

Ms. Antonya Pierre
LL.B(Hons) (UWI), LEC(HWLS)
Associate Attorney-at-law
portofspainlawyers@gmail.com

Ms. Antonya Pierre is our newest and youngest associate at Hove & Associates, Attorneys-at-Law. she joined our firm in July of 2018 to gain practical experience before being called to the bar in November 2018 and admitted to practice in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. She read law for five (5) years prior to her call.

She attended Bishops Anstey High School in Port of Spain and Immediately upon completing secondary school, Ms. Pierre pursued her Bachelors of Laws at The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine graduating with honors after which she entered Hugh Wooding Law School.

Upon her graduation from The Hugh Wooding Law School with her Legal Education Certificate, she was awarded the Alfred and Sybil Rajkumar Memorial Prize for the Best Performance in Civil Procedure and Practice I and Civil Procedure and Practice II by a Trinidad and Tobago Student. She is also the holder of a Certificate of Participation in Mediation Advocacy Training from the Hugh Wooding Law School.

Ms. Pierre assists the Senior Partner in Civil Litigation matters and acts as an instructing attorney. She specializes in Property disputes, Employment Law and Probate as well as she has a keen interest in Criminal Law.

In her spare time, Ms. Pierre tutors children from the St. James Community on evenings at her home in CXC Mathematics and English as well as tutors on the weekend to secondary school students and remedial adults. She has been a tutor for the past seven years having begun when she was only in Form Six.

Ms. Pierre is a makeup enthusiast; an art lover and painter, a devoted Catholic and she adores her nieces and nephews.

Membership:

The Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago

The Old Hilarian's Association

The Hove Foundation Scholarship Committee