President's Letter

Hello everyone and Happy New Year!

We will have virtual meetings in January, February, and March. Stay tuned for more information. If you need help - there are several of us that would be willing to help. Others might meet at a restaurant and share the screen with others that need help. Just reach out. This is a way for us to get instruction and share with each other.

Sew Day for the Christmas Stockings will not be able to happen. Brett has some family issues that she needs to handle - so stay tuned for more information - we have all year to finish these - in the past we have tried to finish them early. If you have Christmas Fabric to donate - stockings to donate (that you purchased on sale!) we will have drop off at All About Quilting. We are still working out the details - so stay tuned to Facebook for more information and we will also share in emails.

Sew Day for the Guild will not be able to happen either because of the Covid Rules. Again - we are having to deal with what we can - technology would be a way to share our projects and our time. We can even have former members that have moved away join us - good thing is you don't have to change out of your stretchy pants and we can still all get together!

Romancing Eastern North Carolina Shop Hop is a go. Each of the 8 stores will be open (we will not have standardized hours). You will have to check - and be willing to follow all Covid Rules - mask wearing and hand washing! Also be patient and remember that if you go into a store - send one person to check on the amount of people available to be let in. Each store has their own rules. We are looking at options of a basket out front with an item - that you carry in with you and deposit back in the basket when you leave so that others can see how many are allowed - we are all short on helpers and would love to have someone be able to help - so be patient and bear with us. We want to help you achieve your completion goals for 2021!

Craft Fairs - we do not know if these will happen - so for now we wait - but if you have good ideas for items to create - share with us and we can use electronics to connect.

Committee Chairs - I have reached out to each of the Committee Chairs that was listed from the previous board. Have not heard from everyone - so stay tuned.

Day of Sharing - The planning is taking place for September 2021. But again, we will have to wait and see. Kathy Gross is in charge - if you have some ideas - please reach out to her.
