

The Anti-New York Times

Rebuttals to the Lies, Omissions, Half-Truths & Globalist Bias of “the Paper of Record”

QUARTER 1, 2017

JAN - FEB - MAR

By M. S. KING

© 2017

"Nothing can now be believed which is seen in a newspaper. Truth itself becomes suspicious by being put into that polluted vehicle. The real extent of this state of misinformation is known only to those who are in situations to confront facts within their knowledge with the lies of the day."

- Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826)

Author of the Declaration of Independence
3rd President of the United States

From: Letter to John Norvell, 1807

About the Author

M. S. King is a private investigative journalist and researcher based in the New York City area. A 1987 graduate of Rutgers University, King's subsequent 30 year career in Marketing & Advertising has equipped him with a unique perspective when it comes to understanding how "public opinion" is indeed scientifically manufactured.

Madison Ave marketing acumen combines with 'City Boy' instincts to make M.S. King one of the most tenacious detectors of "things that don't add up" in the world today. Says King of his admitted quirks, irreverent disdain for "conventional wisdom", and uncanny ability to ferret out and weave together important data points that others miss: "Had Sherlock Holmes been an actual historical personage, I would have been his reincarnation."

King is the webmaster of TomatoBubble.com – which also features The Anti-New York Times for select readers. He is also the author of:

- The Bad War: The REAL Story of World War II
- Planet Rothschild: The Forbidden History of the New World Order
- The War Against Putin: What the Government-Media Complex Isn't Telling You About Russia.
- The Real Roosevelts: An Omitted History
- God vs Darwin: The Logical Supremacy of Intelligent Design over Evolution

King's other interests include: the animal kingdom, philosophy, chess, cooking, literature and history (with emphasis on events of the late 19th through the 20th centuries).

CONTENTS

	INTRODUCTION	P. 7
JAN	MONGOLIA SHUNS THE PHONY DALAI LAMA	P. 9
JAN	RICHARD NIXON AND THE “WATERGATE SCANDAL”	P. 14
JAN	THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SPANISH INQUISITION	P. 21
JAN	TOO MANY WHITE MEN PRACTICING LAW	P. 27
JAN	WARMISTS: CLIMATE CHANGE IS KILLING KIDS	P. 31
JAN	TWO-FACED RAT PAUL KRUGMAN AT HIS WORST	P. 39
JAN	BUBBLE BOY MARCO RUBIO vs. TILLERSON	P. 43
JAN	TRUMP MAKES A FOOLISH CONCESSION	P. 48
JAN	U.S. TROOPS ARIVE IN POLAND	P. 52
JAN	MARXIST LOSER KING DAY	P. 58
JAN	U.S. TROOPS ARRIVE IN NORWAY	P. 62
JAN	BITCH NIKKI HALEY SPEWS VENOM AT RUSSIA	P. 66
JAN	SLIMES WHINES OVER USE OF “AMERICA FIRST”	P. 71
JAN	KRUGMAN GOES FULL RETARD	P. 77
JAN	VOTER FRAUD IS A FACT!	P. 82
JAN	GOOFY “SCIENTISTS” AND DOOMSDAY CLOCK	P. 88
JAN	TRUMP’S “TRAVEL BAN”	P. 93
FEB	TRUMP TURNING NEO-CON?	P. 99
FEB	JARED & IVANKA: NEW YORK CITY LIBTARDS	P. 106
FEB	IRAN SEES “AMERICA’S TRUE FACE”	P. 113
FEB	ONE CHINA – TWO CHINAS	P. 117
FEB	THE NORTH KOREAN BOGEYMAN	P. 122
FEB	CLIMATE CHANGE HOAX	P. 128
FEB	INJECTING HOLOHOAX INTO VALENTINE’S DAY	P. 135
FEB	JEWISH REPORTER PLAYS PERSECUTION CARD	P. 141
FEB	REVISITING THE OKLAHOMA BOMBING SCAM	P. 145
FEB	EURO-COMMIES “AFRAID” OF RUSSIA	P. 150
FEB	KILLING RUSSIANS!	P. 155
FEB	RUSSIA CALLS OF “FAKE NEWS”	P. 161
FEB	TRUMP WANTS MORE MONEY FOR MILITARY	P. 165
FEB	BIG COAL COMPROMISES WITH WARMIST DEMONS	P. 169
MAR	MORE FAKE ATTACKS ON JEWISH SITES	P. 175
MAR	DEMONRATS TARGET JEFF SESSIONS	P. 178

MAR	U.S. EXPANDS PRESENCE IN SYRIA	P. 182
MAR	AMZON BANS “THE BAD WAR!”	P. 187
MAR	THE NORTH KOREAN BOGEYMAN	P. 191
MAR	GUGGENHEIM’S GARBAGE	P. 195
MAR	TOMATOBUBBLE’S HEALTH-CARE PLAN	P. 199
MAR	PATHETIC GERMANS GIVE UP “STOLEN ART”	P. 204
MAR	JEWS PERSECUTE 98-YEAR OLD SS HERO	P. 209
MAR	1917: A GOOD YEAR FOR THE JEWS	P. 213
MAR	TRUMP STIRS UP TROUBLE IN ASIA	P, 221
MAR	GOOD NEWS! DAVID ROCKEFELLER IS DEAD	P. 227
MAR	THE ANNE FRANK SCAM	P. 232
MAR	JEW BUSTED FOR THREATS TO JEWISH CENTERS	P. 237
MAR	THE TRUTH ABOUT “INCOME INEQUALITY”	P. 242
MAR	CIA-NGO FAKE PROTESTS IN RUSSIA	P. 247
MAR	THE CIRCLE-JERK OF GOVERNMENT GRANTS	P. 251
MAR	TRUMP MURDERS CIVILIANS IN IRAQ	P. 255
MAR	TRUMP GOES FILL BLOWN NEO-CON	P. 259

INTRODUCTION

Since its founding in 1851 by Republican Henry Jarvis Raymond, The NY Times has been a big player in shaping public opinion. But it was not until 1896 that the Times took a turn to the internationalist Left when it was purchased by a German-Jew named Adolph Ochs. In 1897, Ochs himself would coin the paper's now famous self-serving slogan, printed on its masthead every day ever since: "All the News That's Fit to Print".

Adolph Ochs

Ochs' daughter married Arthur Hays Sulzberger, who became publisher when Adolph died. Ochs' great grandson Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, Jr. is the publisher of the NY Times today. So, for 1.2 centuries, America's most influential propaganda sheet has been in the hands of the same Zionist-Marxist family. Count on The Times to promote big government, Globalism, phony environmentalism, Israel, the Fed, and endless wars.

Just how powerful is what your fighting author likes to refer to "Sulzberger's Slimes"? The erudite writer Gore Vidal may have been a morally degenerate sodomite who was wrong about many things, but his reference to the Slimes as "the Typhoid Mary of American journalism" was as spot-on as it was witty. One need only glance at the morning headlines of "the paper of record", and then take note of how the superficial infomercials known as "the Nightly News" will so often pick up on whatever front page fairy-tale that the Manhattan Mendacity Machine spun that very same morning.

Like some journalistic plague; the virus of lies, half-truths and cherry-picked data then infects the unguarded minds of the whole country, and indeed, the world. Such is the indisputable power and undeserved "prestige" of this dreadful "Orwellian" institution.

The Anti-New York Times was originally established as, and still is, a pay-to-view daily sub-page of TomatoBubble.com. Beginning in 2015, the collected rebuttals to the Slimes' Spin were published in Quarterly book format – which you now hold in your hands. To best understand the bare-knuckled and often humorous rebuttals, it is recommended that readers also purchase and study, Planet Rothschild: The Forbidden History of the New World Order. That will give you a firm grounding in REAL history while The Anti-New York Times informs you of the contemporary world which had grown out of that tragic history.

When gathered in one place, the rebuttals expose The Slimes as a deceitful naked Emperor. If the Slimes is the disease of deception, let The Anti-New York Times be your antidote of truth.

The New York Times

REBUTTED BY

The Anti-New York Times

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Mongolia, With Deep Ties to Dalai Lama, Turns From Him Toward China

By EDWARD WONG

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The lowest specimens of humanity on earth are those who do evil while professing to be holy and spiritual. A regular, run-of-the-mill evil-doer is bad enough; but it takes a special kind of psychopath to keep a straight face while acting all pious and godly. Even the likes of slimy slicksters such as an Obongo or a Bill Clinton might struggle to pull off such an act without bursting out into laughter. And when it comes to phony piety, no one puts on the front better than that Tibetan trickster, the Dalai Lama. (bow your head in reverence as you speak his name.)

1- Sex-crazed atheist Marxist Loser King used Christianity to shepherd Blacks into the Democrat Party. 2- Poop Frankie the Fake was installed to advocate for homosexuality, open borders, wealth redistribution and the horrible hoax of "Global Warming" TM 3- The bowing bozo of Tibet uses Buddhism as a mask for attacking nationalist China at the behest of the Globalist CIA.

The fact that Mongolia will no longer welcome this clown comes as welcome news. Of course, Sulzberger's Slimes is spinning this as being due to "withering pressure" brought upon Mongolia by its Chinese neighbor to the south -- ignoring the fact the "the cat is out of the bag" on the Dalai Lama. Indeed, even the Los Angeles Slimes once confirmed what we "conspiracy theorists" TM have known for a long time -- namely, that this putrid poser is a self-aggrandizing CIA asset. His mission is to undermine China by advocating for "Tibetan independence" that many, or even most Tibetans do not even support because it means a return to feudal rule by his bizarre sect of backwards Buddhist monks.

In 1959, when China invaded Tibet and an uprising against the Chinese failed miserably, the boy Dalai Lama, with the help of the CIA, fled Tibet. The mad monks then made common cause with the CIA because they wanted their feudal power over their subjects back.

There are many Buddhists worldwide who reject and condemn the CIA's puffed-up phony.

From the Los Angeles Slimes, September 15, 1998:

"For much of the 1960s, the CIA provided the Tibetan exile movement with $1.7 million a year for operations against China, including an annual subsidy of $180,000 for the Dalai Lama, according to newly released U.S. intelligence documents.

The money for the Tibetans and the Dalai Lama was part of the CIA's worldwide effort during the height of the Cold War to undermine Communist governments, particularly in the Soviet Union and China. In fact, the U.S. government committee that approved the Tibetan operations also authorized the disastrous Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba.

The documents, published last month by the State Department, illustrate the historical background of the situation in Tibet today, in which China continues to accuse the Dalai Lama of being an agent of foreign forces seeking to separate Tibet from China.

The CIA's program encompassed support of Tibetan guerrillas in Nepal, a covert military training site in Colorado, "Tibet Houses" established to promote Tibetan causes in New York and Geneva, education for Tibetan operatives at Cornell University and supplies for reconnaissance." teams.

By the way, $180,000 in 1960's money translates into about $1,300,000 per year to the Dalai Lama. Not a bad haul for the meat-eating Buddhist "holy man." Additional payments went towards the funding of Tibetan guerrilla fighters, which included his brothers. So much for the "non violence" and "peaceful resistance" act that devious Dalai puts on for his fawning western libtards. Meanwhile, "His Holiness" (barf) remains silent as some of his more demented cultist monks continue commit suicide by setting themselves on fire to protest China -- an act which strongly suggests that the Chinese aren't joking when they say that Tibetan monks are a weird breed of Buddhists unto themselves.

The Dalai Lama's undeserved status as a holy "rock star" has allowed his handlers to expand his mission to include the promotion of the "Global Warming" TM / "Climate Change" TM hoax and the bashing of "capitalism" TM. Let's hope more countries follow Mongolia's lead by declaring this clownish cleric "persona non grata."

Why do Globo-Marxists all love the Dalai Lama so much?

In 2015, the Bolshevik Buddha confessed:

“As far as socioeconomic theory, I am Marxist. In capitalist countries, there is an increasing gap between the rich and poor.”

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Mongolia caved in to Chinese pressure urging them to no longer welcome the Dalai Lama.

Boobus Americanus 2: That is disgraceful! The Dalai Lama is a holy man who wouldn't harm a fly!

Sugar: Holy man my assss! The doofy llama'ss deafening ssilence encouragess his crazy followerrss to keep burning themselvess alive on his behalf.

Editor: Tibetans enjoy more freedom and local autonomy under Chinese rule than they ever did under these felonious fanatics.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Nixon Tried to Spoil Johnson's Vietnam Peace Talks in '68, Notes Show

By PETER BAKER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Of the thirteen United States presidents to occupy the White House between 1932 and the present time, ten were arch-criminals and traitors who faithfully served "the powers that be," and only three had some degree of redeeming decency, good intentions and love of country. Though they too had their flaws and deficiencies, Presidents Kennedy (D), Nixon (R) and Reagan (R) cannot be classified as diabolical villains in our view. This is not to say that destructive actions and policies did not occur or continue under their respective reigns, but whatever bad they did was mainly due to factors and factions beyond their control.

Richard Nixon was elected in 1968, and forced to resign in 1974 over the Washington Compost's manufactured and over-rated "scandal" known as "Watergate" -- named for the hotel which mid-level Nixon men, unbeknown to their boss, broke into to obtain information for political purposes. The puffed-up scandal would not only lead to Nixon's demise, but also to a communist Demonrat tsunami in the 1974 Congressional elections (a Dem pick up of 49 House seats and 5 Senate seats). The incoming Reds and libtards, proudly dubbed by the pinko press as "the Watergate Babies," combined with the existing Marxists to dominate Capitol Hill for the next 20 years.

Notorious communist Democrats such as current California Governor Jerry Brown, former CT Senator Chris Dodd, and former Vermont Senator Patrick Leahy were all 1974 "Watergate Babies."

The Left hated Nixon not so much because he was "conservative" (he was actually a centrist) -- but because they never forgave him for being an anti-communist "witch hunter" who served on HUAC (House Un-American Activities Committee) during his days as a late 1940's California congressman. As president, Nixon's all Anglo-German inner circle (with the exception of jew Kissinger) and his suspected "anti-Semitism" TM surely must have concerned Compost owner Katherine Meyer Graham (cough cough), and Slimes owner/publisher Arthur Ochs Sulzberger (cough cough), and CBS owner/president Bill Paley (cough cough), and ABC owner/president Leonard Goldenson (cough cough), and NBC owner/president David Sarnoff (cough cough).

Having established the essential historical context, we may better appreciate the motivation behind the outrageous dishonesty and hypocrisy of this atrocious article alleging that candidate Nixon of 1968 tried to "monkey wrench" outgoing President Lyndon B. Johnson's efforts to bring the Vietnam War to a peaceful resolution -- thus helping Demonrat candidate Hubert Humphrey in that year's QFS (Quadrennial Freak Show).

Image 1 - Congressman Nixon played a supporting role in the effort to expose the secret communist agent, Alger Hiss. Image 2 - Hiss of the State Department was the Secretary General of the 1945 San Francisco conference which established the United Nations. He is shown above shaking hands with Hiroshima Harry Truman. Image 3 - Katherine Meyer Graham, daughter of former Fed Chairman Eugene Meyer, unleashed her attack dogs (Woodward & Bernstein) on Nixon.

The allegation is that Richard M. Nixon told an aide that they should find a way to secretly “monkey wrench” peace talks in Vietnam in the waning days of the 1968 campaign for fear that progress toward ending the war would hurt his chances for the presidency, according to newly discovered notes. From the article:

"The Nixon campaign's clandestine effort to thwart President Lyndon B. Johnson's peace initiative that fall has long been a source of controversy and scholarship. Ample evidence has emerged documenting the involvement of Nixon's campaign. But Mr. Haldeman's notes appear to confirm longstanding suspicions that Nixon himself was directly involved, despite his later denials.

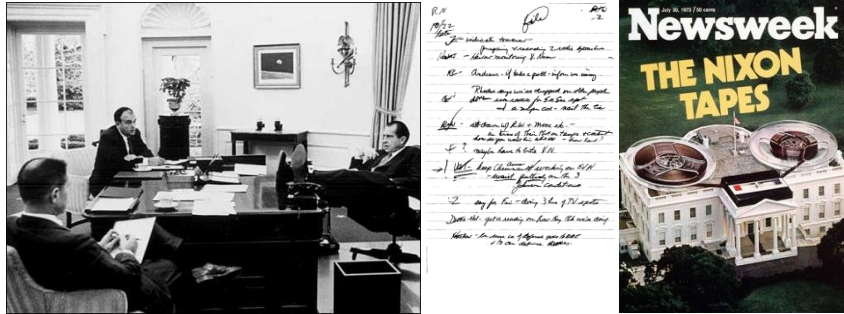

“There's really no doubt this was a step beyond the normal political jockeying, to interfere in an active peace negotiation given the stakes with all the lives,” said John A. Farrell, who discovered the notes at the Richard Nixon Presidential Library for his forthcoming biography, “Richard Nixon: The Life,” to be published in March by Doubleday. “Potentially, this is worse than anything he did in Watergate.”

Later on in the article, we learn that other "scholars" find this new evidence against Nixon, based merely on a few vague notes, to be inconclusive:

"Luke A. Nichter, a scholar at Texas A&M University and one of the foremost students of the Nixon White House secret tape recordings, said he liked more of Mr. Farrell's book than not, but disagreed with the conclusions about Mr.

Haldeman's notes. In his view, they do not prove anything new and are too thin to draw larger conclusions.

"Because sabotaging the '68 peace efforts seems like a Nixon-like thing to do, we are willing to accept a very low bar of evidence on this," Mr. Nichter said."

1- Nixon with his most trusted confidantes, Haldeman and Ehrlichman. The Jewish elite hated all three.

2- The newly discovered Haldeman notes turn out to be inconclusive.

3- Nixon kept tapes of his conversations with Haldeman and Ehrlichman. Here are just a few "politically incorrect" gems:

"The Jews are all over the government ... they need to be brought under control by someone in charge who is not Jewish."

"The Jews are irreligious, atheistic, immoral bunch of bastards. The Jewish cabal is out to get me."

"She (Katherine Graham) is a terrible old bag."

"Washington is full of Jews,... most Jews are disloyal."

"Generally speaking, you can't trust the bastards (jews). They turn on you. Am I wrong or right?"

The last six Roman emperors were fags. You see, homosexuality, immorality in general, these are the enemies of strong societies.

"But it's not just the ratty part of town. The upper class in San Francisco is that way. The Bohemian Grove, which I attend from time to time . . . It is the most faggy goddamned thing you could ever imagine with that San Francisco crowd. I can't shake hands with anybody from San Francisco."

"We're going to (place) more of these little Negro bastards on the welfare rolls at $2,400 a family . . . let people like Pat Moynihan and Leonard Garment and others believe in all that crap. But I don't believe in it. Total emphasis of everybody must be that this is much better than we had last year. . . . work, work, throw 'em off the rolls. That's the key."

* OK, Mr. President, we'll partially forgive you for taking us off of the gold standard and signing the EPA into law.

Today's rebutted article was a classic case of a headline stating something as a fact, while the article itself, which actually presents a strongly opposing view, states no such thing.

But that's not the real outrage hear. What set our blood to boiling is the failure to mention the fact that LBJ, the would-be "peacemaker" of Vietnam, was the dirty rat bastard who plunged America into that quagmire in the first place! President John F Kennedy had actually begun the process of removing American advisers (who had been sent by President Eisenhower) from South Vietnam.

Kennedy's murder in 1963 (by the CIA / Mossad complex) elevated Vice President Johnson. In summer, 1964, LBJ's government orchestrated the fictitious attack on American ships at Tonkin Gulf, and then used the false-false flag "battle" as a pretext for an unjust war which ended up killing more than 50,000 American boys, and God-only-knows how many hundreds of thousands (if not a few million?) of Vietnamese villagers.

Even modern-day Establishment house historian admit that there was no attack at Tonkin Gulf

For this and so many other dirty deeds, LBJ was a scumbag of the lowest rank. Yet this is who the Slimes is trying to pass off as the man who would have been the "peacemaker" of 1968 -- if only the big bad Nixon hadn't "monkey wrenched" the dubious deal. Are you frickin' kidding me?!!! It's akin to crediting an arsonist for showing up at your door with a fire extinguisher, while omitting the oh-so-minor detail that he was the bloody bastard who threw the flaming Molotov cocktail through your living room window in the first place!

The lie of omission is one of the most undetectable, and therefore most dangerous of all lies. Context is everything. Omit the context and you alter the story without actual "lying." This article, by omitting LBJ's deliberate and deceitful initiation of the war, offers us a text-book example of that terrible tactic of omission.

LBJ's joke was on you, America --- but let's all hate on Nixon for some petty "burglary" he had nothing to do with.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that new evidence from private notes indicates that as the GOP candidate in 1968, Richard Nixon tried to throw a monkey wrench in a peace deal that LBJ was working on to end the Vietnam War.

Boobus Americanus 2: Knowing what we know about Nixon; that would not surprise me. How disgraceful! That war should never have been fought. LBJ deserves credit for trying to stop it.

Sugar: Hey Boobuss! Trivia quesstion for ya! What pressident got America into the Vietnam War in the firsst place, and how did he do it?

Editor: Cue up the sound of crickets in 3... 2 1 ...

JANUARY, 2017

Leonard Milberg, who collects Judaica and Irish poetry, viewing a display containing the 16th-century manuscript by Luis de Carvajal the Younger at the New-York Historical Society.

NY Times: A Secret Jew, the New World, a Lost Book: Mystery Solved

By JOSEPH BERGER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Long before the phony "Holocaust" TM of the 20th Century; and long before the phony "pogroms" TM of the 19th Century, there was the real but totally misrepresented and exaggerated "Spanish Inquisition" which commenced in 1478, and remained in effect until 1874. Officially known as the Tribunal of the Holy Office of the Inquisition, the policy was established by "anti-Semitic" TM Catholic Monarchs Ferdinand II of Aragon and Isabella I of Castile.

The Inquisition is generally misunderstood as a case of "intolerant" TM Christians forcing the Jews to convert to Catholicism under threat of torture or death at the hands of the Inquisitor. That's not exactly the case and this article, albeit inadvertently, actually refutes the popular misconception. Let's dive in.

Ferdinand, Isabella and the Catholic Church have been scorned and mocked for initiating the Inquisition. What haven't we been taught about this period in European history?

The article opens:

"It is perhaps the most significant artifact documenting the arrival of Jews in the New World: a small, tattered 16th-century manuscript written in an almost microscopic hand by Luis de Carvajal the Younger, the man whose life and pain it chronicled.

Until 1932, the 180-page booklet by de Carvajal, a secret Jew who was burned at the stake by the Inquisition in Spain's colony of Mexico, resided in that country's National Archives."

A "secret Jew," eh? That sure sounds like a conspiracy theory TM, doesn't it?

You see, boys and girls, once upon a time in Catholic Spain, the chosenites were taking over the joint, particularly in matters pertaining to commerce and money. (There's a shocker!) Compounding the problem was the fact that so many of them, for purposes of career advancement, had pretended to convert to Christianity while secretly remaining true to Judaism. And finally, to compound their dirty deeds even more, they aggressively proselytized Catholics to convert to Judaism!

These generally olive-skinned and black-haired Sephardic "secret Jews" -- referred to as "conversos" or "marranos" -- made common cause with their Moorish Muslim cousins who had also overstayed their welcome in the parts of Spain which they had earlier conquered. Cleansing Spain of the North African Moors was relatively easy, but digging out the insincere secret "marranos" was challenging. In a certain sense, the Inquisition was very similar to latter day mole hunts aimed at cleaning out communists.

Marranos chose to flout the laws and disrespect the hospitality of their Spanish hosts. Many who arrived in the New World continued the charade for generations. Probable marranos (and homosexuals): Puerto Rican Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor (meyer) and Cuban Senator from Florida Marco Rubio (Ruby).

More from the article:

"De Carvajal was a Jew who posed as Catholic in New Spain, now Mexico, during a period when the Inquisition ruthlessly persecuted heretics and false converts..."

"False converts," eh? So, poor Mr. De Carvajal, more than 100 years into the Inquisition regime, still chose to scam and disrespect the Spaniards. Why feel sorry for him? Imagine 1000's of false converts to Judaism trying to weasel their way into privileged status in "the State of Israel." How aggressively would the Mossad smoke them out and even kill them? Hmmm?

Another excerpt:

"De Carvajal, a trader, was arrested around 1590 as a proselytizing Jew."

You see that? Not only was he a phony convert, but he proselytized --- something that modern day Israel will throw you in jail for! Mr. D brought the law down upon himself.

One more:

"He was freed for a time — possibly so that the authorities could track his contacts with other secret Jews."

Translation: They mercifully let him free --- and he went back to playing his games.

The Spanish Inquisition supported royal decrees issued in 1492 and 1502 ordering troublesome Jews (and Moors) to convert or leave Spain. Their country, their rules. Though the Inquisition is almost always portrayed in popular literature and history as an example of Catholic "intolerance" TM and "oppression" TM, more than a few "respectable" modern historians now openly question previous accounts regarding the severity of the Inquisition. (This will probably begin to happen with the Holohoax within the next 50 years.)

Noted British-Burmese historian Henry Kamen boldly declares that the 'myth' of the pervasive, torture-mad inquisition is an invention of 19th century Protestant authors (financed by Jews, perhaps?) with an agenda to discredit the Catholic Church. Over the 350 year period that the Inquisition was in effect throughout the empire, about 150,000 persons (average of 428 per year) were charged with crimes and only about 3,000 (10 per year) were executed. Kamen also reveals that many suspects were just questioned and released unharmed, and torture was used very rarely and only in certain serious cases.

After plowing through reams and reams of original source documents, historian Henry Kamen and others have long since set the record straight about the Spanish Inquisition. Though most modern day academics now know the true version of events, the public at large still misunderstands the history.

"One of the most important living historians of Spain, Kamen has devoted his career, most famously in his revisionist books on Philip II and on the Spanish Inquisition, to taking on the so-called Black Legend, promoted by Spain's opponents. That he has in many ways succeeded, thanks to decades of engaged scholarship, in fundamentally altering historians' understanding of 15th- and 16th-century Spain is testimony to the force of his arguments and the depth and quality of his rigorous, archive-based research."

— The Atlantic Monthly (Boston), 2012

Considering the depth of the treason infestation problem that Spain faced both at home and in its New World colonies, the 300 year mole hunt wasn't anywhere near as harsh as people believe it to be. Nonetheless, the truth about the Inquisition didn't stop the libtarded government of Spain, in 2015, from granting full citizenship rights (replete with all the "free" stuff that the Marxists of Madrid hand out to the masses) to the scattered "descendants" of Spanish Jews.

Dios mio and "oy vey!" This world has gone mad.

I know, Isabella, I know.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times today about recently discovered documents belonging to a Mexican Jew who was tortured and executed during the era of the Spanish Inquisition.

Boobus Americanus 2: Since time immemorial, the Jews have suffered and endured so much persecution.

Sugar: Waaaa! Waaaa! Waaaa! It's alwayss the other guy's fault, eh Boobuss? You frickin' clod!

Editor: Is my ferocious feline sidekick suggesting that 100 historical expulsions were not for nothing? Hmmmm.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Women and Minorities Make Slow Progress in Filling Ranks at Law Firms

By ELIZABETH OLSON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Imagine reading a headline that blared: "Too Many White men Are Being Allowed To Practice Law." --- Even many of the libtarded zombies who worship Sulzberger's Slimes would find such a provocative proclamation to be offensive. And yet, is that not what the actual headline, in essence, is indeed saying? After all, how else are we to "rectify" this "imbalance" without first firing a bunch of White males and/or deliberately denying employment to future White male candidates?

Why the double standard?

Image 1: All White law firm = Bad / Image 2: All Black basketball team = Good

Listen to the bean-counters whine:

"Women and minorities continued to make small, slow gains in their numbers at major American law firms last year, according to the National Association for Law Placement, a legal employment tracker.

The NALP issues the Report on Diversity at U.S. Law Firms, an annual compilation of the representation of women and minorities in the industry based on information from more than 112,000 partners, associates and other lawyers in 1,082 offices of law firms nationwide."

Pause reading --- How much do "youse guys" want to bet that one of the chosenites is behind this diversity tracking report?

Continued:

"James G. Leipold, executive director of the association,

There it is! Leipold, eh? (cough cough) ---- Every, Frickin. Time!

" ... said the national figures "mask many significant differences by law firm size and geography," with larger firms having achieved more diversity than smaller firms. "While it is encouraging to see small gains in most areas this year," he (Leipold) said, "the incredibly slow pace of change continues to be discouraging."

"Discouraging," eh Leipold? We wonder, are you at all "discouraged" over the gross disproportionality of having just 2% of the population (cough cough) account for more than 50% of the lawyers in New York City and Washington DC; 20% of all lawyers in America; and 37% of the U.S. Supreme Court?

 It would have been 45% had Homo-Obongo gotten Merrick Garland approved

Leipold would never say that there were too many Jews on the U.S. Supreme Court.

The obvious inference here is that some way, somehow, the statistical imbalance has to be the result of the big bad "White Man" keeping "minorities" TM and women down. The truth is that "minorities" TM, (so often from single parent homes) are under-performing scholastically. As for women, many of them still choose to have children and stay home (oh horrors!) or just aren't interested enough or aggressive enough to want to pursue law as a profession.

We are 100% certain that the White lawyers who will eventually be culled or blocked to artificially make way for more "minorities" TM will be Whites of Anglo, Scottish, German, Dutch, Scandinavian, Irish, French, Italian, Polish, Greek ancestry -- and not the "Whites" of Khazar Jewish ancestry. Bet on it! Yes sir, when the chosenites say, "Diversity is OUR greatest strength," they aren't kidding! Their strength --- our death as a people.

The global plantation owner won't rest until the very last White male has been "diversified" out of existence.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times today about a disturbing survey on diversity in the legal profession. Progress towards hiring more minorities and women has been very slow.

Boobus Americanus 2: The legacies of slavery and sexism are still with us, unfortunately.

Sugar: White effing power!!!

Editor: (Palm to face -- deep sigh -- shaking my head) ... Sorry, dear reader, sorry.

JANUARY, 2017

The incoming U.S. president, Donald Trump, has denied manmade climate change. The Times's Nicholas Kristof travels to drought-stricken Madagascar to see the unfolding crisis for himself.

NY Times: As Donald Trump Denies Climate Change, These Kids Die of It

By NICHOLAS KRISTOF, ADAM B. ELLICK and BEN C. SOLOMON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The Jewish Lie Firm of Kristof, Ellick & Solomon have just vomited out the most ridiculous "Climate Change" TM article to appear in Sulzberger's Slimes since last July's claim that "Global Warming" TM is causing Global Landsliding.

Were it not for the frightening reality that these false claims are intended to lead to a system of global taxation of "carbon" (CO₂ / plant food), this would make for excellent comedy writing. But these communists are deadly serious. Laughter is good medicine, but let us not lose sight of the deadly end-game of the "Global Warming" TM / "Climate Change" TM HOAX. That said; join us for a good side-splitting, pants-pissing, crack-up as we review a few of this lengthy article's most exaggerated excerpts.

Manhattan Marxists report from Madagascar --- Kristof, Ellick & Solomon

The Three Stooges: TSIHOMBE, Madagascar — She is just a frightened mom, worrying if her son will survive, ...

Rebuttal: (sniffle -- sniffle) Historical precedent shows that whenever these heartless "humanitarians" start tugging at the heart strings, the wise man should clench his wallet and his butt-hole all the tighter.

The Three Stooges: ... and certainly not fretting about American politics — for she has never heard of either President Obama or Donald Trump.

What about America itself? Ranomasy, who lives in an isolated village on this island of Madagascar off southern Africa, shakes her head. It doesn't ring any bells.

Rebuttal: Hip boots on. Here it comes.

The Three Stooges: Yet we Americans ...

Rebuttal: "We Americans," eh? As if these three consider themselves one of us.

The Three Stooges: ... may be inadvertently killing her infant son.

Rebuttal: Oh the bloody drama! Shameless, utterly shameless.

The Three Stooges: Climate change, disproportionately caused by carbon emissions from America,...

Rebuttal: Apart from the fact that there is no evidence that CO₂ (the man made (2%) or natural (98%)) has any impact on climate, why blame "we Americans?" Why not blame the termites? After all, did not the "paper of record," in 1982, once run a story headlined:

The New York Times

Termite Gas Exceeds Smokestack Pollution

Researchers report that termites, digesting vegetable matter on a global basis, produce more than twice as much carbon dioxide as all the world's smokestacks.

The Three Stooges: ... seems to be behind a severe drought that has led crops to wilt across seven countries in southern Africa..

Rebuttal: ... "seems to be," eh? These liars always add a qualifier, which actually negates the whole point of scientific certainty.

The Three Stooges: The result is acute malnutrition for 1.3 million children in the region, the United Nations says.

Rebuttal: The ass-clowns at the U.N. "seem to" believe that there weren't that many droughts and famines before the industrial revolution. Of course, that is not what the historical record tells us.

- Google: droughts in ancient egypt
- Google: droughts in ancient china
- Google: droughts in ancient greece
- Google: droughts in ancient mesopotamia
- Google: droughts in ancient rome
- Google: droughts in ancient america
- Google: droughts in ancient maya
- Google: droughts in ancient india

Ancient Pharaohs, Caesars and Mayan kings all had to deal with droughts and famines in pre-industrial times.

The Three Stooges: Trump has repeatedly mocked climate change, ... But climate change here is as tangible as its victims. Trump should come and feel these children's ribs and watch them struggle for life.

Rebuttal: For the sake of argument, and only for the sake of argument, let's assume that "Climate Change" TM is real. How do you know that this particular drought is being fueled by American cars and factories?

The Three Stooges: It's true that the links between our carbon emissions and any particular drought are convoluted.

Rebuttal: Can you smell the Yiddish "yeah but" coming?

The Three Stooges:...but overall, climate change is as palpable as a wizened, glassy-eyed child dying of starvation.

Rebuttal: There it is! Oh how well do we know these deceiving sons of Satanic bitches.

The Three Stooges: The situation has been particularly severe in Madagascar, a lovely island nation known for deserted sandy beaches and playful long-tailed primates called lemurs.

Rebuttal: OK. Thoughts and prayers to the afflicted people on Madagascar. What evidence is there that this drought is related to CO2 emissions? Even if we were to include all of southernmost region of Africa, we are talking about 1/300th of the planet's surface. Why not "cherry pick" northeast United States, which is not experiencing a severe drought.

You putrid peddlers of "fake news" played the same game about 5 years ago during Australia's extended heat wave and dry spell -- an anomaly which came and went and will, if you wait a few more decades, come and go again.

Cherry-picked data from Madagascar is hardly representative of the other 99+% of planet Earth -- and no amount of lawyerly "yeah buts" can change that reality.

The Three Stooges: I met Ranomasy at an emergency feeding station run by Catholic nuns who were trying to save her baby..

Rebuttal: Notice how when it suits their purposes, the Marxist vermin suddenly become sympathetic to Catholic nuns and the saving of babies.

The Three Stooges: Ranomasy had carried Tsapasoia 12 hours on a trek through the desert to get to the nuns, walking barefoot because most villagers have already sold everything from shoes to spoons to survive.

"I feel so powerless as a mother, because I know how much I love my child," she said. "But whatever I do just doesn't work."

Rebuttal: (sniffle, sniffle) --- Mushy Marxist manure --- spread like butter.

The Three Stooges: As an American, I'm proud to see U.S. assistance saving lives here.

Rebuttal: "As an American," -- there he (Kristof, lead writer) goes again, speaking for us all.

The Three Stooges: If it weren't for U.S.A.I.D., the American aid agency, and nonprofit groups, far more cadavers would be piling up.

Rebuttal: By the way, U.S. Aid is CIA.

The Three Stooges: But my pride is mixed with guilt.

Rebuttal: If you feel so guilty about it, then go effing kill yourself. Or at the very least, stop taking unnecessary airplane trips to Africa and back. Then we'll truly be impressed with your altruism.

The Three Stooges: The United States single-handedly accounts for more than one-quarter of the world's carbon dioxide emissions over the last 150 years, more than twice as much as any other country.

Rebuttal: Not as much as termites and volcanoes.

Wood-consuming termites and volcanoes emit more methane and CO2 (plant food) than human activity. Yet the creepy little critters don't seem to feel "guilty" about killing the children of Madagascar.

The Three Stooges: The basic injustice is that we rich countries produced the carbon that is devastating impoverished people from Madagascar to Bangladesh. In America, climate change costs families beach homes; in poor countries, parents lose their children.

Rebuttal: Solution? Regulate, consolidate and carbon tax the first world countries into third world status until only the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) and a mass of alienated, dependent, whited-out slaves remains. That's the game, boys and girls --- and this trio of filthy Bolsheviks all know it.

The Three Stooges: As the sun set, I told Fideline that there was a powerful man named Trump half a world away, in a country she had never heard of, who just might be able to have some impact, over many years, on the climate here. I asked her what she would tell him..

“I would ask him to do what he can, so that once more I can grow cassava, corn, black-eyed peas and sorghum,” she said. “We’re desperate.”

Mr. President-elect, are you listening?

Rebuttal: Dear Lord, temper my Irish-Italian impulse and that of my ferocious feline sidekick, so that we don't do something stupid -- such as taking the 30-minute bus-ride into Marxist Manhattan and throwing Kristof and his fellow commies out the window of the Slimes skyscraper.*

(Intended as a figure of speech. The Anti-New York Times does not advocate violence.)

After using these poor people as propaganda props and photo ops, the three stooges board a gas-guzzling jet and return to their cushy spacious air-conditioned homes and Manhattan offices -- laughing all the way!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read a most disturbing article in today's New York Times about how climate change is causing a drought and famine in Madagascar.

Boobus Americanus 2: I just hope Donald Trump starts to listen to the scientists and take this issue more seriously.

Sugar: Boobuss you cretinouss cornball!! They've been peddling this communisst bullsshit for almosst 40 yearss now!

Editor: Yep. I was in the 8th grade when we learned about how the statue of liberty would be up to her knees in water by the year 2000!

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times (Op-Ed): Deficits Matter Again

By PAUL KRUGMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

We begin today's rebuttal of Paul Krugman's (cough cough) deceitful dung exactly as we ended yesterday's rebuttal of Nick Kristof's (cough cough) -- with a prayer:

*Dear Lord, temper my Irish-Italian impulse and that of my ferocious feline sidekick, so that we don't do something stupid -- such as taking the 30-minute bus-ride into Marxist Manhattan and throwing Krugman and his fellow commies out the window of the Slimes skyscraper.

(Intended as a figure of speech. The Anti-New York Times does not advocate violence.)

As diligent chroniclers of contemporary issues of Sulzberger's Slimes, and as historical researchers of its communist archives, ~~Sugar and I~~, er, The Editorial Board of The Anti-New York Times, can confidentially declare that that the Yellow Journalism of the Slimes has never been this bad. Partly due to the dumbing down of America, and partly due to the Globalists' panic over the cracks appearing to show in the foundation of the New World Order, the Slimes' level of lunacy is now "off the charts" -- even by its own low standards.

A tip-of-the-hat to one of our long time readers for spotting the stunning pre-election / post-election about-face just pulled off by "Nobel Prize winning" TM junk-economist Paul Krugman. Note the dates, just 5 months apart, and brace yourself so you don't get whiplash!

The Opinion Pages Op-Ed Columnist Time to Borrow  Paul Krugman AUG. 8, 2016 "But while the politics remain uncertain, it's clear what we should be doing. It's time for the federal government to borrow and invest."	The Opinion Pages Op-Ed Columnist Deficits Matter Again  Paul Krugman JAN. 9, 2017 "They (Republicans) screamed about the evils of debt at a time when bigger deficits would have done a lot of good, and are about to blow up deficits at a time when they will do harm."
---	---

Wow! Just wow.

Five months ago, while smug in the belief that Killary Rotten Clinscum would be the next president, commie Krugman assured us:

"There are, of course, many ways our economic policy could be improved. But the most important thing we need is sharply increased public investment in everything from energy to transportation to wastewater treatment.

How should we pay for this investment? We shouldn't — not now, or any time soon. Right now there is an overwhelming case for more government borrowing."

But now that Orange Man is actually planning to "sharply increased public investment" -- the rat bastard laments:

"But these predictions (about the benefits of debt) were always conditional, applying only to an economy far from full employment. That was the kind of economy President Obama inherited; but the Trump-Putin administration will, instead, come into power at a time when full employment has been more or less restored..... deficits at (this) time will do harm."

You see, boys and girls, Professor Krugman teaches us that because the "full employment" economy has improved so much under Obongo -- (in just the past 5 months?) -- the "Trump-Putin" deficits would now be problematic. God, what I wouldn't give to be granted just 60 seconds in a steel-cage ring with this forked-tongue serpent!

*Krugman's love for Obongo is surpassed only by his hatred for Trump.
Note the childish T-shirt mocking Trump.*

The more we observe these crooked double-talking sophists at the Slimes, and we have come to know them quite well, the more we are convinced that, as deliberately deceitful as they are, they at some point start to actually believe their own lies as well as their own year-to-year contradictions. Scum the likes of Krugman are not only criminal, but insane to boot. Think of the character "Norman Bates" from the classic Hitchcock film, Psycho -- who cleverly lied to cover up for his crimes, while truly believing that his taxidermied late mother was the culprit. Admittedly, that is an imperfect and exaggerated analogy, but not overly so. If you've ever emotionally rattled a hard-core libtard with irrefutable facts during a heated debate, then you already know, from having observed their mentally unhinged and truth-distorting reaction, what it means to believe one's own lies.

We are truly up against some seriously sick, demented creatures here, with billions of dollars behind them and millions of media-worshipping fools beneath them.

An uncanny resemblance

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an op-ed by Paul Krugman in today's New York Times about how the deficit will be a problem again under Trump.

Boobus Americanus 2: Didn't Krugman just say, a few months ago, that the deficit was not a problem?

Boobus Americanus 1: Yeah, but we have full employment now.

Boobus Americanus 2: Oh. That's right. Of course.

"Zzzzzzzz. Zzzzzzzz. Zzzzzzzz"

Editor: It's getting to me too, Sugar. I think I'll join you.

JANUARY, 2017

Disrespectful unaccomplished little queer grills CEO Tillerson over "war criminal" Putin

NY Times: Marco Rubio Won't Commit to Voting for Rex Tillerson

By MATT FLEGENHEIMER, DAVID E. SANGER and EMMARIE HUETTEMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Marco Rubio, that wholly Globo-Zionist-owned "foam party" faggot from Florida, just joined the growing list of seditious GOP Senators to gently stick his knife into the back of the Orange Man, and the inauguration hasn't even happened yet. Unfortunately, Orange Man -- as evidenced by his sudden "acceptance" of the fake intelligence reports implicating Putin in the hacking of Demonrat computers -- is already starting to show the early signs of weakening due to the quiet cuts.

At the very beginning of the confirmation hearings for Secretary of State nominee, Rex Tillerson, Maricon Marco immediately launched into an aggressive line of attack:

"Is Vladimir Putin a war criminal?"

Tillerson replied:

"I would not use that term." And on the interrogation went from there.

1- Maricon Rubio, 1989, dancing and singing in a South Miami troupe that combined the Chippendales with The Village People.

2- Miami homosexual foam party --- investigative journalist Wayne Madsen believes that young Rubio is in the photo.

Rubio, reciting a litany of "grievous" Russian offenses in Syria, tried to get Tillerson to adjust his answer.

"Those are very, very serious charges to make, and I want to have much more information," Mr. Tillerson replied.

The "conservative" Rubio, citing the Piranha Press, continued to press:

"The videos and pictures are there. It should not be hard to say that Vladimir Putin's military has conducted war crimes in Aleppo. I find it discouraging, your inability to cite that."

The sodomite Senator then cited the names of the political opponents that he infers were killed by Putin. Tillerson said he would study the matter more once he could receive classified information on the allegations.

"None of this is classified, Mr. Tillerson," Maricon Marco shot back. "People are dead."

The "evidence" of Russian "atrocities" is all fake --- like the "heartbreaking" Syrian orphan photo above, (Images 1 & 2) which was presented to the public as an orphaned boy sleeping between the graves of his dead parents. It later turned out that the laughing boy was not an orphan and the photo was not even been taken in Syria.

Image 3: The Syrian boy in an ambulance photo (cited by Killary during one of the debates) was also a staged shot.

Rubio, in the second round of questioning for Tillerson, asked the oil executive if he believed China was "one of the world's worst human rights violators." Tillerson hedged: "They certainly have serious human rights violations."

Leaving the hearing after his third round of questioning, Maricon told the Piranha Press that he would neither commit to supporting nor opposing Tillerson (who will be confirmed anyway), adding that he was "prepared to do what's right."

Tillerson, in an apparent cave-in of his own, did explain to the committee that if he had been Secretary of State when Russia "annexed" Crimea in 2014 (after Crimea voted 97% to 3% to return to Russia) that he would have recommended that the U.S. provide arms to the government of Ukraine.

The fact that Orange Man and Tillerson have already been forced to utter stronger words aimed at Russia is not a good sign. If they can no longer even speak freely, out of fear of alienating the anti-Russian Republican't rank and file, then how the hell are they going to be able to govern freely once they take office? Do not forget, boys and girls, what we wrote a few weeks ago about the anti-war President William McKinley (Span-Am War) and the anti-war Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain (WW2). Both men were prevented from keeping the peace with a falsely-accused adversary, not by the opposition political parties, but from the scum within their own parties.

Jewish billionaire Norman Braman gives a thumb-up to his Senatorial pet. Cuban-American Maricon and his wife were essentially broke when Braman got behind his political career and gave his wife a cushy 6-figure job. "Little Marco" might have become president, had Orange Man not crushed him.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Marco Rubio might vote against Tillerson's nomination for Secretary of State.

Boobus Americanus 2: Many in his own party are isolating Trump over his love for Putin.

Sugar: Boobuss, you frickin' imbecile! That'ss because 'many in his own party' are owned by the ssame Globo-gangsterss that own Obongo and Killary."

Editor: I am very disappointed with Orange Man's forced cave-in on phony Russian hacking charges. In doing so, he has inadvertently set Putin up to be blamed for a false-flag attack.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Trump Says Russia Probably Hacked

By JULIE HIRSCHFELD DAVIS and MAGGIE HABERMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

We closed out yesterday's rebuttal about Maricon Rubio by expressing our disappointment and concern over Orange Man's forced (and obviously tactical) "admission" of Russian guilt (he "thinks") over the DNC hacking affair. Lo and behold, what do we see big, bold, front and centered across the front page of the following day's Jew York Slimes? -- Trump Says Russia Probably Hacked

Orange Man, perhaps under the influence of certain advisers, softened his position so as not too appear to "extreme." The Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press should therefore ease up on the man a bit now, right? To the contrary, the savage attacks have only gotten worse over the past 24 hours and will carry over into next week's inauguration and beyond. The lesson to be learned here is this: Never concede a false point for the sake of making a false peace! For in so doing, you open a self-inflicted crack in the foundation of your argument, while emboldening your evil adversaries to demand the next concession, and then the next, and then the next until you find yourself in a straight-jacket of your own making.

"As far as hacking, I think it was Russia."

Orange Man had better re-read his own book, "The Art of the Deal"

Of course, there are times when even an honest man, for strategic purposes, is compelled to hide his true beliefs, or to even lie, in the face of an evil adversary. This is not one of those times. What we are talking about here is a sudden and unnecessary surrender of a superior position that actually undermines one's overall argument and invites further attacks.

"You see that?! Even Trump now admits that Putin hacked us." -- the commie-libtard talking heads can now squeal before their captive TV-watching boobuses.

Another frustrating example that illustrates how a strategic concession on fundamental facts can backfire is the admission that the planet is warming. So as not to appear too "extreme" and rigid, many Republican't "climate skeptics" TM have conceded that the planet has been slightly warming over the past decade or two, but that maybe it is not due to man's activities and/or maybe it won't be catastrophic.

In reality, as the sophisticated RSS satellite readings confirm, no warming, at all, has occurred over the past 20 years. But by conceding a false point, the argument has been shifted from being a question of if "Global Warming" TM is taking place, to a debate over whether the causes are man-made or natural. The communists have thus been relieved of the weight of a huge burden-of-proof. And the partially disarmed advocates of the softened version of "climate denial" TM are still being savaged by the communist-libtard Axis of Evil.

The planet is NOT warming!

Why concede anything on "Global Warming" TM when the truth is on our side?

A wise and mature man should be quick to admit error and apologize when he is wrong; and NEVER admit error when he knows he was right (unless it's to pacify an illogical but loving wife, but I digress). The truth, especially when presented by a passionate and clear speaker, is like a loaded automatic machine gun. Why remove your bullets? Let it rip and watch the liars run for cover.

Hear it from Napoleon Bonaparte (The Great One Light):

"The purely defensive is doomed to defeat."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that even Donald Trump now believes that the Russians hacked us.

Boobus Americanus 2: Now that Russian culpability has been established, the question is: how should we respond?

Sugar: Give a dumb-ass boobus an inch and he'll demand a mile!

Editor: Next week should be very interesting.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: US Troops Enter Poland, 1st Deployment at Russia's Doorstep

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The demonic drive to ignite World War III before Orange Man can make friends with the Big Bad Putin has really shifted into high gear with this provocation. Now, all of a sudden, just days away from the departure of Mr. & Mr. Obongo (we hope?), it has been learned that Poland needs a "deterrent" from a Russian invasion? We already know how stupid the Slimes' readers are, but can they really be that bloody stupid to buy this crap?

Well, it's not a question of buying into this fake argument about "deterrence." The real question is: will people buy it after Russia has been forced to strike the first blow? If the Globalists' history of deliberate provocations serves as an indicator, we are afraid that Boobus will be bamboozled, once again. Haz Mat suits and goggles on. Let's dive into Sulzberger's cesspool and clean up a few excerpts of this erroneous excrement -- originally published by the Associated Press.

HISTORY REPEATS!

Just like eastern Prussia in 1939 (Image 2), the Russian enclave of Kaliningrad is isolated from mainland Russia (Image 3). Any Polish / NATO move against Kaliningrad would compel the Russians to have to pass through (invade) the Baltic States and probably Poland. That is where the U.S. tanks and infantry hope to provoke the Russians into overtly "firing the first shot."

AP/Slimes: WARSAW, Poland — American soldiers rolled into Poland on Thursday, fulfilling a dream some Poles have had ...

Rebuttal: The term "some poles," refers to the obedient vassal class of traitor Poles raised up and sustained by the CIA-NGO complex. Many Poles are actually upset about this recent "deterrence."

AP/Slimes: ... since the fall of communism in 1989 to have U.S. troops on their soil as a deterrent against Russia.

Rebuttal: If post-communist Russia has neither invaded nor threatened to invade Poland over the past 28 years, then why are these fools still "dreaming" about an American "deterrence?"

AP/Slimes: Some people waved and held up American flags as U.S. troops in tanks and other vehicles crossed into southwestern Poland from Germany and headed toward the town of Zagan, where they will be based. Poland's prime minister and defense minister will welcome them in an official ceremony Saturday.

Rebuttal: Should Russia ever be forced to invade Poland, watch how fast and how far these sleazy "ministers" skip town for either London or New York, leaving their bewildered countrymen to hold the bag.

Polish Prime Minister Beata the Bull Dyke Szydło fits right in with the other aggressive feminist bitches of Globalist Europe.

AP/Slimes: "This is the fulfillment of a dream," said Michal Baranowski, director of the German Marshall Fund think tank in Warsaw. "And this is not just a symbolic presence but one with a real capability."

Rebuttal: His dream. Europe's nightmare.

AP/Slimes: the new deployment — which includes some 3,500 U.S. troops — marks the first-ever continuous deployment to the region by a NATO ally.

Rebuttal: The article leaves out the fact that 2,500 U.S. tanks are also arriving in Poland as part of this "deterrence" force.

AP/Slimes: It is part of a larger commitment by President Barack Obama to protect a region ...

Rebuttal: Just one week before Orange Man's inauguration, Obongo decides to "protect" Poland. How convenient!

AP/Slimes: ... that grew deeply nervous when Russia annexed Crimea from Ukraine in 2014 ..

Rebuttal: Nothing to be "nervous" about. Crimeans voted in a free and fair referendum, which took place in the wake of a hostile CIA coup of the duly elected government of Ukraine, by a margin of 97% to 3%, to return to Russian sovereignty. The AP, the Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press all know about this critical context, of course, but they deliberately omit it from the narrative.

2013-2014 / After McCain the Insane arrived in Ukraine, pre-planned violence broke out and the elected pro-Russia government was overthrown. The Russians of Crimea then voted to return to their historical Russian sovereignty.

AP/Slimes: There are fears, however, that the enhanced security could eventually be undermined by the pro-Kremlin views of President-elect Donald Trump.

Rebuttal: Ah yes. The "pro-Kremlin" agent Trump wants to hand Poland over to his master, Vladimir Putin. What crap!

AP/Slimes: Poland and the Baltic states also feel threatened by Russia's recent deployment of nuclear-capable Iskander missiles in Kaliningrad, the Russian territory wedged between Poland and Lithuania.

Rebuttal: Actually, it is Russia that is being "threatened" by NATO's deployment of missiles in Poland. The counter-deployment of Russian Iskanders was the reaction --- not the action.

AP/Slimes: But Russia says it's the one who is threatened.

"These actions threaten our interests, our security," President Vladimir Putin's spokesman Dmitry Peskov said Thursday. "Especially as it concerns a third party building up its military presence near our borders. It's not even a European state."

Rebuttal: Thanks for the obligatory truth gem buried, as always, beneath a mound of manure.

AP/Slimes: Worries about the permanence of the new U.S. security commitments are rooted in a tragic national history in which Poland has often lost out in deals made by the great powers.

Rebuttal: The ultimate "tragic national history" that the Poles seem to forget is that it was the western triumvirate of US / UK / France that set them up to instigate a war with The Great One's Germany, and later abandoned them to the tender mercies of Joe Stalin. And now, 70 years later, here they go again! (Trying to resist making a "Polish joke" here)

1939: After Polish Marshal Edward Smigly-Rydz had given Britain and France the phony pretext needed to declare war against Germany, he was given his 15 minutes of fame and then "thrown under the bus". The stooge then fled to Romania as his country was being over-run by Stalin's communist hordes.

AP/Slimes: "All recent U.S. presidents have thought there can be a grand bargain with Russia," said Marcin Zaborowski, a senior associate at Visegrad Insight, an analytic journal on Central Europe. "Trump has a proclivity to make deals, and Central and Eastern Europe have reason to worry about that."

Rebuttal: Why should Central and Eastern Europe worry about Trump and Putin making peace? That would actually decrease the danger of World War III being fought on your soil, not increase it --- dumb-ass!

AP/Slimes: The armored brigade combat team arriving in Poland hails from Fort Carson, Colorado. The troops arrived last week in Germany and are gathering in Poland before units will fan out across seven countries from Estonia to Bulgaria. A headquarters unit will be stationed in Germany. After nine months they will be replaced by another unit.

In a separate but related mission, NATO will also deploy four battalions to its eastern flank later this year, one each to Poland and the three Baltic states.

Rebuttal: This ain't no joke, and it makes us sick to our stomach. Homo Obongo, acting on orders from the Soros / Rothschild crime syndicate, is up to something and it may go down before the inauguration -- coinciding nicely with potential rent-a-mob riots. Meanwhile, Boobus Americanus remains fixated on the NFL playoffs and the coming Stupor Bowl.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that U.S. troops are arriving in Poland to deter possible Russian aggression.

Boobus Americanus 2: I don't think Russia wants to invade Poland, but a little deterrence probably isn't a bad idea.

Sugar: The Globalisst mind-controllerss have got you right where they want you Boobuss. When Russsia is finally forced to make a move, you'll never figure out that the "Russsian aggresssion" wass a sself-fulfilling prophecy.

Editor: Just like World War 2! Amazing.

JANUARY, 2017

Marxist Loser King Day

An Editorial by The Anti-New York Times

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Today, Monday, January 16th, we "celebrate" yesterday's birthday of that most holiest of American icons, the "Reverend" Martin Luther King -- whom we unaffectionately like to refer to as the Irreverend Marxist Loser King. We can think of no higher (or would that be "lower?") honor to bestow upon this bellowing Bolshevik bum than to judge him according to the standards he himself set forth in his famous "I Have a Dream" speech of August, 1963.

Preaching poetic platitudes probably penned for him by his Jewish-Communist handler / ventriloquist, Stanley Levison, (cough cough) the man born "Michael King" (uggggh!) thundered before the quarter-million-strong mob of commies, libtards and other assorted well-intentioned dupes of every stripe:

"I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

Judged by the "content of character," eh Marty? Amen to that preacher! Let's do exactly that with a bullet point review of your Red resume:

"Man of God, my ass!"

- Plagiarized as much as 1/3 of his doctoral thesis at Boston College, including punctuation errors.
- Attended the Highlander Folk School, a communist-front training academy in Tennessee.
- Had adulterous sex with countless women and white prostitutes whom he used to "get rough" with. (First Lady Jackie Kennedy was disgusted by MLK's perversion, and referred to him as a "terrible" man.)

1- New York Times, 1991: "Boston U. Panel Finds Plagiarism by Dr. King"

2- King attended communist training school

3- The Daily Mail (UK): "Jackie Kennedy hated Martin Luther King so much she could barely look at photographs of him."

*In interviews taped in 1964 but only just released, she said the black civil rights leader was a 'terrible man' and a 'phony'." She claimed King bragged of being drunk at her husband John F Kennedy's funeral and had been caught trying to set up an orgy.

- Accused Senator Barry Goldwater, the great conservative and 1964 candidate for president, and his followers of "Hitlerism" TM

- Openly associated with known communists, even after President Kennedy had told him to stop.
- Agitated in favor of the power-grabbing Civil Rights Act of 1964 which, in time, led to legalized discrimination against millions of White job applicants and candidates for promotion.
- Agitated in favor of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 which granted penniless illiterates and morons the "right" to bloc-vote for communist Democrats. This concept has since been extended to illiterate newly-arrived aliens.

1- The honorable patriot Barry Goldwater was slandered by the beast MLK: “We see danger signs of Hitlerism in the candidacy of Mr. Goldwater.” (King was referring to the "evil" Hitler of Marxist mythology, not the real one that we know and love.)

2- 1964: LBJ signs the Civil Rights Atrocity with MLK at his side

3- 1965: LBJ signs the Voting Rights Atrocity, again, with MLK at his side

And so, boys and girls, whether one chooses to judge Marxist Loser King according to his shocking personal vices (prostitute-mongering, adultery, sex orgies, slander, plagiarism, demagoguery, drunkenness etc.), or just by his critical public pressure role in helping to pass two of the absolute worst laws in American history, there is no reason to honor this filthy communist ogre just because he was made a martyr by an assassin's bullet. To the contrary, he merits the contempt of all decent Americans, of all colors and creeds.

1 & 2 -The ONLY "American" with a Federal "holiday" solely in his honor also has a Washington DC monument now. The pile of petrified cow dung is actually larger than the sculptures of Jefferson and Lincoln.

3 - Known communist Stanley Levison was MLK's Jewish stage manager and speech writer. He is the one who should get the "holiday" in his name!

Boobus Americanus 1: It was wholly inappropriate for Donald Trump to attack civil rights icon John Lewis over the Martin Luther King weekend.

Boobus Americanus 2: Indeed. Martin Luther King must be rolling over in his grave.

Sugar: That'ss because I pissed on his tombsstone.

Editor: Sugar!!!

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Cold War Jitters Resurface as U.S. Marines Arrive in Norway

By DAN BILEFSKY and HENRIK PRYSER LIBELL

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Just days ago came news that 3,500 U.S. troops and 2,500 tanks were arriving in Poland -- that same patsy-state that was used to provoke The Great One into the justified 1939 invasion of Poland which triggered World War II. Today comes word of yet another pre-positioning of U.S. marines in Norway -- the second nation that the Germans were compelled to invade, in April of 1940.

1- Prime Minister Erna Solberg of Norway -- yet another bull-dyke-looking head-of-state putting her people at risk. 2- Solberg with the Frumpy Frau of Germany 3- The refrigerator Solberg with Mr. & Mr. Obongo --- makes Michael look feminine by comparison!

Once again, the Slimes' sleazy scribblers have spun this dangerous provocation as a necessary "deterrence" against the big bad Putin. From the article:

"For Norwegians, the sight of dozens of American Marines traipsing through the snow in military fatigues — the first time foreign forces have been posted to their country's territory since World War II — may have brought a welcomed sense of security, but it also harked back to a dark era of the Cold War that many had hoped to forget.

It was the latest effort by the United States and its European allies to buttress their defenses against a resurgent Russia, which condemned the move."

A "welcome sense of security," eh? To defend "against a resurgent Russia," eh? We are now expected to believe that not only does Putin have designs on the Baltic States and Poland, but he wants to annex Norway too? This absurdity "harks back" to the events which compelled The Great One to occupy Norwegian ports in order to prevent the lunatic Lord of the Admiralty (soon to be Prime minister) Winston Churchill from setting up shop in Norway, Denmark and the North Sea. Sugar dear, fire up the time machine and set the date for Aprilish of 1940, will you please?

If called upon by NATO, de-balled Norway will send some very pretty young girls into the teeth of the Russian Bear -- and some not-so-pretty dykes too.

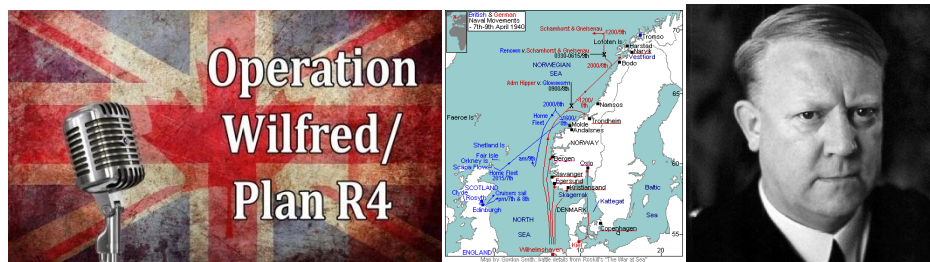

April, 1940:

Churchill's plan of attack is to disrupt Germany's iron ore imports from Sweden by illegally mining Norwegian waters, and then occupying the important Norwegian port of Narvik. Plans are also made for imposing a base of operations in Denmark, Germany's neutral neighbor to its north.

A Norwegian politician named Vidkun Quisling confirms the existence of these Allied plots. (Operation Wilfred and Plan R 4). Sympathetic to Germany, and not wanting his country to become a battlefield, Quisling informs Hitler of the plot to wage war from the two Scandinavian countries. Germany moves quickly to secure the Norwegian port of Narvik just before the British can place their mines, and also to occupy Denmark. German diplomats assure the leaders of both Scandinavian nations that Germany seeks neither conquest nor interference in internal affairs. Life under limited German occupation goes on quietly for the Scandinavians during the war.

Quisling's name is now a dictionary word in the English language, synonymous with "traitor" – a totally unfair characterization.

1 & 2- Hitler foiled Operation Wilfred and Plan R4. This prevented the UK from using Norway & Denmark as bases of operation against German shipping. 3- Norway's Vidkun Quisling was a patriot - not a traitor. He was executed after the war.

As ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times have pointed out so many times before, the parallels between World War II and potential World War III are as ominous as they are striking. Had the Roosevelt-loving Killary Rotten Clinscum been elected, her role as modern day FDR would surely have completed the deja vu scenario. As it stands now, the incoming administration of Orange Man can be expected to tone down the tension with Russia but it can still be outmaneuvered by the Globalists. The key to peace will be how strong and how fast Orange Man can clean house of the traitors within the Departments of Offense, State and the CIA.

Hang in there, Thor. Maybe the Russians will take over Scandinavia one day and restore sanity.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that U.S. troops are arriving in Norway to deter possible Russian aggression.

Boobus Americanus 2: I don't think Russia wants to invade Norway, but a little deterrence probably isn't a bad idea.

Sugar: That'ss what you jusst ssaid about Poland the other day, you frickin' ass-clown.

Editor: And Latvia and Lithuania and Estonia and Ukraine and Georgia.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Nikki Haley, at Confirmation Hearing, Says Russia Is Guilty of War Crimes

By MARK LANDLER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Let us hope that the various anti-Russian hawks that Orange Man has nominated are just playing a game for the purpose of sailing through their confirmation hearings; and that they will not later work to undermine their new boss when the going gets rough. The latest know-nothing to spew venom at Russia is Governess Nikki (Nimrata) Haley of South Carolina -- the daughter of Indian immigrants who oh-so-obediently overreacted to the crisis-actor fake shooting at a Black Charleston church by ordering the removal of the confederate flag from statehouse property in 2015.

Nimrata is a media-approved "modern Republican" who spit in the faces of White southerners while embracing the very same Black communists who, at the behest of their northern Jewish-Marxist bosses, seek to erase Dixie's heritage once and for all.

Naughty Nikki -- (we believe the extra-marital sex allegations are true) -- is not to be trusted in her public life either. Should the popular winds begin to blow against Orange Man, she'll cheat on him too. Indeed, judging from her testimony before Senatorial inquisitors, the shameless mother of two already has.

From the article:

"Gov. Nikki R. Haley of South Carolina on Wednesday became the latest cabinet nominee to show daylight with President-elect Donald J. Trump, declaring that Russia was guilty of war crimes in Syria and that it should also be subject to additional sanctions for its incursions into Ukraine.

Ms. Haley said: "Russia is trying to show their muscle right now. It's what they do." She added: "I don't think we can trust them. We have to continue to be very strong back, and show them what this new administration is going to be."

Ms. Haley said she believed the Russians were guilty of war crimes in bombing the Syrian city of Aleppo."

1- Ignorant ambitious wench trashes Russia for "war crimes" as turban-wearing daddy, used as a multi-cultural prop, looks on proudly. 2- Without naming him, Haley jabbed Orange Man during her 2016 response to Obongo's State of the Union:

"During anxious times, it can be tempting to follow the siren call of the angriest voices. We must resist that temptation. No one who is willing to work hard, abide by our laws, and love our traditions should ever feel unwelcome in this country."

3- "War criminal," eh bitch? Putin is a hero to Syrians --- 12 year old boy from Aleppo proudly holds up a picture of Putin.

While falsely accusing Russia of war crimes, she went out of her way to whore herself for the interests of a true war-criminal-state, Israel. Haley clearly stated, on at least two occasions, that U.S. interests are Israeli interests. Note the language:

"Any honest assessment also finds an institution that is often at odds with U.S. interests," Ms. Haley said, noting the 20 United Nations resolutions critical of Israel.

and later:

.... criticizing the Obama administration's abstention from the latest United Nations Security Council resolution condemning Israel's settlement construction. ... (Haley said) "I will never abstain when the United Nations takes any action that comes in direct conflict with the interests and values of the United States," she said.

Of course, unlike her position on Russia, Haley's whoring for Israel does put her squarely in line with converted yenta Ivanka and her dad, Orange Man.

Orange Man had better keep a close watch on this shifty bitch with the Americanized name. In 2016, delivering the nationally televised Republican "response" to Obongo's State of the Union address, Naughty Nimrata treated Obongo canned speech with utmost respect, before detouring into a cheap veiled attack on candidate Orange Man! Later in the primary, she was a frequent critic of Orange Man. Now, all of a sudden, Nimrata wants to work for him?

Better beware of the little Indian girl with the loose lips and loose hips, Orange Man. For when the hard times come, she'll do you dirty, just like she did her husband.

The Charleston (SC) Church Massacre --- no bodies, no blood, no ambulances --- laughing crisis-actors (the boy's mom just "died" a few hours earlier?) holding instant press conferences -- a made-for-TV "racist" villain with the flag of Dixie, and a "national conversation" TM about banning the confederate flag. And Naughty Nimrata went along with the whole sick charade.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times today that Nikki Haley's views on Russia are contrary to Trump's.

Boobus Americanus 2: Yes, but she'll ultimately have to do as she is told by Trump.

Sugar: At firsst, yess. But if Orange Man becomess widely unpopular, watch how fasst this climbing bitch turnss on him.

Editor: Indeed! She had always been pro-confederate flag until the winds changed directions following that hoax shooting in her state.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: With Echoes of the '30s, Trump Resurrects a Hard-Line Vision of 'America First'

By DAVID E. SANGER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Globalists and communists everywhere, such as Slimes's scribbler and TV gadfly David Sanger (cough cough), have got their pink panties up in a bunch over Orange Man's unabashed and repeated use of the term, "America First." Sanger's distortion of both the term's true meaning and the history surrounding it merits a strong rebuttal of some of its ugliest excerpts from yours truly and his ferocious feline sidekick here. Hazmat suits and goggles on, into Sulzberger's cesspool of socialist sedition we go.

Sleazy Sanger spews his stinky slander on CNN, PBS and NBC

Sanger: America, and the world, just found out what “America First” means. President Trump could have used his inaugural address to define one of the touchstone phrases of his campaign in the most inclusive way, arguing, as did many of his predecessors, that as the world’s greatest superpower rises, its partners will also prosper.

Rebuttal: Why should Orange Man have to water down his Americanism in an "inclusive way" for the rest of the world? He is President of the United States, not "the world."

Sanger: Instead, he chose a dark, hard-line alternative, ...

Rebuttal: "Dark" -- "hardline." Oh dear; here it comes.

Sanger: ... one that appeared to herald the end of a 70-year American experiment to shape a world that would be eager to follow its lead.

Translation: ... one that appeared to herald the end of a 70-year old Globalist scheme to dominate the world as it was forced to follow America's lead.

Sanger: In Mr. Trump’s vision, America’s new strategy is to win every transaction and confrontation.

Rebuttal: Wouldn't that be better than losing every transaction and confrontation? Actually, Orange Man believes in win-win for all parties to a negotiation.

Sanger: “From this day forward, it’s going to be only America first,” he said, in a line that resonated around the world as soon as he uttered it from the steps of the Capitol. “We must protect our borders from the ravages of other countries making our products, stealing our companies and destroying our jobs.”

Rebuttal: Tell it Orange Man, tell it!

Sanger: Until today, American policy has been a complete rejection of the America First rallying cry that the famed flier Charles Lindbergh championed when, in the late 1930s, he became one of the most prominent voices to keep the United States out of Europe’s wars, even if it meant abandoning the country’s closest allies.

Rebuttal: Is there something wrong with seeking to avoid war? Lindbergh knew what the deceitful FDR was up to and sought to warn the public about his scheme to drag the U.S. into another bloodbath. Therefore, to oppose Lindbergh is to support the lying of FDR.

Lindbergh and the "America Firsters" tried to avert the coming disaster that the David Sangers of that day wanted to involve us in.

Lindbergh: "Leaders of the Jewish race are not American in interests and viewpoints "

Sanger: Mr. Trump has rejected comparisons with the earlier movement, with its taint of Nazism and anti-Semitism.

Rebuttal: There it is! A double jew-speak: Nazism TM and anti-Semitism TM.

Sanger: After World War II, the United States buried the Lindbergh vision of America First.

Rebuttal: Only because Americans bought the lie about "isolationism" having been the cause of World War II. Had the Internet existed back then, FDR would have been dragged from the White House and hanged from the nearest lamp-post.

Sanger: The United Nations was born in San Francisco ...

Rebuttal: Point of interest: the Secretary General of that founding conference, Alger Hiss, was later exposed as a member of the U.S. Communist Part, and did jail-time for perjury for lying about his membership.

Sanger: ... and raised on the East River of Manhattan,

Rebuttal: Yes, on land donated by those arch-Globalist villains, the Rockefeller Family.

Sanger: ... an ambitious, if still unfulfilled, experiment in shaping a liberal order.

Translation: ... an ambitious, if still unfilled conspiracy to establish a one-world government (New Wolrd Order).

1- The communist Alger Hiss shakes hands with Hiroshima Harry Truman at the founding conference of the United Nations in San Fagsicko, which Hiss headed.

2- John D Rockefeller III hands check to UN's first Secretary General Trygve Lie of Norway.

Sanger: Lifting the vanquished nations of World War II into democratic allies was the idea behind the Marshall Plan, ...

Translation: Buying up and consolidating the governments of the vulnerable nations of post-war Western Europe was the idea behind the Marshall Plan.

Sanger: And NATO was created to instill a commitment to common defense,...

Rebuttal: Partially so. NATO was indeed critical in keeping the Globalists' Soviet rivals for supremacy out of Western Europe. Ever since the fall of the Soviet Union, however, NATO has been strictly an offensive organization.

Sanger: To those who helped build that global order, Mr. Trump's vow was at best shortsighted. "Truman and Acheson, and everyone who followed, based our policy on a 'world-first,' not an 'America-first,' basis," said Richard N. Haass, whose new book, "A World in Disarray," argues that a more granular, short-term view of American interests will ultimately fail.

Rebuttal: Hmmm. Richard Haass (cough cough), eh? So, the President of the world-government-promoting Council on Foreign Relations doesn't approve of Orange Man's use of the term "America First." Add a point to the plus column for OM.

Sanger: Mr. Trump cast America's new role in the world as one of an aggrieved superpower, not a power intent on changing the globe. There was no condemnation of authoritarianism or fascism,...

Rebuttal: It's ironic that Sanger should whine about "authoritarianism" when his hoped-for New World Order, if his beloved European Union offers any indication, would most assuredly be UNdemocratic (pun intended).

Sanger: no clarion call to defend human rights around the world.

Rebuttal: The term "human rights" TM refers to the "right" of CIA assets and Soros rent-a-mobs in targeted nations to subvert as they please without facing punishment from the "bad guy" leading the country.

1- Richard Haass of the CFR

2- Admiral Chester Ward, a 20 year member of the CFR who got wise: "In the entire CFR lexicon, there is no term of revulsion carrying a meaning so deep as 'America First'"

3- The "authoritarianism" of the super-bureaucratic EU doesn't seem to bother Mr. Sanger.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times today that Trump's use of the term 'America First' is raising concerns among some people.

Boobus Americanus 2: Indeed. It is a dark slogan that harkens back to the pre-World War 2 days of isolationism and anti-Semitism in America.

Sugar: *How the frickety frack can a dessire to avoid war be anti-Ssemitic?!
Dumb-asss!*

Editor: All resistance to Globalism is "anti-Semitic."

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times (Op-Ed): Things Can Only Get Worse

By PAUL KRUGMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Paul Krugman (cough cough), the Slimes' mentally unhinged in-house communist "economist" (a Nobel Prize winner, no less!) continues his hate parade against Orange Man. ~~Sugar and I~~, er, The Editorial Board of The Anti-New York Times, have already debunked several of his more recent junk-attack pieces, and this one is just a repeat of his usual vomit.

"In his lurid, ghastly Inaugural Address, Mr. Trump portrayed a nation in dire straits — "American carnage." The real America looks nothing like that; it has plenty of problems, but things could be worse. In fact, it's likely that they will indeed get worse. How will a man who evidently can't handle even the smallest blow to his ego. How will a man who evidently can't handle even the smallest blow to his ego deal with it?

Let's talk about the predictable bad news."

Commie Krugman's vile virus is born at Sulzberger's Slimes, and then spreads through the TV media.

Krugman's demonic diatribe goes on to describe what a booming economy "Mr. Trump" inherited from Obongo, and how he is about to wreck it all by dismantling ObongoCare and cutting taxes. He paints a rosy picture of "full employment" and "rising wages" that exists only in the demented minds of the Piranha Press and its cult followers. And judging by the universal approval of the online commenters on this article, those cultists are just as loony as ever. One poster after another after another lauds this greasy ghoul's "analysis."

From the comments section, a few representative samples from the "educated" readers of Sulzberger's Slimes:

Will the repeal of the ACA be the trigger for the next recession/depression? How long will it take for the country to be plunged into a depression? It will depend on how large are the tax and spending cuts.

*

Mr. Krugman is right that Mr. Obama has left the country in near top shape for Mr. Trump.

*

You are right that we are "better than that". Unemployment is down, crime is low, health coverage is high, wages are up. But the reality is that the opposition can't run a campaign on that.

*

The incoming administration has already begun the process of hiding (possibly destroying) climate data that it does not like; any economic data that the administration does not like may well suffer the same fate.

Trump is just the latest republican-in-charge undoing the very federal programs that have boosted our economy

*

The republican business plan: lie, cheat and steal. And stifle the public voice.

*

Donald's major talent, like Vladimir Putin's, is the masterful manipulation (and censorship) of real news and facts and preference for fake news and propaganda; both being graduates of the Goebbels Institute of Propaganda.

The Slimes' comment section is infested with insane and angry libtards who, unlike Krugman, actually BELIEVE in this garbage.

More:

We must as a country commit to never allowing such an unqualified boor to run of this office again. The vast powers of the presidency do not fit with the notion that anyone off the street, even someone spouting unconstitutional views, can run for the presidency.

*

To the Republicans, crime doesn't mean actual criminal activity. It is now, and perhaps always has been, a dog whistle, a word they use to make their base fearful of the black and brown people who must be contained or imprisoned.

Obama inherited a mess and he left office with a country in a lot better shape.

*

Naturally, things could be better. However, since Trump thinks only in absolutes, either conditions are the best ever nor they are terrible, depending on the side he is on.

*

The voters who placed this unhinged lunatic in office have lost all connection to reality. Reality is about to reassert itself is spades.

And on and on the Krugman's parade of blithering Boobuses rolls -- hundreds of them! It would be funny if not so fraught with danger. As absurd as the lies of the Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press may appear to those of us with an ounce of common sense, it is easy to lose sight of the fact that millions of innocent people actually still swallow and parrot this filth. Libtardism is truly a mental disorder, and has the comments page at the Slimes indicates, the epidemic, though seemingly in remission, is still a long way from being eradicated.

Libtardism is a mental disorder -- and you can get it from reading the Slimes.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an Op-Ed by Nobel Prize-winning economist Paul Krugman in today's New York Times, condemning Trump for painting such a bleak picture of America when we are actually at full-employment now. The comments section was almost unanimous in agreeing with Krugman.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, the Times readership tends to be very well-educated, so it's not surprising that Krugman's analysis would be well-received.

Sugar: A sneaky con-man pinching out lumps of Marxisst manure; and a pair of sself-important foolss dutifully sswallowing and re-pooping it out at the water-cooler.

Editor: (palm to face, sigh, shaking head) -- I wish you could up with a cleaner metaphor, Sugar, but that is exactly how the devious dynamic works.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Trump Won't Back Down From His Voting Fraud Lie. Here Are the Facts.

By NICHOLAS FANDOS

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

As the proverb goes, "the flak is heaviest when you're right over the target." And few truths draw heavier flak from the big guns of Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press than the mere mention of even the possibility of inner-city, illegal alien, and absentee ballot voter fraud. Add another point to Orange Man's "plus column" for his clearly calculated decision to have his press secretary double-down on previous charges of massive voter fraud. Most pleasing is the fact that OM brought this up before Congressional leaders.

From the article:

"During a private meeting with congressional leaders on Monday, President Trump asserted that between three million and five million unauthorized immigrants had voted for his Democratic opponent."

If OM decides to pursue this super scandal, it has the potential to alter the balance of American politics for many years to come. The communist-libtard complex understands the seriousness of these charges and their implications, which is why they are responding in such a fierce and illogical manner. Let's analyze some of the hysterical weak rationalizations, logical fallacies and counter claims put forth in this article.

2011: 12 Democrats were Charged in Georgia for Absentee Ballot Voter Fraud.

Slimes: There is no evidence to support (Trump's) claim, ...

Rebuttal: "No evidence?" Let's not get ahead of ourselves. The process of justice does not begin with "evidence," but rather with "reasonable suspicion" (of which there is plenty), which may or may not escalate to "probable cause." In other words, if the voter rolls and / or the results from certain precincts only appear to be out of order, then that is enough to take a closer look. The subsequent investigation will either uncover the "smoking gun" evidence to confirm the original allegations, or it will not.

Slimes: ... which has been discredited repeatedly by numerous fact-checkers.

Rebuttal: ... The Appeal to Authority Fallacy. Apart from the fact that these "numerous fact-checkers" are invariably of reddish or pinkish stripes, nothing can be "discredited" until there is a thorough audit of voter rolls and a full hearing of witness testimonies.

Slimes: That did not stop Sean Spicer, the White House press secretary, from standing by the president's words on Tuesday during a briefing with reporters at the White House. "As I said, I think the president has believed that for a while based on studies and information he has," Mr. Spicer said.

Rebuttal: Orange Man never said that he knows, he said that he believes. Based on historical precedent, research studies, numerical anomalies and witness testimonies, such a belief is perfectly reasonable and easily meets the standard for "reasonable suspicion."

Slimes: Mr. Trump has falsely said since his victory that millions of people voted illegally.

Rebuttal: How can one say that the charges are "false?" Maybe unproven at this time, but you cannot say "false" until a thorough examination of voter rolls has been completed.

2008: Ron Jones of Philadelphia tells CNN: "I voted twice."

Slimes: Pressed to present the evidence on Tuesday, Mr. Spicer appeared to conflate two different studies that Mr. Trump's staff had previously cited in defending his claim -- "one that came out of Pew in 2008 that showed 14 percent of people who voted were non-citizens," Mr. Spicer said.

Rebuttal: So, the Pew Research Center has data to back-up Orange Man's claims? Interesting. Maybe there is something to this issue of mass voter fraud after all?

Slimes: Here are the facts. Neither study Mr. Spicer apparently referred to supports Mr. Trump's claim.

The first study was conducted in 2014 ... the researchers found that 14 percent of non-citizens who responded to the survey in 2008 and 2010 said they were registered to vote.

The problem is that the study relied on flawed data and was roundly criticized by political scientists ...

Rebuttal: "Roundly criticized by political scientists," eh? In other words, commie-pinko professors denounced the findings and that's good enough for the Slimes.

Slimes: The second study, conducted in 2012 by the Pew Center on the States, found that 24 million voter registrations were no longer valid or "significantly inaccurate”; that more than 1.8 million dead people were still listed on the voter rolls; and that almost 3 million were registered in multiple states, probably because they had moved from one state to another.

The study did not find evidence that those errors led to voter fraud, however, simply that they presented avoidable costs and inefficiencies in the electoral process.

Rebuttal: In other words, just because the voter rolls are full of names that need to be purged (24 million!), it doesn't mean that people voted under these names. How the frickety-frack do the "fact checkers" know whether they did or not until there is an investigation -- which is something that they oppose.

Slimes: The primary author of the study, David Becker, made that plain in a Twitter post in November. We found millions of out of date registration records due to people moving or dying, but found no evidence that voter fraud resulted.

Rebuttal: Again, the standard here is for "reasonable suspicion" and / or "probable cause," not for "evidence of guilt" That will, or will not, come later.

Pew: "24 Million Invalid Registrations"

Slimes: Mr. Trump's assertion likewise found little backing from his Republican colleagues on Capitol Hill. "I've seen no evidence to that effect," House Speaker Paul D. Ryan told reporters on Monday when asked about the purported voter fraud.

Rebuttal: Eddie Munster pisses his pants, again -- surprise surprise.

Slimes: In an interview with CNN, Senator Lindsey Graham, Republican of South Carolina, urged Mr. Trump to "knock this off."

"This is going to erode his ability to govern this country if he does not stop it," Mr. Graham said, adding that the president needed to present evidence for his beliefs if he was going to continue to profess them.

Rebuttal: Lindy Graham and John McCain are Orange Man's mortal enemies in the Senate.

Slimes: Others simply deflected questions about Mr. Trump's claims.

Asked about the accuracy of the president's assessment, Senator Mitch McConnell of Kentucky, the majority leader, chose to answer a question no one had asked.

"It does occur," he said of voter fraud, declining to quantify the scope. "There are always arguments on both sides about how much, how frequent and all the rest."

Rebuttal: What's this??? The creepy Bitch McConnell discovers a droplet or two of residual testosterone? Interesting. Let's hope that Orange Man's "Alpha maleness" is contagious among some more of these de-balled Republican's. Because if the full extent of Democrat voter fraud ever comes out --- it will rock this nation to its foundations.

But if it doesn't go any further than press conferences, then it means that OM is just playing a tactical game here. Stay tuned.

House Squeaker Eddie Munster undermines Orange Man on voter fraud, as does Sodomite Graham. But Senate Leader McConnell took a "let's see" stand.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump is again, without evidence, bringing up allegations of voter fraud to explain why he lost the popular vote.

Boobus Americanus 2: I don't understand why he is wasting political capital over this. He should be glad he won the Electoral College vote and forget it.

Sugar: Maybe becausse the allegationss of masss voter fraud are true. Ever think of that possssibility, Boobuss?

Editor: I really hope Orange Man is for real with this and puts his Attorney General on the case.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Doomsday Clock Moves Closer to Midnight, Signaling Concern Among Scientists

By JONAH ENGEL BROMWICH

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The trumpets of holy Mount Olympus summon us to obedient attention. Hush up and drop to your knees, boys and girls, the "scientists" who operate the goofy "Doomsday Clock" have a dire warning for us all.

From the article:

"It is getting closer to midnight.

On Thursday, the group of scientists who orchestrate the Doomsday Clock, a symbolic instrument informing the public when the earth is facing imminent disaster, moved its minute hand from three to two and a half minutes before the final hour."

Be afraid, boys and girls. Be very afraid.

Back during the days when school children were terrorized with "Duck and Cover" drills, the "Doomsday Clock" was introduced (1947) and used to sell the sheeple on the idea that all nations should one day hand over control of armaments to the U.N. as the only way to avoid "doomsday." Though that radical proposal (originated by the communist Robert Oppenheimer and cryptically proposed by President Eisenhower) never came to fruition, the fear of "the bomb" was in fact successfully used by the Globalists to expand America's "role in the world" TM; consolidate "the free world" TM; build the framework for today's European Union; and strengthen NATO.

With the end of the Cold War, the "Doomsday Clock," though still "calculated" each year, faded into irrelevancy. But now it is back in news and featured in today's "Science Section" of Sulzberger's Slimes. So, what has prompted the great and good "scientists" (bow your head in reverence as you say that word) to move the hands of doom to "1 minute, 30 seconds to midnight?" You guessed it --- Orange Man!

The origin of the "Doomsday Clock" coincided with the "Duck and Cover" idiocy of the 50's & 60's. Then, as now, the purpose is to frighten the weak-minded into accepting Globalism as the "solution." In the age of Trump, the pathetic game is rapidly losing its effectiveness.

Slimes Science: Thursday's announcement was made by Rachel Bronson, Rebuttal: Bronson is a member of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs -- sister group of the world-government-promoting Council on Foreign Relations in New York.... Next.

Slimes Science: ... She was assisted by the theoretical physicist Lawrence Krauss, Rebuttal: A "theoretical physicist" is essentially a glorified numbers-cruncher who relies upon mathematical masturbation instead of actual observation and experimentation to "prove" his theories. ... Next.

Slimes Science: ... the climate scientist and meteorologist David Titley, ...

Rebuttal: Titty boy was the Chief Operating Officer of the corrupt agency known as NOAA (National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) from 2012-2013. Try not to laugh, but he claims that "Climate Change" TM contributed to the 2011 Arab Spring. --- Next.

Slimes Science: ... and the former United States ambassador Thomas Pickering.

Rebuttal: Pickering, a member of the world-government-promoting Council on Foreign Relations, was George Bush 41's Ambassador to the U.N. --- the same Bush who openly and repeatedly called for a "New World Order."

Globalists Bronson, Titley and Pickering sense the pending "doom" --- their own!

Slimes Science: "We're so concerned about the rhetoric, and the lack of respect for expertise, that we moved it 30 seconds," she (Ms. Bronson) said. "Rather than create panic, we're hoping that this drives action."

Rebuttal: What "expertise" is that, sweetie? "Youse guys" have been peddling this "Global Warming" TM bullshit for nearly 40 years now. Where's the beef? Of course, we all know that you know it's fake science.

Slimes Science: In an op-ed for The New York Times, Dr. Titley and Dr. Krauss elaborated on their concerns, citing the increasing threats of nuclear weapons ...

Rebuttal: "Increasing threats of nuclear weapons?" How can these deceitful globo-commies whine about the Putin-Orange Man "bromance," in one breath, and then warn about an "increasing" threat of nuclear war in the next? Wouldn't a U.S. - Russian reconciliation decrease the chances of war, professors?

Slimes Science: ... and climate change, as well as President Trump's pledges to impede what they see as progress on both fronts, as reasons for moving the clock closer to midnight.

Rebuttal: Professors Titley and Krausse know that "Climate Science" TM grant money is about to dry up -- "big league" -- as Orange Man would say.

Slimes Science: "Never before has the Bulletin decided to advance the clock largely because of the statements of a single person," they wrote. "But when that person is the new president of the United States, his words matter."

Rebuttal: The fact that the pseudo-scientific white-coated scum of the earth felt compelled to move the hands of the "Doomsday Clock" is actually a good sign. Add some more points to Orange Man's plus-column.

1 - If Orange Man and Putin forge an alliance, the world actually becomes a safer place. Yet, in addition to their "Climate Change" TM scare, the distinguished keepers of the clock claim that the threat of nuclear war has just increased.

2 & 3 - Three generations of high and mighty (and oh-so-serious-looking) "scientists" have had their cuckoo-clock at minutes to midnight for almost 70 years now. The goofy game is up --- time to find real jobs, professors!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that respected scientists are now so concerned about Trump's rhetoric that they have moved the famous Doomsday Clock to almost midnight.

Boobus Americanus 2: That's scary.

Sugar: Come here Boobuss. I'll sshove that clock up your ass!

Editor: That would cause brain damage.

JANUARY, 2017

NY Times: Judge Blocks Trump Order on Refugees Amid Chaos and Outcry Worldwide

NY Times: Immigration Ban Is Unlikely to Reduce Terrorist Threat, Experts Say

NY Times: Trump's Immigration Ban Draws Deep Anger and Muted Praise

NY Times: Warm Welcome for Syrians in a Country About to Ban Them

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Judging only by the sound and fury emanating from Sulzberger's Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press, one would think that innocent Arab and Muslim women and children, on orders from Orange Man, are being rounded up at the airports and sent to "zee gas chambers" or something. Conversely, if worshipping the "alternative" end of America's media idiocracy, such as the Drudge Retard, Disinfo Wars, Not-So-Brightbart, Faux News, and even some of our brothers in the "conspiracy theory" TM community, one would think that Orange Man just "made America safe again" from the big bad Muslim terrorists that hide under every rock.

What's the truth? Who do we believe? Well, boys and girls, we absolutely hate this cliché because it is so often used to confuse rather than enlighten; but after having read the actual Executive Order online (what an innovative idea, eh?), in this particular case, the truth about "the Muslim ban" lies in the middle.

The controlled "left" and the controlled "right" are both spewing B.S. about this Executive Order.

A quick review of the main points of the E.O. that everyone is buzzing about:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans.

Analysis: Total crap! 9/11 was an inside job with Israeli assistance. And of the "19 foreign nationals" falsely identified as 9/11 "hijackers," 14 were said to have come from Saudi Arabia. So, why isn't Saudi Arabia among the seven countries affected by this Executive Order?

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Analysis: Again with the phony "terrorism in America!" Notwithstanding such rubbish, we'll go along with the prevention of "malevolence" -- such as the Somali crime wave that has impacted Minnesota. Somalia is among the list of seven nations.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern.

Analysis: A "suspension," of the refugee program (120 days) not a ban. We wish it was a "ban" on further refugee resettlement.

Thanks to the order, the influx of Somali criminals and rapists to Minnesota is coming to an end.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission.

Analysis: Weeding out fraudsters and criminals. OK by us!

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

Analysis: No more waivers -- everyone must be interviewed. OK by us!

In spite of its good points, the conservatards are pathetically deluded or deceitful when they claim that this is a terror-fighting precaution for the simple reason that, as regular readers of The Anti-New York Times know, there is no such thing as Islamic terror in America. Again, the 9/11 attacks were orchestrated by rogue CIA and military establishment elements, with the help of Israeli explosive experts and Israeli actors pretending to be Muslims. And, more recently, the "shootings" at San Bernadino and Orlando, as well as the fake truck attacks in France and Germany, were all crisis-actor fakeries.

On the other hand, the libtards are equally deluded or deceitful in describing Orange Man's order as cruel and "discriminatory" TM. There are two temporary restrictions, one affecting travel (90 days), and the other affecting refugee immigration (120 days). The suspensions affect only those coming from Syria, Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, Somalia and Sudan. Those on government business are exempted.

Speaking of cruelty towards Arabs and Muslims, it didn't trouble the Obamunists at all when he took or ruined the lives of countless innocent men, women and children in Libya and Syria, not to mention his notorious Predator Drone strikes on wedding parties and funeral processions. To date, Orange Man has neither killed nor injured any Arabs or Muslims.

1- Evil-doers such as the 5 "Dancing Israelis" who were arrested on 9/11 will still be free to come and go as they please.

2- Libtards didn't seem to mind when Obongo KILLED innocent Arabs / Muslims, but are mad as hell over a suspension of immigration and air travel?

During the refugee restriction new vetting procedures will be put into place. Those refugees who are already in the pipeline will not be affected, but they will have to complete an interview. Apart from that, the order requires Homeland Security and the State Department to implement tighter screening practices and report on progress of same every 30 days. The sanctified "migrants" will no longer be able to use false identifies or shared identities to break into America. And though the language seems a bit vague, it can be construed to mean that new arrivals will be required to explain how they intend to support themselves.

In spite of the nonsense about "Islamic terrorism," it's a good order. However, and this is no minor detail, the banning of tourists and students from the peaceful nation of Iran, albeit just for 90 days, stinks of Orange Man's Ortho-Jew / Likudnik Zionist son-in-law Jared Kushner. Iran has already stated its intention to bar American tourists, in what could turn out to be a dangerous tit-for-tat that could lead to even more dangerous tit-for-tat. Could this be the reason why Orange Man -- who surely must know that the U.S. military is the most well-funded and most powerful in the world -- keeps talking nonsense about "rebuilding our depleted military." ... For what, OM? To repel an invasion from Canada?

We score this Executive Order as 1 more point in Orange Man's "plus column" --- and, because of the Jew-inspired anti-Iranian bullsh, 1 offsetting point in his "minus column." Pardon our schizophrenic overall assessment of Orange Man, but "the jury is still out" on who he is and what he is really all about.

HANDS OFF OF IRAN, ORANGE MAN!

Orange Man's affection for his Likudnik son-in-law / "adviser" Jared Kushner and the ultra-Israeli nationalist madman Bibi Satanyahoo, combined with an increasing rhetorical hostility towards Iran, are disturbing realities that we cannot ignore. In spite of how much damage he appears to be doing to the Soros Globalist faction of the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class), the "lesser of two evils" is still evil.

THIS JUST IN!

9/11 co-conspirator Rudy Giuliani helped to craft the Executive Order

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump is banning innocent Muslims from traveling to America to see loved ones.

Boobus Americanus 2: It's a tough call. On the one hand, we don't want another 9/11. Had those 19 hijackers been screened properly, 3000 Americans would still be alive today. .. And yet, we must be careful that we don't destroy the lives of innocent people. After all, whether our ancestors came here on the Mayflower or in slave ships, we are all the children of immigrants.

Sugar: Boobuss! You frickin' platitute-sspewing cornball. You're wrong on both ssidess of thiss!

Editor: The 'conservative' Fox News or the 'liberal' New York Slimes --- Pick your poison.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: Raid in Yemen: Risky From the Start and Costly in the End

NY Times: Trump's U.N. Envoy, Nikki Haley, Condemns Russian Aggression in Ukraine

NY Times: Trump Puts Iran 'on Notice' After Ballistic Missile Test

NY Times: Defense Chief James Mattis Warns North Korea Against Any Attack on the U.S. or its Allies

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

What the frickety-frack is going on here?! Is Orange Man suddenly taking secret marching orders from Dickhead Cheney and Congosleaza Rice or something? The span of just the past 36 hours of this writing has witnessed National Security Advisor Mike Flynn putting Iran "on notice," and an attack on Yemen that resulted in the death of one commando and an undetermined number of innocent Yemeni civilians, and UN Ambassador Nikki Haley declaring that sanctions against Russia will not be removed until Russia hands Crimea back to the criminal state of Ukraine, and Secretary of Defense James "Mad Dog" Mattis hurling threats of an "effective and overwhelming" response in the imaginary event of North Korean aggression.

Who let the dogs out, indeed?! This is madness. Not only does this smell like the same type of endless and aggressive intervention that Obongo-Bush-Clinton-Bush-Reagan-Carter et al had mired America in for decades past, but in each case, Orange Man's operatives are aligning with the "bad guys" against the innocent. Consider:

- Iran is not the threat to the peace of the region. Israel is.
- The independence-seeking Houthis did not start the war in Yemen. The Israeli-aligned Saudis did.
- The Russians did not start the fires in Crimea and the Donbass region. The US-Israeli backed gangsters who took over Ukraine did.
- The isolationist North Koreans do not want to pick a fight. The US and its South Korean vassals do.

General Flynn (Image 1) and General (now Secretary of Defense) Mattis (Image 2) both want to harass or even fight the peaceful nation of Iran.

3- Orange Man's new CIA Chief, Mike Pompeo is one of those Zionist-Christian rapture bunny nut-jobs --- an extreme anti-Muslim bigot who also hates Iran with a not-so-"Christian" passion. That's him in Jerusalem.

From the article about the Flynn comments:

"As of today, we are officially putting Iran on notice," said Michael T. Flynn, the national security adviser, making his debut in the White House briefing room to read a terse statement that was almost as critical of the Obama administration as it was of Iran."

"On notice?" For what? Who the heck are you, Flynn? Please Mr. Orange Man. Tell us that this ass-clown wasn't speaking with your blessing? Please?

The combed-over clown then followed up with another of his now tiresome "tweets" --

"Iran was on its last legs and ready to collapse until the U.S. came along and gave it a life-line in the form of the Iran Deal: $150 billion."

Why should we want to cause so much suffering to the innocent people of Iran by "collapsing" their economy? And actually, Orange Man, for your information, Iran was not "collapsing." And finally, the $150 Billion was rightfully Iran's money, just unfrozen.

Make America Fight Again

The article about the Yemeni raid describes the decision-making process and the horrible consequences:

"With two of his closest advisers, Jared Kushner and Stephen K. Bannon, joining the dinner at the White House along with Defense Secretary Jim Mattis and Gen. Joseph F. Dunford Jr., Mr. Trump approved sending in the Navy's SEAL Team 6..."

Vice President Mike Pence and Michael T. Flynn, the national security adviser, also attended the dinner. As it turned out, almost everything that could go wrong did. And on Wednesday, Mr. Trump flew to Dover Air Force Base in Delaware to be present as the body of the American commando killed in the raid was returned home, the first military death on the new commander in chief's watch.

The raid also destroyed much of the village of Yakla, and left senior Yemeni government officials seething. Yemen's foreign minister, Abdul Malik Al Mekhlafi, condemned the raid on Monday in a post on his official Twitter account as "extrajudicial killings."

Congratulations OM. You are now officially a member of the distinguished Presidential Murderers Club. Are you proud of having signed the order which blew up of a village, killed a handful of women and children, created a new batch of traumatized Yemeni refugees -- all as you cracked jokes at a prayer breakfast? Same sick and twisted stuff Obongo and Bush used to get away with. Orange Man has shed innocent blood and no amount of entertaining liberal-bashing or wall-building can fully compensate for that -- at least not in our eyes and souls.

1 & 2 - Similar to the heroic Hezbollah fighters of Lebanon, the Houthis (said to be backed by Iran) are a religious-political movement that condemns what it calls "the US-Israeli conspiracy with Arab collusion." They now control parts of Yemen, but both Israel and the Globalists want the tenacious Houthis crushed. Their Saudi partners have not been able to do so. This is why Orange Man's travel ban to "stop terrorists" includes Yemen, but not Saudi Arabia.

3 - US Navy SEAL William Owens -- sent to his death in Yemen by Orange Man, Mad Bannon and sonny-boy Kosher Kushner. Many more to follow?

ABC News / 02/01/2017

"The White House also faulted Iran for backing Houthi rebels in Yemen who on Tuesday claimed a successful missile strike against a warship belonging to a Saudi-led coalition fighting to reinstall Yemen's internationally recognized government."

REUTERS / 12 /03 /2017

"WASHINGTON: The United States has sent a Navy destroyer to patrol off the coast of Yemen to protect waterways from Houthi militia aligned with Iran, two U.S. officials told Reuters on Friday, amid heightened tension between Washington and Tehran."

As for "Mad Dog" Mattis's ugly threats toward North Korea - which only seeks to be left alone by the US and its South Korean stooge - this too serves the agenda of Israel. You see, the Zionists consider N. Korea an enemy state because it sells advanced technology to Syria and Iran. For its part, North Korea refuses to even acknowledge Israel as a state! That is why a nation so many thousands of miles from the Middle East was branded as a member of the "Axis of Evil" by George Bush 43, and it is also why the Zionists around Orange Man are already talking nonsense about "protecting Japan and South Korea."

1- For the sake of Israel, Orange Man's mad gang is threatening the far eastern member of Bush and Cheney's "Axis of Evil."

2- 2007: Operation Orchard, Syria: The terrorist state of Israel bombed and destroyed an alleged nuclear reactor in Syria. Among the dozens killed were 10 North Korean scientists.

And finally, from the article about Haley's belligerent attitude toward Russia:

"The dire situation in eastern Ukraine is one that demands clear and strong condemnation of Russian actions."

Perhaps, in this particular case, Haley is singing her own tune and not Trump's. Perhaps. But the threats against Iran and the attacks against areas of Yemen (carried out under the pretext of "fighting terrorism" TM) are inexcusable and benefit only one group -- the Israel Firsters, represented in the high levels of the OM administration by Stephen Bannon of Israeli-controlled Not-So-Bright-Bart News, and Orthodox Jew son-in-law Jared Kushner.

Israeli Prime Minister Bibi Satanyahu will be visiting Orange Man and Koshier Kushner next week. Expect sanctions against Iran to be coming soon, and expect more blood and guts in Yemen. If this is the path that OM and is going to lead us down, then the months and years ahead could be every bit as dangerous as what Killary had in store for us. Because if OM, Bannon and Kushner believe that Russia, and China, will stand down and allow Iran to fall, then they are badly mistaken. But Bannon probably knows this, which would explain why the plotting "alt right" scumbag said on a radio show, just last year:

"We're going to war in the South China Sea in five to 10 years. There's no doubt about that. They're taking their sandbars and making basically stationary aircraft carriers and putting missiles on those. They come here to the United States in front of our face – and you understand how important face is – and say it's an ancient territorial sea."

"You have an expansionist Islam and you have an expansionist China. Right? They are motivated. They're arrogant. They're on the march. And they think the Judeo-Christian west is on the retreat."

Boys and girls, "youse guys" know how fair and patient that ~~Sugar and I~~, er, The Editorial Board of The Anti-New York Times has been with regard to objectively evaluating the "pluses" and "minuses" of Orange Man. It is with heavy hearts that we now say that the Israel Firster faction of the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) recruited and put Orange Man in office for the purpose of containing Iran so that the Greater Israel project could move forward unopposed. And we therefore forecast (with 70% certainty) that OM's foreign policy debacles, among other factors beyond his control, will ultimately be the undoing of his presidency and his movement -- at which time, the satisfied Zionists will discard him like a used-up lemon as they turn America's steering wheel back to the hard-left for the final time.

1- Bannon of Breitbart News ("conceived in Israel") is hated by the Globalists mainly because of some "conservative" positions, but also because he works for ultra-nationalist Bibi Netanyahu. In the end, Greater Israel may get what it wants and a war weary America may turn left again.

2- Bannon, Kushner and the rabid generals-turned-cabinet-heads have all got the knives out for Iran, North Korea and the Houthis of Yemen.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times about the challenges that Trump is already facing with Iran and in Yemen.

Boobus Americanus 2: Adversaries always test a new President.

Sugar: Our only foreign adverssary iss Issrael, you credulouss cretin!

Editor: We're only one Zionist false-flag away from disaster.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: Ivanka Trump and Jared Kushner Said to Have Helped Thwart L.G.B.T. Rights Rollback

By GLENN THRUSH and MAGGIE HABERMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

In a spit-in-the-face to the Christian voting bloc that overwhelmingly supported Orange Man, it is now clear that wedding planners, bakers, florists, photographers and any other business people who dare to resist the Pink Mafia will not be getting any protection from the White House. You will bake that wedding cake for John and Robert. You will take those kissy-kissy portraits of Peter and Frank gazing into each other's eyes in the beachfront gazebo. You will hire that bearded, hairy-legged tranny in a mini-skirt and heels and let him dress as he / she / it pleases. And if you don't like it, pay a hefty fine, lose your business or go to jail!

And who was behind this sudden decision to "protect LGBT rights?" The article explains:

"The two most influential social liberals in President Trump's inner circle — daughter Ivanka and son-in-law Jared Kushner — helped kill a proposed executive order that would have scrapped Obama-era L.G.B.T. protections, according to people familiar with the issue."

A third, Gary D. Cohn, the chairman of the president's National Economic Council, a Democrat who was brought to the West Wing by Mr. Kushner and reflects the socially liberal and economically conservative views of many Wall Street power brokers, privately told aides to the president that he was disturbed it was even being considered."

Image 1 & 2: Christian bakery owners Aaron and Melissa Klein were fined $135,000 for refusing to make and deliver a cake to a dyke wedding. They were forced to close their doors. Image 3: The liberal Democrat Kushners out on the town --- at "Hamilton" on Broadway. The degenerate New York-DC "power couple" do not believe that people in "flyover country," such as the Kleins, should have religious or property rights.

Surprise, surprise. The "social liberals" Kushner (cough cough), Ivanka (converted cough cough) and Cohn (cough cough) went "to bat" for the sodomites, cross-dressers and self-mutilators, siding with them against the normal majority of good heartland folks. This isn't the first time that daddy's little billionaire girl and daddy's little billionaire son-in-law have flexed their Marxist muscles, and it won't be the last. Recall that it was Ivanka and Jared who banished conservative Corey Lewandowski, Orange Man's original and intensely loyal campaign manager, into obscurity.

Recall that first debate with Killary Clinscum, in which OM refused to go after the nasty hag, even as she savaged him in a personal way. The reason for OM's initial timidity? Ivanka is good friends with Chelsea Clinton (who is also married to a Jewish crook), and he didn't want to upset his little girl! Fortunately for OM, he got over that timidity, but still never went far enough.

Princess Ivanka is also said to be cooking up "progressive" schemes to help "working mothers," while excluding traditional moms who choose to stay at home and raise their children -- even though their husbands may not earn a lot of money. And, like all good little New York libtards, Ivanka believes in "Global Warming" TM and Climate Change TM. "Daddy, daddy, the ice caps are melting! I learned about it in prep school!"

As for this Yeshiva Boy, this spoiled son of a jailbird, this Likud Zionist and lifelong Democrat, Jared Kushner, he sits at Orange Man's right hand and helped to make the decision that got a Navy Seal killed in Yemen while blowing up a village. It was Kushner who blocked New Jersey Governor Crispy Crème Christie from being appointed Attorney General, even though the Jersey Fatso played a huge part in getting Orange Man elected. Crispy Crème, you will recall, ran interference by savaging little Marco "Bubble Boy" Rubio during one of the QFS (Quadrennial Freak Show) Primary Debates. We hold no affection for the Jersey Jerk, but why wasn't he rewarded for his service?

You see, it was Crispy Crème Christie, as a Federal prosecutor, who put Charles Kushner, Jared's crooked father behind bars for illegal campaign contributions (to Democrats), tax evasion and witness tampering. "Daddy, daddy! Don't give Christie a job. He was so mean to Jared's daddy!"

Christie had no chance to win the GOP nomination. His vicious attacks on Rubio were meant to help Orange Man, and they did! Christie never got the reward of a high cabinet position because Jared and Ivanka wouldn't allow it.

Image 1: Criminal Jew and big Democrat donor Charles Kushner (on right) poses with then-President Bill Clinton. Image 2: Jared took his Jewish revenge on prosecutor Christie. Image 3: Father and son, real estate moguls and left-wing Democrats.

Ivanka and Jared represent the modern day incarnation of Esther and Mordecai from the Old Testament Book of Esther. As the story goes, the lovely Esther had seduced the King of Persia, who took her for his bride. She then brought her Uncle Mordecai along with her into the inner circle. Under the influence of Esther and Mordecai, the stupid King granted the Jews permission to slaughter scores of thousands of their "anti-Semitic" enemies.

A few excerpts from the Book of Esther. Some really sick stuff:

"For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai became increasingly prominent. Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows." So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king. And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you.

The remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies...This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth of the month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness (Purim)."

Image 1: What a thing to "celebrate," eh? Mordecai and Esther got the King to hang Haman and his 10 sons (Total: 11)

Image 2: Coincidence, or sick ritual? After the Nuremberg Kangaroo Court, "10 sons" of Hitler were hanged. Goering would have been the 11th had he not poisoned himself. Image 3: Foreign Minister Ribbentrop.

The celebration of this genocide is called Purim. On this festive day, Jews like Ivanka and Jared will attend synagogue to hear the account of the ghastly killing spree from the Book of Esther read out loud. Whenever the name of the "anti-Semite" Prince Haman is mentioned, the rowdy synagogue crowd boos and hisses. Afterwards, many Jews will get drunk and have a feast. Their meal will be topped off with cookies called Hamantash, Hebrew for "Haman's Ears." This is no joke: the cookies symbolize the chopped-off ears of their murdered "anti-Semitic" enemies.

The Daily Mail (UK) informs us of Ivanka's preparation for the hate-fest known as Purim.

Ivanka Trump Spends Weekend Preparing for Jewish Holiday Purim

Festival of HATE! Jewish children re-enact the killing of Haman during Purim.

Image 1: Ivanka's and Jared's "Modern Orthodox" Baby Boy Joseph has plenty of candy and Hamentesh for Purim. Image 2 & 3: The children depicted in the cartoon are juggling "Haman's Ears" cookies.

The disrespectful young couple represents the absolute worst possible combination of New York City libtard elitism and Likud Party Zionism. Of course, we always knew about Jared and Ivanka's political leanings. What troubles us is the apparent extent of the influence which "Mordecai" and "Esther" are now wielding, in matters both foreign and domestic, over the Orange Man. To paraphrase "Rhett Butler," a good lashing with a buggy whip would benefit Daddy's little girl immensely --- as might a good you-what-ing from a real man! As for geeky Yeshiva-boy Jared, a few minutes in a steel cage match with any of the Navy Seals that survived the bothered raid that in Yemen that he advocated for would benefit him as well.

Add a few more checkmarks to Orange Man's "minus" column.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump's influential daughter and son-in-law are quite liberal in their social attitudes.

Boobus Americanus 2: Hopefully, they will have a moderating influence against the social conservatives.

Sugar: Ain't nothing 'moderate' about New York City Jewss using the power of the state to force middle-America to accept faggotry and cross-dressing against their will.

Editor: Who the hell do these little billionaire prep school kiddies think they are?! And shame on OM for allowing them to wield so much influence.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: Iran's Supreme Leader Thanks Trump for Showing America's 'True Face'

By THOMAS ERDBRINK

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Much like the cautious optimism that ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times displayed with regard to the election of Orange Man, so too did the Iranian leadership hold its rhetorical fire in response to OM's anti-Iranian campaign rhetoric. Surely, the Iranians must have hoped that OM's tough talk was just an electoral necessity in Jewish-owned America. But now, less than one month into the new regime, the stench of rotten gefilte fish that Sugar was first to detect (Conspiracy Cat's instincts are spooky accurate) has also reached Tehran.

"You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours."

Image 2: Trump endorses Satanyahu on Israeli TV Image 3: Satanyahu endorses Trump's border wall.

According to a report posted on his official website, Iran's spiritual leader Ayatollah Khamenei told Iranian Air Force commanders, "we are thankful to this newcomer for revealing the true face of the United States."

From the Slimes' article:

"After Ayatollah Khamenei spoke out sarcastically about Mr. Trump, others expressed worries. Iran's foreign minister, Mohammad Javad Zarif, said in an interview with a local newspaper that he expected "difficult times ahead" for Iran, now that Mr. Trump was in charge.

Iran's president, Hassan Rouhani, defended the nuclear agreement between his country and six world powers, including the United States, by saying that the deal was "win-win" for all."

On Faux News and via Twitter, the increasingly unhinged Orange Man, his cabinet clowns and his surrogates have been slandering Iran relentlessly as "the biggest sponsor of state terrorism." And yet, not a single act of terror, neither real nor crisis-actor fakery, has ever been linked to Iran. That makes OM a dirty-stinking slanderer of similar low status as any of his predecessors, doesn't it?

Orange Man's embarrassingly ignorant and increasingly childish "tweets" are straight from the Israel Lobby's book of deceitful talking points. It's the "Weapons of Mass Destruction" TM lie all over again!

Ayatollah Khamenei responded to OM's insane Twitter rant about how Iran should have "appreciated" Obongo's "kindness" by posting a biting tweet of his own:

"Iran should've appreciated Obama! How come? Appreciate him for #DAESH (ISIS), war in Iraq & Syria or public support for 2009 unrest?"

Good comeback, Mr. Ayatollah!

As a possible move against Iran, OM's advisers -- which include Israeli agent Steve Bannon and Zionist Jew son-in-law Jared Kushner, are contemplating an Executive Order that would designate Iran's Revolutionary Guards Corps as a terrorist organization. You know, it's interesting -- OM has been dishing out Executive Orders, targeted at undoing the Obongo legacy, as if they were candy bars. But the one E.O. that OM has not signed would be one ordering the immediate withdrawal of the thousands of tanks and thousands of troops that Obongo had positioned into Poland and the Baltic States -- just before leaving the White House to make up for all the pent-up homosexual romps that he could not so easily enjoy while he was such a public figure, but we digress.

1 - Obongo and suspected "bi-sexual" Richard Branson (Virgin Airlines) frolic about his private island. 2- Obongo's tank brigade just arrived in Poland. Orange Man has yet to even condemn this aggressive action aimed at Russia, let alone rescind the order. 3- Sorry, Orange Man. We will not be impressed until you order the troops and tanks back from peaceful Russia's border.

Could it be that the Trump-Putin "bromance" is a strategic deception aimed at driving a wedge between Russia and its allies, Iran and China? That might explain why the diabolical Globalist Henry Kissinger has expressed so much hope for OM. After all, Kissinger was the one who engineered Nixon's outreach to China in the hopes of driving a "divide and conquer" wedge between China and the Soviet Union. The fact that Commander-in-Chief OM has neither uttered nor twittered a word of concern about the INSANE build-up now taking place along Russian frontiers calls into question everything and anything.

Neither Russia nor China will ever abandon Iran or Syria; and Iran will neither abandon the heroic Hezbollah defenders of Lebanon nor the equally heroic Hoithi freedom-fighters of Yemen. Something has got to give. The Israel Firster with the Jewish daughter has already shown his true face to Yemen, and to Iran. We now suspect that he will, in due time, also show it to Iran's Russian ally as well.

1- Forty-five years ago, Henry the K reached out to China in order to play it against the Soviet Union. Is this what Orange Man's outreach to Russia is all about? Splitting Russia away from Iran and China? Ain't happening, OM.
 2 & 3- Kissinger visits Trump Tower -- Kissinger: "Don't expect Trump to maintain all his promises." -- 12/6/2016

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Iran is not happy about Trump's threats.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, I don't like Trump. But we need to stand up to Iran. They are the world's number 1 state sponsor of terrorism.

Sugar: Exactly what terrorisst attackss hass Iran ever ssponsored, Boobuss? Can you name jusst one? ----- Hello? Boobuss? ---- Hello? ----
Ansswer the frickin' quesstion, you dad-gum moron!!!

Editor: Give him a chance, Sugar. He's thinking about it.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: Trump Tells Xi Jinping U.S. Will Honor 'One China' Policy

By MARK LANDLER and MICHAEL FORSYTHE

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Ironically, this story about Orange Man's recognition of the "One China" position gives ~~Sugar and I~~, er, the "Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times the ideal opening to break away from the tiresome 24/7 coverage of Trump and address an interesting historical question instead -- namely, what is this controversy about "one China" vs "two Chinas" all about? Like so many other of the world's hot spots and problem areas, this controversy was created by the Globalists, specifically, traitors such as Hiroshima Harry Truman's Secretary of States, George Marshall and Dean Acheson; and also "scholar," Owen Lattimore (now known to have been a Communist).

- 1: The traitor George Marshall (2nd from left), as Special Envoy to China and later as Secretary of State, was among the handful of US Globalists who deliberately engineered the fall of China to Stalin's agent, Mao Tse Tung (on right).
2. The "two Chinas" controversy remains a challenge because the US is committed to the "defense" of Taiwan.

During World War II, China's American-allied Nationalist government (led by Chiang Kai Shek) and China's Stalin-allied Communist rebels (led by Mao Tse Tung) put aside their differences (at least partially) and focused on fighting the Japanese. Unbeknown to Chiang Kai Shek, Roosevelt and the gang of Communist moles who accompanied him to the historic Yalta Conference in February of 1945 were already planning to betray him and hand disputed Manchurian (Northern Chinese) ports, which Chiang thought China would get from Japan, over to Stalin's jurisdiction upon completion of the war. The "price" that Stalin had to pay to get his foot in Manchuria was to break his non-aggression treaty with Japan, and join the war in Asia no later than 90 days after the end of the war in Europe, which was rapidly coming to an end. The deal also stipulated that the US would supply boatloads of additional arms to help the Soviet effort in Asia.

True to his word, (heavy on the sarcasm there) Stalin joined the war exactly 90 days after Victory in Europe Day, on August 9, 1945, the same day as the 2nd atomic bomb was dropped on Japan. -- "Thanks Joe! We couldn't have done it without ya!" -- (extra heavy on the sarcasm there.) Faced with the dreadful prospect of firebombs and atomic bombs raining down upon their defenseless cities, and a Soviet declaration of war, Japan had no choice but to surrender unconditionally. Soon afterwards, the Soviets opened up their strategic Manchurian ports and free arms to Mao's boys.

1: At the 1943 Cairo Conference in Egypt, FDR and Churchill promised Chiang that China would get Manchuria after the war with Japan ends. --- 2: But at the 1945 Yalta Conference in Crimea (USSR), FDR and Churchill, behind Chiang's back, promised key Manchurian ports to Stalin! 3: In August of 1945, Mao (l) and Chiang (r) set their difference aside to toast to Japan's defeat. Poor Chiang had no idea what his "allies" had in store for China!

The years in between 1945-1949 witnessed further betrayals of Chiang's nationalists by the US State Department. Under the protective cover of New York Slimes puff-pieces about the "agrarian reformer" Mao and the "corrupt" Chiang, the Globalists at State tilted the playing field towards Mao. Thanks to a US arms embargo, the Nationalists began to run low on ammunition as the Reds remained Soviet-supplied. In 1948, Congress voted $125 million in military aid to Chiang. The Communist-infested Truman administration responded by delaying the aid with bureaucratic "red tape" for 9 months. During that time, China collapsed and the demoralized Nationalists escaped across the Taiwan Strait to the Chinese island of Formosa, which became known as Taiwan, or "free China."

In a 1950 speech, the great Senator Joseph McCarthy (R-WI) minced no words in talking about the tragedy that had just befallen China. Speaking of the scum in the Truman's State Department, McCarthy thundered:

"Communists and queers have sold 400 million Asiatic people into atheistic slavery, and have the American people in a hypnotic trance, headed blindly toward the same precipice."

Did he nail that prediction, or what?!

Saint Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin sacrificed his life (apparently poisoned at age 49) in exposing the 'Communists and queers' who were subverting America. His speech on the Senate floor, later published as "America's Retreat From Victory," ripped the "war hero" George Marshall to shreds for "losing China."

Chiang's Taiwan became free and prosperous as Mao's mainland descended into genocide and remained relatively backward for decades to come. And that, dear reader, is why many (not all) of the folks in Taiwan say that there are "two Chinas," while the mainland Chinese insist that there is only "one China."

From our perspective, this is a matter for the Chinese people to resolve, not America. Given the ironic fact that the modern incarnation of "Communist China" is now so pro-business, pro-tradition, pro-religion and pro-peace that Chiang would actually like it, while Mao wouldn't even recognize it, the "two Chinas" should reunite, with Taiwan retaining a degree of autonomy -- as is the case with Tibet and Hong Kong.

Again, it is none of our business. Globo-Commie-Zio America's interference in Asia has caused enough harm. But we thought "youse guys" would find the history interesting.

1: 2015: Chinese President Xi Jinping and Taiwanese President Ma Ying-jeou wave to journalists before their meeting in Singapore. The "two Chinas" are not enemies, but nor can it be said that they are friends. The controversy remains a "hot spot" that Globalists can use to play against China. 2: A Taiwanese "activists" kicks an image of Xi to protest the Taiwan - China talks.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that Trump intends to honor the One-China policy.

Boobus Americanus 2: I never understood this one-China / two-China controversy.

Boobus Americanus 1: Come to think of it, I don't either.

Sugar: It's very ssimple, Boobuss Boyss. The ussual ssuspectss have f up every region that have ever touched around the world.

Editor: Darn straight, Sugar! And not by accident either. ... Now come here so daddy can soap up your filthy kitty-litter mouth.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: North Korea Fires Ballistic Missile, Challenging Trump

By CHOE SANG-HUN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

First it was Iran, now North Korea has test-fired a ballistic missile, "to test Trump." Ooooooh. Be afraid, boys and girls, be very afraid. Don't those naughty North Koreans understand that only "the exceptional nation" and its vassals, er, "allies" are allowed to fire ballistic missiles?

- French ballistic missiles
- British ballistic missiles
- South Korean ballistic missiles
- Israeli ballistic missiles

Even de-fanged Japan can easily adapt its space-program missiles for wartime purposes. So let's not get worked up about "the hermit kingdom" testing its defenses in the face of constant threats from the New World Order gang. Don't touch the porcupine and you won't have to worry about its needles!

North Korean leader Kim Jong Un and NBA Basketball legend Dennis Rodman

"Tell Obama to call me. If you can, Dennis – I don't want to do war. I don't want to do war." (that's an actual quote)

What we find most troubling here is the fact that, yet again, Orange Man and his intimates are sounding like neo-cons. From the article:

"In a New Year's Day speech, Mr. Kim said his country had reached a "final stage" in preparing to conduct its first test of an ICBM. That drew a Twitter post the next day from Mr. Trump that said, 'It won't happen!'"

The American defense secretary, Jim Mattis, visited South Korea on his first official trip abroad and agreed with South Korea to boost the allies' joint defense abilities against North Korea. The two allies also agreed to push ahead with their plan to deploy an advanced American missile defense system known as Thaad in South Korea by the end of the year, despite a strong protest from China."

Methinks "Mad Dog" Mattis wants to pick a fight with China by way of North Korea. Not good, Orange Man, not good.

By the way, "youse guys" responded so well to our last posting about the historical origins of the "One China-Two Chinas" controversy (scroll down), let us pick up right where we left off and flow the events into this "Two Koreas" controversy that also remains a potential hot spot.

In our previous episode, we reviewed how the "Communists and queers" at the State Department had betrayed Chinese Nationalist Chiang Kai Shek (Image 1) -- forcing him to flee to the island of Formosa (Taiwan), while the Communist Mao Tse Tung took over the mainland. --- Image 3: Dean Acheson (CFR), Truman's 1st Secretary of State

THE KOREAN WAR (1950-1953)

Another of the outrageous concessions that FDR and his gang of Communist agents granted to "Uncle Joe" Stalin at the 1945 Yalta Conference was to allow the Soviets to occupy the northern half of post-war Korea, while the US controlled the southern portion. This odd arrangement eventually led to North vs South proxy war which the US entered on the South's behalf.

General Douglas MacArthur staged a brilliant landing maneuver at Inchon, liberating almost all of Korea up to the Yalu River, which marks the border with China. At this point, the Red Chinese entered the war. As their forces approached the bridges of the Yalu, word from Truman's communist-infested State Department came down instructing MacArthur to not bomb the bridges! He was also denied permission to bomb supply depots on the other side of the river and to chase enemy fighter planes escaping back across the river. MacArthur protested vehemently, which led to his firing in April of 1951. He returned home to a hero's welcome while Truman became so unpopular that he was unable to even compete for his party's nomination in 1952.

MacArthur would later write of the treasonous orders which stopped him from winning the war:

"I realized for the first time that I had actually been denied the use of my full military power to safeguard the lives of my soldiers and the safety of my army. It left me with a sense of inexpressible shock."

The Chinese hordes eventually pushed the Americans back. The war finally ended in stalemate, in 1953, but not before 50,000 Americans were killed, and as many as 1,000 POW's were left behind (knowingly) by President Eisenhower.

MacArthur landed at Inchon and his forces advanced to the Yalu River. The war was essentially over in the opening months. But then the Communists around Truman took control.

After being fired, MacArthur was invited to give a farewell speech before Congress.

"I have just left your fighting sons in Korea. ... It was my constant effort to preserve them and end this savage conflict honorably and with the least loss of time and a minimum sacrifice of life. Its growing bloodshed has caused me the deepest anguish and anxiety. Those gallant men will remain often in my thoughts and in my prayers always."

The academic ass-clowns who get to write our history books all fault General MacArthur's aggressiveness for bringing China into the war. Exactly the opposite is true! In reality, it was the deliberate timidity of Stalin's (and Mao's) little helpers in DC that gave the Red Chinese the confidence to act boldly. Not only did the State Department de-ball MacArthur, but early on in the war, at a time when Mao's mainland Reds could still have been overthrown by Chiang's 600,000 Nationalist troops based in Taiwan, Truman had declared:

"I have ordered the 7th Fleet to prevent any attack on Formosa (Taiwan). As a corollary of this action, I am calling upon the Chinese government on Formosa (Chiang Kai Shek) to cease all air and sea operations against the mainland. The 7th Fleet will see that this is done."

Had the hands of Generals MacArthur and Chiang not been tied by scum like George Marshall and Dean Acheson, there would never have been "two Koreas," and the "two Chinas" would have become one under Chiang a long time ago. But the New World Order needs its "hot spots." In much the same way that a good billiard player knows to set up his next shot as he is making the current one, the Globalist war-makers plant the seeds of a future war as they draw up a "peace deal" for the one just ended.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that North Korea just fired a ballistic missile.

Boobus Americanus 2: Bastards! They can't do that! --- Can, they?

Sugar: Don't F with the little vegetarian porcupine and you won't have to worry about him!

Editor: Amazing how Creator God gives every creature a defense system.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: A Rare Republican Call to Climate Action

By THE EDITORIAL BOARD

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

For readers new to The Anti-New York Times, the word-smith Andrew Rosenthal (cough cough) is the putrid little maggot who gets away with posing as the high and mighty "Editorial Board" of Sulzberger's Slimes. This is not to say that he pens each and every article attributed to "The Editorial Board," but whatever is not personally written by him is controlled and edited by him.

Hazmat suits and goggles on! Join us for a rebutting dive into ~~Rosenthal's~~, er, "The Editorial Board's" latest bit of editorial excrement.

Be neither afraid nor impressed by all the smoke and noise of the Not-So-High and Not-So-Mighty "Editorial Board". It's only a pathetic little word-smith named Andrew Rosenthal typing out lies from behind the curtain.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": The most important thing about a carbon tax plan proposed last week may be the people behind it: prominent Republicans like James Baker III, George P. Shultz and Henry Paulson Jr.

Rebuttal: James Baker, George P. Shultz and Hank Paulson are all longtime members of the pro-world government Council on Foreign Relations -- as are Sulzberger and Rosenfilth. What a surprise that the distinguished "Republican" trio should be so concerned about "Global Warming" TM aka, depending on the weather, "Climate Change" TM.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Their endorsement of the idea, ...may be a breakthrough for a party that has closed its eyes to the perils of man-made climate change

Rebuttal: Your not-so-young-anymore reporter here was in the 8th grade when teacher taught us that the Statue of Liberty was in "peril" if being under water by the year 2000. That was 36 years ago!

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": ... and done everything in its power to thwart efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Rebuttal: Man only accounts for 2-3% of "greenhouse gas emissions." How does Rodenthal propose to curb the CO2 emissions of termites, which far exceed that of man?

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": This gang of Republican elder statesmen

Rebuttal: "Elder statesmen," eh? From whence this sudden respect for Republicans from the likes of Rodentfeces?

CFR Republicans James Baker, Hank Paulson & George P. Schultz are pushing for carbon taxes.

1 & 2: The 'P' of Shultz's middle name stands for Pratt. The CFR is headquartered at the Pratt House, named after his elite grand parents who lived there about 100 years ago. The Pratts donated the mansion to the CFR in 1945. 3: The Shadows of Power, by James Perloff -- an expose of the CFR.*

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board: they call themselves the Climate Leadership Council — is not made up of the usual environmentalists, which is why there proposal might gain traction.

Rebuttal: In other words, because these aren't the usual screaming lunatic Democrat commie-pinkos saying this, weak-minded Republicans can now be more easily duped into believing that there is indeed a "crisis."

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Their proposal would tax carbon emissions at $40 a ton to start and would be paid by oil refineries and other fossil fuel companies that would pass costs on to consumers with higher gas and electricity prices.

Rebuttal: There it is! The whole stinking scam in a nutshell: "Give us more money or you will all drown to death when the ice-caps melt."

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": The money raised would be returned to Americans through dividend checks; a family of four would get about $2,000 a year to start. This would help people adjust to higher energy prices and give them an incentive to reduce consumption or switch to renewable sources of energy.

Rebuttal: Let me get this straight, Rosenvomit. These ass clowns want to take more of my money, just so they could give some back to me? What a genius idea! (rolling eyes). No thanks.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Most lower-income and middle-class families would get back more than they pay in taxes.

Rebuttal: Pure, unadulterated, communistic wealth redistribution. How "Republican" of them to propose such a scheme!

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": To avoid placing American industry at a disadvantage, imports from countries that do not impose a comparable tax would be subject to a per-ton tax on the carbon emitted in the production of their products, while exports to those nations would not be.

Rebuttal: And there is part 2 of the scam -- sovereignty-busting. All nations will have to comply if they want access to the massive American market. This is pure New World Order agenda in a disguise that is by now so bloody damn transparent that only a libtard can't see it.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Scientists and economists have long argued that putting a price on carbon would encourage conservation and investment in renewable energy.

Rebuttal: Just about every "scientist" pushing this garbage is funded, directly or indirectly, by either a government entity of some sort or a left-wing "think-tank," or is a known commie-pinko. That's a fact, Rosenrectum. Look it up!

The stiff from "Weekend at Bernies," the Affirmative Action King of Pop Science, and the mechanical engineer in a bow tie owe their fame and fortune to "the powers that be" of the N.W.O. -- as do all of the primary "researchers" propping up the Climate Scam.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": Ireland, Sweden and British Columbia already have carbon taxes. The European Union, Quebec, California and Northeastern states like New York and Massachusetts have adopted cap-and-trade systems that use emission permits to lower emissions over time.

Rebuttal: Good God! The West has gone mad!

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": President Obama turned to administrative actions to reduce emissions ... those regulations and standards are now on the chopping block under the Trump administration.

Rebuttal: Add a point to Zio-Orange Man's "plus" column.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": The new Climate Leadership Council argues that conservatives should support a carbon tax because it is a more market-friendly approach than Mr. Obama's regulations. And after a carbon tax is put in place, the council says, the government should eliminate most of those rules, since they won't be needed.

Rebuttal: This is a tried and true trick of the Globalists. Ask for the moon, and then take it down a notch to seem reasonable.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": But there are legitimate fears that the tax alone might not achieve emission reductions on the scale needed to save the planet from out-of-control warming, and that regulations and other policies ... will be needed, too.

Rebuttal: In other words, after the reasonable "Republican" proposal of Messrs, Baker, Paulson and Schultz is adopted, the next set of demands will be forthcoming --- no doubt to be followed by another "compromise" offered up by Republican "statesmen."

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": A large majority of Americans want the government to address climate change — 78 percent of registered voters support taxing emissions, regulating them or doing both, according to a Yale survey conducted after the election.

Rebuttal: Even if such polling data is accurate, (and we doubt it very much!) it's only a reflection of the mind-numbing effects of the 37-year old propaganda campaign to convince the sheep that this fake science is actually real.

Rosenthal, er, "The Editorial Board": The Republican elders are offering their party an opening to change the conversation. It should take the cue.

Rebuttal: Well that's mighty gracious of you to give the GOP rank & file such sound advice, Rosenscum. Gotta love that CFR "bipartisanship" TM.

When asked what they thought about human life on Planet Earth coming to an end due to "emissions," the majority of those polled said it was baaaaaad.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that some highly respected Republican elder statesmen want to finally address the crisis of Global Warming.

Boobus Americanus 2: We need more bi-partisanship like that if we are to effectively tackle the world's problems.

Sugar: Boobuss, you credulouss cretin! There iss no 'bi-partissanship' at the Council on Foreign Relationss! Every lasst one of thosse sonss-of-bitchess iss a frickin' Globalisst!

Editor: The CFR daughters-of-bitches, like Killary Clinscum, are Globalists too.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: Saved From Holocaust: ‘He Loved Me and He Wanted to Keep Me’

By COREY KILGANNON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

It never ceases to amaze how the seditious scribblers at Sulzberger's Slimes will always find some creative way to take the most seemingly unrelated topics and link back to the "Holocaust" TM. In this case, it was Valentine's Day. Get a load of this Marxist mush:

"On Valentine's Day, couples often reminisce about that moment they knew they would stay together, whether during a vacation, over a fancy dinner or, perhaps, while meeting their future in-laws.

For Isaac and Rosa Blum, who became teenage sweethearts 75 years ago in a ghetto in Nazi-occupied Poland, that moment came as they and thousands of other terrified Jews were being herded to a death camp by Nazi soldiers."

Play it again, Ira ... and again.. and again .. and again..

The Slimes writer, Corey Kilgannon, though clearly not a Tribesmen, evidently understands all too well from whence his bagel is buttered. If he keeps this up, can a Pulitzer Prize be in his future? Let's dig into a few excerpts of this comedy writing.

Kilgannon: "I saw her walking in front of me," Mr. Blum recalled. "I went up to the German and told him, 'That's my sister,' even though she was my girlfriend."

Rebuttal: So, the evil "Nazi" TM allowed Mr. Blum to walk with a girl he thought was his sister, thus saving her from going to a "death camp." That was nice of him.

Kilgannon: Miraculously, they were both pulled off the line and managed to survive the Holocaust by working as slave laborers in a munitions factory.

Rebuttal: "Miraculously," eh? Dear Corey. What was so "miraculous" about being sent to a labor camp? Wasn't that the whole purpose of the internment camps?

Kilgannon: He is 94, and she is a year younger. Asked to recount their lengthy love affair, they noted the absurdity of couching it — a romance incubated in the hell of the Holocaust — in the frilly trappings of Valentine's Day.

Rebuttal: If life was such "hell" in the factory camp, then how did the Blums manage to carry on dating and smooching? And, as evidenced by the 3,000 babies born at Auschwitz alone, they may very well have done a whole lot more than just smooch, if you catch my drift. These various camps sound more like modern day college campuses than "hell."

Born at Auschwitz: Anka Nathanova, Priska Lowenbeinova

*

1- Rachel Friedman was advised to lie and say her son Mark (pictured together) was born on Hitler's birthday – April 20th - and it saved him.

2- The Auschwitz "Miracle Babies" reunite.

*

Kilgannon (quoting Mr. Blum on the paradoxical elements of the story): “You have a mixed story here — you won’t be able to put them together,”

Rebuttal: Ya got that right, Blum! We can't "put it together" how you and so many hundreds of thousands of other "survivors" were able to walk out of this "Nazi genocide" alive and well, and, in many cases, with a sweetheart on your arm and a frickin' baby in hers!

Kilgannon: It was young, bold love that prodded him to stand up to a Nazi guard and save his sweetheart

Rebuttal: Let it not be said that ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times are not romantics at heart, but Kilgannon: ...from being sent to the Treblinka death camp.

Rebuttal: The Treblinka "death camp" in Poland was discovered by the Soviets. We only "know" that it was an "extermination camp" because Joe Stalin's "commission" and some of the Communists and Jews housed there said so.

Kilgannon: A hasty marriage followed,

Rebuttal: So, the big bad "Nazis" TM allowed their captives to get married under their watch, eh? A paradoxical "mixed story" indeed!

The Blums after the war

Kilgannon: ... and then a horrific honeymoon of sorts: stealing glances and brief exchanges under the stern watch of armed guards.

Rebuttal: Oh the bloody drama! Reads like one of those cheesy romance novels.

At least the Blums never had to worry about being burnt to death, crushed to death, starved to death, raped to death and tortured to death like so many innocent Germans did both during and after the war.

The rest of the article is just the usual old clichéd fluff about their undying love for each other and the secrets to a long marriage, with still more obligatory back-story references to the traumatic memories of "the Holocaust" TM and the evil "Nazis" TM etc. For the witless boobs who so dutifully devour the Slime's daily dose of dung, this little human interest story serves to reinforce their delusions about the HOLOHOAX. But for the astute reader who reflects upon every line with a critical eye and mind, yet another confirmed story about "survival" and marriage in "zee concentration camps" amounts to further evidence refuting the biggest lie ever told.

This photo of an Auschwitz marriage announcement congratulating newlywed communist guerilla fighters Rudolf Friemel (from Austria) and Margarita Ferrer Rey (from Spain) was circulated on March 18th, 1944.

An SS officer performed the ceremony. The bride was given flowers and the couple and their son (evidently born before Friemel and Ferrer Rey were incarcerated) were also photographed by the camp photographer! The communist couple spent their wedding night in the camp brothel where they found some solitude, peace and quiet.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read a most heart-warming story in today's New York Times about an elderly Jewish couple that met and fell in love during the Holocaust.

Boobus Americanus 2: What a testament to the power of love! Even in Hitler's hell, their love for each other still flourished.

Sugar: You sappy frickin' cornballs make me throw up in my frickin' mouth!

Editor: Heaven help the deluded tom-cat that should ever fall in love with you.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: A Jewish Reporter Got to Ask Trump a Question. It Didn't Go Well.

By LAURIE GOODSTEIN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Orange Man's recent press conference provided us all with a "teachable moment" TM about the cunning method of operation of the chosenites. In response to OM's request for a "friendly reporter," Jake Turx, a side-locked Orthodox Jew reporter for the Brooklyn-based weekly Ami Magazine, rose to ask a question.

The Ortho's at Ami Magazine take that "chosen people" nonsense LITERALLY.

Upon being singled out, Turx began the exchange:

Turx: Despite what some of my colleagues may have been reporting, I haven't seen anybody in my community accuse either yourself or anyone on your staff of being anti-Semitic. We understand that you have Jewish grandchildren. You are their zayde." (Yiddish for "grandfather").

Analysis: The trick was very subtle. It involved raising the smear of "anti-Semitism," TM (coming from "colleagues") and then "clearing" OM of the charge. It like someone smearing dog feces on your shirt and then quickly wiping it off. Although the bulk of the filth may be wiped away, the stain and a diminished stench will remain.

Orange Man: Thank you.

Analysis: Turx had OM right where he wanted him -- relaxed and with his defenses down so that he could follow up with a lengthy and uninterrupted sneak attack. This is EXACTLY how yours truly, posing as a friendly caller, has been able to infiltrate hostile talk radio shows and launch truth bombs. Ah yes, growing up in Jew Jersey has taught us a thing or two about being slick when the situation calls for it.

Turx: However, what we are concerned about and what we haven't really heard being addressed is an uptick in anti-Semitism and how the government is planning to take care of it. There's been a report out that 48 bomb threats have been made against Jewish centers all across the country in the last couple of weeks. There are people committing anti-Semitic acts or threatening to——"

Analysis: A very well played "yeah but," Turx -- well played.

Orange Man: Not a fair question. Sit down I understand the rest of your question.... (shouting over Turx) Quiet! Quiet! Quiet! See, he (Turx) lied about asking a straight simple question. Welcome to the world of the media.

Analysis: Fortunately, OM caught on to the trick and shut the scheming swindler down cold. Unfortunately, he then went on to explain how he was "the least anti-Semitic person that you've ever seen in your entire life" and how much he and Bibi Satanyahu love each other.

As for the rash of telephone bomb threats, vandalism and graffiti that Turx was referring to -- incidents which began to multiply almost immediately after OM was elected, regular readers of The Anti-New York Times do not need to be told what that is all about. We'll just illustrate it for you instead...

The oldest trick in the book!

Rechy Frankfurter and her husband, Rabbi Frankfurter, founded Ami Magazine to serve the Orthodox Jewish community. Mrs. Frankfurter said it was clear that OM was not an anti-Semite and that he “must have misheard the question” from the magazine’s reporter. She added:

“The president is very sensitive to such an accusation, and we find the fact that he’s sensitive to it reassuring because it means he understands how awful it is to be thought of as an anti-Semite.”

Rabbi Frankfurter, whose parents "survived the Holocaust," (more "miracles") added:

“Perhaps the president should speak out more vigorously than he has. He’s got a bully pulpit, and he should use it for good reasons.”

Cheese and crackers! It's always about them --- and no one else but them.

Fear not, chosenites. "Youse guys" are still in control --- though the Likudnik / Greater Israel faction of the Tribe may have temporarily gained the upper hand over the One Worlder Communist elements.

Boobus Americanus 1: That was disgraceful how Trump eviscerated that Orthodox Jewish reporter in his press conference.

Boobus Americanus 2: Yes. Especially after the reporter had just defended him against charges of anti-Semitism.

Sugar: He sshould've ripped those sstupid ssidlocks out his sscalp!!!

Editor: Sugar!

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: James Nichols, Linked to Oklahoma City Bombing, Dies at 62

By DANIEL E. SLOTNIK

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

For the benefit of the 35 and under crowd, as well as those of you who had not been "red-pilled" until after 1995, this story about the recent death of James Nichols, 62, gives us a chance to revisit the deadliest false-flag attack against US civilians prior to "9/11" TM. Nichols was a farmer who was detained as a possible accomplice but never charged after his brother, Terry, had been accused of helping "patsie" Timothy J. McVeigh detonate a truck bomb that killed 168 people (so they say) at the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City on April 19, 1995.

The "Right-Wing" patsy Timothy McVeigh was executed a few years later (if he was even real, that is).

THE SETTING

The anti-Clinton backlash of the November 2, 1994 mid-term Congressional elections marked a coast-to-coast conservative triumph not seen since the 1920 landslide that swept conservative Warren Harding (R-OH) into the White House by a 2-1 margin, along with 303 Republican Congressmen (out of 435 seats) and 59 (out of 96 seats) Republican Senators. The Clintons, who had posed as moderates in order to win the White House in 1992, had spooked the nation with their radical leftward turn. As a result, the Republicans, many of them real Republicans, picked up 54 House seats, 8 Senate seats, and a TON of State Senate and Assembly seats from sea-to-shining sea. The Communist Clintons were under relentless assault by vocal conservative groups and talk radio hosts. The Globalists were in panic mode. What to do? What to do?

1- Speaker Gingrich leads (and later waters-down) an historic Republican landslide 2- A fast-growing citizen militia movement arms itself against the New World Order. 3- The Rush Limbaugh TV Show is a huge success.

The anti-Globalist / anti-Clinton movement was dealt a devastating public relations setback when the bombing of the Alfred Murrah Federal Building killed (maybe)

168 Americans, including a bunch of children in the building's daycare center. The terror attack was falsely linked to American patriots and anti-Clinton critics ranging from the fast-growing militias to radio host Rush Limbaugh. A right-wing patsy named Tim McVeigh was accused of causing the partial building collapse with a “fertilizer truck bomb.”

Clear evidence of pre-planted explosives in the building was dutifully covered up by the fake news media -- the most obvious being the collapse of columns that were much further away from the truck-bomb crater than other columns, which were much closer to the blast, that were undamaged. This would be like a 500-pound man sitting in a chair without damaging it, while an exact same chair breaks apart when a 100-pound man sits on it. Physics be damned when it comes to false-flags!

1&2- Damage analysis doesn't make any sense! Columns closer to the truck bomb were less damaged than columns further away? 3- "Never Forget" ----hmmmm, sounds familiar.

The viciousness of the anti-conservative media campaign took all of the momentum away from the big bad "right wing" in America. Militia members quit in droves and even radio big-mouth Rush Limbaugh took his Clinton-bashing down several noticeable notches, before having his TV Shows cancelled altogether. Right on cue, the actor Bill Clinton stepped up to play the masterful role of Mourner-In-Chief. After shedding crocodile tears for the cameras, Clinton's popularity ratings rebounded dramatically. The term "civility" TM became the buzzword of the year. Exactly as planned by the "deep state", teary-eyed Boobus Americanus gobbled up the Marxist manure while the de-balled and “discredited” Patriot movement fizzled out. Thus immunized to negative attacks, the formerly despised Clinton cruised to an easy re-election in 1996. How conveenient!

Flashback, 1995: Nothing like dead kids (or fake photos of them?) and some fake tears to save a political career, eh Kill & Killary?

1 & 2 - DEFINITELY fake blood and crisis-actors from OK bombing.
2- At the 20-year anniversary ceremony, Slick Willie is still "weeping."
Good Lord, these people are such SCUM!

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that an unconvicted suspect from the 1995 Oklahoma City Bombing just died.

Boobus Americanus 2: What a deadly attack that was. Amazing what a single fertilizer bomb can do.

Sugar: Speaking of 'fertilizer' -- it's amazing how much bullsshit you boobss continue to sswallow.

Editor: Fake News will be difficult to smash, but we persist.

FEBRUARY, 2017

NY Times: A Worried Europe Finds Scant Reassurance on Trump's Plans

By STEVEN ERLANGER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

"A worried Europe" is seeking "reassurance" from the very same American government that has, over the course of last 10 years, placed Europe on a direct collision course with nuclear-armed Russia? This must mean that the Europeans are hoping that Orange Man and Putin will kiss and make up, right? Exactly the opposite is true!

From the article:

"They came from all over — diplomats and generals, policy experts and security officials — seeking clues to President Trump's ideas and intentions. They left without much reassurance.

An audience anxious for signals about the Trump administration's stances on NATO, the European Union, Germany and the Russia of President Vladimir V. Putin, whom Mr. Trump so openly admires, was only minimally soothed. It mostly heard boilerplate assurances about United States commitments of the kind that previous American administrations had rarely felt the need to give."

Translation: The Globalist trash of Europe wanted "reassurance" that the U.S. is still committed to picking a fight with Russia, but they didn't get it. Welcome to the upside world of Globalist logic.

The Globalist scum of CIA-run Europe have gradually expanded NATO right into Russia's front yard. Now they want "reassurance" that they can keep provoking the peaceful bear.

Though we here at The Anti-New York Times do find it "reassuring" that Orange Man chose not to "reassure" the Marxists at Munich, the fact remains that he has neither recalled the U.S. troops nor withdrawn U.S. missiles from Russia's doorstep. Do it now, OM, and we'll start referring to you as "Trump" once again, deal?

What kind of lunatics are these European policy makers, anyway? From the article:

"People were not reassured," said Daniela Schwarzer, the director of the German Council on Foreign Relations.

Aha! Anti-Trump rhetoric from the notorious world-government-promoting Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) -- German Chapter. Add a point back to OM's "plus columnn."

Schwarzer is another of those nasty Putin-hating Globalist hags running de-balled Europe. She is also one of the leaders of the "German Marshall Fund" (named after the traitor George Marshall) which dishes out grants for Communist-Globalist causes.

More:

"Senator John McCain, a conference regular who has been one of the most prominent Republican critics of Mr. Trump's young presidency, said that the administration was "in disarray," and added: "The president, I think, makes statements and on other occasions contradicts himself. So we've learned to watch what the president does as opposed to what he says."

McCain the Insane, a longtime member of the CFR himself, has never concealed his hatred of Putin's Russia nor his desire for World War III. Point: OM.

The rest of the piece quotes various European commies fretting about the future of NATO and the European Union. Most troubling and suspicious to us is the Slimes' oddly respectful treatment of Vice Presidential snake Mike Pence, who will meet in Brussels with officials from the European Union and NATO to try to "reassure" them about Orange Man's commitment to Europe. If OM expects to accomplish what he has promised, then he had better figure out a way to get rid of Pence and Chief-of-Staff Reince Priebus. If he waits too long, the traitors in his White House, along with scum like McCain & Ryan, will take him out by year's end.

Wrapping up on a sad note, and a very suspicious note, Russia's Ambassador to the U.N., Vitaly Churkin, 64, died in New York yesterday of a "heart attack." Churkin is the 2nd Russian official to die in U.S. soil over the past ten months. Mikhail Lesin, 59, died mysteriously in Washington DC last year.

1. From Munich, McCain the Insane tells NBC's Upchuck Todd of Meet the Depressed about OM's attacks on the media:

"When you look at history, the first thing that dictators do is shut down the press. And I'm not saying that President Trump is trying to be a dictator. I'm just saying we need to learn the lessons of history."

2. Priebus, Pence and Ryan: GOP operatives that cannot be trusted.
3. Ambassador Vitaly Churkin, dead of a "heart attack" in New York, age 64.

1. The bulk of the Red Army Choir was also wiped out in a plane crash last Christmas time. 2. & 3. "What they need is to have the Russians and Iranians pay a little price," Morell said. "When we were in Iraq, the Iranians were giving weapons to the Shia militia, who were killing American soldiers, right? The Iranians were making us pay a price. We need to make the Iranians pay a price in Syria. We need to make the Russians pay a price."

Morell said the killing of Russians and Iranians should be undertaken "covertly, so you don't tell the world about it, you don't stand up at the Pentagon and say 'we did this.' But you make sure they know it in Moscow and Tehran."

-- Mike Morell on the Bildeberger Charlie Rose Show.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the Europeans are worried that Trump won't defend them from Putin.

Boobus Americanus 2: Trump owes Putin his presidency because of those E-mail hacks.

"Zzzzzzzzz. Zzzzzzzzz. Zzzzzzzzz"

Sugar needed a sedation break from these two ass-clowns.

FEBRUARY, 2017

KILLING RUSSIANS!

PICTO-EDITORIAL BY
The Anti-New York Times

Let's stop pretending that the elephant in the living room isn't really there and proclaim the obvious: the Globalists are executing prominent Russians and the Russian government, in an effort to avoid a war which may already be inevitable, is too afraid to say it out loud. Taken individually, any of the following events can be dismissed as "coincidental." But when weighed collectively, the laws of probabilities prove otherwise.

Win the lottery once -- a freak occurrence. Win it 5 times in one year -- well, then....

"It's a frickin' conspiracy!"

JUNE, 2014

CIA-funded Ukrainian "activist" belonging to topless feminist group Femen "murders" a wax statue of Vladimir Putin at a museum in Paris. Iana Zhdanova, with "Kill Putin" written on her breasts, is perfectly positioned for the cameraman. Notice how "Putin's" hands were already cast in the death position by the artist -- and the pre-positioning of the other "world leaders" -- which proves that the event was staged from start to finish as a "message" to Putin.

MARCH, 2016

The Daily Beast: RT Founder Mikhail Lesin's Fishy Blunt Force 'Suicide'

MAY, 2016

*Four fires in one day: Orthodox Churches in New York, Sydney and Melbourne Australia and a monastery in Russia are all torched on Orthodox Easter Sunday (May 1, also Communist May Day) **

AUGUST, 2016

"What they need is to have the Russians and Iranians pay a little price," Morell said. "When we were in Iraq, the Iranians were giving weapons to the Shia militia, who were killing American soldiers, right? The Iranians were making us pay a price. We need to make the Iranians pay a price in Syria. We need to make the Russians pay a price."

Morell said the killing of Russians and Iranians should be undertaken "covertly, so you don't tell the world about it, you don't stand up at the Pentagon and say 'we did this.' But you make sure they know it in Moscow and Tehran."

-- Mike Morell on the Bildeberger Charlie Rose Show.

SEPTEMBER, 2016

The Daily Mail: Vladimir Putin's official car is involved in a head-on crash in Moscow which killed the Russian president's 'favorite chauffeur.'

DECEMBER, 2016

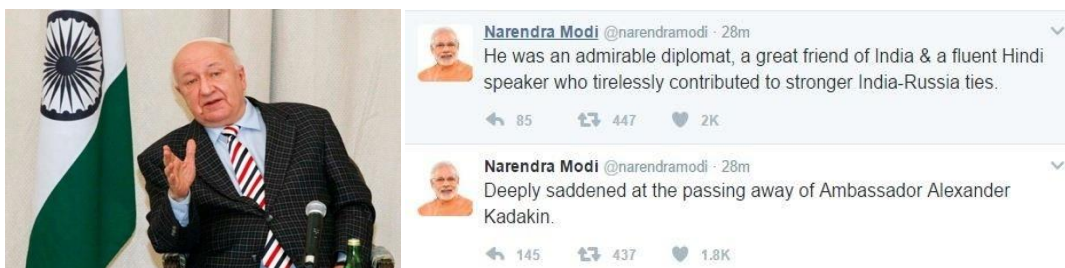

Mass Murder over the Black Sea: the Red Army choir and Dr. "Liza" Glinka (Image 2 with Putin) --- huge names in Russia, lost over the Black Sea in a bizarre "plane crash."

JANUARY, 2017

*Mystery as top Russian diplomat Andrey Malanin, 54, found dead in his Athens home ("natural causes") -- BBC

JANUARY, 2017

The Indian Express: Russian Ambassador to India Alexander Kadakin dead of heart attack at 67 (in India)

*

FEBRUARY, 2017

Respected and liked by all, U.N. Ambassador Vitaly Churkin, also died of a "heart attack" in New York, age 64.

 We did not include the alleged shooting death of Russia's Ambassador to Turkey because images of the event were clearly fake.*

CIA and Mossad can take a man down by inducing a "heart attack" or even "cancer." Image 1 of the "heart attack gun" is from Senator Church's hearings of 1975.

This is not good, boys and girls. Not good at all. And not even Orange Man appears able to reign in "the deep state" that is undermining his ability to avoid World War III. The main unanswered questions, how much of this abuse are the Russians willing to put up with for the sake of peace, and what else is the New World Order gang planning to do to bait Russia?

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in today's New York Times that the Russian Ambassador to the U.N. died of a heart attack -- just like their ambassador to India did last month.

Boobus Americanus 2: Well, the Russian diet is known for using sour cream in many of its dishes.

Sugar: Oh, but when some Russian 'opposssition leader' allegedly dropss dead, dumb-asss Boobuss immediately accusses Putin of murder!

Editor: Belief in a 'conspiracy theory' is permissible if the Slimes is spinning it.

FEBRUARY, 2017

New York Times: With Big Red Stamp, Russia Singles Out What It Calls 'Fake' News

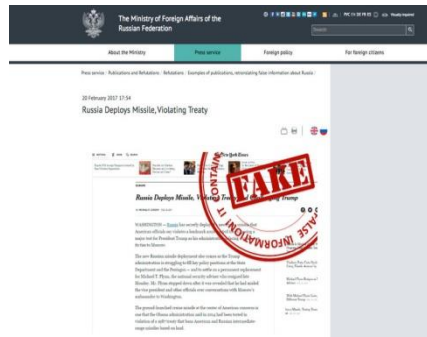

By NEIL MacFARQUHAR

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

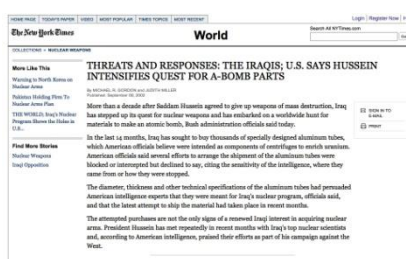

Blessings be upon Russia's Foreign Ministry for directly engaging the lead attack fish of the West's Piranha Press. Evidently, as this article shows, the big bad Rooskies have struck a raw nerve with Sulzberger's Slimes. Oh how they HATE being referred to as "fake news" -- a 'TM' originally rolled out by the CIA-Media complex to attack Internet blogs -- and that has since badly boomeranged in their faces.

Maria Zakharova, spokeswoman for the ministry, unveiled a new section on its website intended to point out articles that it regards as "fake news." Each foreign propaganda article highlighted at the Foreign Ministry website carries a big red label reading "FAKE" in English and a proclamation that the information in the article "does not correspond to reality."

Ave Maria! Spot on in her analysis of the "FAKE NEWS" of Sulzberger's Slimes --- and very easy on the eyes too.

One of the ridiculous articles stamped in red as "FAKE" was a February 20th piece from Sulzberger's Slimes titled, 'Russia Deploys Missiles, Violating Treaty and Challenging Trump,' by Michael R. Gordon (cough cough unconfirmed). Forgotten by many, but not by ~~Sugar and me~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of the Anti-New York Times -- is the fact that Gordon was the journalistic sidekick of the notorious Judith Miller (cough cough) whose lies about "weapons of mass destruction" enabled the Bush-Cheney gang to pull off the atrocity that was the Iraq War. Gordon actually co-wrote with Miller the infamous aluminum tubes-for-nukes lie that greatly assisted the Bush-Cheney neo-con gang's final push for war. Miller eventually had to be fired for her lies; but the lesser-known Gordon managed to survive.

The team of Miller (Image 1) & Gordon (Image 3) sold Bush's lies to the Slimes' liberal audience while FOX News took care of deceiving conservative Americans.

Now, grease-ball Gordon is at it again, and the Russians are calling him out as "FAKE" -- a stamp which the Slimes describes as "a badge of honor." From the article by Gordon's colleague, Neil MacFarquhar:

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the Russian Foreign Ministry is labeling stories in the foreign press as fake news.

Boobus Americanus 2: First Trump, now Putin. This trend of attacking the free press is very disturbing. That's how Hitler got started.

Sugar: Leave Hitler alone, you sstupid #@&^($# !!!

Editor: Sugar gets very defensive when idiots speak ill of The Great One.

FEBRUARY, 2017

New York Times: Trump to Ask for Sharp Increases in Military Spending, Officials Say

By GLENN THRUSH and KATE KELLY

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Say it ain't so, Orange Man! From the article:

"President Trump will instruct federal agencies on Monday to assemble a budget for the coming fiscal year that includes sharp increases in Defense Department spending and drastic enough cuts to domestic agencies that he can keep his promise to leave Social Security and Medicare alone, according to four senior administration officials."

So, the $634 Billion dollars that the American taxpayer spent to fund the Department of Offense in 2016 wasn't enough to guarantee our "freedom" TM. Nor will the massive protective moats known as the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans, coupled with neighboring vassal land masses of Canada and Mexico, fully protect us from some unspecified foreign invader. No, Supreme General Orange Man thinks we need to spend more money on "defense." To protect us from what? The bloody frickin' Martians?

When supplemental bills are added, the untouchable U.S. actually accounts for 40% of global military spending. Who are we defending against?

If we are currently wasting $634 Billion per year (not including supplemental defense bills), and OM wants "sharp increases" for what he refers to as "our depleted military," (palm to face, shaking head, sighing) then that means we are headed to $750-800 Billion per year in the very near future, plus automatic increases sure to be built-in year over year, plus off-budget "emergency bills" sure to come across his desk. To put those staggering numbers in perspective, that would be just about enough money, over the course of the next decade, for the Treasury to buy up and forgive every mortgage, every credit card bill and every student loan in America! What an economic booster-shot that would be, eh? Why not? If we're going to be a socialist nation (which we already are), let's at least spend the money for the benefit of the people that it was taken from!

The numbers don't lie! If we had listened to President John Quincy Adams' timeless advice, every family could have a free home!

This colossal waste of resources dwarfs what is wasted on various anti-poverty schemes, unnecessary departments and bloated bureaucracies. No Republican't who calls himself "conservative," and no Demonrat who calls himself "pro-peace," can justify the continued occupation of Planet Earth with 800 military bases to defend against foreign bogeymen that are not there, and never were. Of course, regular readers of The Anti-New York Times know by now what the dual purposes behind these suicidal levels of "defense" spending really are:

1. Enforcement of the New World Order
2. Protecting the terrorist state of Israel and fighting its wars

Add a few more notches under OM's "minus column."

A sinful waste! And General MacArthur figured it out:

- "It is part of the general pattern of misguided policy that our country is now geared to an arms economy which was bred in an artificially induced psychosis of war hysteria and nurtured upon an incessant propaganda of fear. While such an economy may produce a sense of seeming prosperity for the moment, it rests on an illusionary foundation of complete unreliability and renders among our political leaders almost a greater fear of peace than is their fear of war."
- "Talk of imminent threat to our national security through the application of external force is pure nonsense. Our threat is from the insidious forces working from within which have already so drastically altered the character of our free institutions — those institutions we proudly called the American way of life."
- "Our swollen budgets constantly have been misrepresented to the public. Our government has kept us in a perpetual state of fear — kept us in a continuous stampede of patriotic fervor — with the cry of grave national emergency. Always there has been some terrible evil at home or some monstrous foreign power that was going to gobble us up if we did not blindly rally behind it by furnishing the exorbitant funds demanded. Yet, in retrospect, these disasters seem never to have happened, seem never to have been quite real."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Trump wants sharp increases in military spending.

Boobus Americanus 2: I think he's going to get us into a war.

Sugar: I may actually have to agree with the asss-clown today.

Editor: Even broken clocks get it right twice-a-day.

FEBRUARY, 2017

New York Times: Coal Industry Casts Itself as a Clean Energy Player

By CLIFFORD KRAUSS

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Bad move, Big Coal, bad move. A proverb from your favorite philosopher here at The Anti-New York Times:

"He who allows an evil adversary to frame the debate has already hanged himself."

Never, for the sake of strategic expediency, yield an inch of truth to a pack of liars. Never! To use an analogy from American football, Team Satan will not stop advancing the ball with the "first down" yardage you have so graciously, cowardly and stupidly granted them. No way! They will instead use the easily-gained ground to launch a new set of bold attacks as they "move the chains" again and again and again until they have reached the final destination.

Some of the pantie-wetters who run the coal industry, under the delusion that Evil can be compromised with, foolishly "moved the chains" against themselves by admitting that Global Warming TM / Climate Change" TM is real and intending to fight it with "clean coal." --- Why give the guy in Image 2 any ground, at all? Let him work for it!

Nowhere is this cowardly stupidity more visible than in the suites of corporate America, where men who are as lacking in backbone and they are in honor place public relations above principles. From the article:

*"President Trump has questioned the science behind climate change as "a hoax" in positioning himself as a champion of coal. The three largest American coal producers are taking a different tack.

Seeking to shore up their struggling industry, the coal producers are voicing greater concern about greenhouse gas emissions. Their goal is to frame a new image for coal as a contributor, not an obstacle, to a clean-energy future — an image intended to foster their legislative agenda.

Executives of the three companies — Cloud Peak Energy, Peabody Energy and Arch Coal — are going so far as to make common cause with some of their harshest critics, including the Natural Resources Defense Council and the Clean Air Task Force. Together, they are lobbying for a tax bill to expand government subsidies to reduce the environmental impact of coal burning."

Even as the "Greens" plot to kill their industry, the coal executives are making "common cause" with George Soros (Image 2) and his puppet Green Groups.

The expensive technology that these executives are promoting is called "carbon capture and sequestration." Of course, coal plants do not actually emit "carbon" (carbon monoxide) but only the plant food known as CO₂ (carbon dioxide). But who cares about real science anyway?!

More pathetic drivel by the suicidal "capitalists":

"We can't turn back time," said Richard Reavey, vice president for government and public affairs at Cloud Peak Energy. "We have to accept that there are reasonable concerns about carbon dioxide and climate, and something has to be done about it. It's a political reality, it's a social reality, and it has to be dealt with."

What a bunch of compromising crap!

Mr. Reavey -- who evidently thinks the Globalist-Communists will somehow be impressed and pacified with his phony conversion to the devious dogma of "Global Warming" TM -- bloody damn well knows that the theory is "Fake Science." The industry has been targeted for punitive taxation and even destruction. Even if this new technology was to be perfected and made less expensive, the Warmists would just find another excuse to attack the energy industry and demand "carbon taxes."

Aesop's Fable time:

The Wolf and the Lamb

A Wolf was drinking at a spring on a hillside. On looking up he saw a Lamb just beginning to drink lower down. "There's my supper," thought he, "if only I can find some excuse to seize it." He called out to the Lamb, "How dare you muddle my drinking water?"

"No," said the Lamb; "if the water is muddy up there, I cannot be the cause of it, for it runs down from you to me."

"Well, then," said the Wolf, "why did you call me bad names this time last year?"

"That cannot be," said the Lamb; "I am only six months old."

"I don't care," snarled the Wolf; "if it was not you, it was your father;" and with that he rushed upon the poor little Lamb and ate her all up.

 The moral of the story: The tyrant invents pretexts to do evil.

The manly way, and the most effective way, to deal with the Globo-Communist Warmists is to utilize the following one-two punch:

1. Insist that that the theory is a HOAX! and..
2. Accuse the perpetrators of using the hoax as a sneaky way to increase taxes, keep people poor, and diminish national sovereignty.

Mealy-mouthed references to "fixing the problem" and "carbon capture" aren't going to save us. Like a crucifix to a vampire, the truth, administered without anesthesia, is the only thing that can stop the Sons of Satan dead in their tracks, -- and it's the only thing that they fear. So, Mr. CEO, grow a pair and proclaim the truth, simply, loudly and often: "Hoax! Hoax! Hoax! -- Globalism! Globalism! Globalism!"

Should you lose the struggle anyway, you'll be none the worse than what you would have been by capitulating.

The New World Order's weakness lies in the fact that their schemes are all based upon lies. Only TRUTH, not cowardly concessions and compromise, can ever thwart their objectives.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that coal company executives are making common cause with environmentalist groups to promote carbon capture technology.

Boobus Americanus 2: Awesome! That's what we need more of in this country. Compromise and middle ground.

Sugar: Good idea Boobusss! Tell ya what, just give me half of your tuna sandwich for now. I'll take the other half later.

Editor: Boobus is scratching his head.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: Threats and Vandalism Leave American Jews on Edge in Trump Era

By ALAN BLINDER, SERGE F. KOVALESKI and ADAM GOLDMAN

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

In fairness to the authors of this rubbish, Blinder (cough cough), Kovaleski (cough cough) and Goldman (cough cough) -- nowhere in the article do they state or even imply that the rise of Orange Man is connected to this alleged rebirth of "anti-Semitism" TM. That's the dirty work of the unnamed headline writer. Of course, even without any indirect accusation, the unspoken smear still has an effect.

It is not even necessary to tell the well-informed readers of The Anti-New York Times that this recent rash of "anti-Semitic" TM telephone threats and vandalism are the actions of "the usual suspects." Nothing like a bit of "anti-Semitism" TM to not only renew their eternal victim status and get the boobs to sniffin', but to also to keep the clueless elements of "The Tribe" in a state of paranoid-induced cohesiveness. It's a "two-fer" --outside sympathy and internal cohesion. Those objectives have always been the dual purposes of these silly stunts.

"Hello. I'm a Nazi. There is a bomb in your building. Ha ha ha ha."

From the article:

"The high-pitched, rambling voice on the telephone was disguised and garbled, and warned of a slaughter of Jews. The voice spoke of a bomb loaded with shrapnel and of an imminent "blood bath." Moments later, the caller hung up."

What a joke! How difficult would it be for Ira, or even some non-Jewish Communist, to call a bunch of JCCs (Jewish Community Center) from a Skype number or a payphone and make threats?

The escalation of the attacks and threats since Orange Man's inauguration also serves the purpose, or rather, attempts to serve the purpose of linking OM to the bid bad (and virtually non-existent) "neo-Nazis" TM. It is a pathetic attempt which, although it will be "good for the Jews," will do nothing to damage OM, whose converted Jewish daughter, Jewish grand children, and professed love for Bibi Satanyahu insulate him from this Marxist-Jewish slander.

The "anti-Semitism" TM card won't work against "honorary Jew" Trump.

There is however a much more ominous portent (a $5 word for sign) to these mini-false-flag incidents -- a reality which, if not exposed, will leave us vulnerable to catastrophe in the near future. Unless and until these trivial tricks are exposed and understood now, the next "9/11," intended to trigger World War III, will not be understood for what it is, later on.

THE LESSONS OF HISTORY!

1. 1946: The bombers of the King David Hotel in Jerusalem (administered by the British at the time) were dressed as Arabs. The mass killers were captured and discovered to be Jews. 2. 1967: Israel's murderous attack on the USS Liberty was intended to frame Egypt and draw America into what became known as "The 6-Day War." 3. 2001: The Mossad & CIA collaborated to kill 3000 Americans and frame an innocent Saudi caveman for the evil deed.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that anti-Semitic incidents are spreading across the country.

Boobus Americanus 2: Damn Nazis!

Sugar: Boobusss, you credulooss clod! These stuntss are as phony as the Anne Frank diary!

Editor: Damn, Sugar. How many different Hitler-Cat boyfriends do you have?

MARCH, 2017

New York Times (Op-Ed): Jeff Sessions Needs to Go

By RICHARD W. PAINTER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Damn it! We really hate being right so often!

Readers will recall that it was only a few days ago that we warned against the folly and danger of strategically conceding points of argument to evil liars. From our February 28th issue about coal company executives accepting the hoax of "Global Warming" TM and meeting with "Green" groups:

* FLASHBACK *******

A proverb from your favorite philosopher here at The Anti-New York Times:

"He who allows an evil adversary to frame the debate has already hanged himself."

Never, for the sake of strategic expediency, yield an inch of truth to a pack of liars. Never! To use an analogy from American football, Team Satan will not stop advancing the ball with the "first down" yardage you have so graciously, cowardly and stupidly granted them. No way! They will instead use the easily-gained ground to launch a new set of bold attacks as they "move the chains" again and again and again until they have reached the final destination.

Why give the guy in Image 2 any ground, at all? Let him work for it!

And what is the big "scandal" in the Fake News today? Answer: The innocent conversation between Attorney General (then-Senator) Jeff Sessions and the Russian Ambassador.

And why would such a conversation be considered as grounds for Sessions to resign? Answer: Because the meddling Russians hacked Demonrat computers and fed information that was damaging to Killary Clinscum to Julian Assange of WikiLeaks.

And what evidence is there that the Russians were actually behind these hacks and leaks? Answer: Even Donald Trump now admits it!

From December to January, Trump's tweets "moderated" from open denial and ridicule (Tweets 1 & 2) to merely: "the machines weren't touched" and "it didn't affect the election results anyway." (Tweet 3)

Do "youse guys" see what we mean about making concessions to the Sons of Satan? You see, just to shut his enemies up and relieve a bit of the pressure that was being brought to bear against him, Orange Man foolishly abandoned his very strong original position in which he dismissed all accusations against Russia as unsubstantiated. When nibbled at by the Piranha Press for "disrespecting the intelligence community," OM softened his stance by conceding that the Russians were "probably" guilty of hacking into e-mails, but that it didn't matter because Killary would have lost anyway. "First Down and 10!"

The temporary relief that OM enjoyed by foolishly admitting to Russian meddling was very short-lived. As a direct consequence of that first concession, National Security Advisor Mike Flynn then came under attack for "talking to the Russians" during the transition period and "lying" to the VP snake Mike Pence about it. Flynn was then fired to appease the lynch mob. Another "First Down and 10!"

Because Trump admitted that the Russians "probably hacked," Flynn (Image 1 with Putin) was more easily targeted for his "ties to Russia." His media-approved replacement, General H. R. McMaster is a CFR Globalist.

After tasting Flynn's blood, the Globalist agents in government and the Fake Media had even better field position from which to launch the next wave of attacks in the form of a coming "investigation" from which Sessions has just agreed to "recuse himself" from. Yet another "First Down and 10!" What next? A Special Prosecutor? A "Bipartisan Commission?" TM

Evidently, Trump "strategist" Steve Bannon isn't so clever after all. Or could it be the DC "power couple" of baby-girl Ivanka and her squirrely Democrat Jew husband Jared that is de-balling "The Donald?" Thanks to OM's softening and Flynn's firing, the debate about Russian meddling is "settled" and cannot be revisited. Those "yards" are lost forever. The new debate will now center around: "What did he know and when did he know it?" TM. Dadgummit! When will people ever learn to stop making cowardly concessions to the aggressive Left?! That "kinder, gentler" bullshine doesn't work with these demonic creatures.

Had OM stuck to his attack guns and repeated, over and over and over again, "Lies ... Lies ... Lies" and demanded an investigation into the fake intelligence instead -- the storm would have passed and his discredited accusers would have been the ones losing yardage. As it stands now, OM and his team are facing a new wave of attacks from an ever shrinking defensive position "in the shadows of their own goal post" -- with another enemy "First Down and 10" (or is it "first and goal" already?) fast approaching.

1. Communist Congresswomen Maxine Waters has predicted that the Russia Affair will bring Trump down.
2. Senate scoundrels McCain the Insane, UpChuck Schumer, and Sodomite Graham now intend to use this phony "proven" Russia Affair to stage a coup.
3. Soon, there won't be any territory left to defend.

Boobus Americanus 1: The New York Times is calling for Trump's Attorney General to resign for talking with the Russian ambassador while he was a Senator.

Boobus Americanus 2: I don't know if I agree with that position. This obsession with Russian connections is starting to sound like McCarthyism.

Sugar: Boobussss! You sstarted out with an intelligent comment, but then you had to frick it all up by taking a cheap sshot at the great Joe McCarthy.

--- %#$&*% @#$$%

Editor: Next to the Great One of Germany, Senator Joe is Sugar's favorite. Don't mess with him!

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: U.S. Strengthens Its Forces in a Crowded Syrian Battlefield

By MICHAEL R. GORDON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Wanna hear a funny joke? From the article:

"The American-led command that is fighting the Islamic State, a militant group also known as ISIS or ISIL, acknowledged the buildup around the town, but did not provide details."

How can America be "fighting the Islamic State" when America, Saudi Arabia and Israel, through their hired proxies, are "the Islamic State?!" Furthermore, this "Islamic State" aka "ISIS" aka "ISIL" aka "Daesh" aka "al Nusra" fka "Al Qaeda" is already on the ropes as a result of the pummeling unleashed upon them by Russian air power and the Syrian military, aided by Iranian technical support. All Orange Man has to do now is cut off all aid to the "moderate rebels" TM and let Syrian ground forces finish the job.

Instead, OM, in addition to asking for massive spending increases for "defense," has tasked the Department of Offense to present him with a plan for "defeating ISIS" -- a plan which necessarily entails a deeper and much more visible U.S. presence in Syria. Hmmmmmm. Isn't that exactly what the phony "beheaders" in black pajamas (cough cough Mossad, cough cough) have been trying to induce for the past several years?

The objective of the FAKE beheadings was to bait Obongo into direct military involvement in Syria, from which a clash with Iran could be triggered. The Globalist Obongo resisted, but now Orange Man appears to be following the Zionist path.

What little that we do know of the plan concocted by Offense Secretary James "Mad Dog" Mattis and company sounds as if it was written in Tel Aviv. US News, quoting a top general, gives us a hint -- and it is not good:

"A plan Donald Trump requested for the campaign against the Islamic State group will reportedly be significantly broader in scope than the kinds of war reviews the Obama administration periodically commissioned. America's top military officer believes it will set a new tone for the U.S. government beyond the regions where the U.S. is currently fighting the extremist group.

"This is not about Syria and Iraq," Marine Gen. Joseph Dunford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said Thursday. "This is about a transregional threat and will require more than simply a military response. Indeed the review, led by Defense Secretary Jim Mattis, includes input from each of the military services, officials say, from the Departments of State and Treasury, as well as from the intelligence agencies.

Those familiar with the contents of the review and the options Mattis will present to Trump are reluctant to discuss it But two things are certain: There are no easy solutions, and Trump will not be presented with any choices that won't have potentially dire consequences.

"Potentially dire consequences," eh? Like war with Iran? A face-off with Russia?

General James "Mad Dog" Mattis has had a 30-year erection for fighting the peaceful nation of Iran, and he is no friend of Russia either! The fact that OM has tasked this deranged lunatic with developing a plan for "fighting ISIS" and "stabilizing" the Middle East may have terrifying consequences.

The reflexive impulse to leap to OM's defense whenever the Communist scum of America and Europe attack him as they do is understandable, especially when he is savaged over this "ties to Russia" nonsense. After all, who among us wants to go to war with Russia over Ukraine or the puppet Baltic States? The tragic irony of the unfolding reality in Satanyahu's Middle East is that the U.S. -- under the phony pretext of fighting the beheaders-in-black -- may end up in a war with powerful Iran instead -- a deadly conflict in which Russia and China could ultimately be drawn into (against us) anyway.

Trump's beloved "Mad Dog" needs to be sent to a shelter for rabid beasts, and soon.

No, Donald, they are not "chopping off heads." Bibi's beheading stunts are all fake and you bloody damn well know it!

THIS JUST IN!

Just days after the bad news about the sudden cancellation of historic "back-channel" talks between the U.S. and North Korea, comes more bad news about U.S. - Russia relations -- From FOX:

"President Trump is reportedly telling advisers he might temporarily shelve a plan to pursue a deal with Russia on how to handle the Islamic State as well as other national security matters. Administration officials and Western diplomats told the Associated Press on Saturday that Trump and his aides have ascribed the new thinking to Moscow's recent provocations, including deploying a cruise-missile which violates a Cold War-era arms control treaty. Trump has been pressured by members of his Cabinet, including Defense Secretary Jim Mattis and new national security adviser H.R. McMaster, and European allies to not give concessions to Russia."

So, not only are we invading Syria on the quiet, but the Putin-Trump "bromance" is already in divorce court. Not good, boys and girls, not good.

The Mad Generals Mattis & McMaster (CFR) are now running circles around Trump.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times that we will be sending more troops to Syria to fight ISIS.

Boobus Americanus 2: We need to finish them off once for and for all, before another innocent hostage loses his head.

Sugar: Boobusss! We need to chop off your head and usse it ass a litter box cuss there'ss nothing in it!

Editor: You'd think that after the "weapons of mass destruction" scam they'd start to question what the government-media complex feeds them. But they never do.

MARCH, 2017

Israel to Amazon: Stop Selling Holocaust-Denying Literature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

'THE BAD WAR' HAS BEEN BANNED FROM AMAZON!

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

From the article cited above (appearing February 27, 2017):

"Israel's official Holocaust memorial has asked Amazon to stop selling literature on its site that denies the genocide of 6 million Jews during World War II and otherwise promotes anti-Semitism."

Yad Vashem's director of libraries Robert Rozett says he has dispatched a letter to Amazon CEO Jeff Bezos offering his assistance to "curb the spread of hatred."

*Rozett says Sunday that Yad Vashem has approached Amazon before on the subject but the internet retailing giant insisted it would not halt sales of offensive and inciting material, citing freedom of information. Rozett says he hoped that given the recent spike in anti-Semitic incidents in the United States, particularly a vandalism attack on a Jewish cemetery near St. Louis, Amazon would reconsider its position.

He says he has yet to hear back."

It all makes perfect sense now! A few false-flag attacks, VP Pence shows up to repair a Jewish Cemetery, and Vad Yashem makes yet another plea to Amazon.

From a Breitbart article dated February 27, 2017:

"Yad Vashem's (Holocaust Museum) director of the libraries, Dr. Robert Rozett, penned an appeal to the CEO of Amazon, Jeff Bezos, in which he called on the online site to "curb the spread of hatred." "Once again, given the presence of antisemitism around the globe, which has become more prevalent in recent years, we strongly urge you to remove books that deny, distort and trivialize the Holocaust from your store," Rozett wrote to Bezos."

Sad news to report, boys and girls.

After years of ignoring letters from various Jewish groups, Mr. Bezos has finally caved into pressure to remove books ~~denying~~ disproving the Holocaust TM from the webpages of Amazon. With Zionist Orange Man -- a personal enemy of Bezos -- Breitbart Boss Kevin Bannon, and sonny- boy Jared Kushner in the White House, Bezos has evidently seen the light. Among the titles that suddenly disappeared down the Orwellian memory hole was 'The Bad War' -- my main best-seller and personal "bread & butter" piece that had hundreds of positive reviews. Here is the blunt E-mail received from Amazon:

Hello,

We're contacting you regarding the following book: The Bad War: The Truth NEVER Taught About World War II. During our review process, we found that this content is in violation of our content guidelines. As a result, we cannot offer this book for sale.

THE BAD WAR WAS HOLOCAUSTED!

<https://www.amazon.com/Bad-War-Truth-NEVER-Taught/dp/1507764995>

We will still sell the book through this website, of course, and have it shipped third-party from the self-publishing service. But having lost access to Amazon's awesome marketing and distribution machine, we expect sales to drop by at least 80%. In due time, other titles may even get bumped off, especially if the situation with Russia continues to deteriorate -- a reality which may result in 'The War Against Putin' being removed.

On a personal level, I am concerned over the lost revenue stream, angered over the censorship, and saddened that "newbies" and young students will no longer be introduced to the truth of World War II by Amazon's mass marketing power. Bastards!

If you appreciate TomatoBubble.com and the assorted books, please help me to offset the forever-lost Amazon & Kindle book sales. What a shame it would be if your intrepid reporter here had to give up digging for truth on a full time basis. A minimum $5 per month sustaining membership or generous one-off donations would be greatly appreciated -- as would continued book sales of other titles. Let's take this lemon and make some lemonade.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times that Israel is pressuring Amazon to remove Holocaust Denial books.

Boobus Americanus 2: Good! That type of hatred has no place in a free society.

Sugar: Zzzzz Zzzzz Zzzzz.

Editor: Poor Sugar. She's taking the news of being downgraded from salmon to tuna very hard.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: North Korea Tensions Pose Early, and Perilous, Test for Trump

By DAVID E. SANGER, CHOE SANG-HUN, CHRIS BUCKLEY and MICHAEL R. GORDON

The North's provocations and Chinese anger over the deployment of a missile defense system in South Korea are creating a difficult balancing act for the new administration.

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Iran, Syria and Russia catch a break as the Slimes awards the "Bad Guy of the Week" prize to North Korea. Of course, only a Slimes-worshipping libtard or a FAUX News-worshipping patriotard would actually believe that North Korea would ever launch an aggressive attack against U.S.-protected South Korea and Japan. The very thought of North Korean leader Kim Jong Un picking a war against the United States and its Asian allies vassals is about as ludicrous as the parallel accusation that Iran would pick a war against the United States and its European / Arab allies vassals. In both cases, the false allegation serves the same purpose, namely, to establish a pretext for positioning both defensive and offensive missiles closer to Globalist-Zionist America's ultimate targets -- Russia and China.

The Globalists have used one phony pretext after another to surround the Russia-China bloc with bases and missiles.

Like Russia, China smells this rat from a mile away, and the dragon is not happy about it. From the article:

"China's foreign minister, Wang Yi, said, 'The two sides are like two accelerating trains coming toward each other, and neither side is willing to give way. Our priority now is to flash the red light and apply brakes,' Mr. Wang said at a news conference in Beijing. He said that North Korea should suspend its nuclear and missile activities and that in exchange, South Korea and the United States should suspend large-scale joint military exercises, laying the way to new negotiations with North Korea."

And what is Orange Man's position on this developing danger in Asia? From the article:

"Japan's prime minister, Shinzo Abe, said he spoke with Mr. Trump for 25 minutes, adding, "I appreciate that the United States is showing that all the options are on the table," usually code words for raising the possibility of a military response."

Not good, OM, not good.

In fairness to OM, he had set up what would have been historic back-channel meetings between the North Koreans and some of his lower ranking people -- a move which immediately drew scorn and criticism from elements of the Piranha Press. But then came that oh-so-conveeeeeenient murder of Kim Jong Un's estranged half-brother on Malaysian soil (CIA-Mossad). The late February killing was immediately blamed on little Jong and the negotiations with America were quickly cancelled as a result). This was yet another sign that OM is no longer in control or has been an Israeli agent all along. Always remember that Israel regards North Korea as an enemy state because of its technology sales and other forms of technical assistance to Iran and Syria.

1. CNN website cartoon mocked what appeared to be a coming dialogue between North Korea and Trump. 2. As did the libtard website 'Wonkette' with a photo-shop image. 3. The strange murder of Kim's half-brother in Malaysia (an obvious false flag) forced Orange Man to change his position and cancel talks.

The overlapping power players of Globalism and Zionism don't always see eye-to-eye; but on this matter of "containing" Russia and China, the whole of the PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) sings the same war song -- the Zionists because Russia-China-Iran will not allow the terrorist-expansionist nation of Israel to run wild in the Middle East, and the Globalists because Russia-China-Iran-North Korea will not submit to the New World Order.

Sorry boys and girls, and don't shoot the messenger here. But it doesn't look like the world is going to be getting safer any time soon. President ~~Trump~~ Kushner won't allow it.

1. The Jerusalem Post: "North Korea Accuses Israel of Being a Dictatorial Force For Aggression"

"Pyongyang responded angrily to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's remark to the visiting Japanese premier last week in which the Israeli leader said that both Jerusalem and Tokyo face "formidable threats from nearby rogue states" – Israel from Iran and Japan from North Korea."

2. An enemy of Israel is an enemy of Co-President Jared Kushner and his Jewish-convert princess Ivanka Trump-Kushner.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that North Korea is really getting aggressive.

Boobus Americanus 2: That guy is a real nut. He just had his own brother murdered!

Sugar: Zzzzz Zzzzz Zzzzz.

Editor: The materialistic cat-princess is still grieving over the lost income due to Amazon's banning of "The Bad War."

MARCH, 2017

Highlights from Pissarro to Pollock on view for first time in 50 years.

New York Times: Guggenheim's Greatest Hits Come Roaring Back

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The various branches of the Guggenheim Family (cough cough) originally derived their stupendous wealth from the mining and smelting industries (American Smelting and Refining Company). Later on, the Googies got into the investment racket. Guggenheim Partners today manages $200 billion in assets while another family business, Guggenheim Investment Advisors, oversees another $50 billion. Like other mega-wealthy Jewish families, the Guggies have blessed lower humanity with their oh-so-altruistic "philanthropy" -- a code word for the funding of Globo-Communist subversion.

The "philanthropic" endeavor that the Globalist Guggies have always been best known for is their support of "modern art" -- in particular, the Solomon Guggenheim Museum in New York -- usually referred to as simply "The Guggenheim". Guggenheim's House of Horrors was originally called "The Museum of Non-Objective Painting."

It is a known fact that "modern art" has always been promoted by various tentacles of the New World Order crime gang. And when we here at the Editorial Board of

The Anti-New York Times throw out a term like "known fact," we don't use it as a rhetorical ploy like the slimy scribblers of Sulzberger's Slimes do. No sir; we actually mean it's a known fact -- Google: (CIA & Modern Art) -- (Communist Party & Modern Art) -- (Rockefeller Family & Modern Art) -- (Rothschild Family & Modern Art) -- (Soros Family & Modern Art) -- (The United Nations & Modern Art) etc., etc., etc.

1- King Solomon Guggenheim

2- George Soros arrives at the MoMA (Museum of Modern Art) in New York for his pre-third-wedding cocktail party in 2013.

3- David Rockefeller, honored at the MoMA -- a cesspool of ugliness which his family has funded and directed since 1929

Add to that high-powered list of "patron of the arts" the Sulzberger-Ochs Family -- whose "paper of record" has long puffed-up creepy charlatans such as the openly Stalinist Pablo Picasso and the madman Jackson Pollock. This particular pro-Modern Art article is just one of the thousands that the Slimes has published since the Ochs-Sulzberger crime family bought the newspaper in 1896.

What is the agenda behind this century-old movement (proudly referred to as "anti-art" by its early leftist practioners) to replace the good stuff with neurotic garbage? How does it benefit the Globalists? It's simple. You see, boys and girls, Modern Art -- just like much of Modern Music, Modern Literature, Modern Science etc. -- distorts and destroys the objective appreciation and understanding of truth and beauty and replaces it with subjective standards. The Guggenheim's original name says it all, doesn't it? -- "The Museum of Non-Objective Painting."

The ONLY reason why sheeple assign any value to Guggenheim's garbage is because the "great and the good" -- the "high and the mighty" - the "intelligentsia" have DECREED that it is "art." The Guggenheim Museum visitors shown above have no idea of how, from way up above the cloud-line, their true masters and their hired "artists" are laughing at them.

Convince the "intelligentsia" that up is down, black is white, crap is gold, gold is crap, and soon you can sell them anything. There is no right and wrong -- truth, like Einstein's "curved universe" (rolling eyes) and his "time warps" (rolling eyes) is all about "relativity" and "subjectivity." The essence of 'modernism' is to suppress your own common sense, and then choose to believe in nothing, unless the elites instruct you to believe in something.

Notice how so many of the main characters of modern literature and film are usually not heroes like the characters of days gone by? The protagonist these days is usually a conflicted hybrid weirdo -- neither good nor bad. Likewise, the modernist painter or sculptor is not at all concerned with beauty and truth. To the modernist, truth is only a subjective point of view that drifts with the polluted tide of "popular opinion" TM -- that manufactured dogma which is little more than a mass psychosis shaped by the usual suspects. In both literature and art, and even "theoretical science," there is now a complete rejection of objective truth and objective beauty. Even the biological difference between male and female is now considered by many to be a "non-objective" determination. Heck! Even the Pinko Pope refuses to call sin by its rightful name. Although the Argentinain ass-clown did indeed pass very strong judgements about Global Warming TM and Orange Man's border wall, but I digress.

In the end, a "non-objective" people that can no longer distinguish truth and beauty from falsehood and ugliness, is a people that is ripe for all manner of deception, oppression and enslavement. And that is why Modern Art is the art-of-choice for the cultural vandals behind the New World Order --- and it is also why The Great One, a talented painter himself (see examples below), protected his people from this massive financial and psychological con-game that is still going strong today.

Hitler: "Works of art that cannot be understood but need a swollen set of instructions to prove their right to exist and find their way to neurotics who are receptive to such stupid or insolent nonsense will no longer openly reach the German nation."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the Guggenheim is unveiling a classic collection of artworks for permanent display in its rotunda.

Boobus Americanus 2: This city owes an enormous debt of gratitude to the Guggenheim Family.

Sugar: You sstupid frickin' cornball!!! Insstead of banning "The Bad War," they sshould be banning Guggenheim'ss ugly piecесс of ssubversive #@&^!!!

Editor: Let it go, Sugar. Let it go. --- To hell with Amazon. People can still order our book directly from us

MARCH, 2017

Republican House committee leaders met with President Trump about health care on Friday at the White House

New York Times: The G.O.P.'s High-Risk Strategy for Health Law Repeal

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Orange Man and the majority of Republican'ts ran their 2016 campaigns on a repeated promise to "repeal and replace" the fiasco dubbed ObongoCare. Now that the Republican'ts control the White House and both houses of Congress, the best that these unimaginative ass-clowns can come up with is a social-engineering "replacement" which Senator Rand Paul, a doctor, has correctly termed as "ObamaCare-light."

Orange Man is not interested in Dr. Rand Paul or Dr. Ben Carson's market-based approach to health-care reform.

From the article:

"Instead of the current tax penalty for failing to secure coverage, the bill would introduce a penalty for purchasing insurance after letting coverage lapse: To encourage people to maintain "continuous coverage," insurers would impose a 30 percent surcharge on premiums for people without coverage for 63 days or more."

Where in the Constitution of the United States is the Federal government authorized to "encourage" (a code word for coerce) -- a "free people" to buy insurance? A question for boy genius Speaker Paul Rino (aka Eddie Munster) of number-crunching fame: If struggling families are lapsing on their policies because they can't keep up with rising premiums, then why the frickety-frack would you punish them and/or their employers with a 30% surcharge for getting covered again? Would that actually discourage them from signing up?

The Piranha Press presents Paul Rino as a brilliant "policy wonk." In reality, Eddie Munster is just a mathematical masturbater whose goofy schemes amount to a kinder & gentler form of Marxism.

Where in the US Constitution, which all politicians take an oath to uphold and defend, does it even say "health care?" Doesn't anyone believe in the free-market anymore? Following is TomatoBubble's 10 point plan for phasing out the current government owned / government managed bastardized hybrid system and allowing freedom to make health insurance and high-quality health care affordable and available for everyone.

1. Limit malpractice lawsuits against doctors and hospitals by establishing award limits. Cap lawyer fees at 10% and place the burden of proof on the plaintiff. Let those seeking compensation actually prove that baby-Johnny's cerebral palsy was truly the result of malpractice.
2. Give doctors and hospitals a partial or full income-tax / corporate credit for treating those too poor to afford health insurance.
3. Round up and deport every legal and illegal invader currently receiving Medicaid or visiting hospital emergency rooms for care.

4. Allow workers to accumulate money in a tax-free Medical Savings account from which minor costs can be paid from.

5. Remove most if not all of the costly mandates, regulations and paperwork requirement for private insurers. Allow them to offer policies more similar to home insurance --- which only cover major events.

*Money-grubbing lawyers crushing doctors --- foreign invaders in emergency rooms --- reams and reams of regulatory paperwork. These are all major drivers of rising insurance / health care costs. Why isn't anyone talking about these issues?

6. Wean employees off of employer-provided insurance by allowing the employers to redirect the money spent on health care policies to the employees, but without losing the tax benefits of those sums. The employees can then take the subsequent increase in monthly salary and then aggressively shop for their own policy -- one that competes for business and fits the individuals needs.

7. Until such time as MediCare (for the elderly) can be replaced altogether, limit the program based on means testing. Those elderly who are flush with liquid cash (and there are many!) can start paying for their own policies.

8. Remove the artificial limits that the protection-racket known as the AMA uses to limit how many people can become doctors. More doctors = lower costs.

9. Allow lower income individuals to qualify for full or partial tax credits (including the Social Security tax) to offset the cost of purchasing insurance.

10. Until such time as the Federal government can get out of the health care business altogether, chop the $630 budget for the Department of Defense down to about $100 billion (still would be the largest military budget on earth!) Return $300 Billion of those savings in the form of tax cuts, and use the other $230 Billion to dole out as "Medical Food Stamp" cash for those who still cannot afford coverage.

Image 1. Stop limiting medical school admissions and increase the number of Doctors. Image 2. Enhance the ability of the people to pay for their services directly.

The TomatoBubble Plan would cause insurance prices to drop like a rock while at the same time greatly increasing people's ability to pay for the rapidly decreasing premiums in a truly competitive and innovative environment. Freedom works, baby! In five years time, the Feds would be out of healthcare completely -- with the exception perhaps of the very old who are already too deeply embedded within the MediCare system. But don't hold your breath waiting for such badly needed reform to come from the likes of Orange Man and Eddie Munster. Even if they do mean well, the concept of economic liberty has been buried for so many years that most people can't even imagine it anymore.

Mike & Sugar 2020

"Affordable health insurance and a copy of 'The Bad War' in every pot."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that the repeal of ObamaCare is proving to be more challenging than the Republicans had expected.

Boobus Americanus 2: We should just do like Europe and Canada. Have the government take the whole system over and give us free healthcare. Problem solved!

Sugar: Why sstop at 'free' health care, Boobuss? If the concept is sso frickin' great, then why not have 'free' grocery care, 'free' auto care, 'free' clothing care, 'free' haircare etc.

Editor: Don't give Boobus any ideas, Sugar.

MARCH, 2017

Sebastian Neubauer, who said that he confronted some unresolved family history when his grandmother died, in Berlin.

New York Times: German Art Collectors Face a Painful Past: Do I Own Nazi Loot?

By CATHERINE HICKLEY

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The opening barf about the most recent manifestation of German self-flagellation says it all:

"After World War II, few Germans with sizable art holdings made a point of digging into their collections for signs of Nazi looting.

And because private collections were off limits for those trying to track down stolen art, works of unexamined provenance have hung for decades in family homes and office corridors, the stories of how they were acquired often vague, inconsistent or simply not discussed.

But as one generation of Germans has died and given its art to the next, a number of people with prominent collections and unsettled consciences have stepped forward to investigate what they own.

"I don't want stolen goods hanging on the wall — it's quite simple," said Jan Philipp Reemtsma, who hired a researcher 15 years ago to examine the collection he inherited from his father."

And what a good little modern boot-licking German libtard you are, Herr Reemtsma. The trouble is, the story about big bad "Nazis" looting the artworks of Europe is every bit as phony as the tall tales of "zee gas chambers" and the forged diary of Anne Frank. Time for a truth refresher-course.

1. Jan Philipp Reemtsma -- so smug and self righteous in his pathetic German guilt -- doesn't want "looted art" on his walls. 2. Evil Eisenhower stages a photo-op to "prove" how the "Nazis" stole artworks.

Here is what really happened:

ART PROTECTION DURING WORLD WAR I

Under Kaiser Wilhelm II during World War I, the highly cultured Germans went to great lengths to protect and preserve artworks located in enemy territory or near a zone of combat. The German word to describe this principal of saving Europe's cultural and artistic treasures during wartime is "Kunstschutz" (art protection). At the end of the war, rescued artworks were returned voluntarily. Unlike World War II, anti-German propaganda actually faded away following World War I. As a result, Germany was later praised for "Kunstschutz" / art protection during "The Great War."

1. Kaiser Wilhelm tried to avert the war which was forced upon Germany. Even while winning the war, the Kaiser held out an olive branch to the Allies, while his soldiers protected artworks belonging to enemy nations. 2. World War I was very destructive. Thanks to Germany, many works of art located in Belgium and France were saved.

ART PROTECTION DURING WORLD WAR II

A talented painter himself, Adolf Hitler had a great appreciation for art and culture. He saw Churchill and FDR as uncultured barbarians with merciless disregard for innocent life, architecture, and works of art. As the Germans under Kaiser Wilhelm II had done during World War I, Hitler too ordered the protection of artworks throughout the combat theatres of Western and Eastern Europe. The task of protecting the art of Europe was handed over to Air Force Marshal Hermann Goering. As Allied terror bombing ravages Europe, thousands of paintings and sculptures from Italy, France, Belgium, Russia, Romania, and Poland were gathered and meticulously inventoried by the Germans.

Hitler also respected ancient Rome as one of the cultural pillars of Europe. As the Americans and British approached Rome from the South, Hitler ordered his troops to evacuate. Knowing that an Allied air and ground attack would destroy many of its cultural icons, The “Eternal City” was left open for the Allies to march in uncontested. Hitler’s decision to leave Rome as an undefended "Open City" saved the great city from ruin, as it did similar decisions regarding occupied Athens and Florence.

1- Churchill the Barbarian 2. Hitler the cultured gentleman (with Norwegian skater Sonja Henning) 3. A Painting by Hitler

After the war, the American Art Looting Investigation Unit (ALIU) of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) issued 13 reports on the German plundering of art. By the way, this is the same OSS whose other “findings” accused the Germans of using the bodies of dead Jews to make “shrunk heads, lamp shades and “bars of soap” - allegations which are today universally acknowledged to have been false.

The OSS was the forerunner to the CIA. In the months, years, and decades following the war, endlessly repeated propaganda has elevated the OSS-CIA fable of “looted Nazi art” into a virtual reality in the minds of the brainwashed public. However, as is the case with so many other elements of the “official story” of World War II, this too is a lie.

As for the American looting of Europe, it included the taking of personal possessions, livestock, women, and works of art. In the East, Stalin's hordes carried out wholesale looting and ghastly gang raping of every German female they could get their hands on. More recently, in 2003, the US occupiers of Iraq deliberately stood down as barbarians and professional thieves looted the priceless cultural treasures of that unfortunate nation.

Modern day Germans may not be allowed to even think it, but that's the truth, boys and girls. And truths such as this are why "The Bad War" was suddenly, after two years and 400 5-star reviews, banned by Amazon and its printing division. We will have a new version self-published within a few weeks.

1 & 2 - As men of culture, Hitler and Goering placed high priority on art protection. 3- Rescued from bombed-out Naples: "The Blind Leading The Blind" by Pieter Bruegel the Elder Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in the New York Times today that mentioned a wealthy German who hired a researcher to determine if any artworks in his collection had been looted by the Nazis. He said he didn't want stolen art on his wall.

Boobus Americanus 2: It is so commendable and encouraging to see how Germans have come to grips with their Nazi past and reformed so much.

Sugar: I can't with you, Boobuss. I jusst can't.

Editor: I'm right behind you, Sugar.

MARCH, 2017

Michael Karkoc in 2014. He immigrated to the United States in 1949 and now lives in a nursing home in Minneapolis.

New York Times: Poland Says Minnesota Man, 98, Ordered Nazi-Led Atrocities

By JOANNA BERENDT and MATT FURBER

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The Satanic blood-lust to track down and destroy every last surviving hero of the volunteer Waffen SS -- an elite force which included soldiers from many different nationalities among its ranks -- takes us to Minnesota for this sad tale of elder abuse. The puppet government of Poland is now seeking the extradition of a 98-year-old Ukrainian-American who the Polish ultra-nationalists and chosenites claim carried out "atrocities" in 1944 which killed scores of "civilians." Of course, more often than not, the term "civilians" turns out to be just a code-word for Bolshevik (often Jewish) partisans who had it coming to them.

The Ukrainians saw the Waffen SS as liberators from Bolshevik-Jewish tyranny. Many Ukrainian men would join the ranks of its international divisions.

The 98-year old Michael Karkoc, arrived in the US in 1949. He now lives in a nursing home in Minneapolis. The Karkoc family insists that he is innocent of the charges and that his dementia renders him unfit to stand trial. It has been alleged that Karkoc commanded the SS-led Ukrainian Self Defense Legion which carried out "mass killings" in Polish villages and helped suppress the 1944 Warsaw Uprising. Mr. Karkoc did not tell US authorities in 1949 that he had served in the legion which was on a list of organizations whose members were forbidden to enter the country. Eastern European Communists could enter the US, but not SS men who fought the Soviets.

The AP's articles led to investigations in both Germany and Poland. German prosecutors ended their investigation in 2015, saying Mr. Karkoc was unfit to stand trial, but the Polish-Jewish inquiry continued. The commission, which is part of Poland's Institute of National Remembrance, a body granted prosecutorial powers to go after "Nazi war criminals" - filed a request for an arrest warrant for Karkoc -- the first step toward extraditing the old man to Poland for trial.

Institute of National Remembrance (Poland)

Poland -- which actually started the war -- has copied Jewish victim tactics.

The article quotes a Polish official who rejects the argument that prosecuting Karkoc would be pointless given his age and health:

"First of all, age is not a factor when it comes to bringing anyone to justice. As for the state of his health, that will be for expert witnesses to determine."

The article further reveals that the notorious "Nazi hunters" of the Simon Wiesenthal Center had been pressuring Poland to do a better job of tracking down more of these SS men -- very similar to how these creatures recently pressured Amazon into removing as many as 80 titles which "deny" the Holocaust.

Mr. Karkoc's son and spokesman, Andriy Karkoc, said in an interview on Tuesday in Minneapolis that his father was not guilty. From the article:

"My father is an innocent 98-year-old man who never did anything wrong. At a restaurant near the Ukrainian Orthodox Church where many family weddings had taken place, Andriy Karkoc, 63, said the allegations had been deeply painful for the family, even though his father had scoffed at them."

Michael Karkoc, an ethnic Ukrainian, was born in the city of Lutsk on March 6, 1919. Claimed by Czarist Russia in the late 18th century, the area became part of Poland after World War I, was annexed by the Soviet Union in 1939 and was occupied by the Germans in 1941.

After the war, Mr. Karkoc ended up in a camp for displaced people in Germany. His first wife died in 1948, a year before he and their two sons immigrated to the United States, where he worked as a carpenter, remarried and had four more children."

Simon the Weasel Wiesenthal made a fortune by hunting down innocent old men. Though dead and gone now, his evil legacy lives on.

Just imagine the pain and anguish that this poor old man, his six children and various grandchildren must be going through as news-crews from the Piranha Press descend upon the Karcoc property and knock on the door for comment -- all because grandpa volunteered to fight the very same Communists that FDR and the Jewish gang around and above him were determined to protect.

This deeply disturbing article closes by quoting an ignorant woman, with a Jewish-sounding name, from Mr. Karcoc's suburban Minneapolis neighborhood:

"I'm alarmed," said Carey Tinkelenberg, 29, whose father spent years in a Japanese-run prison in World War II. "It's absolutely personal."

"Alarmed," eh Carey? (Palm to face, shaking head, sighing)

Our "thoughts and prayers" TM go out to Mr. Karcoc and his family. Thank you for your service, sir.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in the New York Times today about a 98-year old Ukrainian Nazi SS war criminal who has been found in Minneapolis.

Boobus Americanus 2: Wow. Just imagine. All these years and his neighbors never even realizing that a mass killer was dwelling amongst them. Scary stuff.

Sugar: Just imagine, Boobuss. All thesse yearss of you never even realizing what a frickin' ignoramuss you truly are.

Editor: Now THAT is scary!

MARCH, 2017

Herbert Johnson's cartoon from the era, titled "Make This Flood Control Permanent."

New York Times: Revisiting 1917, a Year That Reverberates for Jews Around the World

By GERALDINE FABRIKANT

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

A museum exhibit set to open this weekend at the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia and later this year at the American Jewish Historical Society in New York will focus on three historic events and their impact on Jews (evidently, no else really matters). The exhibit titled, "1917: How One Year Changed the World," will feature America's entry into World War I, the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia and the Balfour Declaration.

Though much of what this particular Slimes article tells of these three events is indeed accurate, the deception lies in what is omitted. Let's dive in and see what we mean.

1917

*Two major Jewish museums are teaming up to school their flocks on 1917 -
-- but their exhibit leaves out a few details.*

Slimes: The war and the revolution resulted in strict limits on immigration to the United States, reflecting a fear among Americans that unrest in Europe would spread to their country. The restrictions were not overtly aimed at Jews, but because the quotas from countries with high Jewish populations were tightened, fewer Jews were able to settle in the United States.

The Omission: The restrictions were aimed, in large part, at stopping the influx of Anarchists and Communists who had been causing problems in America since the 1880's. And it just so happened (surprise, surprise) that many of these subversive characters were of a certain ethnic group (cough cough).

1 & 2 - 1901: President McKinley was murdered by Leon Czolgosz, an anarchist son of Polish immigrants

3. The lovely and gracious Emma Goldman (cough cough) from Lithuania (Russian Empire) defended Czologosz's dirty deed.

Slimes: After the revolution, when the Bolsheviks came to power, and the xenophobia coalesced together and had the power to influence, that fear accelerated.

The Omission: The Bolshevik Revolution was a Jewish affair. With the exception of front man Lenin (1/4 jew who spoke Yiddish), a review of the roster of Russia's leading Bolshevik killers reads like the guest list for a Russian-Jewish Bar Mitzvah -- Trotsky (Bronstein), Sverdlov, Dzerzhinsky, Litvinov (Wallach), Radek (Sobelsohn), Kamenev (Rosenfeld), Uritsky and many, many more.

The Bolshevik Revolution and subsequent bloodbath were Jewish --- no "ifs", no "ands" and no "buts" about it!

Slimes: As the United States was entering the war, there were concerns among Jews over the persecution of those still in Russia and Eastern Europe.

The Omission: Apart from the fact that the "persecution" TM of the chosenites was greatly exaggerated, it is important to note that the Communist movements of the other nations of Eastern Europe were also led by the usual suspects -- Bela Kun in Hungary; Max Goldstein in Romania; Rosa Luxembourg in Germany et al. It is understandable that the good Christian people of these nations might come to justifiably resent the Jewish-led drive for a Bolshevik Europe.

Slimes: Not all Jewish immigrants viewed the United States as a safe haven. A handful of documents highlight the little-known story of Boris Reinstein, who came from Russia and made a career as a druggist in Buffalo. His 1917 application for a passport is on display, as is his 1923 renunciation of his United States citizenship. Mr. Reinstein was a true believer in the Bolshevik Revolution and the Soviet ideology and left his wife, Anna, to return to Russia, where he worked in the Library of the Marx, Lenin and Engels Institute.

Comment: An interesting and useful little truth gem which validates our points of argument. Thanks Slimes!

Blah-blah-blah...Always rabble-rousing on behalf of "the people." Trotsky (Russia), Kun (Hungary) Luxembourg (Germany)

Slimes: The Balfour Declaration, meanwhile, expressed Britain's support for a Jewish home in Palestine.

For Dr. Perelman and Rachel Lithgow, executive director of the American Jewish Historical Society, one gratifying coup was the loan of two draft versions of the Balfour Declaration from the financier Martin Franklin...This was the text that was forwarded to Lord Balfour and was used as the basis of the Balfour Declaration. Arthur James Balfour, for whom the declaration is named, was Britain's foreign secretary. The final declaration, in the form of a letter dated Nov. 2, 1917, was sent to one of Britain's most distinguished Jewish citizens, Baron Lionel Walter Rothschild.

Ultimately, it said, in part: "His Majesty's government view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this object." The document also added that "nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine."

Omission: Solid history, but the linkage between the Balfour Declaration and America's entry into World War is oh-so-conveniently "forgotten" about. Benjamin Freedman, a former aide to Bernard Baruch, later split with the Zionists and "blew the whistle" on The Balfour Declaration.

Freedman, from a 1961 speech at the Willard Hotel in Washington:

"Let me show what happened while we were all asleep.

World War I broke out in the summer of 1914. ... There are few people here my age who remember that. Now that war was waged on one side by Great Britain, France, and Russia; and on the other side by Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey. What happened?

Within two years Germany had won that war: not alone won it nominally, but won it actually. The German submarines, which were a surprise to the world, had swept all the convoys from the Atlantic Ocean, and Great Britain stood there without ammunition for her soldiers, stood there with one week's food supply facing her -- and after that, starvation.

At that time, the French army had mutinied. They lost 600,000 of the flower of French youth in the defense of Verdun on the Somme. The Russian army was defecting. They were picking up their toys and going home, they didn't want to play war anymore, they didn't like the Czar. And the Italian army had collapsed.

Now Germany -- not a shot had been fired on the German soil. Not an enemy soldier had crossed the border into Germany. And yet, here was Germany offering England peace terms. They offered England a negotiated peace on what the lawyers call a status quo ante basis. That means: "Let's call the war off, and let everything be as it was before the war started."

Well, England, in the summer of 1916 was considering that. Seriously! They had no choice. It was either accepting this negotiated peace that Germany was magnanimously offering them, or going on with the war and being totally defeated.

While that was going on, the Zionists in Germany, who represented the Zionists from Eastern Europe, went to the British War Cabinet and -- I am going to be brief because this is a long story, but I have all the documents to prove any statement that I make if anyone here is curious, or doesn't believe what I'm saying is at all possible -- the Zionists in London went to the British war cabinet and they said: "Look here. You can yet win this war. You don't have to give up. You don't have to accept the negotiated peace offered to you now by Germany. You can win this war if the United States will come in as your ally."

The United States was not in the war at that time. We were fresh; we were young; we were rich; we were powerful. They [Zionists] told England: "We will guarantee to bring the United States into the war as your ally, to fight with you on your side, if you will promise us Palestine after you win the war."

In other words, they made this deal: "We will get the United States into this war as your ally. The price you must pay us is Palestine after you have won the war and defeated Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey."

Now England had as much right to promise Palestine to anybody, as the United States would have to promise Japan to Ireland for any reason whatsoever. It's absolutely absurd that Great Britain -- that never had any connection or any interest or any right in what is known as Palestine -- should offer it as coin of the realm to pay the Zionists for bringing the United States into the war.

However, they made that promise, in October of 1916. And shortly after that -- I don't know how many here remember it -- the United States, which was almost totally pro-German -- totally pro-German -- because the newspapers here were controlled by Jews, the bankers were Jews, all the media of mass communications in this country were controlled by Jews, and they were pro-German because their people, in the majority of cases came from Germany, and they wanted to see Germany lick the Czar.

The Jews didn't like the Czar, and they didn't want Russia to win this war. So the German bankers -- the German-Jews -- Kuhn Loeb and the other big banking firms in the United States refused to finance France or England to the extent of one dollar. They stood aside and they said: "As long as France and England are tied up with Russia, not one cent!" But they poured money into Germany, they fought with Germany against Russia, trying to lick the Czarist regime.

Now those same Jews, when they saw the possibility of getting Palestine, they went to England and they made this deal. At that time, everything changed, like the traffic light that changes from red to green. Where the newspapers had been all pro-German, where they'd been telling the people of the difficulties that Germany was having fighting Great Britain commercially and in other respects, all of a sudden the Germans were no good. They were villains. They were Huns. They were shooting Red Cross nurses. They were cutting off babies' hands. And they were no good.

Well, shortly after that, Mr. Wilson declared war on Germany.

The Zionists in London sent these cables to the United States, to Justice Brandeis: "Go to work on President Wilson. We're getting from England what we want. Now you go to work, and you go to work on President Wilson and get the United States into the war." And that did happen. That's how the United States got into the war. We had no more interest in it; we had no more right to be in it than we have to be on the moon tonight instead of in this room.

Now the war -- World War One -- in which the United States participated had absolutely no reason to be our war. We went in there -- we were railroaded into it -- if I can be vulgar, we were suckered into -- that war merely so that the Zionists of the world could obtain Palestine. Now, that is something that the people in the United States have never been told. They never knew why we went into World War One. Now, what happened?

After we got into the war, the Zionists went to Great Britain and they said: "Well, we performed our part of the agreement. Let's have something in writing that shows that you are going to keep your bargain and give us Palestine after you win the war." Because they didn't know whether the war would last another year or another ten years. So they started to work out a receipt. The receipt took the form of a letter, and it was worded in very cryptic language so that the world at large wouldn't know what it was all about. And that was called the Balfour Declaration.

The Balfour Declaration was merely Great Britain's promise to pay the Zionists what they had agreed upon as a consideration for getting the United States into the war. So this great Balfour Declaration, that you hear so much about, is just as phony as a three dollar bill. And I don't think I could make it more emphatic than that."

And that, dear reader, is some serious REAL history!

Jewish defector Benjamin Freedman spent a fortune, gave many speeches, and published several books trying to warn America about the Jewish Mafia.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in the New York Times today which described a Jewish museum exhibit about 1917 -- a pivotal year in Jewish history.

Boobus Americanus 2: Oh. What happened in 1917?

Sugar: The %$#&^@ &$#@ sstuck it up our collective rectumss good and hard with a three-fer --- Bolshevissm, Zionissm and Globalissm -- that'ss what frickin' happened!!!*

Editor: (palm to face, shaking head, sighing) So sorry boys and girls. Sugar has been fit to be tied ever since 'The Bad War' was banned by Amazon last week.

MARCH, 2017

Aboard the aircraft carrier Carl Vinson during a South Korea-United States joint military exercise in seas east of the Korean Peninsula

New York Times: All Eyes on China as U.S. Signals New Tack on North Korea

By JANE PERLEZ

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

As he rattles one sabre at Israel's enemy, Iran, the Zionist agent in the White House simultaneously rattles another at Israel's enemy, North Korea (an enemy because it provides technology to Iran & Syria). Oddly enough, Sulzberger's Slimes, which attacks Orange Man for everything and anything, doesn't question the necessity of all the aggressive rhetoric and hostile chess-moves regarding these disturbing developments in the Middle and Far East.

The combed-over ass clown tweets out thinly-veiled threats of war -- including one at 1:47 AM in the morning!

The article reveals how the US plans to pressure China:

"Secretary of State Rex W. Tillerson signaled on Friday that the Trump administration was prepared to scrap nearly a decade of United States policy toward North Korea in favor of a more aggressive effort to eliminate the country's nuclear weapons program. Whether that means pre-emptive action, which he warned was "on the table," will depend a great deal on how China responds."

Secretary Toiletson just went to China a day after declaring in vassalized South Korea that the Orange Man administration will not negotiate with North Korea on freezing its nuclear and missile programs. How hard of a line that Toiletson takes with China remains to be seen. But if Twitterer-In-Chief's juvenile cyber-blurbs are any indication, the road ahead may be very rocky. "North Korea is behaving very badly," he tweeted. Then added, "They have been 'playing' the United States for years. China has done little to help!"

And who the frickety-frack is Orange Man -- that self-professed champion of "national sovereignty" -- to lecture North Korea and China on what are purely their own domestic affairs? Why should North Korea disarm itself? How did that work out for Qaddafi of Libya? How does this aggressive posture serve the interests of the "America First" ideal that OM campaigned on and got elected with? And if these threats against Iran, North Korea, and, though subtly, China do not serve the American people, then who does benefit? Come on, boys and girls. You know!

Headline & Sub Headline: Times of Israel / February 24, 2017:

Adelson said to hail Trump as likely 'best president for Israel ever'

Jewish billionaire casino magnate and staunch supporter of Netanyahu reportedly made remark in front of Dick Cheney

1- The demon Adelson (who advocated dropping an atomic bomb in the Iranian desert as a "warning") LOVES the Orange Man. 2- Toiletson's exaggerated smile and body language in the presence of Satanyahu is very telling. 3- The Twitterer-in-Chief and Satanyahu don matching light blue ties -- conveniently mimicking the two blue lines on the Israeli flag (which themselves represent the hoped-for Greater Israel between the Euphrates and Nile Rivers).

WHAT THE TWO LIGHT BLUE LINES REALLY MEAN!

Genesis, Chapter 15, Verse 18: "In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt (Nile) unto the great river, the river Euphrates (Iraq)."

In Beijing, Toiletson will meet President Xi Jinping. In advance of the meeting, Toiletson said at a press conference:

"We have committed ourselves to do everything we can to prevent a conflict from breaking out."

So, a conflict may just "break out," eh Toiletson? How so? By little North Korea attacking South Korea and, by extension, its mighty US protector for no reason other than to commit national suicide? Is that what you expect Boobus Americanus to believe? Even our favorite boobs at the water cooler ain't gonna buy that whopper of a manure burger, Toiletson! --- On second thought...

Kim Jong Un and NBA Basketball legend Dennis Rodman

"Tell Obama to call me. If you can, Dennis – I don't want to do war. I don't want to do war."

THE JERUSALEM POST

How North Korea Endangers Israel

By Yonah Jeremy Bob

March 10, 2017

While North Korea is focused on South Korea, Japan and the US, its connection to Iran may be a serious threat to Israel.

While it might not seem like it, North Korea is a serious threat to Israel. Initially, that assertion is far from obvious. North Korea is located in a completely different part of the world and regularly threatens South Korea, Japan and the US, not Israel.

Yet, by possibly serving as an outsourced, clandestine extension of Iran's nuclear program, by openly cooperating with Iran on various initiatives and by making Iran look less crazy and the US look less strong, North Korea could render the Iranian threat to Israel far more serious.

The latest US-North Korea crisis which could have ripple effects on Iran and Israel follows Pyongyang's firing of five ballistic Scud missiles on Monday, four of which flew about 1,000 kilometers and hit in the Sea of Japan.

The Trump administration has talked tough, but has struggled with how to respond. But back to North Korea and Iran. Hard evidence of how deep the Iran-North Korea nuclear relationship goes is scarce, but experts have been finding Iran-North Korea connections for years.

1 & 2 - "Oy vey! North Korea is going to nuke America unless you act now! USA! USA! USA!" 3 - North Korea and Iran enjoy excellent relations.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times that Trump is going to keep a military option on the table in dealing with North Korea.

Boobus Americanus 2: That Kim fellow is a real nut-case.

Sugar: Wrong again, Boobus!!! THIS is the real nut-case caussing all the endlessss warss!

Editor: Boobus falls for the bad-guy-of-the-month routine -- Every. Damn. Time.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: David Rockefeller, Philanthropist and Head of Chase Manhattan, Dies at 101

By JONATHAN KANDELL

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Well it's about damn time this evil old super-Globalist son-of-a-bitch assumed room temperature! Interestingly enough, the Slimes eulogy confirms much of what we "conspiracy theorists" TM have been saying about him for many years -- namely, that the Rockefeller Crime Family wielded more raw political and geopolitical power than any US President ever could.

The "capitalist" who loved Communists! David Rockefeller with killers Castro, Khrushchev and Mandela.

From the article:

"His stature was greater than any corporate title might convey, however. His influence was felt in Washington and foreign capitals, in the corridors of New York City government, in art museums, in great universities and in public schools.

Mr. Rockefeller could well be the last of a less and less visible family to have cut so imposing a figure on the world stage. As a peripatetic advocate of the economic interests of the United States and of his own bank, he was a force in global financial affairs and in his country's foreign policy. He was received in foreign capitals with the honors accorded a chief of state....

In silent testimony to his power and reach was his Rolodex, a catalog of some 150,000 names of people he had met as a banker-statesman. It required a room of its own beside his office...'Few people in this country have met as many leaders as I have,' he said.

The youngest of six siblings, David was born in Manhattan in 1915. His father, John D. Rockefeller Jr., the only son of the oil titan, devoted his life to "philanthropy" (funding Globalist subversion). His mother, Abby Aldrich Rockefeller, was the daughter of Nelson Aldrich, the wealthy senator from Rhode Island who was instrumental in founding the counterfeiting, loan sharking and market rigging scam known as the Federal Reserve Bank.

All five of the Rockefeller boys were given power in their own right. Nelson Rockefeller became governor of New York and later vice President of the United States coming inches away from taking the White House after two assassins failed in their attempted killing of President Gerald Ford. He died in 1979.

Like Papa John Jr, John D. Rockefeller III, immersed himself in "philanthropy" until his death in an automobile accident in 1978. Laurance Rockefeller became an big name "environmentalist" and promoter of the "Global Warming" TM scam. He died in 2004. And finally, there was Winthrop Rockefeller, the least influential of the brothers who governor of Arkansas and died in 1973.

1- The 5 Rockefeller Brothers all worked to promote domestic socialism and achieving world government. 2- John D. Rockefeller III gives check for $8.5 million ($110 million in 2017 dollars) to UN Secretary General Trygve Lie of Norway. 3- David Rockefeller with Jacob Rothschild. The two crime families have a long history of doing business and geopolitics together.

All of the privileged Rockefeller brats wielded inherited clout. But it was David, the "baby" of the nasty billionaire bunch, who outdid them all -- both in terms of longevity and accumulation of influence. Following are just a few of his resume points:

- Director of the Globalist Council on Foreign Relations
- Founder and Director of the Globalist Trilateral Commission
- Regular attendee of the Globalist Bildeberger Conference
- Director of the Museum of Modern Art in New York
- Chairman & CEO of Chase Manhattan Bank

1- 1970's meeting of the Trilateral Commission: Rockefeller and co-founder Zbigniew Brzezinski next to each other with hands to chin. 2- David poses next to one of the many expensive pieces of "modern art" garbage that he and his wretched family has promoted for the purpose of polluting western civilization. 3- Strolling about at a Bilderberg meeting retreat

Congressman Larry Patton MacDonald of Georgia summed up the Rockefeller Crime Family's true objectives very succinctly. The John Birch Society President once wrote, as part of the introduction for Gary Allen's "The Rockefeller Files" in 1976:

"The drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a one-world government, combining super-capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control ... Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent."

Outspoken, popular, very intelligent and ambitious, Congressman McDonald was eliminated in 1983 when Korean Airlines Flight 007, which he was travelling on, was either shot down by the Soviets or forced to land in Soviet Siberia.

The Rockefellers don't play games. Rot in hell, little David, rot in hell!

1&2- The Rockefeller Files, -- introduction by Congressman Larry MacDonald 3- The Devil David

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that David Rockefeller just died at 101.

Boobus Americanus 2: He leaves behind a lasting legacy of philanthropic achievements.

Sugar: Zzzzzz Zzzzzz ... Zzzzzzz

Editor: Sugar was up all night editing the upcoming expanded re-release of The Bad War.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: Museums Combat Ignorance About the Holocaust

By NINA SIEGAL

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

The song that doesn't end takes us to The Netherlands -- the Anne Frank House Museum to be precise -- for a pitiful tale of the mental abuse of teenagers. No, not that of teenage diarist Anne Frank TM, who died of typhus years before her crooked father made his fortune forging much of her diaries. But rather, the mind-rape of hundreds of thousands of High School students from all across the western world who are forced to make pilgrimage to this museum of mendacity for a good dose of Bolshevik brainwashing.

1- The obedient chumps line up at the Anne Frank House to be brainwashed. Growing attendance has prompted an expansion and renovation. 2- A rendering of the planned renovation of the Anne Frank House museum in Amsterdam. The project is expected to cost $11 million.

From the article's opening (brace yourself!):

“She hid Jews?”

Aleatha Hinds, 17, ventured a guess about Anne Frank’s identity as she waited in line for two hours recently to enter the museum devoted to that world-famous diarist, who hid with her family in a secret annex for 25 months during World War II.

“No, no, no!” replied several friends, all 11th and 12th graders from the St. Charles College high school in Ontario. “She was Jewish!” they corrected her, in unison.

“She was hiding in her father’s factory,” said Eric LeBreton, 16. “The Nazis were looking for all the Jewish people because Hitler was trying to do genocide.”

I know boss, I know.

More moronic manure from the article describes what goes on in the exhibit:

“Germany became an anti-Semitic dictatorship in which opponents feared for their lives and Jews were systematically persecuted,” the narrator explains in the video. “The Nazi leader was Adolf Hitler.”

Hang in there, chief. As soon as the new edition of 'The Bad War' is done, Sugar and I will straighten these kids out - one at a time.

The story claims that attendance to the museum has swelled to 1.3 million teary-eyed chumps annually, way up from one million in 2010. However, according to Slimes scribbler Nina Siegal (cough, cough), there is a growing "problem" that needs to be corrected. It is said that many of the younger and foreign visitors who flock to this Marxist magic show now have very little knowledge of the Holocaust TM. So the chosenites and their henchmen are seeking new ways to address a declining understanding of World War II and the "genocide" of "six million Jews" TM. Evidently, the dumbing-down of our young people has resulted in them not only be ignorant of real history, but of fake history as well!

The article quotes the museum's managing director, Garance Reus-Deelder:

“We find that, with the war being further removed from all of us, but especially for young people and people from outside of Europe, our visitors don't always have sufficient prior knowledge of the Second World War to really grasp the meaning of Anne Frank and the people in hiding here. We want to make sure that Anne Frank isn't just an icon, but a portal into history.”

Translation: "Oy vey! Too much time has passed since World War II. The hypnotic spell is wearing off. We must intensify the Holocaust propaganda so that the new generation will let us get away with bloody murder just like previous ones have."

Ms. Siegal and Ms. Deelder seek to corrupt the next generation.

Ms. Deeldo (ethnicity and "gender" unclear) is right to be concerned because the passage of time and its associated diminishing of emotional intensity will indeed render the next generation more open to the case for "Holocaust denial" TM -- which is why we are seeing more and more hoax attacks and threats aimed at Jewish community centers, schools, synagogues and cemeteries. Think of these "attacks" as "booster shots" needed to keep Gentile sympathy at optimum levels now that 72 years have passed since the end of "The Good War."

As for little Anne Frank, her tragic death due to typhus ought to be blamed not on The Great One, but rather, on the Jewish Mafia which engineered and incited for the war in Germany -- a war which necessarily required Germany to intern the Jews (the admitted enemies of Germany) who lived in the "neutral" nations which they were forced to occupy. The culpability for the numerous cases of death-by-typhus of any innocent non-political Jews or their children rests squarely with the likes of Roosevelt, Churchill, Stalin, Baruch, Rothschild, Sulzberger, Morgenthau and all the rest of that evil bunch who wanted another war for Globalism/Communism.

Anne Frank was just one girl of the millions of teenagers killed during that devilish war. How about a few tears for German girls who were gang-raped to death, burned to death, suffocated to death, crushed to death or starved to death by "the good guys?" There will be neither museums nor memorials for them though. No sir; that would be "anti-Semitic" TM.

Anne Frank has universal name recognition. But the names of the German girls snatched off the street or from their homes, then gang-raped and murdered remain unknown.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read an article in the New York Times about the Anne Frank Museum in Amsterdam. Apparently, many of the younger generation know very little of the Holocaust.

Boobus Americanus 2: Our education system is badly broken. We must never forget the Holocaust.

Sugar: Agreed Boobuss! The vicious carpet-bombing holocausts of crowded civilian neighborhoods in Hamburg, Berlin, Dresden and so many other German cities ought never to be forgotten. Same for Tokyo, Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Editor: Gentile lives matter.

MARCH, 2017

The teenager accused of making bomb threats against Jewish community centers hid his face before the start of a court hearing in Israel. His name has not been released.

New York Times: Jewish Center Bomb Threat Suspect Is Arrested in Israel

By ISABEL KERSHNER, ADAM GOLDMAN, ALAN BLINDER and RICHARD PÉREZ-PEÑA

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Surprise, surprise, surprise -- the domestic terrorist who phoned in all of those much publicized bomb threats to Jewish Centers nationwide turns out to be an American-Israeli dual citizen. Tempting as it may be for Sugar and I, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times to blow our own horn and declare: "See, we told you so!" -- we will refrain from doing so for the simple reason that even a dumbed-down public-school child could have seen this one coming.

It's always them!

The hype over the bomb threats got so bad that Orange Man was forced to condemn the acts during his February address before Congress.

Because of the hype given to the hoax, the Slimes and the rest of the Piranha Press had to cover the news of this arrest. The trick here lies in downplaying it by giving it very limited legs. Rest assured that this story won't last another 24 hours. Even now, the predictable spin is already in effect. You see, the young man, we are told, has a history of "mental problems." It was "mental problems" -- not Jewish sympathy-building -- that caused this lunatic to do what he did for no apparent reason. Maybe he was a "self-hating Jew?"

Let's review a few other recent "mental cases," shall we?

- March 21, 2017: Headline: Syracuse.com

"Jewish man arrested after spray painting swastikas on his own home in Upstate NY"

"A Jewish man in Upstate NY was jailed on Monday for falsely reporting racist vandalism to police.

Now, Andrew King, 54, of Schenectady, is facing a charge of Falsely Reporting an Incident in the Third Degree after police determined that he spray painted three swastikas on his home."

- March 18, 2015: Headline: Washington Post

"Another swastika at GWU. This one was posted by a Jewish student."

"A swastika was posted on the bulletin board of a Jewish fraternity in a George Washington University dorm on Monday, leading upset students to immediately report it to police. The symbol — recognized as an emblem of hate from Nazi Germany — apparently came from an internal source: A member of the fraternity, who is Jewish, admitted that he posted it there."

- June, 2012: NBC Local News Affiliate: You Tube

"Jewish Female Student Drew Swastikas on Dorm Door"

- September, 2016: Headline: The Daily Northwestern

Kafker (jewish), Morales set to appear in court Oct. 31

"Kafker and Morales were arrested in connection with homophobic, anti-Semitic, racist and otherwise offensive graffiti found by University Police in Alice Millar. The graffiti included a swastika, drawings of male genitalia and the word 'Trump'."

- November, 2007: Jewish Telegraph Agency: Jewish Student Behind Dorm Swastikas

1 & 2: Andrew King spray-painted his own home. 3- Sara Marshak marked-up her own dorm door.

Believe us when we say that this little sampling of false-flag swastikings only represents a fraction of the documented cases which can be found by Googling around a bit on the Internet. For that reason, the Editorial Board of The Anti-New York Times does hereby call upon the leadership of the Jewish community to not only openly address and condemn this fraudulent phenomenon of self-inflicted swastikings -- but to cease the hateful and insensitive denigration of this ancient symbol of good fortune and God-consciousness that comes to us from the long-ago-blended-out pure Aryans of India and Central Asia.

Swastika in Sanskrit (the mother of all languages) means any lucky or auspicious object -- in particular a mark made on a person or object to confer good fortune or well-being. It is an honored symbol in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism. The phrase swasti means "it/he/she is good." The added suffix ka forms a noun, and swastika can be translated as "associated with well-being."

For The Great One, it was as much of a symbol of love and good fortune as much as it was homage to Europe's Aryan ancestors of Central Asia. That is why he chose it for Germany's flag. It is only the same Satanic mind-set that turned the Rune Cross upside-down into a "peace sign" that has also transformed the beautiful swastika into a "symbol of hate" TM. This distortion is actually just a psychological projection of the hatred for White humanity that the usual suspects carry in their own black hearts.

Jewish Supremacist HATRED turns love, virtue and truth upside down.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that some kid in Israel was behind the bomb threats to the Jewish Centers.

Boobus Americanus 2: Wow! Now why would a Jewish kid do such a horrible thing? I don't get it. What's the point?

Sugar: To keep sstupid chumpss like you in a sstate of pity-induced ssilence while his Tribe robss your dumb ass blind and killss off the Aryanss.

Editor: Profound analysis, Sugar. Not so eloquent, yet profound nonetheless.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: It's Not Just Unfair: Inequality Is a Threat to Our Governance

By ANGUS DEATON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

So much fakery, so little time to expose and correct it all. There is Fake News, Fake History, Fake Science, Fake Psychology, Fake Philosophy, Fake Art and, the subject of today's rebuttal, Fake Economics. Specifically, this horse manure about "income inequality" TM -- a "crisis" which ex-President Obongo termed "the defining challenge of our time" and the Pinko Pope of CathloCommunism has called a "sin."

While acknowledging that there are people swimming in cash and assets while millions of other hard-working Americans must somehow content themselves with living out a soul-numbing, hand-to-mouth existence, let us not misdiagnose the problem. It is not "income inequality" TM that needs to be addressed and corrected, but rather income suppression -- and there is a big difference between the two terms, which we will elaborate on further in.

The stupid article selected for today's rebuttal is actually a book review for "The Crisis of the Middle Class Constitution: Why Economic Inequality Threatens

"Our Republic", by Ganesh Sitaraman -- an Associate Professor at Vanderbilt Law School and a Senior Fellow at the Center for American Progress (commies). From 2011 to 2013, Sitaraman served as Policy Director to Communist Elizabeth Warren during her Senate campaign, and then as her Senior Counsel in the U.S. Senate.

1- Lizzy Borden Warren and her young protege Ganesh Sitaraman -- the fake Indian conspires with the real Indian.

2- Sitaraman considers himself a constitutional scholar.

Only in his early 30's, Sitaraman is already a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. From the book review:

"In his fine book, both history and call to arms, Ganesh Sitaraman argues that the contemporary explosion of inequality will destroy the American Constitution, which is and was premised on the existence of a large and thriving middle class. He has done us all a great service, taking an issue of overwhelming public importance, delving into its history, helping understand how our forebears handled it and building a platform to think about it today."

In his book, the young whipper-snapper son of Indian immigrants schools us dumb White Americans on the philosophy of our founding fathers by dishonestly twisting Thomas Jefferson's and James Madison's ideal of establishing equality of liberty and opportunity for all into into a call for "progressive taxation," socialized medicine and compulsory voting. The most idiotic of Harvard boy's schemes involves the establishment of an additional branch of government to be comprised of 51 citizens (50 States + DC) selected by a random drawing from the bottom 90 percent of the income distribution. This Council of the Clueless would be able to veto one statute, one executive order and one Supreme Court decision each year. The random representatives of Sitaraman's mob (Marx's proletariat) would also be empowered to call for referendums and impeach federal officials.

Centuries pass, but the Reds' scheme stays the same. Karl Marx advocated universal suffrage (voting privileges) and regarded the poor rabble mobs as the key to getting enough idiots to vote themselves into a Communist "dictatorship of the proletariat."

Laugh at this diploma decorated-dickhead if you will, but the fact that a crackpot such as this has found the ear of a powerful (and insane) US Senator; gained membership in the all-mighty CFR; and been given voice by "the paper of record" are all indications of where this country is headed when its masters swing us back hard-leftward in the post-Trumpian years.

Now, getting back to that distinction between "income inequality" TM and income suppression. Inequality just means that someone has more than you do. Only a petty envious loser would be upset by someone else's wealth. But income suppression, on the other hand, means that you can't earn enough money to support a decent life for you and your family. Now that is a problem that a civilized society must rectify -- and not by stupid schemes such as raising the minimum wage or handing out "food stamps." The real solution to income suppression lies in discovering why it is that, in the midst of so much industrial and technological advancement, so many people struggle to make ends meet. Who is responsible for this income suppression? Answer: Marxist scum such as Sulzberger, Sitaraman, Obongo, Clinton, Warren, Sanders et al. -- the very people who pose as champions of the downtrodden! What tragic irony!

You see, excessive taxation, excessive regulation, excessive inflation (the Fed), excessive litigation, excessive immigration, waste and corruption are all government-caused factors which serve to drive up the cost of essential goods and services, while taking money out of everyone's paycheck, while keeping wages flat. Add to that Marxist mix the socially destructive impact of social liberalism (millions of fatherless children, broken families) and we end up with millions of frustrated working people trapped in a hamster-wheel which they cannot understand -- the poor debt & tax slaves created by arrogant self-righteous Harvard libtards who serve the Globalists who serve the international Jewish Crime syndicate.

That's the truth about income suppression; and one doesn't need a framed piece of parchment from Harvard to figure it out. To learn more about who the real culprits behind America's (and Europe's) economic problems really are, read The Allegory of the Great Tomato Bubble and BANCAROTTA! -- both by yours truly.

Unlike the Hindu hot-shot from Harvard, Sugar and I identify real problems and offer real solutions in easy-to-grasp language.

*

Boobus Americanus 1: I read a book review in the New York Times today. A Harvard-educated Indian-American has put forth some rather interesting ideas for addressing income inequality.

Boobus Americanus 2: The best thinkers come out of the Ivy League.

Sugar: Oh really, Boobuss? If the Ivy League crowd isss frickin' ssmart, then why do we have sso much 'income inequality' in the firsst place?

Editor: Because libtards exist to solve the problems that libtards cause.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: Aleksei Navalny, Top Putin Critic, Arrested as Protests Flare in Russia

By ANDREW HIGGINS

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Oh look, the CIA-NGO-Soros Axis of Agitation is at it again -- stirring up rent-a-mobs in Moscow for the western Piranha Press to hype up into some sort of massive anti-Putin uprising which is not happening. According to even "mainstream" media sources, nationwide attendance for these multiple anti-Putin rallies numbered only in "the thousands." That is a piss-poor showing for a nation of 143 million people. Subtract out the apathetic paid marchers and you have an event which amounts to a big fat nothing-burger.

The coordinated stunts did succeed in providing the CIA media and the western Globalists with the needed images (many of them staged) to condemn Putin's "crackdown" TM on "dissent" TM. Opposition leader and "anti-corruption" TM activist Aleksei Navalny led the Moscow rent-a-mob and got himself arrested for staging an unauthorized rally. Like any US town or city, one must obtain a permit in Russia before organizing a traffic-stopping demonstration. It's a local public order thing, nothing more. But Navalny and his flock deliberately defy such ordinances so that they can generate photos of themselves being arrested (the good ol' "police brutality" TM trick) -- only to be released the day after.

Navalny: 2008 --- 2013 --- 2017--- If Russia is so "repressive," why haven't they strung this trouble-making traitor up from a lamp-post yet?

The fake protests prompted the usual reaction from the Russophobes in Washington DC. The article quotes Israeli-owned Senator Ben Sasse (R-NE):

“Putin’s thugocracy is on full display. The United States government cannot be silent about Russia’s crackdown on peaceful protesters. Free speech is what we’re all about and Americans expect our leaders to call out thugs who trample the basic human rights of speech, press, assembly and protest.”

Shortly after the Sasse's statement, US State Department Mark Toner, said that the US:

“.. strongly condemns the detention of hundreds of peaceful protesters throughout Russia on Sunday. Detaining peaceful protesters, human rights observers, and journalists is an affront to core democratic values.”

1- Trump's State Department Mark Toner lectures Russia about "human rights" TM as American drones continue to blow up innocent civilians in Yemen and Iraq; and American-armed proxies continue to terrorize Syria. 2- Sasse's submissive body language says it all! The anti-Putin Senator rushes across the crowded floor to pay homage to Bibi Satanyahu, his master (who is at covert war with Putin for having saved Assad of Syria). Just look at that pathetic swine, patting Bibi's arm with one hand as he shakes the demon's hand with the other! If Sissy had a dog's tail he would be wagging it in happiness at the sight of Bibi, before humping his leg. 3- Moscow protester will be released later that day and assessed a fine which will be far less than what the CIA paid him for getting arrested.

Because of the ongoing obsession and no-end-in-sight "investigation" of the non-existent "Russian interference" in the 2016 US QFS (Quadrennial Freak Show), Trump's 2016 promise to restore relations with Russia was already dead-in-the-water. This latest staged action, and others to come, will ensure the "War Against Putin" will not only remain in effect, but actually intensify, whether the de-balled Trump likes it or not. Expect a boycott effort of the 2018 World Cup of Football (Soccer), set to be hosted by Russia, to be announced soon. And look for Senators McCain the Insane, Sodomite Graham, Sodomite Rubio and Sissy Sasse to lead the Republican effort to provoke Russia --- and China, and North Korea, and Iran.

As the potentially deadly drama unfolds, the usual suspects, be they Jewish Globalists or Jewish Israel Firsters (and the two groups overlap), will sit back and enjoy the show --- with not 1 American in 100 suspecting that the chosenites are the ones leading us into yet another world war.

Charles Lindbergh, where are you?

September, 1941 Lindbergh's Iowa Speech (Image 3)

"The three most important groups who have been pressing this country toward war are the British, the Jewish and the Roosevelt administration. Behind these groups, but of lesser importance, are a number of capitalists, Anglophiles, and intellectuals who believe that the future of mankind depends upon the domination of the British Empire. Add to these the Communistic groups who were opposed to intervention until a few weeks ago, and I believe I have named the major war agitators in this country."

(Image 2: 1938, Lindbergh received the Cross of the German Eagle from Air Marshal Hermann Goering for his heroic 1927 crossing of the Atlantic.)

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Putin is cracking down hard on the growing pro-democracy protests against his regime.

Boobus Americanus 2: Putin is another Hitler.

Sugar: @#$% &^% (&^% $@#!& (*&^%$!!!

Editor: Dammit, Boobus! I told you not to smear The Great One in front of Sugar. It's a very sensitive topic with her.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: White House to States: Shield the Undocumented and Lose Police Funding

By JULIE HIRSCHFELD DAVIS and CHARLIE SAVAGE

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

In an effort to toughen enforcement of immigration laws across the country, Attorney General Jeff Sessions has threatened to withhold or revoke law enforcement funding from states and cities that block the police or sheriffs from informing federal authorities about illegal invaders in their custody. Of course, only a raging Communist or a reactionary libtard would oppose the proposed policy. Because of the fact that these invaders can, and often do, cross state lines, the matter is legally and clearly a Federal issue.

Big City Communist Mayors like DeBlasio (New York) and Emmanuel (Chicago) would rather protect violent gang members than their own citizens.

But our rebuttal today will focus not upon the threatened cut-off of funding, but rather, a broader principle which is never discussed nor questioned -- namely, this bizarre business which involves the Federal collection of taxes from we-the-people, who all live in one of the fifty States, and the Federal kickback of some of these very same tax dollars back to those very same States which we-the-people live in. Why take our money in the first place?!

Parallel to this fiscal insanity are the State-level kickbacks to various towns and municipalities which occur after the people of said town and municipalities have been taxed by the State. Consider the folly at work here: We pay income, excise, corporate and gas taxes to the Feds, as well as income taxes and sales taxes to our particular State, topped off by property taxes (for renters it is embedded) to the city or town. The Feds piss a fraction of those dollars back to the grateful States and cities. The State also trickles a fraction of their own revenues back to the grateful localities. Again, why collect that money in the first place?

Such idiotic transfers, based on the erroneous principle that bureaucrats know best, can only create inefficiencies and waste of taxpayer dollars. The comical circle-jerk scam exists only because Boobus Americanus has fully bought into the illusion that funds which flow down from higher sources (State and then Federal) are like "manna from heaven" -- doled out by other-wordly fairies at no cost to them. Few at the local level are able to realize that the government teat they are sucking on is only pumping out milk that was stolen from their own cows! Such is the downright ignorant state of economic illiteracy in America (and Europe).

Government grants to State and towns, and additional State grants to towns do not come from heaven. The idiotic 3-way-circle-jerk only sucks ourselves dry.

A perfect illustration of this fiscal fraudulence -- one that the New Jersey-based ~~Sugar and I~~, er, "The Editorial Board" of The Anti-New York Times can personally relate to -- is the "Middle Class Property Tax Relief" program of New Jersey. Sold to over-taxed suburbanites as a way to reduce property taxes (2/3 of which go towards "education") the State's annual checks paid out to the cities and towns of New Jersey now consume about 85% of "Joisey's" total revenue collected from State income taxes. So, not only is Boobus Jerseyus getting dinged each pay period for New Jersey income taxes (which did not even exist until 1976), but since the idiotic scheme's introduction sometime during the 1980's, property/school taxes have skyrocketed anyway!

And, not only are the "property owners" of the People's Republic of New Jersey are on the hook for the local extortion, and not only is there a State income tax of 5.5% - 9% depending on income; and a State Sales Tax of just under 7%; but Crispy Creme Christie, in 2016, signed a whopping $0.23 per gallon gasoline tax into law in order to cover the State's budget shortfall -- a large portion of which is due to that expensive "Middle Class Property Tax Relief" that we are told is oh-so-indispensable. How ironically insane it is that we now need "relief" from the crushing burden of "tax relief!" And woe to any politician who tries to cut off the Marxist "manna from heaven." For he will be falsely accused and politically damaged for wanting to "cut education" (which currently costs $20,000 per pupil here in New Jersey) and of "starving the poor."

"I brought home a zillion dollars back to our State (or District)," brags your typical US Senator or Congressman during election season. "Yay, we love you." cheer the boobs -- never thinking to ask how much money he had to vote to send to other states and districts in order to get his share. You see, the circle jerk isn't just vertical. It also works horizontally among the 435 Congressmen and 100 Senators from all across America.

Dear Lord, guard our sanity from the maddening effects if this mass insanity that our wicked world is so steeped in. We close with a fitting quote from 19th Century poet and critic, James Russell Lowell.

1- James Russell Lowell on "democracy"™ 2- Communist teachers and their sympathetic dupes raged at NJ Governor Christie over his tiny and temporary symbolic "cut" on "education funding" checks to municipalities for "local tax relief."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Trump is threatening to cut off sanctuary cities like New York from receiving grant money.

Boobus Americanus 2: What a jerk! Our police and children need that money.

Sugar: Hey Boobuss! Let me draft $25 out of your bank account each week and I'll give your sstupid kid a generouss grant of $100 at the end of the year.

Editor: Hmmmm. You just gave me an idea for a fundraiser.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: U.S. 'Probably Had a Role' in Mosul Deaths, Commander Says

By MICHAEL R. GORDON

New York Times: Engulfed in Battle, Mosel Civilians Run For Their Lives

By IVOR PRICKET

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Donald Trumpstein's phony war to drive phony ISIS from Iraq has turned into yet another bloodbath for the long-suffering people of the once-stable (before the 1990's) nation of Iraq. With every US missile rained down upon civilian neighborhoods, a new flood of Iraqi civilians (the lucky ones) hit the streets. Trumpstein's Department of Offense, headed by the utterly contemptible General "Mad Dog" Mattis, now admits that a March 17th airstrike "probably" caused the collapse of a residential building, which resulted in the deaths of what the Slimes describes as "scores" of civilians (40? 60? 80?). Mr. Trumpstein! We did not vote to mass murder people because an alleged "sniper" was spotted on a rooftop. Sugar and I want the $20 we sent your 2016 campaign refunded!

Mr. Trumpstein! Leave these poor people alone!

The silence from the self-righteous "Save the Muslims" crowd that shed so many crocodile tears over Trumpstein's bloodless "Muslim travel ban" is deafening. You see, crushing and dismembering Muslims to death is "OK" -- but screwing up a few flight plans is grounds for mass protest and shrieks of "racism" TM.

Why the bizarre double-standard? Answer: Because the Zionist game plan is to kill and dislocate as many Arabs as possible in the coveted lands of what is to be "Greater Israel" -- defined as that chunk of territory between the Nile (Egypt) and the Euphrates (Iraq) Rivers. Like their poor dispossessed Palestinian brethren of decades gone by, Syrians and Iraqis also have the misfortune of just happening to be located smack-dab in the middle of "the promised land." Hence, the name of the CIA-Mossad gang of murderous mercenaries, "ISIS" -- an acronym for the "Islamic State in Iraq and Syria," which is also a variation of Israeli Secret Intelligence Service.

Why no fake tears nor protests for the dead Muslims that Trumpstein just killed in Mosul?

Meanwhile, over in Syria, Trumpstein's killers, (deployed without Syria's permission!) are now within shooting range of the Russians (who are there by invitation). Even if Trumpstein was ever really sincere about improving relations with Russia, it doesn't really matter now anyway. The machine of State seems to be doing whatever it wants to do as a weakened President faces daily opposition from the Demoncrats, key Republican's and the full force of the Piranha Press.

Meanwhile, over in Russia, President Rouhani of Iran just concluded a very productive visit with the big bad Putin -- who, evidently wasn't moved by Bibi Satanyahu's (a buddy of Trumpstein) own recent visit to Moscow in which he asked Putin not to allow Iran to gain any influence in Syria. The anti-Putin hatefest isn't going to end anytime soon -- that's for damn sure. Trumpstein, by incompetence, indifference or design, has already brought us closer to World War III than Homo-Obongo ever did. All so we can, "Make Israel Greater Again."

Presidents Putin and Rouhani talked energy, arms and fighting ISIS (a proxy of US & Israel).

*

Admiral Thomas Moorer

"I've never seen a President -- I don't care who he is -- stand up to them [the Israelis]. It just boggles the mind. They always get what they want. The Israelis know what is going on all the time. I got to the point where I wasn't writing anything down. If the American people understood what a grip those people have got on our government, they would rise up in arms. Our citizens certainly don't have any idea what goes on."

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that scores of civilians were killed as a result of US airstrikes.

Boobus Americanus 2: That sucks. Unfortunately, collateral damage is part of every war.

Sugar: You wouldn't be sso frickin' flippant about thesse murderss if it wass your child buried alive beneath the rubble.

Editor: Boobuses are only capable of feeling empathy when commanded to do so by the Fake News Media.

MARCH, 2017

New York Times: U.S. War Footprint Grows in Middle East, With No Endgame in Sight

By BEN HUBBARD and MICHAEL R. GORDON

REBUTTAL BY

The Anti-New York Times

Picking up where we left off yesterday, an excerpt from this article:

"The United States launched more airstrikes in Yemen this month than during all of last year. In Syria, it has airlifted local forces to front-line positions and has been accused of killing civilians in airstrikes. In Iraq, American troops and aircraft are central in supporting an urban offensive in Mosul, where airstrikes killed scores of people on March 17."

Death, destruction and despair. Just like the good ol' days of Bush-Cheney.

Trumpstein is bringing Zionist-inspired death and war to the Middle East -- with much more still to come. If the American public starts to tire of this, they will swing hard-left again, as they did after 8 years of the Bush-Cheney wars. And no amount of sappy State-of-the-Union stunts using Navy Seal widows will save him.

As regular readers of The Anti-New York Times also know, Trumpstein has repeatedly threatened Iran and North Korea while talking trash about China. Sorry boys and girls, but we've been played. In our defense, we would like to point out that we were very much against Trumpstein before we shifted to 80% in favor and 20% uncertain. Sometimes, first impressions are the most accurate ones.

Some excerpts from a June 2015 issue of The Anti-New York Times -- our very first piece on the Trumpstein candidacy:

Sulzberger's Slimes, the Piranha Press and Establishment Republican's all seem to have their daggers out for the self-aggrandizing ego-maniac, Donald Trump. With enemies like that, he must be one of the "good guys", right? Not exactly.

For all we know, the attacks on Trump from elements of the Yankee PRC (Predatory Ruling Class) are actually intended to boost his stature in the eyes of the good folk of the American heartland. Could Trump be a plant sent to keep relative "outsider" Rancid Paul from gaining any traction in the early GOP primaries...?

Trump is for Trump -- Remember that!

Only time will reveal the game, if there is one. But for now, attacks from Sulzberger and friends mean absolutely nothing. His all-of-a-sudden tough rhetoric on immigration sounds good and certainly plays well, but the final assessment of Donald Dump must be based on facts and facts alone. With that timeless principle of logic in mind, let's have a look at the "anti-Establishment" resume of "The Donald."

1999

Trump attempts to derail the campaign of the true anti-Globalist conservative, Pat Buchanan - candidate for the Reform Party's Presidential Nomination. Sounding like the New York Slimes, candidate Trump denounces Buchanan as "isolationist" and an "extremist".

--New York Post: September 20, 1999--

"Donald Trump accused would-be rival Pat Buchanan yesterday of espousing "repugnant" views on Hitler, amid reports of other presidential wannabes flirting with the Reform Party.

"Buchanan denigrates the memory of those Americans who gave their lives in the Second World War in the effort to stop Hitler," the flamboyant New York developer, flexing his brand-new political muscles, said in a statement describing Buchanan's views as "beyond belief."

Trump's attack on Buchanan was prompted by the conservative Republican's new isolationist book in which he slams the West for taking on Hitler.

"I think it is essential that someone challenge these extreme and outrageous views."

When a very worried mainstream media was destroying Pat Buchanan during the 1990's, Trump joined the Buchanan-bashers while publicly saying he'd like to have Oprah Winfrey as his running mate.

The saddest part of this deepening delusion is that we still have to be grateful that Killary Rotten Clinscum was not elected -- in much the same way that a man diagnosed with Herpes would be "grateful" that he didn't contract AIDS. In the end-game, the Communist Left will come roaring back with its "first female President" anyway -- if not in 2020 then certainly by 2024.

Watch out for Kamala Harris, the Junior Communist Senator from the People's Republic of California. She's cunning, ambitious, light-skinned-bi-racial (Indian & Black Jamaican), and has that superficial charm that Killary could never effectively fake. Ms. Harris is a "politically correct" dream candidate on so many levels and easier on the eyes and far more stylish than your typical frumpy Communist-Democrat wench.

The buzz for Kamala 2020 (100th anniversary of women's voting rights) is already starting. Should Trumpstein's aggressive foreign policy blow up in his fatted face, the next swing to the Left will be final and fatal for America.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Trump is drawing us deeper and deeper into Middle East conflicts.

Boobus Americanus 2: If he keeps this up, he'll be a one-term President.

Sugar: The Jewss are gonna get their frickin' war AND a non-White Marxisst female President too.

Editor: They call that a 'two-fer.'

*