Robert de Frece - Handbells

Robert de Frece is Professor Emeritus of Music and Music Education at the University of Alberta in Edmonton. Since his retirement in 2008, Dr. de Frece has continued his association with the university as director of the U of A Mixed Chorus and the U of A Faculty of Education Handbell Ringers.

He founded Edmonton's Greenwood Singers in 1980 and continues as their Artistic Director. Dr. de Frece served for two years on the National Board of Directors of the Association of Canadian Choral Conductors and is a past president of the Alberta Choral Federation. He was Alberta's Assistant Provincial Carillonneur from 1971 to 1979 and Provincial Carillonneur from 1979 to 1996.

In 1993, Dr. de Frece was awarded the Faculty of Education's Undergraduate Teaching Award and the University of Alberta's A. C. Rutherford Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching. In 1998, he was awarded the Alberta Choral Federation's Con Spirito Award in recognition of dedication and commitment to choral music. In 2002, he received the University of Alberta Alumni Association's Alumni Honour Award in recognition of his work with the University of Alberta Mixed Chorus and, in 2004, he was named to the Edmonton Cultural Hall of Fame and also received the Alberta Choral Federation's Richard S. Eaton Award of Distinction for exemplary service to choral music in the Province of Alberta. In 2005, he was awarded the Alberta Centennial Medal.

As the author of a number of textbooks, Dr. de Frece has presented music education workshops throughout Canada and the United States and in the People's Republic of China, and has established a wide reputation as an adjudicator and guest conductor.

Pamela Giesbrecht – Piano

Actively involved in community leadership, Pamela Giesbrecht (A.R.C.T., A. Mus. First Class Honours Piano Performance), has a passion for bringing people and ideas together.

Over the past twenty years, she has worked with those in Albertan communities to achieve their musical potential. With over twenty years of experience as an educator in the music community, Pamela is sought as an adjudicator for provincial music festivals.

Desiring to share the joy of music with others, she formed Bella Vita Music in 2010. Offering music-based educational workshops and delivering customized musical performances for private and corporate functions, Pamela strives for excellence in musical education and performance.

Actively leading in the music community, presidential leadership roles have included the Leduc and Area Music Teachers Association (LAMTA) 2009-2011, and the Alberta Piano Teachers Association (APTA) 2010-2012. As ongoing learning is an important part of her life, this winter, she will achieve her Bachelor of Human Resources and Labour Relations.
