

March 2015

Induction review: regarding separated parents.

The induction place will now take place away from the children and other adults and children to allow for more privacy to discuss sensitive family situations and make clear arrangements for sharing information.

Evaluation: This system is much more private and also helps parents understand the routines and procedures of the setting as they have a quiet atmosphere to listen and discuss issues and share information.

Policy reviews:

Nappy changing – no changes required

Outings and Visits – no changes required

Whistle Blowing – no changes required

Training: Daniela, Advanced Inter Agency Child Protection Update
