SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

Don't delay in joining us as a sponsor. We would like to promote your business or organization to support you. We will do this through various print and digital marketing engines. The most appropriate sponsors for this event are companies or organizations that focus on health and wellness, as well as, small business development and financial resources. This is our first Strive 4 More Empowerment Conference, so we would like to start off with a bang! We are different because we actually speak to who people already are and do not try to change them into someone or something they are not. We help them rediscover the strength and goodness that is within them to lead a life of more abundance and clarity. Your sponsorship will allow us to offer an experience that our participants will never forget! So let's form a relationship that benefits the both of us and helps others. Thank you for your support!

Founder and Lead Consultant

Who is Strive Leadership Consulting, LLC (SLC)?

SLC is a leadership and personal development coaching company that centers on what people do right. I help persons discover their innate strengths, learn more about them, and the explore the best strategies to use to apply them to multiple areas of their life. I accomplish this task through workshops and one-on-one coaching. It works because it deals with who you already are and does not try to turn you into someone or something you are not.

What is this event?

The Strive 4 More Empowerment Conference is an event designed to empower a person who has decided to rediscover the power they possess within them. They are looking to make a change from their current reality to their preferred reality. During this three hour event, participants will learn how to use their top 5 natural strengths to learn how to take control of their self-confidence, relationships, finances, and career. We will also have participants attending on Facebook Live.

Where will the event take place?

Astor Business Centers Conference Room located at 8145 HWY 6 #138 Houston , TX 77083

Who can I contact if I have questions?
