

INSPIRATIONS 2021

Greetings: Pastor's Page

June is another busy month for many of us as summer is officially in full-swing, Father's Day, VBS, camping, family reunions, etc. I am a firm believer in the importance of the family and the role of the father. I came across an article in the Northwood Anchor on the week of May 19th that reiterates the importance of what I have been advocating for. Here is a synopsis of the article:

Build a strong family to benefit children and adults

Children and adults benefit from being supported by a strong family unit, no matter how it is defined. This support can come from parents with a positive relationship, extended family and friends, and the community according to Joy Rouse, a human sciences specialist with Iowa State University Extension and Outreach. There are six characteristics that strong families share: 1) family members have a strong commitment to each other and make their relationships a high priority. 2) They make it known that they appreciate each other. 3) They talk to each other about small things and big issues. 4) They spend time together. 5) They believe in a greater power and have shared beliefs (we know this to be God and Christianity but others find strength and comfort in other religions). 6) Strong families cope with difficulties and crises effectively.

For many of us this seems like common sense but with the changing family dynamics and the shrinking of the nuclear family these characteristics are not the norm. When I look at these six characteristics I not only picture my family (immediate and extended) but also my church family. When we make relationships a high priority, appreciate each other, talk, spend time together, share a common experience in a personal relationship with Jesus, and bearing each others burdens – this is what I love about my church family. By living these out in our own families and being in community together is a benefit to all: children and adults.

Since this article was rather P.C. it did not mention specifically the importance of fathers who have an active, participatory relationship with their children. Recently I saw a commercial that featured a father and daughter playing catch and it chronicled her growing up and each different sport and the message was I do not remember when our game of catch started but I know that whenever I toss the ball, you are there to throw it right back to me. Fathers Matter!

Finally, a couple of programming notes. Father's Day, June 20th, is going to be a joint service at the Worth County Fairgrounds at 9am in the Shelter House. There is no admission charge that morning so this is your chance to check out the fair for free. Also, the Worth County Cattleman's put on a BBQ lunch that is phenomenal – so, come to church at the fair and treat dad to a great lunch.

VBS in Bolan is the week of June 21st – 25th from 9am to noon. I will be leading the discovery center again this year and look forward to seeing everyone again since we were not able to have VBS last year. Look for more info in the newsletter.

Spend some time with your family and tell all the dads how much you appreciate them.

Pastor Rob

Join the Pastor on Wednesdays from 10-noon at S Coffeehouse in Lake Mills or at 7pm at the Worth you would care to join him for a bit of fellowship & sation.

Asbury UMC Noisy Offering – June: Women at the Well Ministry

Women at the Well is a United Methodist congregation which is located within the walls of the Iowa Correctional Institution for Women ICIW, in Mitchellville, Iowa. Women at the Well is a diverse community composed of women incarcerated at ICIW, men and women from around the State of Iowa who choose to worship with us, and many volunteers who regularly support our ministries and programs. In-mates gather together to share the teachings of Jesus Christ, and to experience the life transforming Spirit of God.

CAMP NEEDS YOU!!!!

Each summer hundreds of kids choose a life changing experience at one of our three United Methodist Campgrounds (Okoboji, and Wesley Woods). There are camping events for all age levels, including adults! There are Day Camps, week-long events, family camps, etc. There are go-cart camps, horse camps, fishing camps, and more all centered around a growing relationship with God in Jesus Christ and others. If that is something you're interested in – there's a place at camp for you. Visit the camp's website (www.iaumc.org/camps) to see photos of the cabins, activities and staff and to learn about the camping program. Or, visit our camp display in the basement fellowship hall at Asbury UMC. For more information contact your church's camp ambassador, Pastor Jerry 592-4484 or jrobrtsn@wctatel.net.
