

PROFESSIONAL NURSING CONCEPTS & CHALLENGES
7TH EDITION Read Free

•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•

Beth Black
---
---
---
9781455702701
---
---

Which of the following statements explains why the school nurse of today is truly a community health nurse? The school nurse must be certified in CHN. Which early nursing leader founded the first training school for nurses that would later become a model for early nursing education?

Dorothea Dix b. Florence Nightingale c. Clara Barton d. Mary Ann Bickerdyke 2. Who was the first educated African-American professional nurse? Linda Richards b. Phoebe Pember c. Sojourner Truth d. Mary Eliza Mahoney 3. To which early nursing leader is attributed the founding of the American Red Cross? Clara Barton b. Dorothea Dix c. Florence Nightingale d. Lavinia Lloyd Dock 4. What were some of the application requirements of nursing education programs in the s? Male, intelligent, strong b. Female, sensitive, subservient c. Female, docile, from poor background. Male, high breeding, independent 5. The organization today known as the NLN was formed to address issues in nursing education.

Which early nursing organization is credited with first recommending state registration for nurses? ICN b. NLN c. ANA d. National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses 7. Which of the following nursing leaders, because of her work in the Henry Street Settlement, is considered the founder of public health nursing? Margaret Sanger b. Clara Barton c. Lillian Wald d. Lavinia Lloyd Dock 8. Despite the caring efforts of early public health nurses in the Henry Street Settlement, racial disparity left many people underserved. Which of the following African-American public health nurses was instrumental in providing excellent nursing care to underserved families despite these social challenges? Jessie Sleet Scales b. Margaret Sanger c. Lavinia Lloyd Dock d. Anita M. McGee 9. Which one of the following events occurring during the first decade of the twentieth century brought sweeping changes to nursing?

It was required that all practicing nurses be licensed. Permissive licensing laws allowed registered nurses RNs to practice without a license if they registered with the state. All states required a standardized licensing examination. Nurses had to pass a licensing examination to use the title RN. What was the most significant impact on the profession of nursing made by Mary Breckenridge in her role as a frontier nurse? She demonstrated that nurses could provide primary care in rural settings. She demonstrated that female nurses could protect themselves in unsettled rural environments. She demonstrated that nurses were capable of teaching new mothers to care for babies.

She demonstrated that nurses could provide care to many clients despite geographic boundaries. Which of the following was recognized earliest as a true profession? Ministry b. Teaching c. Social work. Engineering 2. Activities of professions are more physically than intellectually oriented. Activities of professions are based on their own body of knowledge. Beliefs of professions are more theoretical than practical. Beliefs and traditions are handed down from generation to generation. Similarities exist between various ideas about what constitutes a profession. Which of the following is believed to be a characteristic of a profession? Members have autonomy. Members are trained on the job. Members are motivated primarily by financial reward.

The group lacks a code of ethics. Which of the following best describes the difference between an occupation and a profession? A profession requires a duty to serve. In a profession, action is based on intuition. In a profession, knowledge is handed down from generation to generation. The document that provides professional standards and a framework for professional decision making that ensures decisions are made with the highest integrity is the a.

Nurse Practice Act. Code of Ethics. A component that separates occupations from professions is commitment. Which of the following is the best way that nurses can show commitment to each other? Reporting substandard practice by unlicensed personnel b. Reading the professional literature c. Mentoring nursing students and novice nurses d. Making a financial donation to a professional organization 8. The nursing profession has experienced barriers to professionalism. Too many men in nursing b. Unquestioning obedience to doctors c. Limitations placed on practice by state legislators d. Variability of educational backgrounds of nurses 9. The process of professionalization of an occupation typically follows a pattern of developmental stages. One of the stages is collective identity. Which of the following is an example of collective identity? Legal right to practice profession to protect unique skills from outsiders b.

Apprenticeship programs to develop skills c. A loose association of practitioners. Preparation is a component that separates occupations from professions. Which of the following is the best way that a nurse demonstrates preparation for the profession? Improves nursing practice through the use of trial and error methods b. Focuses on the skills needed for the practice setting c. Articulates the values of caring and compassion in patient-centered care d. Utilizes textbooks from college to support practice 5 years after graduation Chapter 4: Legal Aspects of Nursing 1. Which of the following is an example of civil law? Possession of marijuana b. Assault and battery c. Giving alcohol to a minor d. Child custody case 2. The nurse practice act of a state defines the scope and responsibilities of nursing practice in that state. Which of the following is true regarding nurse practice acts?

They determine the educational requirements for licensure. They describe the process for gaining membership to a professional organization. They regulate how many professional nursing organizations may be formed. They define the practice of medicine in relation to nursing. Which of the following falls under the jurisdiction of the state board of nursing? Approving or reject applications for new nursing education programs b. Expanding the provisions of the nurse practice act c. Reducing the provisions of the nurse practice act d. Right to suspend the need for licensure of registered nurses RNs in times of extreme shortage 4. The most common reason that nurses are disciplined by the state board of nursing is a. Overseeing decisions made by state boards of nursing b. Overseeing granting licensure by endorsement 6. Which of the following actions by the nurse constitutes professional malpractice?

Placing the head of the bed flat when a patient is receiving a tube feeding, causing the patient to aspirate the mixture d. Administering a routine medication 10 minutes late because of a unit emergency 7. The nurse forgets to give the patient a dose of antibiotic. Later in the shift, the patient goes into cardiac arrest and dies. What element is lacking to support malpractice? Duty of care b. Breach of duty c. Specific injury d. Proximate cause. Analysis of cases of reported negligence from to demonstrated that the majority of cases occurred in which patient care setting?

Acute care b. Psychiatric c. Nursing homes and long-term care facilities d. Home health 9. A competent resident in a long-term care facility refuses an ordered antidepressant medication. The nurse believes the patient needs the medication because he is clearly showing signs of depression and dissolves the medication in juice without telling the patient. This illustrates negligence by failure to a. The student asks the nursing instructor if it would be alright to post the photo on Facebook.

Which response by the instructor is best? Which of the following situations is an example of moral distress? You hear nurses in the lounge making off-color jokes about a patient. You are afraid to speak up for fear of retaliation. You have been late for work a couple of times in the last 2 weeks, and your co-workers are covering for you. You become romantically involved with a co-worker, which is against the unit policy, so you resign your position. Staff expects that the patient may be brain-dead, but test results are not yet conclusive. Preconventional b. Conventional c. Postconventional d.

Developmental 3. Developmental 4. Flight 93, hijacked on September 11, , crashed into the Pennsylvania countryside because some of the passengers decided to try to take control of the plane and prevent it from being used as a weapon of mass destruction against structures in Washington, D. They decided to act despite grave danger to themselves. Conventional phase 4 5. Participating in decision making promotes moral reasoning. Intellectual development has no effect on moral development. Participating in debates on ethical issues decreases moral development. Holding people responsible for their actions does not improve moral development. Children b. Men c. Women d. Adolescents 7. Deontology b. Principalism c. Utilitarianism d. Virtue ethics 8. Which of the following ethical theories is illustrated by the example of triage in disaster nursing? Virtue ethics 9. Respecting the right of a patient with terminal cancer to refuse chemotherapy is based on a belief in the ethical principle of a.

Which early nursing theorist recognized therapeutic milieu, assessment skills, and a unique body of knowledge in her definition of nursing? Dorothea Orem b. Virginia Henderson c. Hildegard Peplau d. Florence Nightingale 2. Which early nursing theorist defined nursing in interpersonal terms by stating that nursing is a. Virginia Henderson b. Hildegard Peplau c. Martha Rogers d. Dorothea Orem 3. Assuring proper fresh air and ventilation b. Demonstrating good handwashing techniques c.

Assisting a disoriented patient with a bath d. Performing a visual screening exam 4. Performing a hearing screening in preschool children b. Interacting with depressed men to learn new strategies for reducing their symptoms c. Setting goals for weight loss with a patient d. Teaching a person with frequent constipation about high-fiber foods 5. The legal definition of nursing for any particular state can be found in the a. Which of the following is an example of formal socialization into the profession of nursing? Unplanned observation of a nurse comforting a child after a painful procedure b. Hearing two nurses discussing how to organize patient care more effectively c. Starting an intravenous IV line in the simulation laboratory under faculty guidance d.

Which of the following is an example of informal socialization into a profession? Nurses discussing a patient care issue in the presence of other nurses b. Taking an extra class for an elective c. Performing your first physical assessment in a client d. Teaching a patient about warfarin Coumadin 8. Stage I: Unilateral dependence b. Stage IV: Interdependence 9. Stage IV: Interdependence Hayes and Kathy Blais , Trade Paperback. Hayes and Kathy Blais , Trade Paperback 4. About this product. New other. Make an offer:. Stock photo. Brand new: Lowest price The lowest-priced brand-new, unused, unopened, undamaged item in its original packaging where packaging is applicable. See all 2 brand new listings. Buy It Now. Add to cart. About this product Product Information Professional Nursing Practice: Concepts and Perspectives, Seventh Edition, is intended as a text for registered nurses who are in transition or bridge programs to achieve a baccalaureate or higher degree in nursing.

It may also be used in generic nursing programs or in transition or bridge programs for vocational nurses LPNs or LVNs to complete the professional nursing baccalaureate degree. Professional Nursing Practice helps nursing students explore and understand the nurse's role in the health care environment with coverage on topics including nursing history, theory, ethics, and law, as well as nursing roles, issues, and changes in the profession. Fully updated, this edition includes more information on Quality and Safety Education for Nurses QSEN , global health, and nursing theory and research.

This resource explores the changing health care system especially related to health care economics, nursing in a culture of violence, and nursing in a culturally and spiritually diverse world. Additional Product Features Dewey Edition. Socialization to Professional Nursing 3. We would LOVE it if you could help us and other readers by reviewing the book. On Amazon. Book details ISBN Show more. Case studies help you empathize with real patients. Critical thinking questions and challenges enable you to apply chapter-relevant information to scenarios and envision a personal philosophy of nursing. Evidence-based Practice boxes offer insight and highlight research that affects patient care.

Hoogsensitief
Sea Breeze 5 - Soms voor altijd
Maastrichtse serviezen 1917-1937
De komst van Alexander
Pascale