STAY WITH US

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

I am writing this column today as we remember a very somber day, September 11, 2001. Everyone who lived that day remembers where we were and how it affected us. I lost a good friend that day, a firefighter who was off duty but felt the duty as ironic as it sounds to go into his fire station to go look and save those who were stranded and in danger. Very similar to how the Gospel starts: the good shepherd looking for the lost sheep. And this is the role of the Church to go look for those who are suffering or lost. We are not a Church that does not get dirty. Pope Francis repeats that we are a Church that has no problem like the Good Shepherd to get dirty. He has called priests to have the smell of the sheep, not to be so inaccessible that no one can talk to him. But it is not only the priests or the nuns, it is an invitation for each one of us who are baptized to bring Christ to the other. This Gospel challenges us, it is a push to get out of our comfort zone and to bring Christ with us.

We are starting today our CCD program, another way to bring Christ. I invite you to be involved in the formation of faith of your children but not only the parents, it takes a village, a whole parish, to transmit faith to the next generation. So, please be involved and help as much as you can. I need to thank all the volunteers in our CCD and RCIA programs that give so generously to our parish of the time, talent and even treasure – God will repay you a hundred-fold. We are about to finish our parking lot... let us take care of it.

Therefore, as we start this new time in the parish, I invite you to also take part in our Bible Study, Prayer Group, Bonds of Marian Love, Talleres de Oración y Vida, Youth Ministry, CCD and so many other spiritualities that will start coming to make our parish a vibrant one.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Hoy escribo esta columna cuando recordamos un día muy sombrío, el 11 de septiembre de 2001. Todos los que vivieron ese día recuerdan dónde estábamos y cómo nos afectó. Ese día perdí a un buen amigo, un bombero que estaba fuera de servicio, pero sentía el deber de ir a su estación de bomberos para ir a buscar y salvar a los que estaban varados y en peligro tan irónico como suena. Muy similar a cómo comienza el Evangelio: el buen pastor buscando la oveja perdida. Y este es el papel de la Iglesia para buscar a los que sufren o se pierden. No somos una Iglesia que no se ensucia. El Papa Francisco repite que somos una Iglesia que no tiene problemas como el Buen Pastor para ensuciarse. Él ha llamado a los sacerdotes para que huelan a ovejas, para que no sean tan inaccesibles que nadie pueda hablar con él. Pero no son solo los sacerdotes o las monjas, es una invitación para cada uno de nosotros que somos bautizados para llevar a Cristo al otro. Este Evangelio nos desafía, es un impulso para salir de nuestra zona de confort y traer a Cristo con nosotros.

Hoy comenzamos nuestro programa CCD, otra forma de traer a Cristo. Los invito a involucrarse en la formación de la fe de sus hijos, pero no solo en los padres, se necesita una aldea, una parroquia entera para transmitir la fe a la próxima generación. Por lo tanto, participe y ayude tanto como pueda. Necesito agradecer a todos los voluntarios en nuestros programas de CCD y RICA que dan tan generosamente a nuestra parroquia el tiempo, el talento e incluso el tesoro. Dios te lo pagará cien veces. Estamos a punto de terminar nuestro estacionamiento ... cuidémoslo.

Por lo tanto, al comenzar este nuevo tiempo en la parroquia, los invito a que también participen en nuestro Estudio Bíblico, Grupo de Oración, Bonos de Amor Mariano, Talleres de Oración y Vida, Pastoral Juvenil, CCD y muchas otras espiritualidades que comenzarán. viniendo para hacer que nuestra parroquia sea vibrante.

San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

Estou escrevendo esta coluna hoje, pois nos lembramos de um dia muito sombrio, em 11 de setembro de 2001. Todo mundo que viveu naquele dia lembra onde estávamos e como isso nos afetou. Perdi um bom amigo naquele dia, um bombeiro que estava de folga, mas sentia o dever tão irônico quanto parece entrar no quartel dos bombeiros para procurar e salvar aqueles que estavam presos e em perigo. Muito parecido com o início do Evangelho: o bom pastor procurando a ovelha perdida. E este é o papel da Igreja em procurar aqueles que estão sofrendo ou perdidos. Não somos uma igreja que não se suja. O Papa Francisco repete que somos uma Igreja que não tem nenhum problema como o Bom Pastor para se sujar. Ele chamou os sacerdotes a sentirem o cheiro das ovelhas, para não serem tão inacessíveis que ninguém possa falar com ele. Mas não são apenas os padres ou as freiras, é um convite a cada um de nós que é batizado para trazer Cristo para o outro. Este evangelho nos desafia, é um esforço para sair da nossa zona de conforto e trazer Cristo conosco.

Estamos começando hoje o nosso programa CCD, outra maneira de trazer Cristo. Convido você a se envolver na formação da fé de seus filhos, mas não apenas dos pais, é preciso uma vila, uma paróquia inteira, para transmitir a fé à próxima geração. Então, por favor, participe e ajude o máximo que puder. Preciso agradecer a todos os voluntários em nossos programas de CCD e RICA que dão tão generosamente à nossa paróquia o tempo, o talento e até o tesouro - Deus o recompensará cem vezes. Estamos prestes a terminar nosso estacionamento ... vamos cuidar disso.

Portanto, ao iniciarmos este novo tempo na paróquia, convido você a participar de nosso Estudo Bíblico, Grupo de Oração, Laços de Amor Mariano, Talleres de Oración y Vida, Pastoral Juvenil, CCD e tantas outras espiritualidades que começarão. vindo para tornar a nossa paróquia vibrante.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
