

In class activities and Institutional Visits

Topics discussed in class:

- Transnational Crime and Human Trafficking
- How Italian Police Investigate Violent Crime
- Evolution of Islamist Terrorism
- Italian Penal System
- Cross-Border Prison Overcrowding and Global Solutions
- Police Stress
- Perception and Intuition of Policing
- Motorcycle Gangs in Europe: The Impact on European Culture
- The Psychology of Undercover Police Work
- Understanding the Italian Mafia, Camorra and other organized crimes
- Real-life cases on Organized Crime
- What you should know about Crime Scene Investigations
- Intelligence Services in the 21st Century

In class activities and Institutional Visits

- Visit to preventive detention building “Regina Coeli” in Rome – Italian Penal System
- Visit to Inspectors National Police Academy (the most important Police Academy in Europe):
- Police self-defence techniques – Speed Driving techniques – Shooting range – K9 show. Observing the high formation of the Italian National Police Inspectors through the various phases of training.
- Visit to Interpol Headquarters in Rome: Presentation on strategy against trans-national crime and Human trafficking
- Visit to RACIS – Arma dei Carabinieri – Roma (Crime Scene Investigations Department)
- Trip to Naples – Observe closely the headquarters (Spanish Quarter) of one of the most powerful International criminal organizations: the Camorra
- Visit to Italian Department of Narcotic Bureau (Direzione Centrale per i Servizi Antidroga), to understand the international routes of drug trafficking and the methods of the Italian police to combat this phenomenon. Recruitment and training of undercover agents. International Drug Trafficking.
- Guided visit to the Criminological Museum of Rome
- Intelligence Field Exercise