PARENTING PLAN B
Father as Primary Physical Custodian

Instructions: This Parenting Plan is approved for use in the Augusta Judicial Circuit. Each paragraph with options and/or blanks must be completed. Do not delete paragraphs which do not apply. If there are substantive changes to the basic form, bold and underline the changes, and check here _____.

Date of this plan: _____

() The parties agree to the terms of this plan and affirm the accuracy of the information provided, as shown by their signatures at the end of this plan.

() This plan has been prepared by the judge.

This plan () is a new plan.

() modifies an existing Order: Court: _____
Case No.: _____ Date: _____

This plan applies to the following minor child(ren) of the parties:

Child's Name	Date of Birth

I. Custody and Decision Making

A. The mother and father shall have joint legal custody of the child(ren) named above.

B. The father shall be the primary physical custodian of the child(ren) named above.

C. Day-To-Day Decisions

A parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care of the child(ren) while the child(ren) is/are residing with that parent, including any emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child(ren).

D. Major Decisions

The parties shall jointly make all major decisions relating to each child, including, but not limited to decisions regarding education, non-emergency health care, religious upbringing and extracurricular activities.

E. Disagreements

If the parties are unable to agree after serious and meaningful consideration of each other's views, the father shall have final decision making authority.

II. Parenting Time/Visitation Schedules

The following should not be construed as precluding other visitation or alternative arrangements. The best visitation plan is one the parties have agreed to, rather than one imposed by the court.

A. Parenting Time/Visitation

During the term of this parenting plan the mother shall have at a minimum the following rights of parenting time/visitation: One weekend each month to be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree, visitation shall be the weekend of the first Friday of each month. There is no weekday visitation.

For purposes of this parenting plan, a weekend will start at 6:00 P.M. on Friday and end at 6:00 P.M. on Sunday.

This parenting schedule begins on the date of this plan.

B. Major Holidays and Vacation Periods

Thanksgiving

In even-numbered years, the mother shall have the child(ren) from 6:00 p.m. on the day the child(ren) is/are released from school preceding Thanksgiving Day until the Sunday following Thanksgiving Day at 6:00 p.m. In odd-numbered years, the father shall have the child(ren) for the entire Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Winter Vacation

The () mother (X) father shall have the child(ren) for the first period from the day and time school is dismissed until December 26th at 10:00 A.M. in () odd numbered years (X) even numbered years () every year. The other parent will have the child(ren) for the second period from the day and time indicated above until 6:00 p.m. on the evening before school resumes. Unless otherwise indicated, the parties shall alternate the first and second periods each year.

Summer Vacation

Summer vacation is the period of time in which the child(ren) is/are not in school during the summer.

The mother shall have summer visitation with the child(ren) for: [One of the following summer visitation options must be initialed.]

_____ A period beginning ten days after the child(ren) is/are dismissed from school and ending ten days before school resumes in the fall. The father shall have the option of traveling to the mother's hometown and visiting with the child(ren) twice during the summer for two days per visit, so long as such visits do not conflict with vacations, camps or other activities planned by the mother.

_____ Four consecutive weeks, beginning five days after the child(ren) is/are dismissed from school. The father shall have the option of traveling to the mother's hometown and visiting with the child(ren) once during the summer for two days, so long as such visit does not conflict with vacations, camps or other activities planned by the mother.

_____ Other: _____

Spring Vacation for Schools-aged Children

Spring vacation means spring break as defined by the child(ren)'s school calendar. In odd-numbered years, the mother shall have the child(ren) from 6:00 p.m. on the day school is dismissed for spring break until 6:00 p.m. on the day before school resumes. In even-numbered years, the father shall have the child(ren) for the entire spring break.

Fall Vacation

Not applicable, the day-to-day schedule applies.

C. Other Holiday Schedule

Not applicable, the day-to-day schedule applies, with the exception of Mother's Day and Father's day.

Mother's Day: If Mother's Day does not fall on the weekend of the mother's regularly scheduled monthly visitation, the mother may elect to substitute visitation on Mother's Day weekend with her regularly scheduled weekend visitation.

Father's Day: To the extent practicable, the parties shall arrange summer visitation schedules so that the child(ren) is/are with the father the entire weekend of Father's Day each year.

D. Other extended periods of time during school

Not applicable, the day-to-day schedule applies.

E. Start and end dates for holiday visitation

For the purposes of this parenting plan: If the mother exercises visitation on a weekend in which a holiday falls on the Friday or Monday immediately preceding or following the weekend, her visitation shall include that Friday or Monday holiday.

F. Coordination of Parenting Schedules

The holiday parenting/visitation schedule takes priority over the regular parenting time/visitation schedule.

When the child(ren) is/are with a parent for an extended parenting time/visitation period (such as summer), the other parent shall be entitled to visit with the child(ren) during the extended period, as follows: As set forth in Summer Vacation above.

G. Transportation Arrangements

For visitation, the place of meeting for the exchange of the child(ren) shall be halfway between the home of the mother and father, or the parties shall alternate pickup and delivery of the child(ren) at their respective homes, unless the alternate provision below is initialed and a different meeting place is indicated.

_____ Alternate meeting place: _____

Transportation costs:

Unless otherwise ordered or agreed, all travel expenses of the child(ren), including air travel expenses, shall be shared between the parties in accordance with the percentages set forth on Line 3 of the Child Support Worksheet. If travel is by air, non-stop travel between the departure city and the arrival city must be utilized, if reasonably available. Air travel shall be purchased at the lowest available fare for a reasonable itinerary. [Transportation costs may be allocated differently, if the alternate provision below is initialed and completed.]

_____ Alternate Provision: The mother shall pay _____ % and the father shall pay _____ % of all travel expenses of the child(ren), including air travel expenses. If travel is by air, non-stop travel between the departure city and the arrival city must be utilized, if reasonably available. Air travel shall be purchased at the lowest available fare for a reasonable itinerary.

H. Contacting the child

When the child(ren) is/are in the physical custody of one parent, the other parent will have the right to contact the child(ren) as follows:

Telephone: The parent without the child(ren) may call the child(ren) two times per week or one time during weekend visitation between 5:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. The calls shall be private and shall not exceed 30 minutes per call. The parties may agree to more frequent telephone visitation. If a parent places a call and the child(ren) is/are not present, the other parent shall ensure that the child(ren) place(s) a return call to the parent who originated the call.

I. Communication Provisions

A parent shall always have the current address, telephone number and cell phone number of the other parent. A parent shall promptly notify the other parent of a change of address, phone number or cell phone number. A parent changing residence must give at least 30 days notice of the change and provide the full address of the new residence.

If a parent is traveling with the child(ren) on a trip which includes an overnight stay, he/she shall provide the other parent with reasonable information concerning the child(ren)'s whereabouts and how to contact the other parent in the event of an emergency. If travel is by air, he/she shall provide the other parent with the child(ren)'s flight information.

III. Access Rights to Records and Information

Each parent shall have direct access to the child(ren)'s school, medical, dental and other records of every type, wherever they may be located, and shall have the right to discuss the child(ren) with doctors, teachers, administrators, coaches, youth leaders, and any and all other persons who are involved in any aspect of the child(ren)'s life/lives. Each parent shall have access to the child(ren)'s grades from school, as well as a schedule of the child(ren)'s curricular and extracurricular events, so that each parent shall be permitted and enabled to fully participate in all aspects of the life/lives of the child(ren). Each parent shall provide the other parent with all such schedules which are not reasonably available to the other parent. Each parent will inform the other of events and activities involving the child(ren) so that each parent will have an opportunity to attend if he/she so desires. Designation as a non-custodial parent does not affect a parent's right to equal access to records and information.

IV. Modification of Plan or Disagreements

Parties may, by mutual agreement, vary the parenting time/visitation; however, such agreement shall not be a binding court order or be construed as modifying a previous order. Custody shall only be modified by court order. If the parents disagree about this parenting plan or wish to modify it, they must make a good faith effort to resolve the issue between themselves.

V. Conduct of Parties

The parties shall always promote the welfare and best interest of the child(ren), and shall confer with each other on all important matters relating to the child(ren). The parties shall not do anything which will or may tend to estrange the child(ren) from the other party. Neither parent shall, directly or indirectly, encourage the child(ren) not to visit with the other parent, or otherwise interfere with the other party's rights of custody or visitation. The parties shall use their best efforts to amicably resolve disputes which may arise.

In the event that a child develops a serious illness or injury while visiting with one parent, that parent shall promptly inform the other parent of the child's condition. Emergency surgery necessary for the preservation of life or to prevent a further serious injury or condition may be performed without the other parent's consent; provided, however, that if time permits, the other parent shall be consulted and, in any event, he/she shall be informed as soon as possible. Non-emergency surgery shall be performed on a child only after the parties have conferred with each other.

Neither party shall consume illegal drugs or excessive amounts of alcohol when the child(ren) is/are in his or her custody. Neither party shall operate a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or any other substance which impairs the ability to drive when the child(ren) is/are in his or her custody.

VI. Additional Provisions [If these Additional Provisions conflict with other provisions of this Parenting Plan, the Additional Provisions shall control.]

Initial one, if applicable:

_____ If the mother chooses to exercise her visitation privileges, she shall provide the father with no less than forty-eight (48) hours' advance notice of her intent. If the mother is more than one hour late picking the child(ren) up at the designated time and has not contacted the father regarding emergency circumstances causing the delay, the father may then make alternative plans for the child(ren) for that visitation period.

_____ If the mother chooses not to exercise her visitation privileges, she shall provide the father with no less than forty-eight (48) hours' advance notice of her intent. If the mother is more than one hour late picking the child(ren) up at the designated time and has not contacted the father regarding emergency circumstances causing the delay, the father may then make alternative plans for the child(ren) for that visitation period.

[Additional pages may be attached.]

VII. Incorporation into Judgment

It is contemplated that this Parenting Plan will be incorporated into a temporary or final judgment in this case. If there is any conflict between any such judgment and this Parenting Plan or any written agreement between the parties, the judgment shall control. If there is any conflict between this Parenting Plan and any written agreement between the parties, this Parenting Plan shall control.

VIII. Parents' Consent
