When to Call

A mental health crisis can be a frightening time for a person experiencing the crisis, and also for family and friends. Our staff is able to provide information, referrals, and services that can help you or your loved one find support in the midst of a crisis. Call our staff at 540-885-0866 in order to speak with someone about how we can help.

Emergency Services

Welcome to Valley Community Services Board (VCSB). The mission of Emergency Services is to offer 24/7 crisis intervention therapeutic support and assessment to individuals and families who are experiencing a psychiatric, behavioral, or substance abuse crisis in the counties of Augusta and Highland and the cities of Staunton and Waynesboro.

Our Services:

- Screenings for hospitalization, crisis stabilization unit, or detox facility
- Referral to community and/or agency resources
- Outpatient Crisis Stabilization or Crisis Support Services
- Children's Crisis Services
- 24/7 telephone support for emergencies
- Therapeutic Docket services
- Oversight of Mandatory Outpatient Therapy
- Jail-based services

Referral Process

Consumers are referred to Emergency Services by a variety of sources, including self-referral, family and friends, hospitals, primary care doctors, schools, and other mental health providers. No referral is needed and a person does not have to be an established Valley CSB client in order to receive emergency services. We provide services by scheduled appointments and by walk-in.
