Crisis Support Services

Welcome to Valley Community Services Board (VCSB). The mission of the Crisis Support Services program is to provide therapeutic support to consumers who are experiencing a psychiatric crisis. We serve the Counties of Augusta and Highland and the cities of Staunton and Waynesboro.

Overview

The Crisis Support Services Program focuses on addressing short term, achievable goals to assist in reducing the current crisis. Services are offered for a brief period of time. Therapeutic sessions will be scheduled to fit the individual's needs and desired level of support.

Goals of the Program

- ◆ Provide therapeutic support
- ◆ Avoid psychiatric hospitalization
- ◆ Provide a secure and familiar environment
- ◆ Stabilize the current crisis of the individual
- ◆ Mobilize community supports

Referral Process & Payment

To be eligible for Crisis Support Services, a person must be experiencing an identifiable psychiatric crisis. The person will have an assessment with the emergency services department at VCSB in order to determine if the person meets the necessary requirements. Contact Emergency Services at (540) 885- 0866 and ask to speak with someone about Crisis Support Services. Valley CSB charges fees for our services. We accept most insurances, and offer sliding scale fees for those with no insurance based on ability to pay.
