To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend to you Jennifer Chrupalyk, a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the most prestigious and largest honor society serving colleges around the world. Jennifer Chrupalyk was inducted into the Psi Sigma Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa while attending Maui College. To be invited to membership in Phi Theta Kappa, Jennifer Chrupalyk earned high academic standing with a class rank in the top 10%. Phi Theta Kappa requires members to maintain high academic standing for the duration of enrollment at the college.

Established in 1918, Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society serves to recognize and encourage the academic achievement of college students and provide opportunities for individual growth and development through honors, leadership, and service programming. Membership in the Society reflects discipline, determination, and an innate desire to succeed. Active involvement demonstrates servant leadership, communication skills, and emerging leadership talent.

Since its founding, Phi Theta Kappa has inducted more than 3.5 million members and chartered nearly 1,300 chapters located in all 50 states and in U.S. territorial possessions, Canada, Germany, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, the British Virgin Islands, the United Arab Emirates, and Peru.

Sincerely,

Lynn Tincher-Ladner, Ph.D.
President and CEO
Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society
