Thank you, to all parishioners throughout the Diocese, for your kind and generous donations you have sent in to the chancery office, for those affected by the wildfires in the summer of 2021. From all the donations collected the Diocese of Kamloops was able to make a donation to the Red Cross in the Kamloops area in the amount of $25,000. This donation has been designated to go toward those most affected by the wildfires, especially for those in the Lytton area.
