GDPR POLICY

Reel People Association of Anglers with Disabilities (RPAAD) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, RPAAD is the Data Controller under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018 and is responsible for storing and processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What personal data we hold on you

You may give us information about you by filling in membership forms or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register/enrol with RPAAD.

The information you give us may include your name, postal address, e-mail address, phone number, description of disability, medication, emergency contact name and telephone number, wheelchair user, short walk draw and gender.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your personal data is to be able to administer your membership, including communicating with you, particularly for:

processing of membership forms, match entries and payments, including annual renewals;

sharing data with the Officers and the Committee to provide information about membership renewals, matches or invitations to social events;

club newsletter promoting RPAAD activity; and publishing of competition results and trophy winners on the RPAAD website and in third party media.

Who we share your personal data with RPAAD does not supply any personal data it holds for this purpose to any other third party.

How long we hold your personal data

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Your data is checked and updated as appropriate every year based on information you provide on membership forms or from any other means of correspondence. Should your membership lapse, any personal data we hold on you will be deleted after 3 years of inactivity.

Your data is not processed for any further purposes other than those detailed in this policy.

REEL PEOPLE ASSOCIATION OF ANGLERS WITH DISABILITIES GDPR (2018) POLICY STATEMENT

Your rights regarding your personal data

You are not obliged to share your personal data with the RPAAD. If you choose not to share your personal data with us, we will not be able to accept your membership and you will be advised of this accordingly.

You may also have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office about the processing of your personal data.

If you want to determine what personal data we hold about you, please contact the Secretary / Treasurer. Mrs G Bunting. :- email reelpeopleaad@outlook.com
