A Neil Diamond impersonator, he has received "Entertainer Of The Year" awards for two years, and has written the music and lyrics for several songs noted by TV, Radio, and magazines.

A Spaghetti Dinner will be served to make a complete "Italian Night".

VIVA LAS VEGAS

Eat, drink and be married. A small wedding chapel surrounded by a glitzy gambling casino, our young lovers are eloping in defiance of the brides' father, Blackjack White, wealthy owner of the Pearly Gates Emporium.

As the happy couple stand ready to take their vows, Blackjack burst in, a scuffle ensues, and gun shots ring out. Blackjack White drops dead with a bullet in his heart.

Who fired the shot? In Vegas anything can happen. This is a clear case of murder.

Help solve Blackjacks murder while enjoying a roast beef dinner.

The date for this great night will be February 24th. Prizes will be awarded to tables solving the mystery. Tickets will be $15.00 and go on sale Thursday, February 1st at 9:15 a.m. Seating will be tables of 4 or 6. One person may buy a maximum of 8 tickets.

Thanks for the Festive Decor

The Club was made more beautiful for the holidays. This festive look was created by a group of residents. Our thanks to Beacon Point resident, Chuck Poppelreiter for putting up the Christmas Tree and supervising decorating it. His helpers were Marcia and Mike Penny, Olive Teschendorf, Sally Wagner and Barbara Bishop of Beacon Point, Mary Ellen Kandratinio and Ann Kantranino of the Estates. With the help of Mark and Robin Abrahamson, Jim and Lois Corson, Jodie and Cornell Smith, Pat Racz and Joyce Brewer all the wreaths and lighted greens were placed with care making the club glitter for the holidays. Thanks again to all these wonderful people.

Dominos Anyone?

There has been some interest in playing Domino's (Mexican Train or Chicken Foot) at the clubhouse by a couple from Michigan. If there is any more interest, would you please call the clubhouse at 727-862-9126 or Bert and Eleanor Sumerix at 727-841-6573.
