Message From the President

Dear Guild,
Our Guild elections are coming up this month (don't miss the meetings) and that means I will no longer be President – leaving the office in the capable hands of Gala Damato.

Our Guild Quilt Show was A-MAZING – FANTASTIC – UNBELIEVABLE! And kudos go to Tricia Lent and Janet Dyer for putting it all together. There are many people to thank for their help, including husbands who helped to set up and break down.

Now May will be the last month to buy raffle tickets for the sewing machine. Remember, they are only $3 a piece. We will draw the winning ticket at the Day Meeting on May 11. Also, don't forget to get your Guild Cups. At $16 each they are calling out your names!

Thank you for helping me in this year of being President. Finally, I think I can get some quilts and pillowcases finished and clean out my UFO drawers.

Yours Respectfully,
Candice Byrd

Honor Quilt Update

On Wednesday, April 18, Janette Doucette, a PPQG member, and I went to Portsmouth, Virginia to the Navy and Marine Fisher House. The Fisher House is a seven room facility that houses members of the military and their families while they are receiving medical treatment at Portsmouth Naval Hospital. We were warmly greeted by Patricia Jones with a hug. We brought ten honor quilts for the staff to distribute to military members who stay at the Fisher house while undergoing treatment. The director had asked for two smaller quilts which we provided to put in their living room area for patients that get cold while visiting with family members. Ms. Jones gave us a tour of the house and told us the members who receive the quilts are grateful and appreciative.

Patricia Jones from Fisher House, Portsmouth VA receives honor quilts to distribute to service men and women.

Thanks to Lisa Hartman and the Quilt Show Presentation Committee for raising $235 for our Honor Quilt program at the Quilt Show. Their Committee collected gently used items and made four raffle baskets. They sold the raffle tickets and donated the proceeds and a queen size batting to Honor Quilts at the April meetings.

Day Chapter Program for May

Our Day Program for May is about threads and how we use them. The lecturer will be Diane Henry, driving here from the Northern Virginia area. Diane has been working with fabric since her grandmother taught her how to hand piece her first nine-patch block at age four. A blue-ribbon winning hand quilter, she discovered machine quilting in the late 1990s and has never looked back. Diane loves sharing her passion for machine quilting with others around the world, conducting lectures, demonstrations and workshops. She is a field educator for Handi Quilter, a business you'll see frequently at quilt shows that sells quilting machines that use portable, adjustable frames. Diane has studied and understands thread use, and is happy to present what she knows to the guild. Come to the Day meeting ready to learn something new!

May Night Chapter Program

The May Night Chapter program is "What's Your Angle?" presented by Lee Taylor. Lee is a PPQG member and the owner of Sewlovelee in White Stone, Virginia. Update for Service Projects

Thank you to those that brought in quilts, fabric hearts and pillowcases to the April meetings. Eleven baby quilts were brought to the Night Chapter meeting and Lois Bates won the bundle of Aurifil thread. Four lap quilts, ten baby quilts and fifty fabric hearts were delivered to Riverside Hospital on April 19. CHKD received fourteen baby quilts and sixty five fabric hearts in April. Drum roll please! One hundred forty-five pillowcases were delivered to the Blue Crab Quilt Co., in Richmond on April 20. These are in addition to the 47 Denise Vassar took there in February. Sherry Behun and Kim Beatley have agreed to co-chair the Service Project Committee starting in June. You can continue to support small service projects in the following ways:

- Small baby quilts for families with need at Riverside Hospital and comfort quilts for babies in CHKD NICU palliative care. A good size for these quilts is approximately 30" x 36" or 26-inch square for the bereavement quilts. Fabric hearts for Mothers with babies in NICU at Riverside and CHKD.
- Full size pillowcases made with bright, happy novelty fabric are for children with cancer at MCV in Richmond. They should be made with 100% cotton fabric. Don't use fabric with glitter or flannel. Finished pillowcases will be taken to the Blue Crab Quilt Co., in Richmond for distribution at MCV Hospital.

Members of the Service Project Committee are Joan Cochran, Maggie Haley, Pat Winters, Ellen Woods, Brenda Smith, Sherry Behun and Kim Beatley.

Everything Is Coming Up Quilts PPQG 2018 Quilt Show

Wow! Now I know what those fashion designers feel like when they launch a new clothing line. Janet and I had a great team for the committees and sub-committees. In addition, we had about 50 volunteers the weekend of the show. We thank them for all their hard work for putting on a great show.

Of course, you can't have a quilt show without quilts, so thank you to everyone who entered a quilt in the show. For the whole two days I heard praises about the talent in our guild and how proud we should be.

We had great support from seven vendors. The weather wasn't always cooperative the weekend of the show but not only did the vendors do well, but also our guild sales booth.

The last group we must thank are the husbands that helped with set-up and take down. Without their assistance we would never have been able to meet the timelines of the weekend. Now everyone please take a bow!

Thank You,
Janet Dyer and Tricia Lent

Volunteers Needed ASAP!!

A Parliamentarian is needed for both the Day and Night Chapters. One role of the Parliamentarian is to oversee the election of the Executive Board which we will do at the May chapter meetings. The role of the parliamentarian is to make sure we follow the proper procedures during the business part of our meetings each month. We follow Robert's Rules of Order so if you are familiar with those rules of order, this is the volunteer opportunity for you.

Please contact Gala Damato gala.damato@gmail.com or 757-872-6823, if you are interested in one or both of the Parliamentarian positions.

Sewing Bee

The "Sew What Bee" meets the third Wednesday afternoon of each month from 1:30 to 4 p.m. They meet at St. Luke's United Methodist Church 300 Ella Taylor Road in Yorktown. Their next meeting is May 16. If you are looking for an afternoon bee, check them out. Contact JoAnn Garner at joannsquiltroom@gmail.com or call her 804-413-1118 for more information.

Program Lecture Compensation for Members

In an effort to fairly and consistently compensate PPQG members for their work to prepare and give a lecture for a Day/Night chapter program, we had a discussion through a working committee and then brought it for vote to the Executive Board. It was voted and passed to compensate a PPQG member a flat fee of $100 to provide a chapter program or lecture. If more than one member provides the program, the flat fee of $100 will be divided equally amongst them. For example, if two members work together to provide a lecture, each would receive $50 compensation. If a member wishes to decline the compensation, s/he may donate it back to programs or to PPQG Honor Quilts. This program compensation guideline will take effect starting in the June 2018.

A Special Thank You

To the wonderful members of PPQG. I want to thank you from the depth of my heart for throwing me a baby shower. I am so touched by your thoughtfulness and love as I prepare for my next journey of motherhood. I enjoyed opening my gifts and will treasure them all, especially those that were handmade. Only a few more weeks until Evelyn makes her debut and my husband and I are thrilled. Thank you again! It means a lot!
