever escape from the growing underclass. Meanwhile, the tyrannical libtards continue to hoard the equivalent of $500,000 per household.

More and more Norwegians struggle with high personal debt as growing numbers of native children fall into poverty -- all as the "progressive" states hoards the peoples' oil cash for "a rainy day."

The total value of the "free" healthcare, "free" education, pretty parks and fountains amounts to a pittance compared to what is being stolen from the people of Norway through taxes, usury, and hoarded oil revenues. Norway is simultaneously the most heavily taxed and most expensive country in the world. Many Norwegians have such little disposable income that the stay-at-home mother has become virtually extinct. On the cultural front, the state-imposed Atheistic libtardism is stifling -- with the interests of queers, trannies and Turd World parasites taking precedence over normal families.

This is all by cruel design of the "gentle" Communists of de-balled Norway -- and it is exactly where the Marxists and libtards of America want to take the United States. Be like Norway? Noway!

The Obongos and Refrigerator Solberg (Prime Minister of Norway) hit it off very well. --- Bitch looks like she squandered the Sovereign Wealth Fund on ice-cream and sausages.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an editorial in today's New York Times. In light of what is happening in Trump's America, the writer is considering moving back to Norway.

Boobus Americanus 2: Norway really takes care of its citizens. They get free health care and education.

Sugar: It's 'free,' eh Boobusss? You mean the money to pay for that sstuff jusst fallss from out the frickin' sssty?

Editor: The tragedy of Norway is that, were it not for its Leftist government, every citizen could have had healthcare, education AND lots of disposable weekly cash with no debt and minimal taxation.

New York Times: Free Tuition? Tennessee Could Tutor New York

By DAVID W. CHEN

REBUTTAL BY

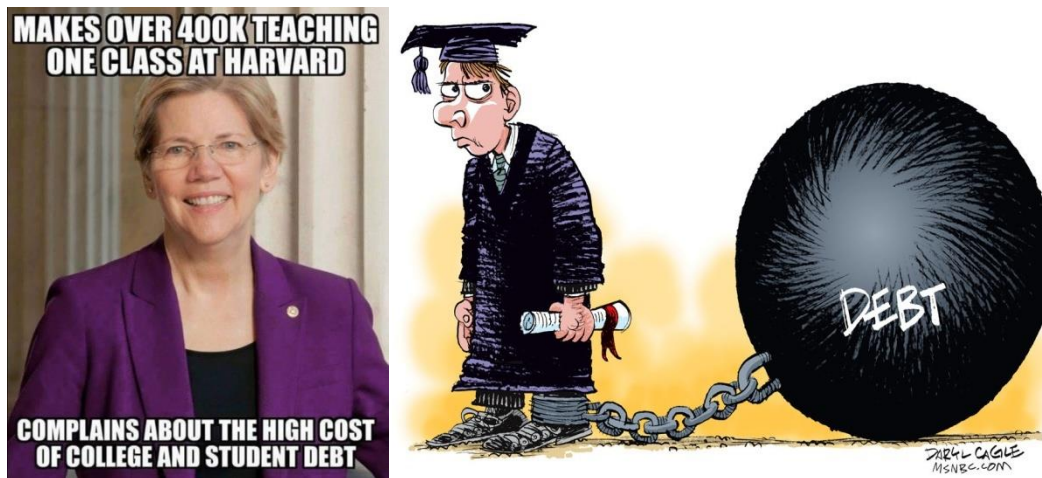

The Anti-New York Times

Of all the many sleazy scams and high crimes that the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) commits against "We the People," perhaps none is worse than the criminal racket known as "higher education." It amounts to a multi-trillion dollar conspiracy in which the government, academia and corporate America all collude to rob parents of a huge chunk of their life savings and/or put our young people into student-debt bondage before they even find a decent job after graduation -- assuming they will ever find one at all. The roles that the aforementioned PRC institutions play in this ongoing tragedy are as follows:

- Corporate America openly discriminates against job applicants who do not possess a magic piece of paper (purchased at a cost of $100,000 - $200,000 and up). There is something fundamentally flawed and unjust with a system in which the likes of non-college graduates Benjamin Franklin, Andrew Carnegie, Henry Ford, Thomas Edison, Walt Disney, Bill Gates, Larry Ellison and so many others, would not have been able to even interview for entry-level jobs at most American companies. Students who wish to pursue knowledge in a given field thus have no choice but to attend college.

- The Federal Government defines "accreditation" and determines what constitutes an "education." Because apprenticeship, small group training, self-education etc. do not meet the standards of "accreditation," the student is again compelled to attend college if he expects to ever work in his field of interest. The Feds also run the student loan-sharking operation -- from which bankruptcy protection laws are immune. "Can't find a job after college, kid? Too frickin' bad! Pay your loan!"
- Academia's role in the three-ring circus of scammy is its endless price-gauging of class after class after class of incoming victims who are essentially forced customers (unless they opt out and learn a trade instead). Though most of academia is Marxist in theory, when it comes to feathering their own nests with six-figure salaries and generous benefits, these commie pinkos are all about the money ... money ... money!

Marxist bitch Senator Elizabeth Warren made $430,000 per year as a Harvard professor.

Forget about Governor Andrew Cuomo's scheme to make college "more accessible" to the middle class. Transferring the burden of college to already over-taxed citizens only creates a different set of expensive problems. ~~Sugar and I~~, er, the "Editorial Board" have a simple 3-step plan to liberate the students of America by smashing this contemptible monopoly system to pieces.

Step 1: Corporations are already regulated as semi-public entities when it comes to hiring and promoting. For that reason, corporations may not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion etc. This policy isn't necessarily a bad thing, as long as it doesn't extend to purely private operations and small "mom and pops." By simply adding non-college degree applicants to the list of "protected classes," corporations would be forced to consider qualified job applicants who were self-taught, tutored, apprenticed or attended local study groups.

Step 2: Certainly, prospective employers have every right to know if an applicant possesses the necessary minimal base of knowledge, raw intelligence, skills and aptitude for learning to meet the entry-level job requirements. The government and the corporations can work together to devise a set of standardized examinations for every course or general field imaginable. A student needs to only pass a series of exams, administered for a small fee, to obtain his or her "piece of paper" with a score. This new system will trigger an exodus away from the criminal colleges as students learn what they need to from other sources, including online self-study, small training schools, and company-sponsored classes, lectures, and apprenticeships for bright high school grads. Colleges will only continue to exist if they adapt and cut out the unnecessary credits and all of the administrative and faculty fat -- which they surely will, out of market necessity.

Step 3: For certain forms of study that are not 100% suitable for self-study (for example: medical students working on cadavers, science students conducting lab experiments, or law students arguing practice cases), the colleges, or smaller training schools, can still fill in the gaps. These details for special cases can be worked out in collaboration with employers from such areas.

1. Stop corporate discrimination against alternative forms of education and the problem will fix itself. 2. In this day and age of universal Internet and video access, self-education is more easily and cheaply obtainable than ever before. Who needs so many thousands of lecturers when just one top-rate teacher on video can lecture to the whole country?

Apart from these radical reforms, we should waive at least 50% of current student loan debt and allow for bankruptcy liquidation for hardship cases. With the new creative solutions in place, there won't be any need for education financing ever again. And just for good measure, the practice of hustling loans to kids should be abolished just the same. For those students who still choose to attend the reduced-price colleges (for social reasons mainly), but are still low on cash for tuition, they should have the option of a 1% wage garnishment, payable to the school. The garnishment, obviously, can only go into effect when the graduate is working.

Such a basic plan would work, which is why it will never happen. You see, the PRC needs the current predatory system to stay as it is. It's not only a perpetual cash cow for them, but it also plays a critical role in brainwashing "the best and the brightest" with four years of Globalist-Marxist poison.

Creative solutions, backed by a Fascistic force for good, will improve education and leave our young people debt-free.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Governor Cuomo wants to help middle class kids go to college for free. What the state of Tennessee did with its community colleges may be a good model.

Boobus Americanus 2: No student should ever be denied an education.

Sugar: *You don't need a college professsor to teach you sstuff, Boobuss!
Look at me --- totally sself-taught in multiple areass!*

Editor: *Sugar, my dear, the sum total of your knowledge consists entirely

New York Times: At a Besieged White House, Tempers Flare

New York Times: Israel Said to Be Source of Secret Intelligence Trump Gave to Russians

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Though the Globalist faction of the worldwide PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) has had its knives out for Donald Trump from the very beginning of his campaign, the besieged candidate overcame the odds because another faction, the Likudnik Zionists, hated the Soros Globalist Killary Clinton. We believe that it was Bibi Satanyahu, not Putin, who orchestrated the blistering WikiLeaks campaign that damaged Killary so much. The fact that the evil Zionist billionaire and part owner of the Republican't Party, Sheldon Adelson, said that Trump would be "the best President ever for Israel" adds even more weight to our contention that powerful, ultra-nationalist Zionist forces played a critical role in pulling off the stunning defeat of the Globalist Golden Girl.

Netanyahu, Adelson and Mossad agent Assange got Trump elected. Is Trump stiffing Israel on its expected payoff?

Events of the past few days suggest that the Satanyahu-Adelson Axis of Evil may soon be joining their Globalist counterparts in the "Get Trump" movement.

- Headline, from the May 16th Jerusalem Post: Harsh Exchange Between Trump and Netanyahu Teams Days Ahead of Key Israel Visit
- Headline, from the May 15th Times of Israel: Adelson Reportedly Furious with Tillerson for Tying Embassy Move to Peace Deal

The men who helped to elect Trump are not happy about comments coming out of the administration regarding Palestinian sovereignty over the Western Wall and the stalled relocation of the US embassy to Jerusalem. Nor were they fooled by Trump's pretended missile attack on Syria and pretended threats against North Korea --- both nations being enemies of Israel. If both the Globalist and the Zionist factions of the PRC come after Trump, then expect the warning of Henry Ford to come into play "big league," as Trump likes to say.

From Ford's, The International Jew:

"And if after having elected their man or group, obedience is not rendered to the Jewish control, then you speedily hear of "scandals" and "investigations."

"Scandals" and "investigations"hmmmm. You nailed it Mr. Ford! (In his day, Ford was referring to what "they" had done to the nationalist President Warren Harding with their hyped-up "Tea-Pot" scandal).

1 & 2: If these wicked schemers also turn on Trump, then look for FAUX News and the Drudge Retard to follow. 3. Henry Ford's 1920's "International Jew" is a great read! (still on Amazon!)

In fact, Israel may already have begun to punish Trump. This most recent "scandal" involving Trump's alleged disclosure of "classified intelligence" to the Russians has Israel's fingerprints all over it. From the article:

"The bad-news stories slammed into the White House in pitiless succession on Tuesday, leaving President Trump's battle-scarred West Wing aides staring at their flat screens in glassy-eyed shock.

The disclosure that Mr. Trump divulged classified intelligence to Russian officials that had been provided by Israel was another blow to a besieged White House staff recovering from the mishandled firing of James B. Comey, the F.B.I. director."

The sons-of-bitches aren't content with all the cash and favors that Trump has already bestowed upon Israel. No, they demand total obedience, and if they can't get it from Trump, they'll join the "Impeach Trump" movement and extract their demands from Zionist stooge Mike Pence instead. Watch out Trump! And keep a close watch on that scheming little Jew son-in-law of yours, Jared Kushner. It's quite possible that he is one of the "leakers" feeding all of your dirty laundry to the Piranha Press.

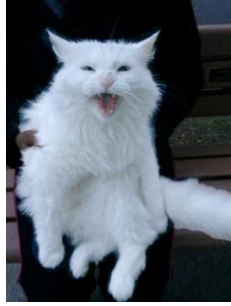

Surrounded by back-patting leakers, snitches and snakes ---- Kushner, Pence, Priebus

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that the secret intelligence about ISIS that Trump divulged to the Russians came from Israel.

Boobus Americanus 2: That's pretty irresponsible of Trump of betray our strongest ally like that.

Sugar: Boobuss you frickin' credulouss cretin!! Israel controlss ISIS!!!

Editor: Satanyahu played this one beautifully.

Trumpstein became the first sitting US President to touch the masonry.

New York Times: Trump Comes to Israel Citing a Palestinian Deal as Crucial

By PETER BAKER, MICHAEL D. SHEAR and IAN FISHER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Ah, yes. Nothing to boost falling approval ratings like donning the beanie and degrading oneself at the Wailing Wall, eh Trumpstein? We reckon that last week's "controversial" staff-member remarks about the wall not belonging to Israel and Adelson's and Satanyahu's "concerns" were all just a ploy to show the world that Trumpstein isn't Israel's billionaire bitch, after all. Nice try, Jared, but we see the game now.

It is not merely the symbolic and politically expedient act of self-degradation at Satan's Wall that troubles us. More importantly, it is Trumpstein / Kushner's evil deeds and ugly slanders of the past few days -- committed and spoken while visiting in the cooperating terrorist nations of Saudi Arabia and Israel -- that ~~Sugar~~ ~~and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times are compelled to condemn.

*Bill Clinton, George Bush and Barack Obama "worshipped" at Satan's Wall at a time when they were either candidates or ex-Presidents. President Trumpstein is the first to do it while in office.

The Saudi Arms Deal

As the Saudis continue their slaughter in Yemen, Jared Kushner personally negotiated a $110 Billion arms deal which will include tanks, fighter jets, combat ships and the THAAD missile defense system. Declared Trumpstein of the massive package:

"This package of defense equipment and services support the long-term security of Saudi Arabia and the Gulf region in the face of Iranian threats while also bolstering the Kingdom's ability to contribute to counter-terrorism operations across the region."

What "Iranian threats," Trumpstein? Iran is a peaceful nation that hasn't attacked anyone. As for "the Kingdom" contributing to "counter-terrorism," surely you must know that Saudi Arabia, along with Israel and a faction of the CIA, are the parties behind the creation, arming, training and funding of "ISIS."

OBONGO & TRUMP BOWING TO THE TERRORIST TYRANTS OF THE HOUSE OF SAUD

Trump "tweet" from 2012: Obama bowed to the Saudi King in public--yet the Dems are questioning Mitt Romney's diplomatic skills."

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) July 30, 2012

Image 3: Israel agent Kushner and his busy-body idiot Jewess wife walk past a line of lusty Saudis.

Arab NATO

In a matter of months, we have gone from Candidate Trump suggesting that NATO is obsolete, to President Trumpstein establishing the framework for creating another NATO --- "Arab NATO!" White House officials claim that "Arab NATO," will fight against terrorism and "contain Iran." The scheme goes hand-in-hand with the $110 arms-sales deal with the Saudis.

This planned Sunni Arab coalition will, by design, be used to antagonize Shia populations in Syria, Iraq, Yemen, Lebanon and Iran. Why is it necessary? Who would such a military bloc be fighting? Answer: Iran and whatever other countries back it. "Arab NATO," like European NATO, would only serve the interests of the Jewish masters of the New World Order.

The REAL terrorist state of Saudi Arabia has been brought into alliance with Israel to serve as the "front man" in the Zionist war on Iran.

Slandering Iran and Hezbollah In Israel

After slandering peaceful Iran as a "sponsor of terror" while in terrorist Saudi Arabia, Trumpstein picked up right where he left off upon arriving in terrorist Israel. Get a whiff of this oral excrement from Trumpstein, spewed out in the presence of Satanyahu:

"Iran should be very grateful to the United States. Iran negotiated a fantastic deal with the previous administration. No matter where we go we see the signs of Iran in the Middle East. ... Yemen, Iraq, no matter where we are we see the signs, whether it's soldiers, whether it's money and guns. Instead of saying thank you to the United States, they now feel emboldened."

He went on to also slime the heroes of Hezbollah as "terrorists" and ignorantly coupled the Lebanese patriots with the "barbaric criminals" of ISIS -- though he knows very well that Hezbollah is actually fighting ISIS and defending Christians. To top it all off, he repeated the tiresome lie about Iran's plot to develop nuclear weapons, and America's commitment to stopping it from happening.

1. Trumpstein's ridiculous Road-Show puts war with Iran & Hezbollah, via proxies, back on the table. 2. Stupid Saudis don't seem to understand that in the end, Greater Israel will turn on them too -- just as the Israeli did in the days following the false-flag attack 9/11, when it was falsely claimed that "14 of the 19 hijackers were Saudis." 3. "Hatred's Kingdom" (2003) -- by Israeli Ambassador to the UN, Dore Gold, was a vicious attack piece on Saudi Arabia that was puffed-up to New York Times best-seller status. But now that the obedient Saudis are helping Israel to do its dirty work with regard to Syria, Iran and Yemen, the Saudis are "good guys" all of a sudden.

In the past, we had cautiously and hopefully hypothesized that perhaps Trumpstein's bellicose rhetoric towards Iran was intended to throw a bloody bone to the Zionist powers-that-be, and that he really didn't want to see the Middle East blow up. Words are just words, right?. But now, with a massive arsenal of discounted weaponry and missile batteries headed to the Evil Kingdom of Saud, and an "Arab NATO" in the works, it is clear that Trumpstein, at the behest of his Likudnik Israeli masters, intends to use vassal proxies to bring down Iran, Lebanon, Syria and whoever else gets in the way of Greater Israel. In due time, any conflict between Saudi / "Arab NATO" and Iran, would eventually draw in Israel, and its US protector --- and God only knows who else?

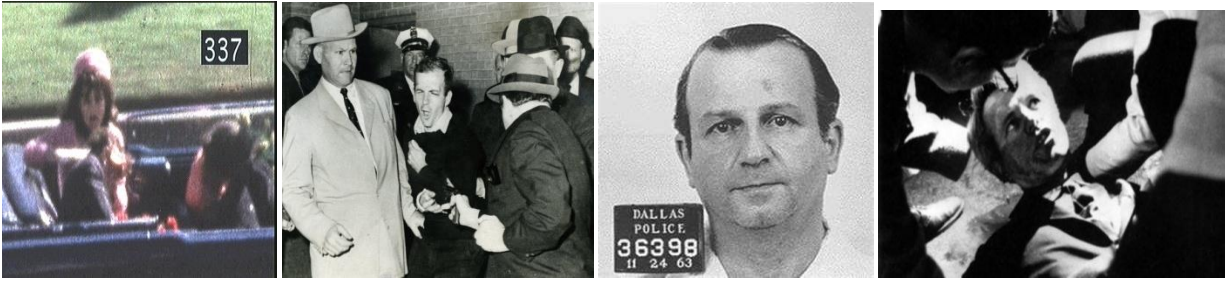

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump is proposing an Arab NATO.

Boobus Americanus 2: It's a smart move. Let the Arab states keep Iran in check.

Sugar: You sstupid goy! It'ss that sshitty little terrorisst sstate of Issrael that needss to be controlled, not Iran!

Editor: The last President who attempted to put the Israelis in their place (JFK) got his face blown off. Two days later, the alleged assassin was also killed. Three years later, the assassin of alleged assassin died in prison after claiming that he was being injected with cancer cells. The following year, JFK's brother, well on his way to being elected the next President, was assassinated by a "Palestinian".

One after the other: JFK, Oswald, Ruby (cough cough) and RFK.

And then JFK Jr. in 1999 --- thus enabling Hillary to run for a New York Senate seat in 2000, before he could announce his own political intentions.

New York Times: Explosion, Panic and Death at Ariana Grande Concert in England

By RORY SMITH and SEWELL CHAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The crisis actor Hoax-of-the-Month, carried out just as Trumpstein warns about "Islamic Terrorism" TM from Israel, takes us to Manchester, England -- the scene of a concert by Illuminati skank Ariana Grande. Who will "take credit" -- via Twitter -- for this latest bit of CIA-MI6-Mossad false-flag-fakery? Will it be it ISIS? Al Qaeda? Or maybe the dreaded "lone wolf" TM next door? (Cue dramatic music). The plot thickens, as does the bullshit.

1. Ms. Grande turns the star upside to make a Satanic star.
2. One-Eye Illuminati symbolism.
3. Arianna kisses the devil.

For that minority element of our readership that still gets set off whenever we call out crisis actor fakery on these staged "beheadings" and mass killings, "youse guys" (Jersey lingo for the plural of you) need to get over the psychological blockage and simply analyze the pictures with a critical mind. They are ALL fake events --- the Aurora Movie theater shooting, the Sandy Hook School shooting, the Boston Marathon Smoke Bomb, the Charleston Black Church shooting, the San Bernadino shooting, the Orlando Fag Club shooting, the Nice, France truck attack, the Paris concert attack, the Brussels attack, the Berlin attack, and so many others that we can't even recall anymore.

Before some of you cancel your subscriptions and sent us a hate E-mail, do a Google Image Search for:

- dead bodies in manchester bombing
- dead bodies in sandy hook shooting
- dead bodies in orlando night club
- dead bodies in aurora movie theater
- dead bodies in nice truck attack

What do find? --- NOTHING -- What? No video cameras in nightclubs, theaters, schools, busy tourist boulevards and arenas???

Then do a Google Image Search for:

- charles manson murders
 - OJ simpson murder scene

.... and see the blood and dead bodies.

Still doubt the fakery? Just have a look at manifest goofiness of these fresh images from Manchester:

1. They cut his pants off at the scene, applied a few bandages (where's the blood?), and then helped the poor bloke leave the scene. A bit old to be at a teenie-bopper concert, no? 2. The young lady suffers the same bloodless injury to the knee -- again, jeans cut off at the scene before being helped to walk away. 3. Good made-for-TV drama, but why are there never any bodies at these crime scenes?

Well, at least we can all be grateful to our masters for committing harmless hoax attacks instead the real attacks of years ago -- such as the 9/11 attacks (2001), the Madrid Train Bombing (2004), the 7/7 London Bombings (2005) etc. Evidently, there must have been some push-back from within the ranks of the clandestine agencies over the constant killing of so many innocent people. Somewhere along the line, the decision was made to use "drills," fake blood and "crisis actors" instead. Also, when nobody actually dies, there will be no pain-in-the-ass family members who might organize and push for a deeper investigation of the event, as happened with 9/11.

But in spite of the bloodless nature of these fake events, the misunderstanding of these silly stunts is endangering innocent lives nonetheless. You see, each fake "Islamic Terror" TM attack brings us closer and closer to the day when our governments, under the pretext of "fighting terrorism," will ultimately succeed in "going after the terrorists" and kicking off the great Middle Eastern war for Greater Israel. That's the plan, and don't "youse guys" ever forget it!

1. Our "ally" Bibi Satanyahu offers his "condolences" to America after the fake San Bernadino attack of 2015. 2. Nice, France: Not a drop of blood anywhere to be seen on the white truck said to have killed 84 and wounded 202. 3. Fake bullet holes on the windshield (toy stickers).

This just in!

How conveeenient (as the "Church Lady" of old Saturday Night Live fame would say) that Georgina Callander (18) -- the very first "victim" to be identified -- just happened to have had her picture taken with Satanist Ariana Grande two years ago, in an unusually chummy pose. You nailed it, Church Lady!

Boobus Americanus 1: Did you hear about the latest terror attack in England? Nineteen dead.

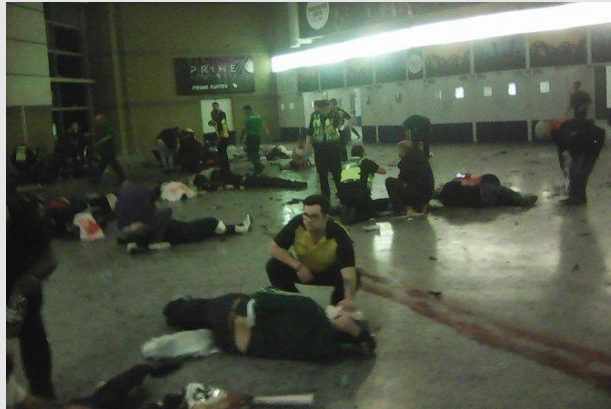

Boobus Americanus 2: My heart is aching over those images. Something has got to be done about Islamic terrorism!

Sugar: Weep not for the "dead," and their "grieving" publicity-seeking "family members," Boobuss. They are all being paid very well, I'm ssure.

Editor: There is no shortage of Satanists and money-hungry lowlives in the modern world. A few million dollars and a signed non-disclosure agreement is all it takes to pull off such scams. The Fake News and the force of public credulity will do the rest.

New York Times: Terror Alert in Britain Is Raised to Maximum as ISIS Claims Manchester Attack

By KATRIN BENNHOLD, STEVEN ERLANGER and CEYLAN YEGINSU

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

In yesterday's debunking of the fake Manchester Concert Bombing, we briefly touched up what appears to be pop-singer's Ariana Grande's devotion to the occult and/or Satanism -- which is not uncommon amongst the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class). Just in case you forgot:

1. Ms. Grande turns the star upside to make a Satanic star.
2. One-Eye Illuminati symbolism.
3. Ariana kisses the devil.

A few more data points, picked up in this article, further arouse suspicions. One is the final "death count." From the article:

"... the Monday night bombing at a pop music concert in Manchester that killed 22 people..."

Another clue for us, relates to the age of the "bomber." Again, from the article:

"As the authorities bolstered the nation's defenses, investigators set out to learn as much as they could about Mr. Abedi, 22."

And finally, there was the date of the "bombing" --- May 22.

You see, boys and girls, Kabbalah is a branch of Jewish mysticism which originated about 700 years ago. Its teachings come from an ancient 23-volume book called the Zohar, which offers "interpretations" of the meaning of the Torah. Kabbalah -- believed by many critics to be a cover for Satanism -- is very much into the occult and numerology. Amongst Kabbalists, the number 11 and its multiples (22, 33, 44 etc) carry special importance. Far from denying their bizarre fascination with 11 and its multiples, Kabbalist websites openly admit it.

Ms. Grande's pentagrams, one-eye symbols and smooching with Satan, combined with all the 22's associated with the Manchester false-flag, all combine to really give this week's big event a kosherized Satanic smell to it. But the stench gets even nastier. Ready for this? On a hunch, Sugar the instinctive genius took at shot at googling "Ariana Grande Kabbalah" -- lo and behold:

'My brother was told God didn't love him': Ariana Grande reveals she turned to Kabbalah after her homosexual brother was shunned by the Catholic Church

"My life has unfolded in a really beautiful way, and I think that it has a lot to do with the tools I've learned through Kabbalah, I really do."

1. Ariana, above with her fag brother, became a Kabalah Queen because the Catholic Church has yet to openly embrace butt-buggery (Give it a few more years, sweetie) 2. Washed up skank Madonna is also Kabalah, and also performs with demons. 3. Hollywood Devil Movie "11-11-11"

This isn't the first time that a big event benefiting the evil agenda of the usual suspects was marked by 11's-based numerology. Perhaps some are coincidental, but we believe some were planned that way. Consider:

- 11/11/1918: Armistice Day marked the inexplicable, complete and unconditional surrender of Germany in World War I, at a time when not a single enemy soldier had ever set foot on German soil. The date is now celebrated as "Veterans Day" in the United States.
- 6/6/1944: D-Day (Devil's Day?) / Operation "Overlord, the invasion of Normandy by the Allies.
- 11/22/63: The assassination of John F. Kennedy, the last U.S. President to stand up to the Israelis.
- 9/11/01: The attacks on New York and DC ushered in the never-ending "War on Terror"
- 3/11/2004 The Madrid Train Bombing
- 7/7/2005: The London Train and Bus Bombings
- 3/11/2011: The Fukushima Nuclear Disaster (which followed the Tsunami attack on Japan)

Oh how these power-drunk "devils" toy with us all. Sick bastards from Hell!

1. 11/11/1918: Germany falls, Berlin captured (briefly) by Bolshevik Jews
2. 11/22/1963 JFK shot live on TV
3. 9/11/2001: The "Twin Towers" form an "11."

Boobus Americanus 1: The death toll in Manchester is now at 22.

Boobus Americanus 2: Horrible. I understand the perpetrator was a 22-year old Muslim!

Sugar: The frickin' Church Lady iss right! It'ss that $%#@&^ SSatan doing all thiss, I tell ya! SSATAN!!!

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND / 2017

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

As we all know, Memorial Day is a federal holiday in the United States for remembering the men (and many misguided women now too!) who died while serving in America's armed forces. The holiday, which is observed on the last Monday of May, originated in 1868 as Decoration Day.

Families of the Northern dead would decorate the graves of their kinfolk with flags and flowers. By 1900, competing Union and Confederate holiday traditions, celebrated on different days, had merged into a single Memorial Day, which was eventually extended to honor all Americans who died in military service.

Since World War II, the stupid cliché of "thank our veterans for our freedom" was unofficially attached to the day. Of course, American haven't died in defense of freedom since the complicated and nuanced Civil War -- with northerners dying to remain free of the dangers of a Rothschild-divided America; and southerners dying for the right of state sovereignty.

So, this Memorial Day, with all due respect to the veterans, let us dispense with all this "thank you for our freedom" bullshit and declare a more historically accurate "gratitude" to the deserving parties (cough cough).

Sorry to rain on your Memorial Day Parade, pops --- but with all respect and affection, you and your buddies got played for chumps.

1898: Thank you Globalists for the gift of the Spanish-American War in which 2,450 Americans were killed so that the New World Order could establish a presence in the Asian Pacific (Philippines & Guam).

1898-1913: Thank you Globalists for the gift of the Philippines War in which 4,200 American were killed so that the Filipinos, to whom you promised independence in exchange for rising up against Spain, could be kept under control.

1900-1901: Thank you Globalists for the Boxer Rebellion in which 131 Americans were killed so that the Chinese could be kept in line.

1917-1918: Thank you Globalists and Zionists for World War I in which 120,000 Americans were killed so that the first steps of world government could be taken in Europe (League of Nations) and Palestine could be stolen from the Turks and their Arab subjects.

Spanish-American War -- Philippines War -- World War I

1941-1945: Thank you Globalists and Zionists for World War II in which 410,000 Americans were killed so that Germany and Japan could be enslaved to the New World Order, and Britain eventually forced to turn over most of Palestine to the Jews.

1950-1953: Thank you Globalists for the Korean War in which 36,000 Americans were killed in a rigged no-win war designed to maintain a permanent trip-wire between the two Koreas.

1965-1975: Thank you Globalists for the Vietnam War in which 58,000 Americans were killed in another rigged no-win war designed to drain and destabilize America.

World War II -- Korean War -- Vietnam War

1982-1984: Thank you Globalists and Zionists for the Beirut Deployment in which 266 Americans were killed in a false-flag attack staged by Israel and blamed on "terrorists."

1990-1991: Thank you Globalists and Zionists for the Gulf War in which 300 Americans were killed so that the rising power of politically independent Iraq could be weakened.

2001-2011: Thank you Globalists and Zionists for the War on Terror in which 7000 Americans were killed in Afghanistan and Iraq as part of a multi-trillion dollar farce kicked-off after the false-flag terror attacks of September 11, 2001.

Beirut -- Iraq -- Afghanistan

"They died to keep us free." eh Boobus? ---- ---- ----

We can best honor our dead veterans by exposing the "who" and the "why" behind their tragic and premature deaths.

Boobus Americanus 2: Yes I am.

Boobus Americanus 1: Thank you for my freedom!

Boobus Americanus 2: Your welcome!

New York Times: Former Presidents Recall Brzezinski's Influence

REBUTTAL BY

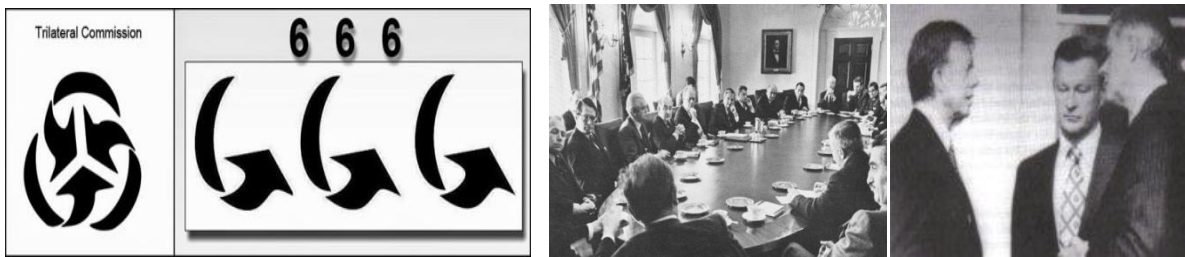

The Anti-New York Times

During our computer-less Memorial Day escape, we were pleased to hear about that son of hell Zbigniew Brzezinski following his recently-departed master, David Rockefeller, out of this world which they had mangled so badly. Good riddance! Unfortunately, there is always a fresh new crop of Globalists to replace the ones who leave "the world stage" TM.

In the vast power scheme of things, Brzezinski's role was more similar to that of a Henry Kissinger, rather than a Rothschild, Rockefeller or Soros. He was a high-level "consigliere" in Mafia-speak -- a strategist, an adviser to the Mega Mafia Dons, but not an actual billionaire power mogul. In that advisory capacity, the cunning counselor compiled an impressive list of foreign policy "accomplishments" -- none of them good.

Shortly after he and Rockefeller founded the Trilateral Commission in 1973, Brzezinski recruited Jimmy Carter, the nationally unknown Governor of Georgia, for membership in the elite Globalist group. By early 1976, St. Jimmy the Pious - the "peanut farmer" and "outsider" who came out of nowhere - was rocketed to victory after victory in Democrat Presidential Primaries. He went on to unseat

Gerald Ford (also a Trilateralist) to become the 39th President of the United States.

1- The logo 6-6-6 of the Trilateral Commission. 2- Brzezinski and Rockefeller on left (3rd & 4th from the wall) 2- Jimmy Carter, the saintly "Christian outsider" confers with his Trilateralist advisers; Brzezinski and Vance (Secretary of State)

In 1977, Carter appointed his Polish-American handler to the position of National Security Adviser. Brzezinski's Georgian bitch then proceeded to stack his administration with Trilateralists. Carter/ Brzezinski's one-term record of destruction has since been whitewashed and forgotten by many. Time for a brief review of some of the more memorable "mistakes":

- Carter & Brzezinski pressured the White government of once prosperous Rhodesia to step aside and allow Communist thug Robert Mugabe to be elected President. Mugabe's motto was "one man, one vote" -- to which we can now add, "one time" because he is still the undisputed master of what is now known as Zimbabwe. The wretched land has since experienced the brutal oppression of White farmers (those foolish enough to have stayed), hyperinflation, crime waves, widespread hunger, soul-crushing poverty and a flight of desperate Blacks to slightly the less shittier "new" South Africa.
- Carter & Brzezinski allowed Cuban Communist Fidel Castro to dump his criminals and mental patients in Florida in what was known as the Mariel Boat Lift. The escapees all claimed to be "political refugees", and many were indeed, but the subsequent crime wave indicated that plenty specimens of human scum was also being pumped into Carter's America (Think 'Tony Montana' of 'Scarface').

1- Brzezinski's boy Mugabe is still alive and dangerous. The beast has unleashed 100,000% hyper-inflation.

2- Brzezinski / Carter to Castro: "Send me your killers, rapists and psychos. I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

- Carter & Brzezinski created a proxy army in Afghanistan and deliberately provoked the 1979 Soviet invasion by staging a CIA coup in what had been a "non-aligned" country on Russia's Asian border (much like today's Ukraine)! Though the long and drawn out "Afghan Trap" contributed to the ultimate demise and break-up of the USSR, Carter & Brzezinski were not at all motivated by "anti-communism." They only sought to destroy and destabilize Russia so that it could be swallowed up into the New World Order.
- After deliberately engineering the Soviet War in Afghanistan, (a fact which Brzezinski has since admitted to!) Carter & Brzezinski ruined the 1980 Moscow Olympics by organizing a boycott. Sixty five nations accepted Carter's request, demand to boycott Moscow. The hopes and dreams of 1000's of athletes were thus cruelly sacrificed on the altar of NWO geopolitics. Naturally, the Soviets later responded in kind in 1984. The talented Soviet team and those of various allies did not participate in the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics - leaving many American medalists with a feeling of empty victory.
- Carter & Brzezinski back-stabbed the America-friendly Nicaraguan government of Nationalist Anastasio Somoza - falsely portrayed by the New York Slimes and the Piranha Press as a "brutal dictator" and a violator of "human rights". State Department pressure ultimately toppled Somoza and brought the Castro-backed Communist Sandinistas to power.

1- The deadly Afghan War was a Carter / Brzezinski production, not at all instigated by the Russians! 2- It is said that Moscow put on a great show for the 1980 Olympics - but Carter & Brzezinski ruined it. The putrid pair even went so far as to use Black boxer Muhammad Ali to visit Africa on a mission to persuade more nations to join the cruel boycott. 3- Somoza blamed Carter/Brzezinski and the New York Times (among others) for the Marxist takeover of Nicaragua.

Over the course of the many years that have passed since the Carter fiasco, Brzezinski, as an agent of the all mighty House of Rockefeller (and probably Rothschild) continued to exert his influence from behind the scenes. In his 1998 book, The Grand Chessboard, Brzezinski brazenly set forth an open conspiracy to dominate Central Asia -- key elements of which being a soon-to-come foreign bogeyman and a "Pearl Harbor" type event to come in the near future (9/11 attacks).

In 2008, his sons Ian and Mark served as "foreign policy advisers" for the respective presidential campaigns of McCain the Insane and Homo-Obongo. His psychotic libtarded adulterous daughter, Mika, is the co-host of "Morning Joe" on MSNBC. The whole rotten family hates Russia and especially Vladimir Putin, who Papa Zbigniew has condemned as another "Adolf Hitler" -- a damn fine compliment in our book!

Brzezinski's disgustingly arrogant 1998 book clearly telegraphed the manufactured rise of a phantom bogeyman and a coming "Pearl Harbor" that would induce America into direct military involvement all across Asia.

It is not surprising to hear the former presidents glorify this ghoulish Globalist. Rather, it is to be expected. He was, after all, in the grand scheme of things, much further up the power pyramid than they ever were. Jimmy Carter praised him as "an influential voice who shaped decades of American national security policy," and added that Brzezinski was "a superb public servant brilliant, dedicated and loyal." Obongo gushed that he was one of several presidents "who benefited from his wisdom and counsel." And George H.W. Bush said that Brzezinski was an "influential voice in key policy debates."

The International gangsters always glorify their own. To use a sports analogy, if there were such an institution as the Globalist Hall of Fame, Zbigniew Brzezinski would be inducted into it on the first ballot. If there is a hell below us, may the conniving bastard rot in it for all eternity.

*Nearly a half-century of high-level scheming disguised as "advice" ---

New York Times: Francesco Totti Leaves the Field, and Romans Weep for a Living Monument

By JASON HOROWITZ

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

It is unusual for the "paper of record" to carry a sports-related story on its front page. But because this particular event, which took place in Italy, was so emotional for the people of Rome, the Slimes evidently deemed it newsworthy. ~~Sugar and I,~~ er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times also found it notable, albeit for a far different reason.

We are not such "sticks in the mud" that we can't enjoy an occasional ball game, and we find nothing wrong with sports aficionados cheering for the home team. A bit of fun and games is an important part of life, as is the physical development of our young people. But when mass numbers of grown men are moved to tears by the retirement of a 40-year old soccer (aka football) player, --- Roma: we have a problem.

Adding to the insanity of it all is that Italy -- where the maternal side of your favorite reporter's family is from -- is in a not-so-slow-motion meltdown. The country's birth rates are among the lowest in the world. High youth unemployment and the sad social phenomenon of so many "millennials" living at home have been the "new normal" for the past 25 years. Corruption is rampant. Turd Worlders just keep coming and coming and coming by the boatload. And major cities such as Rome are getting dirtier and more dangerous by the day. Football fans of Rome! Weep for your dying country, not a retiring football player!

1. Roman fans loses lose their minds for Number 10, Francesco Totti. 2. Meanwhile, Soros' invaders keep pouring in from Libyan ports. 3. Stupid and half-naked Italian libtard greets the all-male "migrants" who would just love to gang-rape her!

From the article:

"It's a sad day," said Luigi Carinci, 65, who had sat in the front row in Testaccio, the neighborhood that is the club's spiritual home, and dabbed his eyes whenever the screen showed Totti stretching his legs or sipping water on the bench. "Rome is a mess. The bus never comes, they don't pick up the garbage and the cops do nothing. Now Totti's leaving. It's the last thing we need."

Totti's final game on Sunday, after a quarter century with Roma that has made him the most celebrated and beloved player in the club's history, was a kick in the stomach to a city already knocked to the ground and then rolled into a pothole filled with trash.

The past decade or so has not been kind to Rome. Garbage piles up in the piazzas. The parks look like littered Iowa cornfields. The city's sputtering economy hemorrhages jobs, and the mayor's name has become a national byword for urban disaster.

As the theme from "Gladiator" gave way to Elton John's "Circle of Life," Totti started weeping. Bawling. So did the members of the Roma Club, old and young, men and women. They sang the chorus of the team song — "Roma Roma Roma" — and wept. They held their children and wept. They screamed "mortacci loro" and wept.

As Totti read out a letter, the faces of thousands of fans contorted with tearful anguish."

Are you people frickin' kidding me??? We can certainly understand Mr. Totti (Image 1) getting choked-up because he is leaving his livelihood of 20 years, but the fans?

Oh if only such mass passion could be harnessed and applied to a popular movement to save and resurrect the Western Civilization which Rome -- "The Eternal City -- symbolizes for all those of European heritage. We could knock out the New World Order in a few days! The reason that such passion for the things that really matter no longer exists is largely because of the deliberately-engineered diversion of organized sports. At a time when very few people took any interest in following the daily happenings of the barely even noticeable "sports world," the spooky-prescient Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion (written by parties unknown circa 1900) made this, among many other, prophetic and amazing forecasts:

"In order that the masses themselves may not guess what they (political objectives) are about, we further distract them with amusements, games, pastimes, passions ... Soon we shall begin through the press to propose competitions in art, in sport of all kinds: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them."

Wow! Is that not exactly what we have seen play out over the past 100 + years? Sports -- sports -- sports! That's all the typical TV-addicted European or American male seems to be able to get excited about, is it not? With his mind, his passion and his natural warrior spirit thusly diverted towards endless games and inane "round-table" commentaries about the game, Boobus Athleticus is left with neither the time nor the interest to study the dangerous illusions that have been and continue to be pulled over his eyes --- illusions that are enslaving him and destroying his own family's future. Adding insult to injury, the sports press openly mocks Boobus Athleticus by referring to him as a "fan" -- short for "fanatic."

Mamma mia! What a tragic farce.

As Roman sports fans weep for Totti, Rome's Communist Pope washes and kisses the feet of welfare-receiving "migrants" --- while poor White Romans are left to sleep in the street.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today about how all of Rome is mourning the retirement of some soccer player.

Boobus Americanus 2: Italians are really fanatical about their soccer. It's crazy.

New York Times: A Meaningful Move on Voting Rights in Alabama

By THE EDITORIAL BOARD

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

For readers new to The Anti-New York Times, the word-smith Andrew Rosenthal (cough cough) is the putrid little maggot who gets away with posing as the high and mighty "Editorial Board" of Sulzberger's Slimes. This is not to say that he pens each and every article attributed to "The Editorial Board," but whatever is not personally written by him is controlled and edited by him.

Hazmat suits and goggles on! Join ~~Sugar and me~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times for a rebutting dive into Rosenthal's, er, "The Editorial Board's" latest bit of anti-White excrement. Into the filth we go!

Be neither afraid nor impressed by all the smoke and noise of the Not-So-High and Not-So-Mighty "Editorial Board." It's only a pathetic little word-smith named Andrew Rosenthal typing out lies from behind the curtain.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Last week, more than 100 years late, Alabama took an important step toward excising a toxic slice of white supremacy from its Constitution ...

Rebuttal: Rosenvermin has no problem at all with the "toxic" Jewish supremacy over America's press, entertainment and banking sectors. It's only those big bad southern "racists" TM with their "White supremacy" TM that make his skullcap pop off of his pointy head.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": ... and restoring voting rights ...

Rebuttal: Voting is not a "right" -- it is a privilege that is (or rather, should be) earned. If voting was a "right," then we would have to allow children, the comatose, and foreign tourists to vote as well.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": ... to perhaps thousands of people, disproportionately black, with criminal records.

Rebuttal: What does it matter if the criminals who lose their "voting rights" are "disproportionately black" or not? The standard of justice only requires that Black and White criminals be treated equally. Professional Football is also "disproportionately black." Should we amend the rules of the game of football so that more Whites can play?

The Overlords of Finance

1. Why is the Black over-representation in football not regarded as "Black Supremacy?" 2 & 3. Why is the Jewish over-representation in banking and media not regarded as "Jewish Supremacy?"

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": At the state's constitutional convention in 1901, lawmakers amended the Constitution to bar from voting anyone convicted of a crime involving "moral turpitude." ... they were crystal clear about its intent: to preserve "white supremacy in this state" and fight the "menace of Negro domination" at the ballot box, as the convention's president said.

Rebuttal: Rosenfeces conveniently omits the critical historical context behind such laws. In the post-war South, sleazy Northern "carpetbaggers" (many of them Jewish) and their henchmen, using the promise of free stuff, herded the freed Black slaves into voting blocs while many White ex-confederates were stripped of the vote. Whites of all classes suffered horribly under the domination of the carpetbagger / Negro alliance during what was known as the "Reconstruction Era." Alabama's turn-of-the century amendment incorporated necessary electoral reforms to prevent such mischief and mayhem from ever happening again.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": It has continued to fall heavily on blacks — nearly one in five of whom are disenfranchised statewide, more than triple the rate for whites. In all, about a quarter million Alabama residents can't vote because of a criminal conviction.

Rebuttal: One has to wonder, Rosenfungus, would your oh-so-altruistic and oh-so-touching concern for the poor "disenfranchised" Black man be so passionate if Blacks voted 95% Republican, instead of 95% Demoncrap? Hmnnnnnn? Be honest, Rosenstench. We know it's hard for you, but at least try.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": On May 24, Gov. Kay Ivey, a Republican, signed a bill that lists the several dozen crimes considered acts of “moral turpitude.” The list includes crimes like murder and rape, and — importantly — excludes low-level drug offenses like possession, by far the most common felony conviction in the state.

Rebuttal: Of course! A silly female Republican't caved into libtard pressure in the misguided hope that she will be loved by Blacks, Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press. How pathetically typical of "modern Republicans" to put their own empty heads into their executioners' guillotine. We didn't know that this cancer of female political bosses had spread into the state nicknamed "the Heart of Dixie." Damn!

1 & 2: The classic silent-film, Birth of a Nation depicts a southern White woman leaping off of a cliff to avoid being raped by a freed Black (White actor in black-face). These types of atrocities happened because Northern interlopers and their Black voting herds were able to lord over the defeated South with the ballot box. That is why the amended Alabama constitution of 1901 barred criminals and degenerates (of all races) from voting. 2. Stupid silly Republican't Governor Kay Ivey signals her "virtue" to the national Piranha Press and earns its praise for "bipartisanship."

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": The bill had bipartisan support ... an encouraging sign.

Rebuttal: A point of clarification regarding this stupid term, "bipartisanship" TM --- you see, whenever that small remnant of true Republican conservatives left in America stands strong against the Communist agenda, it's known as "obstructionism" TM --- but when spineless (or complicit) Republican'ts bend over and spread em' wide for the Demoncraps, it is hailed as "bipartisanship" TM. See how it works?

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Alabama's new law is certainly an improvement, but it's far from optimal. There's no clear method for informing people who were previously kicked off voter rolls that they may now be eligible to vote again.

Rebuttal: See that? Give a Communist an inch and he'll soon be back to demand another mile. It's not enough to restore "voting rights" TM to the ex-cons. Now Rosenrectum wants to make sure that they are "informed" about their new "rights." Evidently, these newly eligible and oh-so-civic-minded voters neither watch the local news nor read the Alabama newspapers.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": ... evidence suggests ...

Rebuttal: Classic rhetorical trickery! Raw data-points may "suggest" things, but "evidence" (which Rosenstool does not even cite in this case), by its very nature does not "suggest." Evidence either proves or disproves.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": ...that keeping prisoners connected to their civic responsibilities makes it easier for them to rejoin society.

Rebuttal: And your empirical "evidence" for this platitudinous "suggestion" is what, exactly? And we're soooo sure these ex-cons simply cannot wait to fulfill their "civic responsibilities" to society -- (rolling eyes sarcastically).

Demoncrap Communist voting blocs --- the dead, the illegal invaders and soon, the freed prisoners.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": At the very least, no one should be denied the right to vote after serving out his or her complete sentence.

Rebuttal: "No one should be denied?" No one? That means that Rosenstool wants even murderers and rapists who "serve their complete sentence" to be able to mark up an absentee ballot (or ballots?) and submit it to a Demoncrap community organizer.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Alabama's law is a small but meaningful move toward ... counteracting the stench of white supremacy that lingers there.

Rebuttal: Well now, Rosenvomit, that's mighty magnanimous of a "White" man such as you to go against your own race in order to fight "the stench of White supremacy" on behalf of "disenfranchised" Black voters. Say Rosie, what ethnicity is that surname of yours most associated with? English? Swedish? French? Italian?

Rosenscum's white skin helps him and his synagogue buddies to get away with such blatant Jewish supremacy and bigotry toward Whites (Europeans). You know, the old "nobody here but us White guys trick." But Rosenstink is not "White" -- a fact that these characters will acknowledge amongst themselves, but seldom in public (YouTube for shocking video clip below).

YouTube: "I'm not White, I'm Jewish. I'm not White, I'm Jewish."

- Jewish "rap artists" sing before a group of Jewish students.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the state of Alabama is finally going to grant full voting rights to Blacks.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, it sure took those racist rednecks long enough to come into the 21st century.

Sugar: Rape! Rape!

Editor: Sugar, stop being a racist clown and focus on your commentary.

New York Times: (Op-Ed): Trump's Stupid and Reckless Climate Decision

New York Times: 'Climate Change Is Real': Many U.S. Companies Lament Paris Accord Exit

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The intra-mural war between the Satanyahu Zionist and the Soros Globalist crime families of the "Kosher Nostra" heats up (no pun intended) with Trumpstein's decision to stick it to the Globalist faction by pulling the United States out of the "Paris Climate Agreement." As the world's leading emitter of harmless plant-food molecules (CO₂), this essentially means that the devious deal, in spite of China, India and Russia's feigned "commitment" to the Paris scheme, will, in due course, die altogether -- except perhaps in the Communist EU and many individual American states.

Now would be a good time to summarize some important historical propaganda milestones of the 40-year old hoax that has "evolved" from being known as "The Greenhouse Effect" TM to "Global Warming" TM to "Climate Change" TM.

- 1970: With great fanfare, the first "Earth Day" (April 22nd, Lenin's Birthday) kicked-off with CBS's Walter Cronkite (CFR) hosting a nationally televised TV special. The theme of "saving the planet" was thus introduced to the gullible young hippie crowd who have since grown up to takeover America, at the behest of their invisible handlers (cough cough).

Cronkite and the media's heavy promotion of "Earth Day 1970" was a sure indication of a Globalist push for some sinister agenda.

- 1975-1978: During the mid 1970's, "scientific" talk of a coming "ice age" (not necessarily related to pollution) was used to frighten the population.

People aged 45 and under cannot remember that we once had a bit of an ice-age scare.

- 1979-1982: At a time when world population and plant-food emissions were far lower than they are today, concerns about an ice-age are suddenly replaced with tales of a "Greenhouse Effect" TM that is expected to wreak havoc by the Year 2000. After nearly 40 years, none of the dire predictions have come to pass as "doomsday" is again and again pushed up to yet another far off day in "our children's future."
- 1990: The children's TV show, Captain Planet and The Planeteers is unveiled by Globalist Ted Turner. The series will be broadcast on TBS from 1990 to 1992. A sequel series, The New Adventures of Captain Planet, is later broadcast from 1993-1996. Many millions of children, now in their 30's, were brainwashed by cartoons which featured the green-haired Captain Planet and his young "Planeteers" battling against evil business and oil men such as "Hoggish Greedly."

1. In the early 1980's, images of the Statue of Liberty, predicted to be under water by 2000, were used to frighten school children across America. 2. Captain Planet and the Planeteers: Evil Communist propaganda aimed at helpless children -- many of whom have since grown up into adult libtards.

1992: CFR member, Senator and soon-to-be Vice President, Al Gore (D-TN) publishes Earth in the Balance, in which he calls for a "Global Marshall Plan to "save the planet." The book is hyped to the stars by Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press.

2006: Al Gore, who had almost been elected President in 2000, authors another propaganda book titled, An Inconvenient Truth. Dealing solely with the "crisis" of Global Warming" TM, the error-filled book serves as the basis for a movie version directed by Davis Guggenheim (cough cough) and narrated by Al Gore. Gore's fake film premieres at the 2006 Sundance Film Festival. The Marxist movie is then mega-hyped by the Piranha Press and wins two Academy Awards. It would later be shown in classrooms across America and Britain. Adding idiocy to insult, Gore is then awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for his asinine activism.

2015: The Communist Pope Francis issues an unprecedented edict directing his followers to believe that "Climate Change" TM is real. He condemns it as a "sin" and urges the world to "take action." All of a sudden, the Judenpresse loves a Catholic Pope. Hmmmm.

2016: Hollywood degenerate Leonardo DiCaprio releases a National Geographic crockumentary about "Climate Change" TM. The pack of lies, massively hyped by the Piranha Press, is titled, Before the Flood. DiCommio and Poop Frankie are now the biggest public faces pushing for action (global taxes on plant food and NWO control over business) on "Climate Change" TM.

A few years after his perverted sexual assault scandal and subsequent divorce, Gore's role as the main public face of the hoax was assumed by DiCommio and the Communist Poop Frankie -- shown together in Image 3.

In the absence of any real science to support the outrageous claims, it was these propaganda initiatives, combined with never-ending Fake News stories, which brought nearly 50% of the American public to now believing in at least some degree of man-made "Climate Change" TM. It is a classic case of bought-off "science" and "manufactured consent" being used to cover up the Globalist agenda to tax the air we exhale -- and which plants "happily" inhale -- and then transfer that stolen wealth to UN bureaucrats and Turd World politicians. That's the truth, and the seditious scum at Sulzberger's Slimes damn well know it.

Now before "youse guys" (New Jersey speak for the plural of you) jump back on the Trump Train over this welcome event, keep in mind that Trumpstein's war on Globalism and EUism is being waged on behalf of Israeli Super Nationalists working for a "Greater Israel" -- not America. Trumpstein also blew a golden opportunity to publicly denounce the Fake Science of the warmists -- opting to oppose the deal on the basis of economic arguments only, while still acknowledging that some small degree of man-made warming is occurring -- when it is not! And finally, because the false belief remains in place, about 20 US states (including the massive states of New York & California) will still have expensive and job-killing "carbon controls" anyway.

The great hoax is still alive and well -- as is the Globalist movement.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the whole world is condemning Trump for pulling us out of the Paris Agreement.

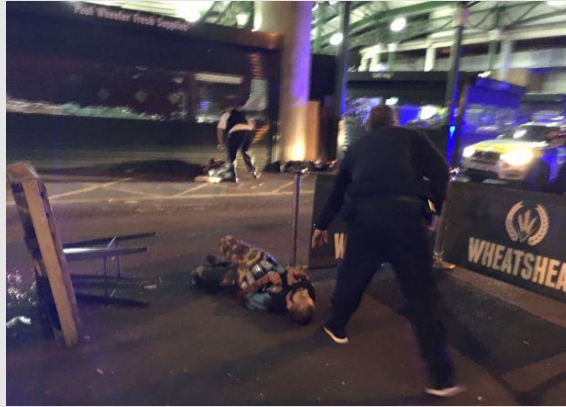

Boobus Americanus 2: What an ass! All he cares about is raping Mother Earth for profit.

Sugar: Lissten to the sstupid little "Planeteer" from the 1980'ss. All grown up physsically, yet the intellect of a frickin' child remainss.

Editor: Indeed. Libtards are essentially arrested-development cases.

New York Times: Another Terrorist Attack Strikes the Heart of London

By STEVEN ERLANGER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Here we go again. Another fake "Islamic Terror" TM attack in Europe -- the third in just three months to hit England, taking place on at the iconic London Bridge on 6-3 (3,6, 9 and all multiples of 11 have special significance for Satanists/Occultists.) The phony crisis-actor stunts (and we do allow for the possibility that some real people are killed on occasion) have become so frequent and so poorly acted, that we don't even feel the need to investigate the events before declaring them to be staged. Nonetheless, for the sake of thoroughness, ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times will always have a closer look at what is alleged to have happened, before stamping it fake.

No matter how strong our preconceived impulses may be, we will always scour the Internet and investigate before issuing a definitive declaration.

To that end, we turned to the intrepid YouTubers out there who have become quite adept at putting together hoax-buster videos before we have even finished even reading about the latest stunt. Based on our previous experiences, we naturally expected that by simply entering the term "London hoax attack" or "London fake terror" into a Google Search Engine, a plethora of convincing videos and commentaries debunking the latest LTAHS (Langley-Tel Aviv- Hollywood Studios) freak show would have popped up immediately. But this time, the results were a little different. Have a look at the very strange top-ranked results for the Google terms just mentioned:

UK Independent: London Terror Attack: Terrorists wore fake suicide vests, police say

- UK Daily Record: Three terrorists shot dead following London attack wearing hoax 'suicide vests'
- UK Express: DEAD IN STREET: Terrorists in hoax suicide vests to repel police shot dead in 8 minutes
- UK Daily Mail: 'Utter chaos' as three jihadis wearing hoax suicide vests to repel police go on knife rampage before being shot dead
- UK Metro: London terror suspects were wearing fake suicide vests
- UK: Mirror: Three terrorists wearing fake suicide vests ploughed into pedestrians in a van before leaping out and knifing people at random
- Times of Israel: London terrorists wore fake suicide vests

Do you see how these cunning sons-of-bitches played this? By adding "fake" / "hoax" suicide vests to the stunt, and working with their wholly-owned editors who craft the headlines, the planners monopolized the entire 1st page and part of the 2nd page of the Search Engines, thus blocking "conspiracy theorists" TM from achieving the usual first page status for such search terms. Think about it, how and when did the word "hoax" suddenly become an adjective? "Hoax vests???" This manipulated terminology, plus the numerous precedents of crisis-actor / terror drill fakery, plus the weird images from London Bridge, plus the fact that the Israeli-run SITE group has so graciously "discovered" (rolling eyes) and announced for us all that "ISIS has claimed responsibility" TM -- all point to the usual conclusion ---- FAKE!

Fake News, fake actors, fake search engine results...

Back in 2010, and again in 2012, and again in 2013, and again in 2014, and again in 2015, and yet again in 2017, the Israelis used this same Search Engine trick by manufacturing various stories about "dancing Israeli soldiers." (all 6 separate incidents can be found here) At varying times, some of these rigged events managed to temporarily bump ahead (under Internet searches for "Dancing Israelis") of the widely circulated blockbuster story of the "Dancing Israelis" who were arrested after being seen celebrating and high-fiving, across the river from the 9/11 attacks in New York.

We expect that this latest hoax will help British Prime Minister and rabid Israel Firster, Theresa May, to win her upcoming election --- or perhaps even give her the pretext to postpone it altogether. But the most troubling element of the recent hoax attacks in England relates to Ms. May's open call -- issued just hours after the London Bridge incident -- for the international regulation of "extremist" speech on the Internet.

Headline, UK Independent:

New international agreements should be introduced to regulate the Internet in the light of the London Bridge terror attack, Theresa May has said.

Should regulation of online "Muslim extremism" ever come to pass, can censorship of World War II / Holocaust truthers and "climate deniers" TM be far behind?

1. Theresa, like Donald Trumpstein, is Bibi's bitch. His game is to play UK & US off against the Globalist EU, which seeks to restrain Israeli ultra-nationalism.
2. Note the headline about a "YouTube link" to the fake attack. Censorship on the horizon?
3. The "special relationship" TM: Trumpstein & May, a match made in Israel

Absolutely comical images from the previous crisis-actor hoax in London, March 22, 2017 -- images we just discovered:

1. A dummy lies injured underneath a bus on Westminster Bridge in London.
2. A dummy (note crooked torso) bleeds from his ankle after being stabbed --- note the puddle of fake blood in the gutter and how uninterested the woman strolling by seems to be.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that in the wake of the most recent terror attack in London, the British Prime Minister is calling for a crackdown on Internet extremism.

Boobus Americanus 2: The Internet is really getting out of control. Islamic terrorists, Holocaust deniers, Nazis. There is no place in a free society for such hatred.

Sugar: Unlesss, of coursse, if the hatred is directed towardss Whittess, consservativess, Chrisstians, and southernners. Eh Boobusss?

Editor: If they were truly concerned with online "terrorist" recruiting and incitement, then why not just get a warrant, track down the IP addresses, and arrest the plotters?

New York Times: Climate Science Meets a Stubborn Obstacle: Students

A new teacher's efforts to educate teenagers in Ohio coal country ran up against a cultural resistance to evidence of the human role in global warming.

By AMY HARMON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Damn you and your evil propaganda sheet, Sulzberger! Keep provoking us with this "Global Warming" TM / "Climate Change" TM bullshit and we may just have to write the definitive debunking of the dangerous hoax for our next book. What do "youse guys" (our subscribers) think?

Nothing can be more tragic than the corrupting of the minds of children and young people. The encouraging part of this particular story, however, is that some High School students appear to be pushing back against their stupid libtard teachers -- a phenomenon which Slimes scribbler and "Pulitzer Prize Winner" TM Amy Harmon (cough cough) and her headline / sub-headline writer attribute to "cultural resistance." Let's analyze and clean up some of Ms. Harmon's rubbish.

Sugar is so sick of people like Amy Harmon (Image 1) peddling this lie that she wants to help me do a book on it.

Harmon: To Gwen Beatty, a junior at the high school in this proud, struggling, Trump-supporting town (Wellston, Ohio), ...

Analysis: Already, from the very opening line, this vicious little swine of a "journalist" is telegraphing where she intends to go with this. "Trump-supporting town?" How is that even relevant here?

Harmon: ... the new science teacher's lessons on climate change seemed explicitly designed to provoke her.

Analysis: In other words, the new libtard teacher is spewing bullshit and our heroine Gwen ain't buying' it.

Harmon: So she provoked him back.

Analysis: Good for her! The Communists and their libtard dupes need to be challenged at every turn.

Harmon: When the teacher, James Sutter, ascribed the recent warming of the Earth to heat-trapping gases released by burning fossil fuels like the coal her father had once mined,...

Analysis: "Like the coal her father had once mined." -- There she goes again with the subtle little manipulation of the reader.

Harmon: ... she asserted that it could be a result of other, natural causes.

Analysis: Actually, Gwen dear, you should not have even conceded that the Earth is warming, at all -- because it is not and satellite data confirms it. Nonetheless, if and when a slight warming trend does return, you are correct in saying that it would be due the variation of natural causes (solar output, sun spot activity, axis-tilt variations, wind and ocean current patterns, factors unknown, and just basic random statistical distribution).

Harmon: When he described the flooding, droughts and fierce storms that scientists predict within the century if such carbon emissions are not sharply reduced, she challenged him to prove it.

Analysis: That's how you shut these libtards down, Gwen. Two words: "prove it!" Good girl!

"Science Teacher" James Sutter. You can tell just by looking at this character that he reeks of know-nothing libtardism disguised as "education."

Harmon: For his part, Mr. Sutter occasionally fell short of his goal of providing Gwen — the most vocal of a raft of student climate skeptics — with calm, evidence-based responses.

Analysis: Ha! Thanks for that admission, Ms. Harmon. Sutter "fell short of providing evidence." That's because there is none!

Harmon: “Why would I lie to you?” he demanded one morning. “It’s not like I’m making a lot of money here.”

Analysis: No one is accusing you of being a liar, Mr. Sutter. You're just a low-level obedient libtard who hasn't done his homework.

Harmon: She was, he knew, a straight-A student.

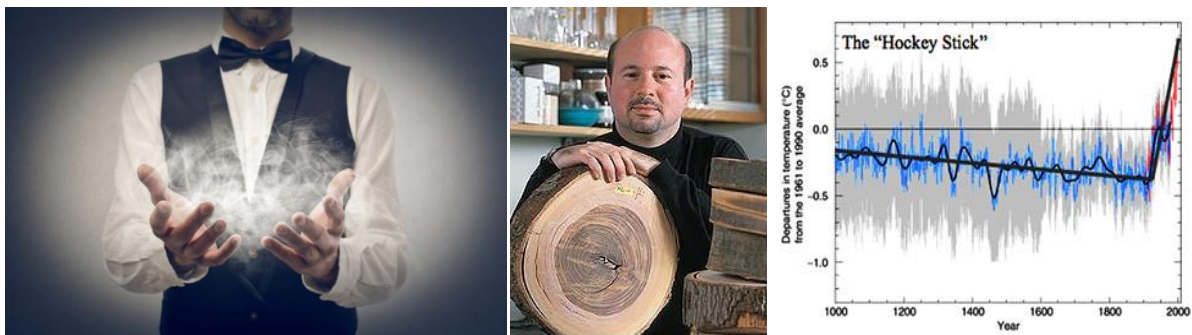

Analysis: The bully met his match and she took him down in front of the whole class.

Harmon: She would have had no trouble comprehending the evidence, embedded in ancient tree rings, ice, leaves and shells, as well as sophisticated computer models, that atmospheric carbon dioxide is the chief culprit when it comes to warming the world.

Analysis: "Ancient tree rings, ice, leaves, shells and computer models" are all part of the Marxist magicians trick -- smoke and mirrors which dazzle the easily-impressed while ignoring the basic elements of truth, namely, that the planet is not warming, the polar ice is not melting, and sea-levels are not rising. No amount of pseudo-scientific sleight-of-hand can alter those realities.

Harmon: Or the graph he showed of how sharply it has spiked since the Industrial Revolution, when humans began pumping vast quantities of it into the air.

Analysis: Ah yes. The good ol' "Hockey Stick" graph of Penn's Michael "hide the decline" Mann -- one of the eminent warmists caught fudging numbers when the "Climategate" hacking scandal broke in 2010.

1. The use of diversions such as tree rings and ice-core samples is like the magicians use of smoke as a tool of distraction / diversion. 2. Michael Mann, the controversial creator of the "Hockey Stick" graph (Image 3), poses with a tree ring that, along with deep-ice analysis from Antarctica, is supposed to give us the mathematical formula correlating CO2 to temperatures to sea-level rise. (Ha ha ha ha ha!!)

Harmon: When she insisted that teachers “are supposed to be open to opinions,” however, Mr. Sutter held his ground. “It’s not about opinions,” he told her. “It’s about the evidence.”

Analysis: What "evidence?" Tree rings? Ice samples? Sea shells? Math equations? Show us the bloody rising sea-levels, idiot!

Harmon: "It’s like you can’t disagree with a scientist or you’re ‘denying science,’” she sniffed to her friends.

Analysis: God bless this feisty little tart. I should set her up with my younger son.

Harmon: Mr. Sutter, sensing that his facts and figures were not helping, was at a loss.

Analysis: What "facts and figures?" According to satellite imagery, polar ice is at average to above-average levels and, after 40 years of such claims, there is not a single atoll (tiny island) under water. Show us the bloody rising sea-levels!

Harmon: And the day she grew so agitated by a documentary he was showing that she bolted out of the school left them both shaken.

Analysis: Stupid libtard bully teacher has to rely on "documentaries" to do his fighting for him. This fool needs his ass kicked.

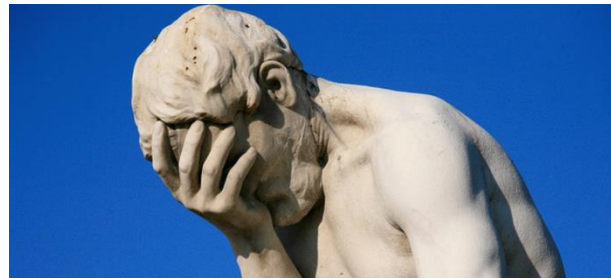

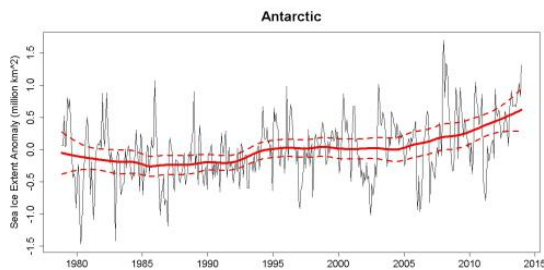

Harmon: As more of the nation’s teachers seek to integrate climate science into the curriculum, many of them are reckoning with students for whom suspicion of the subject is deeply rooted.

Analysis: Here it comes.

Harmon: In rural Wellston, a former coal and manufacturing town seeking its next act, rejecting the key findings of climate science can seem like a matter of loyalty to a way of life already under siege ... climate skepticism has itself become a proxy for conservative ideals of hard work and small government."

Analysis: In Logic, this is known as the "Appeal to Motive Fallacy." Knowingly or unknowingly, Communists and Libtards use this rhetorical ploy very often. Instead of debating facts, they disparage the alleged motives of those they disagree with. In this case, "Climate Change Deniers" TM are irrationally motivated by fear of losing a "way of life."

1. Antarctic ice has actually been expanding over the past decade or so. Arctic ice and Greenland ice are stable.
2. The thinker is saddened how logical fallacies have come to rule public opinion.

Harmon: Assiduously promoted by fossil fuel interests, that powerful link to a collective worldview largely explains why just 22 percent of Mr. Trump's supporters in a 2016 poll said they believed that human activity is warming the planet, compared with half of all registered voters.

Analysis: So, if half of all registered voters still do not believe in this crap, that means that many millions of people outside of coal country are also "deniers," right? What is their "motive," Ms. Harmon?

Harmon: "What people 'believe' about global warming doesn't reflect what they know," Dan Kahan, a Yale researcher who studies political polarization, has stressed in talks, papers and blog posts. "It expresses who they are."

Analysis: Ooooh. A Yale researcher has spoken (bow your head in reverence.) In essence, what Mr. Kahan (cough cough) is saying is that "deniers" are crazy. Again, in Logic, this tactic / error is known as the "Ad Hominem Fallacy" (personal attack) --- could also be considered the "Ad Ridiculum" Fallacy (ridicule).

Far too many "educated" people have been conditioned to mistake fallacies for facts, sophistry for science, rhetoric for reality. This is why our invisible masters and their legions of loony libtards seem to always win. If more people would study Graeco-Roman Logic and learn to decipher the illusions, the New World Order would collapse like a House-of-Cards in the wind. This is why Logic is so seldom taught in American schools, and why each subsequent generation of young people is even dumber than the previous one. But kudos and kisses to our young heroine, the fair maiden Gwendolyn of Ohio, for being the exception.

A round of applause for Gwen of Ohio! (What a cute daughter-in-law you'd make!)

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that some students in the coal-producing regions refuse to believe their own science teachers on the crisis of Global Warming.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, it's understandable how hard it can be for rural people to let go of a way of life. Look at how the rednecks resisted the teaching of Evolution in the movie, 'Inherit the Wind.'

Sugar: Boobuss, you pompouss dumb-asss! The Earth ain't frickin' warming and I didn't come out from no % @#$& primordial ssoup!*

Editor: Sugar, the wonderful thing about your animal instinct, notwithstanding the filthy mouth, is that you have always been immune to the effect of logical fallacies.

New York Times: Trump Promotes Original 'Travel Ban,' Eroding His Legal Case

By ADAM LIPTAK and PETER BAKER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Every new President, even the pre-battered Donald Trumpstein, starts out with a given amount of "honeymoon" political capital for his "first 100 days" TM. Instead of using his free poker chips to "make America great again" (rolling eyes), the combed-over clown wasted them not on the fight for badly-needed tax cuts, or the promised border wall, or a viable plan to replace ObongoCare with market reforms --- but rather, on a stupid "90-day travel ban" for the benefit of the terrorist state of Israel.

Apart from needlessly antagonizing and re-energizing the libtard "anti-racist" mobs, the travel ban from certain Muslim countries will not even "keep us safe" from "Islamic Terrorism" TM because, as regular readers of The Anti-New York Times should all know by now, there is no such thing as "Islamic Terrorism" TM. The "terror attacks" are all CIA and/or Mossad. And most, if not all of them these days, are just bloodless stunts utilizing crisis actors. So, what's in it for Israel, you ask? We'll get to that.

Trumpstein's unnecessary travel ban order opened up a can of commie worms that didn't need to be opened. What is his obsession with this scheme?

A review of the list of targeted countries gives the game away. But first, a quick flashback to some amazing revelations made by Globalist General Wesley Clark on a talk show back in 2007. Although he did not name names, it is clear that Clark was speaking of the Israel-Firster NeoCon Jews (Wolfowitz, Perle, Feith, Wurmser, Adelman, et al) that were running Bush 43's Department of Offense after the false flag of 9/1/2001.

General Clark:

"I had been through the Pentagon right after 9/11. About ten days after 9/11, I went through the Pentagon and I saw Secretary Rumsfeld and Deputy Secretary Wolfowitz. I went downstairs just to say hello to some of the people on the Joint Staff who used to work for me, and one of the generals called me in. He said, "Sir, you've got to come in and talk to me a second." I said, "Well, you're too busy." He said, "No, no." He says, "We've made the decision we're going to war with Iraq." This was on or about the 20th of September. I said, "We're going to war with Iraq? Why?" He said, "I don't know."

....

So I came back to see him a few weeks later, and by that time we were bombing in Afghanistan. I said, "Are we still going to war with Iraq?" And he said, "Oh, it's worse than that." He reached over on his desk. He picked up a piece of paper. And he said, "I just got this down from upstairs" — meaning the Secretary of Defense's office — "today." And he said, "This is a memo that describes how we're going to take out seven countries in five years, starting with Iraq, and then Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and, finishing off, Iran."

1. Globalist Wesley Clark revealed the Jewish Neo-Con Pentagon's hit-list
2. Under-Secretary of Offense Paul Wolfowitz (who has family living in Israel) had a 7-nation hit-list.

Now if that 2001 list of targetted nations sounds familiar, it's because it is almost identical to Trumpstein's 2017 "travel ban" list. Compare:

2001: Wolfowitz's's Hit-List: Iraq, Syria, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Iran, Lebanon

2017: Trumpstein's Hit-List: Iraq, Syria, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Iran, Yemen

You see that? The only change is that Lebanon was replaced with Yemen.

Later on, Trumpstein dropped Iraq*

Of course, only a zombified normie still believes that nonsense about "14 of the 19" 9/11 hijackers, plus the missing "20th hijacker," being Saudis. But given the fact that this claim remains part of the official dogma of 9/11, shouldn't Israeli-allied Saudi Arabia be first and foremost on Trumpstein's travel-ban list?

The obvious similarity between the Wolfowitz war-list and the Trumpstein travel-ban-list is not by coincidence. The travel ban is, in essence, an economic sanction and a weapon of destabilization to be wielded against Greater Israel's rivals and potential rivals in the region. The fight against "Islamic Terrorism" is just the phony pretext here. Isreal Firstism is the real motive! This epic and unnecessary battle against the hostile courts, the Piranha Press, and the "anti-racists" is what that lying orange bastard and his Jew son-in-law have wasted, and continue to waste, precious time, precious energy and whatever precious little political capital there is remaining on.

Make America Great? Ha! More like, "Make Israel Greater."

1. "Greater Israel" -- which is supposed to one day span all the territory between the Nile to the Euphrates rivers -- (two blue lines on Israeli flag) requires massive expansion into, and ethnic cleansing of, Iraq and Syria -- as well as vassal-state status for other regional counties. 2. Travel-Ban states in Red: Hostile states (to Israel) in Sudan, Somalia and Yemen (rebels) need to be replaced with vassals so that Greater Israel and its Saudi junior partners can control the Red Sea and its waterways. Iran is to be ruined and Egypt, the final piece of the puzzle, is to be surrounded.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Trump is trying to again defy the courts and reinstate his original Muslim travel-ban.

Boobus Americanus 2: He seems more obsessed with getting this order implemented than with anything else. Saudi Arabia isn't even the ban list despite the fact that 14 of the 19 hijackers on 911 were Saudis. It doesn't make any sense.

Sugar: It makess purrrfect ssense once you undersstand that Orange Man iss taking orderss from the $#%& @&^%$!!!*

Editor: (palm to face, shaking head, sigh)

No Picture - No Headline - No Mention Of ...

EDITORIAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

One of the odd quirks of our human sociological nature is the custom of assigning special significance to milestone anniversaries that end in "0" -- particularly 50 or 100. One would think, therefore, that the June 8th, 50th anniversary of an act of war and mass murder against the United States of America would merit front page status, or at least first page of the International News section, or perhaps a back-page, bottom page sentence or two in Sulzberger's Slimes. But alas, because the dirty deed was carried out by "our closest ally" TM, Sulzberger and the rest of the Piranha Press have evidently deemed the 50th anniversary of this criminal attack on the USS Liberty as news that is not "fit to print."

There is no doubt about it. Israel's attack was deliberate!

Not content with the territory that it had already stolen back in 1947, Israel, ever playing the role of victim, initiated what became known as The Six Day War on June 7, 1967. The one-sided fight pitted US-armed Israel against the Arab states of Syria, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon and Egypt. Hoping to bring the US into the war so that the Arab states could be annihilated in one fell swoop, Israeli jets and torpedo boats deliberately attacked the USS Liberty, a helpless communications ship on patrol in the Mediterranean Sea, near Egypt's Sinai Peninsula.

The sustained daytime attack, which took place as the US flag flew visibly, killed 34 Americans, wounded 170, and badly damaged the vessel. Many of the dead and wounded lost their lives due to fighter jets firing upon their life boats. The Israelis finally called off the slaughter when they thought that help may have been on the way (a Russian vessel was also in the area). Our noble allies then claimed that the assault on the USS Liberty was a case of "mistaken identity." Of course, the government of Zion's wholly-owned US President, the utterly contemptible Lyndon Baines Johnson, with the complicity of Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and Admiral John McCain Sr. (father of Senator McCain the Insane), accepted Zion's ridiculous claim and closed the book. And Congress didn't dare to investigate the matter either.

But the detailed accounts of this dastardly war crime, given by American survivors, clearly contradict the Zionist lie. Their testimonies haven't wavered to this day. The object of the false-flag attack was to sink the Liberty, machine-gun any survivors, blame Egypt, and thus draw the US into a war on Israel's side. In spite of the US government's complicit cover-up after the fact, more than a few high-powered men rejected the "mistaken identity" narrative.

- Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-IA):

"From what I have read I can't tolerate for one minute that this attack was an accident."

- Dean Rusk, U.S. Secretary of State at the time of the incident:

"I was never satisfied with the Israeli explanation. Their sustained attack to disable and sink Liberty precluded an assault by accident or some trigger-happy local commander. Through diplomatic channels we refused to accept their explanations. I didn't believe them then, and I don't believe them to this day. The attack was outrageous."

- Admiral Thomas H. Moorer, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff under Ronald Reagan, offers another possible motive:

"I have never believed that the attack on the USS Liberty was a case of mistaken identity. That is ridiculous. I have flown over the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, thousands of hours, searching for ships and identifying all types of ships at sea. The Liberty was the ugliest, strangest looking ship in the U.S. Navy. As a communications intelligence ship, it was sprouting every kind of antenna. It looked like a lobster with all those projections moving every which way. Israel knew perfectly well that the ship was American. After all, the Liberty's American flag and markings were in full view in perfect visibility for the Israeli aircraft that overflew the ship eight times over a period of nearly eight hours prior to the attack.

I am confident that Israel knew the Liberty could intercept radio messages from all parties and potential parties to the ongoing war, then in its fourth day, and that Israel was preparing to seize the Golan Heights from Syria despite President Johnson's known opposition to such a move. I think they realized that if we learned in advance of their plan, there would be a tremendous amount of negotiating between Tel Aviv and Washington. And I believe Moshe Dayan concluded that he could prevent Washington from becoming aware of what Israel was up to by destroying the primary source of acquiring that information the USS Liberty. The result was a wanton sneak attack that left 34 American sailors dead and 171 seriously injured. What is so chilling and cold-blooded, of course, is that they could kill as many Americans as they did in confidence that Washington would cooperate in quelling any public outcry."

"It was deliberate!"

1. Senator / former Governor (Iowa) Bourke Hickenlooper 2. Secretary of State Dean Rusk 3. Joint Chiefs Chairman Admiral Thomas Moorer

Indeed, there was no "public outcry" then, and there hasn't been any significant mention of the incident since. It would have been bad enough if Sulzberger's Slimes had spun the atrocity as being "an accident." But the scum at 8th Avenue in Manhattan didn't even do that. Instead, they went a step further and ignored the murder of 34 US sailors altogether! The rest of the "mainstream media" has followed accordingly ever since.

It's as if the event never even happened, and as if the survivors, who have remained active and vocal ever since, do not exist! This silence alone constitutes absolute proof that "the powers that be" (cough cough) can do anything they bloody want and get away with it. (JFK assassination (1963), the killing of 241 US marines in Lebanon (1983), the shoot-down of Pan Am 103 (1988), the 9/11 attacks (2001), the fake 'ISIS' beheadings and recent crisis-actor stunts in Europe, just to name a few).

Apart from doing justice to the dead and the survivors of the USS Liberty, this false-flag precedent is still so important to expose because, unlike all the other false-flags, it is known that Israel carried out the sustained attack in broad daylight and, most importantly, it is known that the Piranha Press ignored it. A clear understanding of these two important precedent opens the zombified mind to at least considering a different interpretation of the 9/11 horror and its subsequent, ongoing, and unfinished aftermath.

Remember the USS Liberty! Our own lives and those of millions of others in foreign lands may depend on doing so.

A search through the "Times Machines" Archives (a service made possible by our reader donations -- hint, hint), for 1967's June 9th & June 10th issues of The New York Slimes turned up NOTHING of the June 8th mass murder of 34 American sailors in International waters!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that on this day in history, James Madison introduces a proposed Bill of Rights in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Boobus Americanus 2: Interesting. It's important to know history.

Sugar: You don't know jack-ssh!t about hisstory, Boobusss!

Editor: Easy on the Boobuses, Sugar. They don't know they are being misled. And if you don't clean up that potty-litter mouth, you'll be put on a dry food diet indefinitely -- in spite of what all your sycophant E-mail fans have to say about it!

NY Times: Trump-Comey Feud Eclipses a Warning on Russia: 'They Will Be Back'

By PETER BAKER and DAVID E. SANGER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Beneath a shocking banner ad featuring a Soviet flag draped across the Capitol Rotunda, the devious duo of David Sanger (cough cough) and Peter Baker

(single cough, mom's side -- also married to yenta Susan Glasser) continue to prop up a Russian bogeyman that exists only in the demonic imaginations of the Globalist ghouls of the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) and their wholly-owned Piranha Press. Newsflash, gentlemen! The Soviet Union went out of business a quarter-century ago!

Once again, mainly for the sake of the newbies, we are compelled to rebut the same old recycled excrement that the seditious scribblers at Sulzberger's Slimes have been staining their pages with since the imaginary Russian "invasion" of Crimea in 2014. Hazmat suits and goggles on. Into Sulzberger's cesspool we go!

Sanger, Baker and the usual BS about Russia, Russia, Russia.

Sanger & Baker: Lost in the showdown between President Trump and James B. Comey that played out this past week was a chilling threat to the United States.

Rebuttal: A "chilling threat?" Oh the bloody drama! Do tell us about this "chilling threat."

Sanger & Baker: Mr. Comey, the former director of the F.B.I., testified that the Russians had not only intervened in last year's election,...

Rebuttal: James Commie is an Obongo-appointed liar. The "17 Intelligence Agencies" TM -- the same gang that told us that Iraq had a hand in 9/11 and was developing "Weapons of Mass Destruction" TM -- can make any claim that want, but the undeniable fact of the matter remains that not one shred of evidence that the Russians "hacked the election" has ever been produced.

Sanger & Baker: ... but would try to do it again.

Rebuttal: How can the big bad Russians try to do something "again" when they never did anything to begin with?

Sanger & Baker: “It’s not a Republican thing or Democratic thing — it really is an American thing,” Mr. Comey told the Senate Intelligence Committee.

Rebuttal: Commie not only lies through his teeth, but he spews corny grade-school level platitudes. (“It’s an American thing.”)

Sanger & Baker (quoting Commie): “They’re going to come for whatever party they choose to try and work on behalf of. And they’re not devoted to either, in my experience. They’re just about their own advantage. And they will be back.”

Rebuttal: Yes, “they” will indeed be back. But the “they” isn’t the Russians. The hackers are insiders and/or Israelis (who have a known history of playing such games).

Commie the Giant is an Obongo-appointed Globalist political hack who tries to pass himself off as "independent" of politics.

Sanger & Baker: But from the headquarters of the National Security Agency to state capitals that have discovered that the Russians were inside their voter-registration systems,

Rebuttal: Lying sons-of-bitches! The states of Indiana, Idaho and Georgia have all accused the Department of Homeland Security, not the Russians, of hacking into their systems. (multiple stories / mainstream media)

Sanger & Baker: ...the worry is that attention will be diverted from figuring out how Russia disrupted American democracy last year and how to prevent it from happening again.

Rebuttal: Notice how the controlled conversation is always about "how" Russia did this or that, but never about if Russia even really did this or that in the first place! In sales & marketing, this manipulative tactic is known as "assumptive selling."

Example: "Mrs. Smith, will you be paying for your new vacuum cleaner in full today? Or would you like this on 12 easy installments (when Mrs. Smith never even said she was going to buy in the first place!)"

Sanger & Baker: Russian hackers did not just breach Democratic email accounts; according to Mr. Comey, they orchestrated a “massive effort” targeting hundreds of — and possibly more than 1,000 — American government and private organizations since 2015.

Rebuttal: Again, Commie doesn't tell us how he knows this to be true. All that he and his co-conspirators in the Piranha Press can repeat is "the 17 intelligence agencies" --- "the 17 intelligence agencies" --- "the 17 intelligence agencies."

Sanger & Baker: “It’s important for us in the West to understand that we’re facing an adversary who wishes for his own reasons to do us harm,” said Daniel Fried, a career diplomat who oversaw sanctions imposed on Russia before retiring this year.

Rebuttal: The Russia-hating Jews Sanger & Baker cite the authority of another Russia-hating Jew, Daniel Fried, to prop up their fear-mongering. And yet, the discerning reader (of which the Slimes has none) still, after all these months, awaits the first shred of evidence linking the big bad Putin to any hacking of any systems.

1. The states of Georgia, Idaho and Indiana openly called out DHS for hacking. The Slimes then accuses the Russians of hacking those states!
2. The "17 Intelligence Agencies"™ are, in essence, just a single entity under Globalist control.
3. As usual, the Slimes cherry-picks a notorious anti-Russian, Daniel Fried (cough, cough) to add a bit of cosmetic credibility to their lies.

Sanger & Baker (quoting Fried): “Whatever the domestic politics of this, Comey was spot-on right that Russia is coming after us, but not just the U.S., but the free world in general. And we need to take this seriously.”

Rebuttal: "The Rooskies are coming! The Rooskies are coming!" This would all make for entertaining comedy-writing, if the potential consequences weren't fraught with so much danger --- given that Russian and US forces are now within such proximity in Syria.

Sanger & Baker: Only when emails from Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign began showing up on WikiLeaks and other sites did the bureau recognize the scope of the operation.

Rebuttal: Assange of WikiLeaks works for the Mossad, not Russia. And notice how no one in the Piranha Press ever disputes the veracity of the information contained in the anti-Killary leaks. Shouldn't those very damaging allegations be the focus of investigation instead?

Sanger & Baker: And there is no evidence that the Russians have stopped.

Rebuttal: Where is the evidence that the Russians ever even started?!

Sanger & Baker: Eric S. Edelman, who was an under-secretary of defense under President George W. Bush, said Russian information warfare capabilities were highly developed.

Rebuttal: Edelman, eh? (cough, cough)

Sanger & Baker: “There should be no fuzz on this whatsoever,” Mr. Comey said. “The Russians interfered in our election during the 2016 cycle. They did it with purpose. They did it with sophistication. They did it with overwhelming technical efforts. And it was an active-measures campaign driven from the top of that government. There is no fuzz on that.”

Rebuttal: This is what we call "The Case Closed" rhetorical trick. Commie's declaration of there being "no fuzz" about the anti-Russia allegations may impress the easily-impressed, but again, we ask: What evidence is there of any "Russian hacking, at all?" Show us, dammit!

Sanger & Baker: He added, “That’s about as un-fake as you can possibly get and is very, very serious.”

Rebuttal: Sizzle, sizzle. But still, no steak!

Sanger & Baker: “They can win two ways,” Senator Sheldon Whitehouse, a Rhode Island Democrat who has been investigating the election hacking ... “They can do it trying to influence votes, or they can get caught doing it,” and undercut confidence in the American electoral system.

Rebuttal: Why doesn't Senator Whitehouse tell us how the Russians "got caught?" Caught doing what, exactly?

Just like the Global Warming TM hoax, the Russian hacking hoax is all based upon the fallacy of unsubstantiated prior assumption. Unfortunately, most people, and especially the libtards who worship The Slimes, cannot read and think critically at the same time.

Edelman (1) and Whitehouse (2), as well as James Commie, Daniel Fried, the "17 Intelligence Agencies," TM and the whole greasy bunch at Sulzberger's Slimes are all operatives of the same Globo-Mafia. They quote each other in order to create the public illusion of "consensus" when, in reality, their voices are like an echo chamber --- one voice, with many sounds.

Here are three things have actually been proved about Russia:

1: Russia is no longer under the boot of the Harvard-Wall Street Mafia that raped it during the 1990's.

2. Russia will not submit to the New World Order.

3: Russia has prevented the overthrow of Assad in Syria, thus blocking the Greater Israel project.

So, you see, both the Globalist faction and the Israel First faction of our Jewish overlord class have reason to hate Putin. And that, dear reader, is why the PRC and Piranha Press are waging this ridiculous propaganda war against Russia!

1. They killed Saddam (Iraq).... 2. They killed Qaddafi (Libya)... But thanks to Russia, Assad of Syria (3) still lives.

"I do not believe that Russia and China are paying any price at all - nothing at all - for standing up on behalf of the [Syrian] Assad regime. The only way that will change is if every nation represented here directly and urgently makes it clear that Russia and China will pay a price."

Hillary Clinton / July 2012

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the Russians are plotting to hack our elections again in the future.

Boobus Americanus 2: I'm more worried that they might one day hack into our sensitive banking and energy systems one day.

Sugar: It ain't the frickin' Russiansss, dumb-asss!

Editor: Thanks to the Slimes and to stupid TV shows like "The Americans," if and when the "cyber 9/11" hits us, the Boobuses will already have been prepped as to who to blame.

NY Times: Across Russia, Protesters Heed Navalny's Anti-Kremlin Rallying Cry

By NEIL MacFARQUHAR and IVAN NECHEPURENKO

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Russian CIA operative / "anti-corruption" crusader Aleksei Navalny is up to his old tricks again. Leave it to Sulzberger's Slimes to plaster this lowlife troublemaker and his relative handful of paid "protesters" across the front page as if Russia was on the brink of a popular revolution. Let's clean up a few select excerpts of this journalistic filth.

Hazmat suits and goggles on, boys and girls! Into Sulzberger's journalistic cesspool we go.

Anti-Russian journalistic hit-man Neil MacFarquhar and 30-year old "western-educated" Russian sissy-boy-libtard-traitor Ivan Nepochurenko, (University of Calgary & the Globalist London School of Economics) would have us believe that the masses of Russia are in full revolt against Vlad the Bad.

Slimes: An extraordinary wave of anti-government protests swept across Russia on Monday, as thousands of demonstrators gathered in more than 100 cities to denounce corruption and political stagnation

Rebuttal: Oh pleeeeeease! "Thousands" of demonstrators, (many of them no-doubt paid) in a nation of 144 million people, on a day-off national holiday (Russia Day), does not in any way represent "an extraordinary wave" of anything.

Heck, your small-time Editor and his ferocious feline sidekick here have "thousands" of people on our opt-in E-mail list (wish only a slightly higher fraction of them were active donors, hint-hint). By that standard of illogic, the seditious scribblers of The Slimes should therefore give us a front headline: "Across America, an Extraordinary Wave of Conspiracy Theorists Heed Mike King's Rallying Cry."

Slimes: ... despite official attempts to stifle the expression of outrage.

Rebuttal: You know, if Putin's Russia is the evil oppressive state that the Piranha Press would have us all believe, then why aren't these "expressions of outrage" shut down altogether and their organizers imprisoned for life. All Navalny ever gets hit with is a few fines and a few days in jail for organizing without permits. That said, we really do wish that Russian Security services would publicly kill some of these sons-of-bitches and dare the "international community" TM to do something about it.

Slimes: Riot police officers in large cities and small detained hundreds of participants, with more than 700 apprehended in Moscow ...

Rebuttal: Moscow, the 11th largest city in the world, has a population of 12 million, and a total metropolitan area population of 16 million. So, 700 "arrested" (detained and released, most likely) is nothing relative to the population at large (assuming that number is even accurate and not inflated).

1. The Slimes doesn't care about the MILLIONS of patriotic Russians who celebrated Russia Day. 2&3. Only scum like Navalny and his rent-a-mobs merit front page coverage.

Slimes: and 300 in St. Petersburg,...

Rebuttal: Another huge city -- 5 million population with a total metro area of 6 million. Again, insignificant numbers, exaggerated, taken out-of-context, and presented as the second coming of the October Revolution.

Slimes: .. according to OVD-Info, an independent organization that tracks arrests.

Rebuttal: Whenever the Slimes cites an "independent organization" to back up its Fake News, you can be sure that, 99 times out of 100, the "independent organization" is either a CIA / Soros or a Mossad front. But just to be sure, give us a moment while I dispatch Sugar the Crazy Conspiracy Cat to do a bit of Googling on this OVD-Info. Be right back....

Rebuttal (continued): OK. We're back. Lots of dirt on the "independent" OVD-Info, such as this revealing little gem from the website of George Soros' "Open Democracy" NGO:

"We continue our partnership with OVD-Info, an NGO that monitors politically-motivated arrests in Russia."

Sugar's bestial instincts are confirmed. But then again, it doesn't exactly take the olfactory powers of a cat to sniff out the stinky trail of the demon Soros. The numbers of arrested, small as they are relative to the surrounding populations, are therefore greatly exaggerated. Bet on it!

Slimes: There were reports of about 100 detentions elsewhere across Russia.

Rebuttal: 100? Across massive Russia? Is that all? (if even true)

Slimes: In Moscow, the police arrested the Kremlin foe and anti-corruption crusader Aleksei A. Navalny, Rebuttal: "Kremlin foe and anti-corruption crusader" is Globo-code language for CIA agent provocateur.

Slimes:... A Moscow court quickly sentenced him to 30 days in jail for organizing an unauthorized protest.

Rebuttal: This statement cannot be independently verified. Nonetheless, we really wish that Navalny could be publicly hanged in Red Square. But that would play into the Globalists' hands, propaganda-wise.

Slimes: The recent outpourings of popular discontent,

Rebuttal: "Outpourings of popular discontent?" Really? Then why does Putin enjoy 85-90% approval and wins re-elections by such landslides? Yes, we know. We know. He rigged the elections there too. (rolling eyes)

Slimes: After witnessing the geographic sweep of the protests on Monday some analysts came away saying that Russian politics was being reborn.

Rebuttal: Notice the manipulative language. A tiny handful of freaks, many of them paid, in each of Russia's major cities, is described as a "geographic sweep?" Heck, TomatoBubble.com has readers as far west as California and as far east as New York. Hey "youse guys" (New Jersey lingo for plural of you) -- ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times have "geographically swept" America! (and Europe and Australia too!)

Slimes: "I think we are seeing the beginning of a youth protest movement," said Anatoly Golubovsky, a Russian historian

Translation: Not exactly. Young college libtards and non-political kids looking to earn a few extra bucks fattened the ranks of the demonstrations.

Slimes: Mr. Golubovsky ticked off cities across Russia where protesters had turned out...

Rebuttal: As for this Golubovsky character ... be right back...

Jewish Telegraph Agency: Russian Jewish leader urges textbook pulled

"A Russian Jewish leader urged the head of Moscow State University to take steps to drop a history textbook considered by many to be anti-Semitic.

"For example, [the authors] say that the deportation of the Crimea Tatars was caused by the necessity of clearing the territory for the Jewish republic, which is

Damn cat is right again!

Slimes: ... an estimated 4,000 in Novosibirsk, ...

Rebuttal: Population: 1.6 million, metro area, about 2 million. Yawn.

Slimes: There were energetic demonstrations in Vladivostok in the Far East, and in large cities in southern Russia like Rostov-on-Don and Krasnodar.

Rebuttal: "Energetic demonstrations," eh? What the hell is that supposed to mean? As opposed to "unenergetic" demos where people show up and go to sleep?

Slimes: ... the proliferation of protests and the predominantly youthful crowds ...

Rebuttal: "Predominately youthful" --- Again, college libtards and other paid kids.

Slimes: "I came here not because of the corruption," said Nikita Orlov, 18, a student in international law. "I came here because we have no democracy, ...

Rebuttal: 18 years old, eh? Nikita, my boy, US-owned "democratic" Russia was starving to death in the year that you were born. But how would you know? Now, go home and get your shoe-shine box, punk.

Slimes: In Naberezhnye Chelny, a usually dormant city of 500,000 that lies 600 miles east of Moscow, around 230 people turned out.

Rebuttal: "About 230 people" in a city with the population greater than that of Atlanta, Georgia? That's nothing!

Slimes: Sergei Trokhin, one of the organizers in Naberezhnye Chelny, turned 20 on Monday. ...

Rebuttal: "turned 20, eh?" (palm to face, sighing, shaking head)

Slimes: In Naberezhnye Chelny, some onlookers expressed skepticism, ... "Mr. Navalny is a thief, just like all of them," said Dmitri Ivanov, 34, a factory manager. "Look at these people," he said, pointing to the crowd. "They are just kids. They know nothing. They need to graduate from school first."

Rebuttal: There it is! The obligatory truth gem (just to create the illusion of an objective article) buried deep within the story. The editors at The Slimes know bloody damn well that it won't be enough to offset the lies of the earlier text and the bold headline, but it is useful to us. See the trick?

Slimes: "Russia without Putin," they shouted.

Rebuttal: Idiot kids! If only we could put these spoiled children in a time-machine and transport their candy-asses back to Yeltsin's 1990's Russia to get a taste of the Harvard/Wall Street-induced suffering that the well-connected Jews of New York and Russia had inflicted upon the population.

Slimes: The rally broke up after riot police officers plunged into the crowd and dragged away protesters. At least 11 protesters were detained, according to OVD-Info.

Rebuttal: Well, if Soros's OVD-Info says so, it must be true. (rolling eyes)

Goodness gracious. The hate-propaganda directed at Putin and Russia is actually getting worse year after year. Reminds us of how "they" worked to poison the public mind against The Great One during the 1930's build-up toward war.

1. The Great One: "And what we had achieved in these years until 1939. And the envy grew in the same way. The same men who got Germany into war (World War I) began to agitate ... The smear campaign began, year after year ...

2. Solzhenitsyn on Putin: "Putin inherited a ransacked and bewildered country, with a poor and demoralized people, and he started to do what was possible, a slow and gradual restoration. These efforts were not noticed, nor appreciated, immediately. In any case, one is hard-pressed to find examples in history when steps by one country to restore its strength were met favorably by other governments."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that massive spontaneous demonstrations broke out all across Russia. The young are demanding change.

Boobus Americanus 2: Hopefully, Putin's days are numbered. You cannot continue to oppress a people like that in this day and age.

Sugar: Boobuss, you brain-dead $#@^&!!! Those fake protestss are jusst the hired booss & hissses of a mob of sstupid kidss looking to make a quick buck!*

Editor: Navalny and his kiddies are just small potatoes. Sooner or later, Putin is going to have to purge the 'Atlanticist' traitors who remain high up in various areas of the government and the Central Bank.

NY Times: Virginia Shooting Suspect Was Distraught Over Trump's Election, Brother Says

NY Times: Solemn Trump Calls for Unity After Congressman's Shooting

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

From what we can tell of yesterday's baseball-field shooting of Congressman Steve Scalise (R-LA) and others by a now deceased sniper, the event itself -- unlike that phony shooting of Congresswoman Gabby Giffords (D-AZ) a few years back -- appears to have been real. In the absence of any substantive evidence to the contrary, we will, at least for now, conditionally, and for the sake of argument, accept the official version which holds that a "distraught" (due to the result of the election) Left-Wing fanatic, who conveniently died in the hospital, was out to murder as many Republicans as possible.

We believe, at least at this point in time, that Scalise was actually shot. The Giffords injury of 2011 was an anti-gun fake-op --- though there was a conservative Federal judge who probably was killed as part of that same event.

That said, the thing that irritated us most about the incident was not the alleged injury to House Majority "whip" Scalise (we don't give a damn) -- but rather, the disappointingly pathetic response of de-balled Republican'ts from the "solemn" Trumpstein on down. Whereas the demagogic and demonic Demoncraps wasted no time at all in twisting the shooting into another argument for "gun control," there was not a word from top Republican'ts condemning the vicious Piranha Press for inciting the hatred which led to this shooting.

Amazing! One would think that after being handed the moral high ground on a silver platter by the Communist shooter, James Hodgkinson, age 66 (hmmmm) --- the Republican'ts would have used the occasion to rightfully and powerfully counter-attack and neuter the Leftist Demonrat-media complex for its outrageous non-stop hate campaign against Trumpstein.

1&2. Activist & Tweeter James Hodgkinson -- "Trump is a traitor." 3. Age 66 --- coincidence, or the latest Satanic scam thrown right in our face? Could Hodgkinson have been set up as the Oswald-type patsy?

But instead of attacking, as usual, there was no such manly talk to be heard from House Speaker Eddie Munster Ryan nor the creepy-as-heck mumbling Senate Leader Bitch McConnell. If these weasels can't even summon a few drops of testosterone over the shooting of a fellow GOP leader (#3 rank in the House), then they are even more pathetic than we had imagined. With the golden opportunity of the moment lost, Sulzberger's Slimes is already redefining the event as the result of the harsh rhetoric "of both sides" -- thus drawing a ridiculous moral equivalence between a "distraught" would-be mass murderer of the violent Left and peaceful conservatives who never attack anybody!

As for the suddenly de-balled and "solemn" Trumpstein, the best that ~~he~~ his speech-writers could muster were the usual pious, puke-filled platitudes, such as "we are deeply saddened by this tragedy" and "our prayers go out to the Scalise family" (barf!) and "the police were heroes" (rolling eyes) blah blah blah. One thing is certain, this Marxist media hate-fest may subside for a few days, but it isn't going to end anytime soon. And the Republican'ts fear of the radical Left Media will only embolden them even further.

A leader of the GOP is shot by a devotee of the Communist Bernie Sanders, and neither Eddie Munster Ryan, nor Bitch McConnell, nor the "kinder, gentler" version of Sympathizer-In-Chief Donald Trumpstein dared to directly connect the media's relentless incitement against Republican'ts to the shooting.

Boobus Americanus 1: I hear that the guy who shot the Republican Congressman really hated Donald Trump.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, it's no excuse for what he did, but sooner or later you knew that Trump's incendiary language was going to finally trigger someone like this.

Sugar: You sses that? Orange Man and the pussified GOP already losst their window of time for ssteering the direction of this sstory.

Editor: He who hesitates is lost! "Pussified?" (palm to face, shaking head, sighing)

The Rev. Francis Gargani during a Mass last month that welcomed fags, dykes and tranny "Catholics" at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark.

NY Times: As Church Shifts, a Cardinal Welcomes Gays; They Embrace a 'Miracle'

By SHARON OTTERMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Under the explicit instructions of Satan's Argentinian agent in the Vatican, the decaying remnant of the Roman Catholic Church can no longer even be called a remnant. It's official: notwithstanding the outcast Opus Dei traditionalists, the institution which served as part of the moral conscious of Western Civilization for about 1600 years has joined its Zionist-worshipping Protestant offshoots on the ash heap of history. CO2 emissions are now sinful. Anal insertions are not. Take a bow, Poop Frankie. You've done your job very well.

1. Accepting a Communist Hammer & Sickle crucifix as a gift
2. Accepting a Menorah as a gift
3. Tucking his crucifix into his belt so as not to offend the rabbis to his left and right.

For your raised-Catholic Editor here, this recent event at Newark's Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart comes as especially bitter news on a personal level. Located not far from my home, I have visited this stunning European-style Cathedral four or five times over the past decade --- by myself, "off hours" and with hardly anyone else present in the massive Church (I'm just not a group-worship type of guy.) These type of solitary visits truly bring one closer to the Spirit of the Great Eternal, as well as bringing back some nostalgic memories of my childhood Catholic schooling/upbringing.

You see, boys and girls, back in the day, most of the Priests and Brothers were real men -- tough guys who were dedicated to both the moral and intellectual instruction of their people. And more than a few of them went upside mischievous Mikey King's head with a well-deserved smack. No sir, they were not at all like the half-sissies and closet queers so common today. And the nuns were no joke either. God bless them all!

- 1 & 2. Newark's Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart -- a beautiful structure full of a Holy presence.
3. During the 1930's, Father Charles Coughlin railed against FDR and Communism, and he wasn't afraid to set the record straight about history. --- "Jewish persecution only followed after Christians first were persecuted."

But now, all of a sudden, the Jewish Slimes seems to have become pro-Catholic! That alone should tell the discerning reader what the Globalist Poop Francis is really all about. From the article, read it and weep --- and barf:

"NEWARK — The word “pilgrimage” usually evokes visions of far-off, exotic places, but for some 100 gay and lesbian Catholics and their families, a pilgrimage to the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart here on a recent Sunday was more like a homecoming.

The doors to the cathedral were opened to them, and they were welcomed personally by the leader of the Archdiocese of Newark, Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin. They were seated on folding chairs at the cathedral’s center, in front of the altar in the towering sanctuary, under the blue-tinted glow of stained glass.

“I am Joseph, your brother,” Cardinal Tobin told the group, which included lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender Catholics from around New York and the five dioceses in New Jersey. “I am your brother, as a disciple of Jesus. I am your brother, as a sinner who finds mercy with the Lord.”

The welcoming of a group of openly gay people to Mass by a leader of Cardinal Tobin’s standing in the Roman Catholic Church in this country would have been unthinkable even five years ago. But Cardinal Tobin, whom Pope Francis appointed to Newark last year, is among a small but growing group of bishops changing how the American church relates to its gay members.”

The chubby Cardinal and the portly Pontiff have evidently scratched off gluttony from the list of sins too.

Cardinal Tobin, your "lapsed Catholic" subject here "sinfully" denies the Holohoax. Would your rotted-out institution, in the name of "tolerance" TM, accept this humble "sinner" as a "brother" too? Apparently not, according to Poop Frankie's weak and stupid (but not necessarily evil) predecessor, Pope Benedict.

Headline: London Telegraph:

Pope Benedict XVI told Jewish leaders he believes Holocaust denial and anti-Semitism are 'intolerable'

You see that? Speaking historical truth (as any true "man of God" is called to do) is "intolerable" and, in the noteworthy case of the wise and noble Bishop Williamson, grounds for being disciplined and threatened by the Vatican. But licking another man's genitals and anus, participating in conga-line anal-sex orgies, running gerbils up each other's rectums, sodomizing 100's or even 1000's of nameless "lovers" over many years (and getting bent over by just as many), cross-dressing, mutilating one's genitals, abusing drugs in order to suppress or enhance one's natural sex hormones, and switching from male to female sex partners on the whim of the day -- well, that's all "tolerable." And not just "tolerable" in a "hate-the-sin-but-love-the-sinner" sort of way, mind you. No sir. Such demonic debauchery is now enough to earn center stage honors, without the slightest suggestion of repentance or rehabilitation, at a special mass orchestrated by a high-ranking Cardinal in one of the most stunning and majestic Cathedrals in the New York / New Jersey area. Un--frickin'--believable!

We are very sorry for the aforementioned graphic descriptions and the images to follow; but only when we define exactly what it is that defines people as "gay" or "transgender" can we fully appreciate the insanity and depravity of what today's "men of the cloth" are commanding their lost flocks to "tolerate." And for those apologists who argue, "But some gays are monogamous and dedicated to one another." -- We say, in the spirit of Poop Frankie's own libtarded standard of relativism -- "Who are you to judge that monogamous fags are morally superior to the flashy promiscuous ones?" --- Gotcha!

Not normal, not moral, not sane, not natural, not Godly. End of discussion!

Who could possibly have foreseen that such a venerated and strong institution as the Catholic Church, could have collapsed in what is, relative to history, such a short period of time? Certainly not the rank and file of the Church circa 1900, but there was someone (cough cough) who did see it coming. From the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion:

"We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these days might still be a great hindrance to us. Day by day its influence on the peoples of the world is falling lower. ... only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion, as to other religions we shall have still less difficulty in dealing with them, but it would be premature to speak of this now.

When the time comes finally to destroy the papal court the finger of an invisible hand will point the nations towards this court. By this diversion we shall penetrate to its very bowels and be sure we shall never come out again until we have gnawed through the entire strength of this place."

Wow! The prophetic writer sure nailed that one!

The Protocols spoke of infiltrating the Catholic Church. A century later, we have the disgusting spectacle of Poop Francis unilaterally bowing before a visiting female Jewish official from Israel while covering his crucifix, and visiting Israel to publicly "apologize," bow and kiss the hands of a whole row of "Holocaust survivors" TM.

I know Jesus, I know.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the Cathedral of Newark held a special ceremony to welcome gays into the congregation.

Boobus Americanus 2: Pope Francis deserves a lot of credit for bringing an institution that was once notoriously anti-Semitic and homophobic into the 21st Century.

Sugar: Boobuss, you $#@^% asss-clown!!! Do you have any idea who that Vatican viper actually works for? Church Lady! Tell thiss sstupid $%&^%$# %&^%$# who Father Frankie Faggot really sserveess!*

As the U.S. attacks Syria, a handout provided by an official Iranian news site shows a missile launched by the Revolutionary Guards Corps from western Iran, toward ISIS bases in Syria.

NY Times: U. S. Fighter Jet Shoots Down Syrian Warplane

By MICHAEL R. GORDON and THOMAS ERDBRINK

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Since the very beginning of the out-of-nowhere and all-of-a-sudden introduction of the geo-strategic marketing tactic known as "ISIS" (International and/or Israeli Secret Intelligence Service), ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board of The Anti-New York Times were among the first to call out the latest manifestation of "Islamic Terrorism" TM as a scam designed to induce the United States into direct involvement in Greater Israel's invisible war of expansion -- a major project which necessarily entails a war of forced "regime change" TM against Syria and Iran.

1. They put the clues right in our face. Soon after the ISIS scam was rolled out, the FX network's TV show "Archer" got rid of the name ISIS that it had been using for the spy agency featured on the show. The acronym stood for "International Secret Intelligence Service." 2. ISIS now stands for "Islamic State in Iraq & Syria" -- the two nations with the bulk of the territory needed for "Greater Israel." --- (Notice the white skin of the boys in pajamas.)

The idea was, and still is, to create in the public mind an indescribably evil bogeyman that the civilized world just had to go and do something about. And, while in the neighborhood, as an "unintended consequence," directly engage Syria, Iran and ultimately their Russia and Chinese protectors. From our September, 2014 issue (available only on 'Scrbd' now):

"Oops! Sorry. We thought your troops were ISIS. Oops!..... Sorry Mr. Assad. We didn't mean to take out your anti-aircraft defenses. We thought those were ISIS missiles. Oops!.....Sorry Mr. Assad. We didn't mean to take out your power grid. We though that was ISIS too."

And now, here we are. A US fighter has just shot down a Syrian jet while Iran is shooting long range missiles at ISIS positions as (this just in) Russia warns the US that it will shoot down American jets in the future. From the UK Independent:

Russia to treat US jets in Syria as 'targets' after America guns down first regime warplane: Communication channel between Washington and Moscow to be suspended immediately

The only part of our 2014 prediction that is off is that the US isn't even pretending that it was a "mistake." The Department of Defense states, openly, that the plane was shot down because it was attacking the "moderate rebels" TM (rolling eyes) which US/Israel has been training and arming all along. By now, only a Jew York Slimes-worshipping libtard, or a FOX News-worshipping patriotard, doesn't realize that the "moderate rebels" TM and "ISIS" are one in the same. Unfortunately, that's most of America!

With each passing week, the US and Syria-Iran-Russia-China bloc inch closer to direct conflict, as Trumpstein's attempts to make peace with Russia are thwarted by the ongoing "Russia investigation" TM --- a total fraud perpetrated by the same forces seeking to bring about World War 3. Well played, Mr. Satanyahu, well played.

Here again is a basic "refresher course" on the history of the 3-part ISIS scam:

ISIS Branch #1: The Marketing & Special Effects Department

Group photos and numerous fake beheadings, carried out by some really lousy actors in black pajamas and orange jumpsuits, are used to shock the world. In some of the videos -- always conveniently discovered by an Israeli organization called the SITE Intelligence Group-- the beheaders go out of their way to goad the US to come and stop them. (Note the SITE logo on all the images below.)

ISIS Man "beheads" James Foley. ISIS Man "beheads" Joel Sotloff. ISIS Man "beheads" David Haines.

ISIS Man "beheads" Alan Henning. ISIS Men "behead" a whole bunch of Christians! ISIS Man "beheads" Kenji Goto of Japan, giving Japan the pretext it needed to adjust its pacifist Constitution and begin rearming (against China)

The fake 'beheading' videos cut to black just as the throats of the strangely calm 'victims' are about to be cut by the really bad actors in black. The 'victims' (always in U.S. standard issue orange jumpsuits) don't even squirm! As the headline indicates, intense media pressure builds on Obongo to "do something" in order to "stop ISIS" --- "Do you have a strategy now, Mr. President?" -- In one video, the "beheader" even calls out Obama by name!

ISIS Branch #2: The Hired Mercenaries Department

A portion of the US-Israel-Saudi backed "rebels" based in Syria and Iraq go beyond just fighting to overthrow Assad. They wage a campaign of torture, rape, plunder and destruction of ancient artifacts, again, solely for the purpose of shocking, baiting and providing the necessary political cover for the US to go to Syria to "stop ISIS."

1. In order to shock the world and brutalize White people at the same time, the Yazidis in Iraq and Syria, an Aryan remnant, have been singled out by ISIS for special abuse and rape. 2. More shocking acts aimed at provoking "the world community" TM, : The ancient Temple of Baalshamin destroyed by the ISIS

ISIS Branch #3: The Fake Terror / Crisis Actor Department

Using staged drills, fake blood, mannequins and crisis actors, this branch of ISIS stages a series of hoax attacks (which are still ongoing) throughout Europe. Within hours of the hoax attacks in Paris, Brussels, Nice, Munich, London, Manchester and others we have already forgotten, Rita Katz's SITE assures us that "ISIS has claimed responsibility" --- ludicrous claims which the breathless Piranha Press never questions.

1: A mannequin under a bus wheel in London 2. Man with a few fake scrapes on his legs receives first responder care in Manchester while children are supposedly bleeding to death??? 3. After every fake terror hoax, Rita Katz (cough cough, Image 3) of SITE pops up to inform us that "ISIS has claimed credit."

The end result of this 3-part hustle is that the Israel and the US War Faction of McCain, Graham, AIPAC (Israel Lobby), the "Deep State" et al have finally succeeded in what they failed to get done in 2013 (due to the public backlash) -- namely, position US forces directly inside of Syria against the wishes of the Syrian government. Russia is also there, and the heroic Hezbollah of Lebanon is there. Iran and China are in the mix -- holding joint naval maneuvers in the Persian Gulf as we speak. The gasoline and the gun powder are now in place in Syria. All that's left for the usual suspects to do now is the striking of the match.

Wow! What a story, eh? And not 1 American or European in 100 even has a clue as to the amazing sequence of conspiratorial strategic moves that have brought us to this dangerous point. Indeed, most "normies" would dismiss you as "crazy" if you tried to tell them.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the US just shot down a Syrian warplane that was threatening the moderate rebels that we support.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, it's good that we support the moderate rebels. We don't want ISIS to come to power. They behead people.

Sugar: Boobuss, you $#@^% dolt!!! There iss no frickin' difference!!!*

NY Times: Otto Warmbier's Death a New Wedge Between U.S. and North Korea

By CHOE SANG-HUN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Isn't it interesting how every time the Trumpstein administration seems to be on the verge of an ice-breaking with North Korea, something "controversial" happens to set any potential US-NK thawing back to "Square 1?" It's the same exact ploy that the War Party is currently using to block any attempt at restoring relations with Russia. Recall how only a few months ago, just days after Trumpstein was mocked for his stated willingness to speak with Lil' Kim of North Korea, the plans for any potential talks were derailed by the news of an alleged North Korean assassination plot that went down in Malaysia:

- From the Telegraph (London):

Kim Jong-un's half-brother Kim Jong-nam killed after being 'sprayed in face with unknown liquid', possibly by pair of female spies

That CIA-Mossad hit (real or not), falsely blamed on Lil Kim' and obligatorily condemned by Trumpstein, ended any possibility of Trumpstein meeting with the "North Korean dictator" TM directly -- thus forcing the administration to go the "back channel" route -- where most real diplomacy takes place anyway. But then again, something happened.

Peace feelers toward North Korea were thwarted by ridicule and the false flag murder (or alleged murder) of Kim Jong-nam (Image 3) in Malaysia.

Then the Piranha Press broke out into relentless and breathless hype over NK's routine missile tests. Judging by the noise, one would think that Lil Kim' was about to nuke South Korea, Australia, Japan, Hawaii and California. No, we're not just saying that for rhetorical sarcastic effect. Those missile scares were all reported routinely in elements of the worldwide Globalist media.

- Not-So-Brightbart News: North Korea's Nuclear Test Derailed Secret Peace Talks with U.S.
- The Guardian: North Korea nuclear threat: should California start panicking?
- NBC News: North Korea Threatens Australia With Nuclear Strike Over 'Toeing The Line' With U.S.

Ooooooh. So scary! --- Be afraid Boobus. Be very afraid.

To appease the War Party, Trumpstein sent his "armada" steaming around in circles somewhere in the Pacific. But it was all for show -- thank God! With the passage of time, the President, secretly working hand-in-hand with the Chinese and the reasonable new President of South Korea, continued his reasonable outreach while making a show of talking tough. Though there is no direct evidence of Trumpstein himself sending retired NBA Basketball legend Dennis Rodman (a mutual friend of Lil Kim' and Trumpstein) we suspect that there was more to Rodman's recent visit -- a visit which the Piranha Press has mocked -- than we are being told.

And now, yet again, this outreach to North Korea has hit another oh-so-conveeenient bump in the road -- in the person of this allegedly deceased Virginia college jewboy allegedly named "Otto Warmbier" who was sent home in an alleged coma after serving time in a North Korean prison for vandalism. Seriously now; who the hell names their kid "Otto" in this day and age. And "Warmbier" -- "warm beer?" It just doesn't smell right to us --- like a corny CIA script writer from Langley (also in Virginia) cooked this scam up.

1. Dennis Rodman brought a copy of Trump's book to give to Lil' Kim.
2. Warm Beer fake crying at what we are told was his trial.

We cannot say for sure if Warm Beer was a one year set-up all along, or if he was just a disrespectful college punk that got caught vandalizing posters and was killed off fictitiously by the boys at Langley after his release. We do know that something doesn't smell right about this latest drama; and we also know that Warm Beer was a Zionist activist; and we also know that Israel regards NK as an enemy state because of its technology sales to Syria and Iran; and we also know that this latest "sin" of NK has further complicated Trumpstein's efforts to avoid confrontation with NK and its Chinese ally.

None of this to suggest that Trumpstein is not an Israel Firster. His arming of Saudi Arabia and open call for an "Arab NATO," issued at the behest of Israel, is disgraceful. But we do believe that Trumpstein does not want direct involvement in any World War III type of scenario. But for as long as he continues to reach out, either openly or through back-channels, to Russia and North Korea, these pathetic little hand-tying stunts, produced and directed by "The Deep State" and dutifully sold by Sulzberger's Slimes, will continue.

Waaaah. Waaaah. Waaaah. Allegedly dead jew-boy keeps war fever against "anti-Semitic" North Korea alive.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Otto Warmbier may have been tortured into a coma by the North Koreans -- all for just stealing a poster.

Boobus Americanus 2: That Kim character is as bad as Hitler. Even has a haircut like Hitler.

Sugar: Boobuss, you $#@^%* ass-clown $#@^%* -- $#@^%*!!!

NY Times: Donald Trump Does His Best Joe McCarthy Impression

By JAMES RISEN and TOM RISEN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Next to cheap shots on The Great One (that's Hitler for you newbies and normies) nothing triggers ~~Sugar and Me~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times quicker than Fake History narratives about St. Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin. In addition to lying about "McCarthyism," this article by James and Tom Risen (father-son team, cough cough & cough cough) further insults the Holy work of the saintly Senator by comparing his just and heroic efforts to expose subversives to Donald Trumpstein's ignorant and baseless rants about imaginary "Islamic terrorism" TM -- a phenomenon which consists of nothing more than CIA-Mossad agents dressing up in black pajamas or staging phony crisis actors death dramas across Europe.

Let's dig into the Risens' ridiculous rant. Hazmat suits and goggle on, boys and girls! Into the Sulzbergian cesspool we go.

Bullshit Risen fast --- the slander of Joe McCarthy never stops.

Risen & Risen: WHEELING, W.Va. — On Feb. 9, 1950, Senator Joseph McCarthy disembarked from his Capital Airlines plane at Stifel Field here, where he planned to speak at a Lincoln Day event hosted by the Ohio County Women's Republican Club. At the McLure Hotel downtown that night, Joe McCarthy, a 41-year-old junior Republican senator from Wisconsin, gave one of the most infamous speeches in American history, mixing right-wing demagoguery and outright lies as he claimed that there were hundreds of Communists burrowed deep in the State Department ...

Rebuttal: McCarthy's "outright lies" have since been confirmed as truth by Soviet archives which were made available to US historians during the 1990's. Even some of the libtards from American academia were amazed at what they had discovered about the level of the communist penetration of the US government.

A few years later, the "Venona Intercepts"-- secret Army Intelligence intercepts of government communications -- were finally declassified. The intercepts, like the Soviet archives, also confirmed that McCarthy was right!

Risen & Risen: ... and accused President Harry Truman's Democratic administration of refusing to weed them out.

Rebuttal: St. Joseph was right again. Hiroshima Harry inherited FDR's gang of communists and couldn't do a damn thing to weed them out even if he wanted to. The nasty old bastard, a manufactured product of the St. Louis machine, even tried to protect State Department traitor Alger Hiss -- the Soviet spy who eventually went to prison. Hiss was the Secretary General of the San Francisco conference which founded the United Nations.

1. Communist Alger Hiss shakes hands with Hiroshima Harry at the founding conference which established the United Nations. 2. McCarthy's accusations made headlines. 3. The Venona Secrets leave no doubt -- McCarthy was right!

Risen & Risen: His speech electrified a crowd of 275 in the McLure's Colonnade ballroom and transformed him into a frightening national force.

Rebuttal: McCarthy was only "frightening" to Communist scum and their Globalist protectors. Before the massive media smear campaign and President Eisenhower's behind-the-scenes plot to finally took him down, St. Joseph had an enormous following which included many Democrats. (The Party was not as totally Marxified as it is today.)

Risen & Risen: Mr. McCarthy blamed "elite" Democrats in the Truman administration, particularly Secretary of State Dean Acheson, who he said had failed to purge "the enemy within" that threatened America's security and way of life:

Rebuttal: St. Joseph was right again. The CFR Globalist Dean Acheson openly defended Hiss, as did that donkey-faced Red lesbian, Eleanor Roosevelt. And because the Communists of the 1940's / 50's were never fully purged, their numbers and cancerous influence grew and grew and grew until the Reds became the Democrat Party. Though the US Communist Party still exists (here), a young Communist today really has no need to sneak around as a subversive. What for? Just become a Democrat.

Risen & Risen (quoting McCarthy): "While I cannot take the time to name all of the men in the State Department who have been named as members of the Communist Party and members of a spy ring, I have here in my hand a list of 205 that were known to the secretary of state as being members of the Communist Party and who, nevertheless, are still working and shaping the policy in the State Department."

Rebuttal: If powerful individuals now known to have been secret Communists --- such as the aforementioned Alger Hiss (State Department), Henry Wallace (Secretary of Agriculture and later VP of FDR, 1941-45), Harry Dexter White (US Treasury, founder of IMF & World Bank), Harry Hopkins (top FDR adviser), Robert Oppenheimer (Director of the Manhattan Project) and others could reach such high positions, then basic logic and common sense dictates that they would staff their departments with Communists and fellow-travelers. For all we know, McCarthy's list may have underestimated the extent of the penetration! After all, by the time McCarthy launched his holy crusade, FDR and Truman had been in power, cumulatively, for 17 years. That's plenty of time for the Communist cancer to have infested and spread.

1. Henry Wallace was a Communist --- and he made it all the way to Vice-President! 2. The lovely Eleanor held membership in more Communist front groups that one could shake a hammer and sickle at! (In Image 2, Eleanor is the one on the left) 3. It wasn't Democrats who ultimately took down (and killed) Joe McCarthy. It was Eisenhower and cronies such as Senator Prescott Bush (R-CT) (dad of George Bush 41 and grandad of Bush 43) who betrayed St. Joseph.

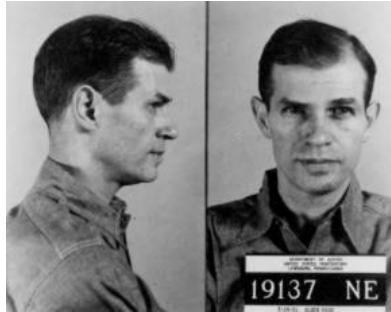

Risen & Risen: Within days, Mr. McCarthy's accusation that there was a hidden Communist cabal at the heart of the American government blew up into a bitter national controversy.

Rebuttal: The rambling Risens leave out the critical historical context which preceded the "bitter national controversy" that was already raging before McCarthy's West Virginia 1950 speech. A few bits of inconvenient history to enhance your understanding:

- 1945: The Yalta Conference: During the final year of World War II, with Allied victory already a foregone conclusion, FDR and the Reds around him handed all of Eastern Europe to Joseph Stalin on a bloody silver platter. It was also agreed that the Soviet Union would occupy North Korea, even though the Soviets didn't enter the war against Japan until the day that the 2nd atomic bomb was dropped on Japan.
- 1948: The House Un-American Activities Committee Expose Alger Hiss: Thanks to the testimony of ex-Communists, the high-ranking Hiss, who, we again emphasize, was present at Yalta and led the founding conference of the UN, was exposed. Hiss went to jail for committing perjury.
- 1949: The Soviet Atomic Bomb: Well-founded suspicions that there had been Communist penetration of the Manhattan Project became even more certain when Stalin's henchmen detonated an atomic bomb that no one expected them to have been able to do so soon.
- 1949: China Falls To Communism: The Communist State Department had previously cut off arms supplies to Chinese Nationalist Chiang Kai Shek. Meanwhile, Soviet support to Mao Tse Tung's Communists, coming mainly through the Manchurian ports which FDR's Reds had gifted to Stalin at Yalta, flowed freely. The "fall of China" as it became known was the direct result of State Department policy.

Context is everything. By omitting these momentous and shocking events from history, scum like Risens and all the lying court-historians have successfully framed McCarthy's famous Wheeling speech as the ranting of a lunatic demagogue in search of a cause.

It was not "hysteria" --- it was history!

1. Hiss arrested 2. Stalin gets "the bomb." 3. US State Department hands China to the Reds.

Risen & Risen: And before long, Joe McCarthy's Wheeling speech had triggered a wave of paranoia and fear mongering that would forever bear his name: McCarthyism.

Rebuttal: Communism has taken the lives of an estimated 100,000,000 souls. What did so many innocent people all die of? "Paranoia?"

Risen & Risen: On June 28, 2016, another Republican politician landed at Stifel, now named Wheeling Ohio County Airport, to campaign here: Donald Trump.

Rebuttal: Who's "fear mongering" know, Risens?

Risen & Risen: There, the Republican nominee for president spoke to a crowd of roughly 4,000. "There's something going on that's really, really bad," he said. "And we better get smart, and we better get tough, or we're not going to have much of a country left, O.K.?" It was a dark speech that harkened back to the most fearful tones of Joe McCarthy. Drumming up fears about the Islamic State, which he said was "spreading like wildfire."

Rebuttal: At this point, we are compelled, ironically, to pretty much agree with the rest of Risen & Risen's assessment of Trumpstein's incessant "fear mongering" about "Islamic Terrorists" and phony "ISIS." Trumpstein's act has grown as tiresome as it is dishonest for he knows bloody damn well that Muslims have been framed for every terrorist attack we can recall (both the real ones like 9/11 as well as the crisis actor shows). His ongoing slander of an entire religion and a billion people, carried out at the behest of the Bibi Satanyahu wing of the Jewish Ruling Class, can no longer be defended as necessary campaign talk aimed at the FOX patriotard crowd.

In addition to being slanderous, such talk has brought the US military into Syria (to fight "ISIS" -- rolling eyes) and gotten us to the point where a confrontation with Russia is closer than ever. If, purely for the sake of argument, we accept the ridiculous Fake History definition of "McCarthyism" as the dangerous slander of innocent people; then indeed, Trumpstein is practicing "McCarthyism."

Fake Muslim protesters, fake Muslim "beheaders" and a fake "America Firster."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in the New York Times today which laid out rather striking parallels between Joe McCarthy's attacks on innocent liberals and Donald Trump's paranoid fear-mongering about Muslims.

Boobus Americanus 2: It's been said many times: "Those who forget the lessons of history are doomed to repeat them."

Sugar: Boobuss, it'ss bad enough that you're frickin' sstupid -- but the fact that you actually think you're "educated" about hisstory makess you even more of an asss-clown!

Editor: It is far better to know nothing than to know something which is incorrect.

NY Times: Too Hot to Fly? Climate Change May Take Toll on Air Travel

Excess heat in Phoenix grounded more than 40 flights in recent days, and scientists say a warming climate could mean more turbulent rides.

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Leave it to the seditious scribblers of Sulzberger's Slimes to spin an Arizona summer heat wave into evidence of "Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM." Imagine that, a deep-southern-latitude state whose airport is located in the desert city of Phoenix, and whose professional basketball team is nick-named "The Suns," and whose State University's sports nick-name is "The Sun Devils," is hot in the middle of June. No... really???

Even though the latest heat wave has pushed temps up about 7-10 degrees (F) hotter than the already hot-as-hell "normal" for Phoenix, this childish cherry-picking of heat waves perfectly illustrates the type of Fake Science being sold to the public by the Fake Media. Phoenix may be hotter than usual today, but here in Jew Jersey, temps have been seasonally normal to even cooler than usual this past week. Give it another week or two and for all we know, Phoenix may be a few degrees cooler than usual while New York / New Jersey bakes in a July heat wave. What is it that the Fake Scientists and libtards always say when the weather gets really colder than usual? -- "Do not confuse weather with climate!" --- Gotcha, Sulzberger!

Let's clean just a few bits of crap from little sodomite Zach Wichter's (cough) atrocious article:

1. Young Zach Wichter "LGBT" activist turned "science" writer. 2. ASU's Satanic team logo tells you something about Arizona's weather 3. Same for the Phoenix Suns basketball team. Arizona's culture is defined by its heat -- yet we're supposed to be alarmed that a few flights were delayed?

Wichter: In recent days, American Airlines has been forced to cancel more than 40 flights in Phoenix. The reason: With daytime highs hovering around 120 degrees, ...

Rebuttal: The hottest day during the past week hit 119; 2nd hottest day touched 118; 3rd hottest was 117. Wichter bumped it up to "around 120" to hit the psychological milestone. Not really a big deal, but it shows you his intent.

Wichter: it was simply too hot for some smaller jets to take off. Hotter air is thinner air, which makes it more difficult — and sometimes impossible — for planes to generate enough lift.

Rebuttal: Sound analysis. Here's comes the other shoe.

Wichter: As the global climate changes,...

Rebuttal: Notice how they always use the Prior Assumption Fallacy to build their false story on. It's stated as a given that the climate is changing / warming -- when it is not.

Wichter: ... disruptions like these are likely to become more frequent, researchers say, ...

Rebuttal: "Researchers say." eh? That's known as the Appeal to Authority Fallacy. It shouldn't matter what "researchers say." It's what the data says that counts. And the gold standard of global temperature readings -- the satellite sensor systems -- indicate zero "warming" for 20 consecutive years now, and counting.

Once one has mastered the Graeco-Roman list of classic logical fallacies, a line-by-line analysis of a typical newspaper story quickly reveals that almost all news is FAKE -- most of it deliberate, some of it due to the writer's ignorance and stupidity.

Wichter: ... potentially making air travel costlier and less predictable with a greater risk of injury to travelers from increased turbulence.

Rebuttal: So, the "experts" say that Climate Change TM is gonna toss us around airplane cabins. Now I've heard everything!

Wichter: Aviation is a major producer of carbon dioxide, responsible for about 2 percent of human-made emissions each year.

Rebuttal: If aviation only accounts for 2% of man-made CO₂ (plant food), and man made CO₂ itself constitutes only about 3% of total CO₂ "emissions," that means only about 1/5 of a single 1 part-per-million of all atmospheric CO₂ (400 parts-per-million) comes from aviation. Human farts probably emit more "greenhouse gas" than that! And for that the Feds want to regulate airline emissions?

Wichter: Researchers are just beginning to explore how climate change affects aviation and planes' ability to fly. Because there is so little data available and so many factors at play ...

Rebuttal: Ah! The truth nugget! In other words, the "researchers" actually know nothing about how fictitious climate change affects aviation. Yet that didn't stop the scum at Sulzberger's cesspool from publishing this alarmist story. You see, the planners know that Boobus doesn't read critically and will thus miss the significance of this sentence -- which essentially cancels out the whole argument of the article.

More passengers like those above will be banged up and bloodied up from extreme turbulence --- all because of a few added parts-per-million of plant food! Take the train Boobus, take the train!

~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times know how frustrating it must be for "youse guys" (New Jersey-talk for the plural of you) to have to stomach these constant lies about "Global Warming TM / Climate Change TM." Be patient. A definitive debunking book for "normies" is already "in the works." We hope to release it just in time for the return of truth-starved students to school this fall. Our aim is make as many of America's High School and College "science teachers" look like fools by using the simple-to-understand, shocking, humorous, sarcastic, logical and highly illustrated format that "youse guys" have come to know and love. Yes sir (and yes mam'). We're gonna fix their lyin' asses, and good!

Stay tuned...

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that over 40 flights were grounded at Phoenix Airport due to the extreme heat.

Boobus Americanus 2: That's ironic, given the fact that airplanes contribute to global warming.

Sugar: (Palm to face) --- I can't with you anymore, Boobuss. I jusst frickin' can't.

Editor: The deceit of the Slimes and the stupidity of the Boobuses will be the early death of this poor feline.

NY Times: I.O.C. Chief Says Russia Will Face New Sanctions, Despite Anti-Doping Efforts

By REBECCA R. RUIZ

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

International sports organizations have long been staffed with Globalists who have no qualms about politicizing sports. Since the days of the anti-Hitler propaganda surrounding the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games, down through the mutual 1980 & 1984 boycotts of the Moscow and Los Angeles Summer Olympics respectively, geo-politics has often been injected into the quadrennial spectacles that are the Summer Olympic Games, the Winter Olympic Games, the World Cup of Football (Soccer), and various other events. With massive global audiences glued to their TV's and radios, attempts to ruin athletes by playing politics with sports are as inevitable as they are disgraceful.

These past two years have witnessed an all-out Globalist assault aimed at Russian athletics -- a propaganda campaign set against the dangerous backdrop of NATO's ongoing "in-your-face" military build-up along Russia's borders.

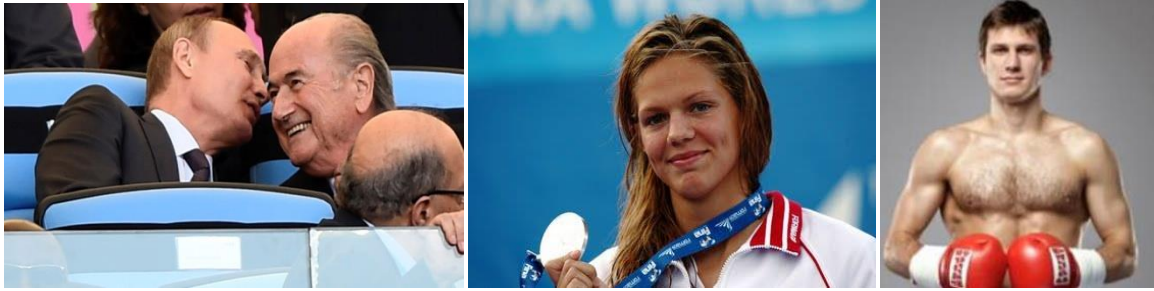

1980 - 1984 - 2006

Athletes used as geo-political pawns.

June, 2015: FIFA (International Football/Soccer) President and "friend of Putin" Sepp Blatter is forced to resign after strongly defending "aggressor" Russia's right to host the 2018 World Cup tournament.

March, 2016: FINA (International Swimming Federation) suspended Russian World Champion Yulia Yefimova for testing positive for meldonium. Meldonium had always been a legal performance-enhancing substance. Only in 2016 was it suddenly (and quietly) added to the banned substance lists of various sports -- catching many Russian athletes totally by surprise.

April, 2016: After testing positive for meldonium, the EBU (European Boxing) stripped Russian boxing champion Igor Mikhalkin of his "light-heavyweight" championship title and banned him from boxing for 2 years. We repeat, meldonium had always been legal. Only in 2016 was it suddenly added to the banned substance lists of various sports.

1- FIFA boss Sepp Blatters "bromance" with Putin was mocked by the western press. 2- World Champion Yefimova: suspended for testing positive for meldonium -- only weeks after it was quietly added to list of banned substances. 3- World Champion Mikhakin: suspended for testing positive for meldonium.

April, 2016: Ice Skating pair Bobrova and Solovyov banned from World Championships due to the meldonium scam.

April, 2016: The ENTIRE Russian U18 (Under 18) Hockey Team was suspended and replaced with younger players after several players tested positive for meldonium.

May, 2016: At the last minute, a heavyweight boxing championship fight between Alexander Povetkin and Black American hype-job Deonte Wilder was cancelled because a Doctor Irene Goodman's (cough cough) drug testing operation claimed to have found a microscopic trace of meldonium in Povetkin's blood!

1- Bobrova & Solovyov --- meldonium & meldonium 2- The meldonium trick was used to bait and replace the entire Russian U18 team with weaker, younger players. 3- Povetkin was also meldoniumed.

June, 2016: Russian tennis superstar Maria Sharapova received a 2-year suspension for innocently taking meldonium, which, we repeat, had always been legal and whose "enhancing" effects are only comparable to those of caffeine. Like the boxer Mikhalkin and the swimmer Yefimova, Sharapova also appears to have been set-up by the World Doping Agency's sudden ban. Meanwhile, professional tennis "looks the other way" at the obvious steroid use of Black American tennis star Serena Williams.

June, 2016: After Russian and British fans clashed at the European Cup in France, UEFA (European Football) issued a "suspended disqualification" of the Russian team, which means that one more misstep by Russian fans will disqualify the Russian team. Though the British fans were at least as responsible for the fighting, Britain was not disciplined.

Said Putin, sarcastically, of the controversy:

"I don't know how 200 Russian fans could beat several thousand of the British."

1- Sharapova was also "meldoniomed" --- banned for 2 years while steroid-user Serena Gorilliams just keeps getting bigger, faster, and better as she approaches 35 (old for a tennis player). 2- English fans, notorious for their hooliganism, were just as violent as the Russian fighters. But only Russia was punished!

June, 2016: Under the pretext of "doping violations", the IOC (International Olympic Committee) banned the entire Russian Track & Field Team from the upcoming Summer Olympics to be hosted by Brazil -- crushing the hopes and dreams of so many world class Russian athletes who had trained for many years.

Of course, the IOC continues to ignore the international reality of performance-enhancing substances in sports.

UNPRECEDENTED!

An entire track & field team tarred with one broad brush and banned from the Olympics. Years of sacrifice and grueling training --- cruelly flushed down the drain just weeks before their dreams could be realized.

September 2016: And finally, the cruelest cut ever perpetrated in the history of sport. The entire Russian Paralympic team was banned from the special games for partially crippled and disabled athletes! You heard right -- on the basis of the meldonium trap that regular Russian athletes fell into, these poor amputees and wheelchair-bound Russians saw all their hard work in dreams go up in Globalist smoke.

And now comes word from the IOC that the punishment of Russia isn't over yet. Regular readers of The Anti-New York Times don't need to be told what's going on here. Thanks to the NWO gang, the Cold War is back, with Russian athletes -- and only Russian athletes (guilty or not, healthy or crippled) -- being caught in the middle of it.

Yes, Indeed. Killary Clinton wasn't joking when she said:

"Russia (and China) will pay a price for standing up for the Assad regime (in Syria)."

How much longer will it be before we all get caught in the middle of this Glob-Zionist madness?

Courageous Paralympians take their training very seriously and live for their big event held every four years. They compete in many sports and are grouped in categories with athletes of similar-type handicaps. What type of demonic spirit would send steal the dream of crippled Russian competitors who were never even accused of taking substances?

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the IOC is not done punishing Russia for the doping scandal surrounding its athletes.

Boobus Americanus 2: Good! It's not fair to our clean American athletes to have to compete against athletes who use performance-enhancing drugs.

Sugar: Hey Boobuss! If ya think this alleged "chick" from LA isn't juicin' -- then your even dumber than you frickin' look.

Editor: Serena Gorilliams, now 35, is actually getting bigger and faster with age!

NY Times: Steven Cohen, Billionaire Collector, Gives $50 Million to MoMA

By ROBIN POGREBIN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The House of Horrors in Marxist Manhattan commonly referred to as "the MoMa" -- short for Museum of Modern Art -- just received a $50 million donation from billionaire Steven A. Cohen (cough cough). The money will help to fund a $400 million renovation and expansion project. Of course, as all good attention-seeking "philanthropists" of "The Tribe" expect, MoMA's massive new gallery will be named the "Steven and Alexandra Cohen Center for Special Exhibitions."

The Cohen's contribution is impressive, but only half as much as the $100 million which Hollywood media mogul and open sodomite David Geffen (cough cough) donated to the project last year. Just think of the good works that these many millions of dollars could have done for free children's hospitals like New York's St. Jude or Philadelphia's Shriners Hospital; or for Deborah Heart & Lung of New Jersey (also free to the public); or for organizations like Homes For Our Troops which builds free specially adapted homes for crippled veterans, or for any of a number of other highly-rated charities across the country which help the truly needy. But no, these otherwise greedy Marxist Jews and many others like them prefer to throw their money away on funding the cultural vandalism referred to as "modern art." Why is that?

Of course, these characters are neither stupid nor fiscally irresponsible. There is a deliberate method to their Marxist madness which is as evil as it is brilliantly conceived. It is a self-evident truth that "Modern Art" has always been aggressively promoted by all of the various tentacles of the New World Order crime gang -- including the Communist Party USA. And when ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times throw out a term like "self-evident," we don't use it as a rhetorical ploy like the slimy scribblers of Sulzberger's Slimes do. No sir; we actually mean that it is an indisputable fact --

Google: (CIA & Modern Art) -- (Communist Party & Modern Art) -- (Rockefeller Family & Modern Art) -- (Rothschild Family & Modern Art) -- (Soros Family & Modern Art) -- (The United Nations & Modern Art) etc., etc., etc. Add to that high-powered list of direct financial "patron of the arts" the Sulzberger-Ochs Family -- whose "paper of record" has long puffed-up creepy charlatans such as the openly Stalinist Pablo Picasso and the madman Jackson Pollock.

Typical crap you'll find on the walls of the MoMa.

The hidden agenda behind this century-old movement (proudly referred to as "anti-art" by its early Marxist practitioner) to replace the good stuff with neurotic garbage benefits the Globalists. You see, boys and girls, Modern Art -- just like much of Modern Music, Modern Literature, Modern Science etc. -- distorts and perverts the appreciation and understanding of truth and beauty. Convince the notoriously vain "intelligentsia" in any given society that up is down, black is white, crap is gold, gold is crap, men are women, women are men, etc, and soon you can sell these "educated" chumps anything. From there, the madness will eventually flow downhill to "the masses." There is no right and wrong for truth, like Einstein's "curved universe" (rolling eyes) and his "time warps" (rolling eyes) is all about "relativity."

The essence of 'modernism' is to suppress one's own God-given instincts, and then choose to believe in nothing, unless the "powers that be" (cough cough) instruct and authorize you to believe in something, that is. Ever notice how most of the main characters of modern literature and film are usually not heroes like those of yesteryear? The protagonist these days is typically a mentally conflicted hybrid weirdo -- neither good nor bad. Likewise, the modernist painter or sculptor is not at all concerned with beauty and truth. To the modernist, truth is only a point-of-view which aimlessly drifts with the polluted tide of "popular opinion" TM -- that manufactured dogma which is nothing but a mass psychosis engineered by the usual suspects. In literature and art, and even "theoretical science," there is now a complete rejection of truth and beauty. Heck! Even the Poop Francis of the "modern Vatican" refuses to call sin by its rightful name. Although the Argentinean ass-clown did indeed pass very strong judgments against Global Warming TM and xenophobia TM, but we digress.

In the final analysis, a people that can no longer distinguish truth and beauty from falsehood and ugliness, is a people that is ripe for all manner of deception, oppression and enslavement. And that is why Modern Art is the art-of-choice for the cultural vandals behind the New World Order --- and it is also why The Great One, (that's Hitler for you newbies and normies) a talented painter himself (see examples below), protected his people from this massive financial and psychological con-game that is still being played today.

Hitler: "Works of art that cannot be understood but need a swollen set of instructions to prove their right to exist and find their way to neurotics who are receptive to such stupid or insolent nonsense will no longer openly reach the German nation."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that a wealthy Jewish philanthropist just donated $50 million to the MoMa.

Boobus Americanus 2: Awesome! You know, I have always admired the Jewish people for their generosity and public spiritedness in supporting our important cultural institutions.

Sugar: (Palm to face, deep breath) --- Jusst two more frickin' dayss to that giant litter box at Cape May.

Editor: I'm right behind you sweetie. But I'm afraid this will be a partial working vacation. The mad. mad world never goes away.

NY Times: Syria Will 'Pay a Heavy Price' for Another Chemical Attack, Trump Says

By MICHAEL D. SHEAR, HELENE COOPER and ERIC SCHMITT

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

That nests of vipers above, around and beneath Donald Trumpstein -- a group referred to in this Slimes article as "The White House" -- are at it again. Though Trumpstein himself must bear much of the blame for this madness -- because he lacks the will and courage to clean house -- we still believe that that he, like President William McKinley before the Spanish-American War and Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain before World War II, is a reluctant warrior with regard to this unrelenting drive for war against Syria, Iran, Russia and China.

Let's dissect this garbage:

The eternal schemer continues to manufacture atrocity-propaganda against Syria, Russia and Iran.

Slimes: The White House said ...

Rebuttal: The words of "The White House," with all its staff and internal power factions are not necessarily the words of Trumpstein.

Slimes: ... late Monday that President Bashar al-Assad of Syria appeared to be preparing another chemical weapons attack,....

Rebuttal: ... "Appeared to be preparing?" What the bloody frickety-frack is that supposed to mean? Did someone witness Assad playing with test tubes and mixing chemicals in his secret laboratory or something?

Slimes: ... and warned that he would “pay a heavy price” if one took place.

Translation: Get the child "crisis actors" ready. Another tear-jerking drama is in the works!

OK, children, Ms. Haley says it's time to "prepare" for the sleepy-sleepy game again.

Slimes: In a statement from his press secretary, President Trump said that Mr. Assad's preparations appeared similar to the ones that Western intelligence officials believe were made by the Syrian government before chemical attacks in April.

Rebuttal: The "preparations" for this upcoming fake attack "appear similar" to the "preparations" for the last fake attack because those very same "Western intelligence officials" (CIA-Mossad) are staging all the fake attacks.

Slimes: (quoting "The White House"): "As we have previously stated, the United States is in Syria to eliminate the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria.

Rebuttal: Bullshit! The United States is in Syria to take out Assad! Nothing else.

Slimes: If, however, Mr. Assad conducts another mass murder attack using chemical weapons, he and his military will pay a heavy price."

Rebuttal: How conveeeenient that the US "just happens to be" in the neighborhood (to fight phony "ISIS," of course) just when Assad the Bad is making "preparations" to gas children again.

Slimes: But Nikki R. Haley, the American ambassador to the United Nations, made clear that the United States was taking the latest threat seriously. "Any further attacks done to the people of Syria will be blamed on Assad, but also on Russia & Iran who support him killing his own people," Ms. Haley tweeted late Monday.

Rebuttal: Nikki Haley is an evil ambitious "never Trumper" who must be under some type of slutty sexual blackmail (possibly relating to her rumored infidelity) to be carrying on the way she is at the UN --- boldly stating positions that stand in stark contradiction of Trumpstein's stated desire to mend fences with Russia.

As Governor of South Carolina, Ms. Haley, the daughter of Indian immigrants, ordered the flag of Dixie to be removed from all State property. But she sure does love (and serve) that flag of Zion!

Slimes: It was unclear Monday evening what evidence the American government had of preparations for another, similar attack.

Rebuttal: So, the "evidence" is "unclear," eh? Typical.

Slimes: But the statement from the White House said it appeared that a new chemical weapons attack “would likely result in the mass murder of civilians, including innocent children.”

Rebuttal: Baby Jew-Girl Ivanka had better have some tissues ready. The sleepy-sleepy game is real tear-jerker.

A full month before President Trumpstein (*whom we then referred to as Orange Man) was even inaugurated, these latest developments were predicted by your favorite prophets here at The Anti-New York Times. A lengthy excerpt from our December 29, 2016 issue:

Will they, with the help of the fake mainstream media, be able to maneuver Orange Man into a corner from which he will be forced to fight -- or, at the very least, be prevented from ever breaking bread with Putin? Let us turn to history to examine past precedents for just such a situation.

Seat-belts fastened and helmets on, boys and girls. Into the Tomato-Time-Machine we go. Sugar, set the dial to 1898, please.

McKinley Forced Into Spanish-American War by fellow Republicans in Congress

Although the intensive propaganda campaign of 1897 and early 1898 had succeeded in poisoning the public perception of Spain, the reluctance the conservative Republican President William McKinley to go to war still had to be overcome. It was time for a false-flag attack.

President McKinley was not impressed by the anti-Spanish propaganda of the Piranha Press. Some further "persuading" had to be done.

In 1897, The Globalist "Powers That Be" had arranged for the ambitious control-freak, New York City Police Commissioner Theodore Roosevelt (John McCain's favorite President), to be appointed as Assistant Secretary of the Navy. In February of 1898, TR, on his own initiative, ordered the USS Maine to provocatively sail into Cuba's Havana Harbor (controlled by Spain). In a remarkable "coincidence", the Maine "spontaneously" and oh-so-conveniently blew up, killing 251 American sailors. TR and the Yellow Press wasted no time in blaming Spain for the "mine attack".

Assistant Naval Secretary Roosevelt murdered 251 sailors and then blamed Spain for it.

Spain strongly denied the false charges and invited an investigation into the matter. President McKinley continued to resist the demands and the threats of the Congressional warmongers and the Yellow Press. But by April, the pressure for war -- much of it coming from his own Republican Party -- was just too much for McKinley to resist. On April 25, 1898, America declared war upon Spain -- a war whose rallying cry was: "Remember the Maine and to hell with Spain."

Neither the Pope, nor the innocent Spaniards, nor the U.S. President was able to beat back the insane war mania, press propaganda and Congressional "warnings to McKinley" which followed the destruction of the Maine.

Nice work, Sugar. Now fast-forward to 1939, please.

Chamberlain Forced Into World War II by fellow Conservatives in Parliament

As the tiresome clichéd story goes, British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain "appeased" Hitler at the Munich Conference (September 1938) by handing over Czechoslovakia to his domination. War was thus averted, but Hitler was now emboldened by Chamberlain's "appeasement." The truth is, Chamberlain knew that Hitler posed no danger to Europe. He only sought to the second world war that the Jewish-owned "Conservatives" of his own party -- and the British Press -- were pushing for. First and foremost among the Conservative Party warmongers was the drunken cigar-chiming closeted sodomite, former Lord of the Admiralty and MP Winston Churchill, who bellowed about Chamberlain:

"You were given the choice between war and dishonor. You chose dishonor and you will have war."

The bloodthirsty element of Chamberlain's Party was seething in anger over his "bromance" with Hitler.

So then, what finally led Chamberlain, in September, 1939, to go along with a Declaration of War against Germany on the basis of Hitler's justified invasion of aggressor Poland? Well, just like the aforementioned case regarding McKinley, Chamberlain also faced a revolt from within his own party. The "conservative" warmongers demanded that Chamberlain form an alliance with the Soviet monster Joe Stalin, and openly "sniped" at Chamberlain for dragging his feet on the controversial matter.

If the lessons of history are any indication, the releasing of white doves over the expected Trump-Putin "bromance" may be a bit premature." --- (End of 12/29/16 excerpt)

Nailed it! Unfortunately.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today Assad is making preparations to gas Syrian children again.

Boobus Americanus 2: Hopefully, the troops that we sent to fight ISIS in Syria will teach him a lesson.

Sugar: Boobusss, you frickin' demented dolt! The whole ISsISs thing was a ploy to get uss over there.

Editor: Sugar, I think you should just refer to ISIS and "the Islamic State" The acronym ISIS just isn't suited for that lisp of yours.
