GENERAL RULES FOR ALL JUNIOR FAIR EXHIBITORS

Official Rules available at www.clermont.osu.edu

1. All participants in the Clermont County Junior Fair must belong to one of the following Clermont County youth organizations: 4-H, FFA, FCCLA, Grange, American Heritage Girls, Girl Scouts or Boy Scouts. All participants must meet the age and membership requirements of their respective organizations to be a member in good standing and able to participate in the current Clermont County Fair.
2. Junior Fair exhibitors must be between the ages of eight (8) and eighteen (18) years old. An exhibitor is eligible for participation when a child is age eight (8) and in the third-grade; any youth age nine (9) or above is eligible for project membership, regardless of grade level, the same year in which the entry is made at the Clermont County Fair. Eligibility ends when an exhibitor reaches the age of 19 years as of Dec. 31 of the same year in which an entry is made in the Clermont County Fair.
3. No entry fee will be charged to junior exhibitors for entry in Junior Fair events except for a requested donation at the dances Friday.
4. The Clermont County Agricultural Society, Ohio State University Extension Office, Clermont County Junior Fair Board or other affiliated organizations, or their representatives, are not responsible for loss, damage or injury to projects or exhibitors before, during or after the Clermont County Fair.
5. The Clermont County Senior and Junior Fair Boards are not responsible for the health or death of an animal before, during or after the Clermont County Fair.
6. All veterinarian bills are the responsibility of the exhibitor.
7. Any Junior Fair exhibitors who wish to exhibit in open class livestock shows must enter and show according to the open class rules. No membership ticket is required, but entry fees must be paid. For any other Senior Fair Board event, the exhibitor must adhere to the rules of that event.
8. All Junior Fair entries must be filed with the appropriate junior organization on or before the published entry deadline of that organization. The 4-H and FFA member project enrollment deadline is March 1 of the current year to the Ohio State University Extension Office.
9. Non-animal projects must be removed from the 4-H Hall between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Sunday following the fair.
10. Non-animal projects removed from the fair before 8 p.m. Saturday of the fair will not receive premiums.
11. Exhibitors must have a project on display at the fair to be eligible for a fair pass and premiums. A display is not a project book. The minimum display includes an educational poster.
12. Premiums will be $2 per project exhibited at the Clermont County Junior Fair. The maximum amount paid to a junior exhibitor shall not exceed $6.
13. Copies of the Junior Fair rules are available in the Junior Fair Board Office, Senior Fair Board Office, Ohio State University Extension Office and the Senior Fair Board website. They are considered the official rules and take precedent over anything printed in the Clermont County Fair Premium Book.

Additional updates after the fair book is printed will be available as provided by agencies like the Ohio Department of Agriculture.

14. All participants must sign and adhere to the Clermont County Junior Fair Standards of Behavior.
15. Advisors are responsible for ensuring the youth meet the requirements outlined in the Junior Fair rulebook.

VETERINARIAN GUIDELINES

All animals must be on the grounds by the specified times for each species. No animals shall enter the grounds without being inspected by the fair veterinarian or his/her designated assistants.

1. All animals on the grounds will be inspected prior to weigh ins. All animals will be evaluated for infectious/contagious diseases, illness, lameness, etc. Any injured, sick, or other unhealthy animals will be quarantined and further inspected. It will be determined if the animal will be permitted to remain on the grounds. Things that will be specifically visually inspected are, but not limited to, lameness, body condition, ringworm, lice, warts, orf, or foot rot.
2. Any injured, sick, lethargic, or lame animal must be evaluated by the fair veterinarian as soon as reasonably possible. Please report any animal concerns to the Junior Fair Board Office. The fair veterinarian will examine the animal and recommend treatment. The fair veterinarian has the discretion to remove any sick or injured animal as needed. If an animal requires treatment, it may remain on the grounds as long as there is no danger to the public, the animal, or animals. The exhibitor of any animal given a medication is required to fill out drug residue paperwork to insure that the animal will not enter the food chain until the withdrawal time has expired.
3. All animals will be moved and handled in a safe, humane, and efficient manner. Any exhibitor or person mistreating an animal will be asked to leave the grounds. All animals shall have access to clean water, feed, and stall. No animal on the grounds shall have water deliberately withheld for any reason. Bucket watering animals is permissible as long as there is a bucket within the stall and the animal has reasonable signs of recent watering. Intentionally tampering with the water of any animal with the purpose of reducing water intake shall result in the immediate expulsion of the exhibitor and the project from the grounds.
4. Animals exhibiting signs of zoonotic diseases (those that are transmissible to humans) will be removed from the grounds. Common zoonotic diseases include ringworm, orf, scabies, vesicular stomatitis, etc.
5. All decisions made by the fair veterinarian are final. Any exhibitor can elect to have any veterinarian examine and/or treat their projects; however, the fair veterinarian must be made aware of the diagnosis and all treatments performed.

Common sense and good animal ethics will be the guidelines with which all decisions are made. We promote good ethical treatment and husbandry of food animals to the public. Thank you for your cooperation and assistance in regards to these matters. I hope that all have a wonderful and rewarding experience at this year's fair.

Thank you,

Jason S. Patchell DVM

2018 Clermont County Fair Veterinarian

GENERAL RULES FOR JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

General

1. The Clermont County Junior Fair will operate under the provisions of Ohio's Livestock Show Reform Act and under all applicable Ohio Department of Agriculture Administrative Code Rules. This information is found in this fair premium book or can be found on the websites printed below.
2. All market livestock must be free of all drugs the day of show, day of sale and day of harvest (slaughter) as stipulated by the Ohio Department of Agriculture. Read the Ohio Livestock Show Reform Act (http://www.agri.ohio.gov/animal/law/ORC901\_Livestock\_Show\_Reform\_Act.pdf) and the Ohio Department of Agriculture Administrative Code Rules (<http://www.agri.ohio.gov/divs/legal/ruleslaws/ruleslaws.aspx>) for more information.
3. Exhibitors may be required to show proof of ownership or leasing (horses and dairy cattle) of their livestock project animals upon the request of the Junior Fair Board or Senior Fair Board. Animals must be in the possession and care of the exhibitor by the dates set for each species.
4. The maximum number of animal entries per exhibitor per class is limited to two. Exceptions are listed under species rules.
5. The number of pens, which is defined as a four-sided structure, is limited to four per exhibitor. The species included are sheep, swine, goats, turkeys, ducks and geese.
6. Exhibitors are asked to dress appropriately for shows and sales. Your dress should reflect your pride in your project, yourself and your family, as well as the organization you represent. This means clean clothes and shoes.
7. Animals that leave the fairgrounds after the official check-in time or before the official check-out time Saturday of the fair for each specie, or before the animal sells, will forfeit all rights to show and sell, and will not be allowed to return to the fairgrounds. Exceptions are milking dairy cattle, milking dairy goats, horses not housed in stalls the week of the fair and animals going to the state fair. Participants leaving before checkout time will forfeit ribbons, trophies and any other awards. No animals may leave the fairgrounds until the specified time for each specie Saturday of the fair unless it is loaded onto an auction house or slaughterhouse truck.
8. A time will be determined for animals leaving the fairgrounds for the state fair by the Junior Fair Coordinators.
9. All judges' decisions are final.
10. All exhibitors are expected to write thank-you notes to buyers and trophy donors.
11. No animal will be allowed on the fairgrounds after their designated check-in times. This means the animals not admitted are not allowed to show and/or sell.
12. To show, the animal must have been at the pre-fair check-in and/or weigh-in and at the fair check-in and/or weigh-in at the designated time for each specie.
13. For any Championship Drive, a three-minute time limit will be used to get an animal into the show arena. If the exhibitor does not arrive in time, the exhibitor and animal are disqualified from the Championship Drive.
14. Decisions made by the Senior Fair Board appointed vet or designees are final at weigh-ins, tag-ins, check-ins and the fair.
15. As requested by the state veterinarian, help protect fair animals from foot and mouth disease. Do not enter livestock areas if you have been out of the country within the last five days. Foot and mouth disease is not a danger to humans, but humans can expose animals to this infection.
16. No scales other than the official fair scales will be allowed on the fairgrounds.
17. For all market classes, there must be five animals to make a class.

Care and Handling

1. All Junior Fair exhibitors are responsible for the care, feeding and handling of animal exhibits and areas around exhibits. Aisles will be inspected daily by adult and junior specie consultants. If an exhibitor must be told to care for or clean his or her animals and stalls, pens or cages, they will be warned and premiums will be withheld. If a second warning is issued, this could lead to disbarment from showing and/or selling animals. That decision would be made by a committee of a Junior Fair Board member, Junior Fair Board specie junior and senior consultants, another Junior Fair Board adult consultant, a Senior Fair Board member and the 4-H or Agriculture/Natural Resource educator.
2. Every exhibitor will be provided a pen, stall or cage for his or her project except horses. Additions or enhancements must be provided by the exhibitors at their own expense. The number of pens, which is defined as a four-sided structure, is limited to four per exhibitor. The species included are sheep, swine, goats, turkeys, ducks and geese. The maximum number of pens provided to exhibitors with goat projects is two.
3. Exhibitors who do not clean their pens, stalls or cages after selling their animals or taking them home will be assessed a $50 cleaning fee per animal, which will be given to the Senior Fair Board to cover the cost of cleaning. Pens, stalls and cages must be cleaned by 10 a.m. Sunday immediately after fair. The stall cards must be left hanging above the pens, stalls and cages. Nothing may be left in the aisles in any barn. All manure, mulch, etc. used in pens, stalls or cages must be taken from the barns and placed in appropriate manure piles. This includes horse stalls. Any animals and/or other property left after 10 a.m. will become the property of the Junior Fair Board.
4. One fan is allowed per pen or stall. No fans used in the barns may be hung by bailing twine. Fans must be hung, according to the fire marshal, with wire. Fans may not be hung by handles.

Castration and Dehorning

Castration and dehorning must be done well before pre-fair tag-ins/check-ins. The wounds caused by castration and dehorning must be completely healed by the pre-fair tag-in/check-in. See goat rules for additional dehorning information. Exhibitors owning animals found with any problem concerning castration and/or dehorning at the pre-fair tag-in/check-in will be given seven days to correct the problem. This must be done by a licensed veterinarian at the expense of the exhibitor. A letter certifying the problem has been corrected must be sent to the Ohio State University Extension Office by the veterinarian within seven days of the pre-fair weigh-in/check-in. Failure to comply will result in disqualification. A blank tag will be placed in the animal's ear at the pre-fair tag-in/check-in; when the letter is received, the JFB coordinator and/or a consultant will come to insert a new tag and collect a $100 fee. This rule only applies if an effort was made before tag-in to have the animal castrated and/or dehorned. If no effort was made, the animal is automatically disqualified. Male goats must be castrated by the May tag-in/check-in date. Any sac must be cold to the touch and approved by the fair veterinarian.

Championship Drive

1. If an exhibitor wishes to pull an animal from the Championship Drive, in their respective show, they will forfeit all premiums and awards for that animal. These awards will be given to the animal placing next in the original class, and that animal will then be eligible to compete for further honors.
2. The Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion market steer, market lamb, market goat, market hog must sell, and they will be terminal. All eight of these animals are required to be slaughtered and the carcasses may be examined for any abnormalities or tampering immediately after the respective auction in which they sell at the Clermont County Fair. These animals will be sent directly to a facility approved by the Senior Fair Board. These animals are subject to state-mandated testing after the show, as per state law.

Drug Use Notification Forms

1. Completed and signed drug use notification forms are due between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. the Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the fair begins in the Junior Fair Board office. Without these forms, animals cannot go across the scales. See the state rules for information about penalties. Forms will be available in the Junior Fair Board Office.

Feed Verification Forms

1. Completed and signed feed verification forms for ruminant animals must be submitted to the Fair Veterinarian or designee at the fair weigh-in/check-in. Forms will be available in the Junior Fair Board office prior to the weigh-in/check-in.

Grooming

1. Grooming of the Junior Fair project animal is an important part of the learning experience for the Junior Fair exhibitor. ALL JUNIOR FAIR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO DO THEIR OWN GROOMING. However, if needed, Junior Fair exhibitors may have someone help with grooming. Exhibitors may be assisted by only the following listed individuals: Parents, brothers, sisters, legal guardians, grandparents, currently registered Clermont County 4-H club advisors, FFA advisor and current Clermont County Junior Fair exhibitors. The Junior Fair exhibitor being assisted must be present when assistance is being given. Assistance is interpreted as the actual touching of the animal. People, other than those listed, may give verbal directions, but may not touch the animal in any way.
2. Tampering and/or misrepresentation as to the breeding, age, ownership and any other irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception. Any artificial means of removing or remedying the physical defects of conformation in exhibition livestock, such as lifting and filling under the skin, use of string, artificial heels, addition of hair, etc., will be considered fraud and deception. The use of an artificial tail head or altering the natural coloring of an animal shall be prohibited. The use of any means of inhumane artificial stimulation will not be permitted. All animals showing evidence of such treatment will be barred from competition and sale. Exhibitors may NOT use natural coloring, i.e. red on red or white on white, from the hocks down; see the state rule OAC 901-19-33.
3. Fraud or deception shall constitute a major offense. Should fraud or deception be discovered before the show, the animal(s) will not be permitted to show and the exhibitor will be barred from showing at the Clermont County Fair for the next two years. Should fraud or deception be discovered after the animal(s) have shown and prior to the sale, said animal(s) will not be permitted to sell, all premiums and awards will be forfeited, and the exhibitor will not be permitted to show at the Clermont County Fair for the next two years. If possible, the animals placing next in line will be moved up. Should violations be discovered after the sale, all prizes and awards will be forfeited, all money shall be returned to the buyer, and the exhibitor will not be allowed to show at the Clermont County Fair for the next two years. If applicable, the carcass will be returned to the exhibitor unless the carcass is condemned.
4. Exhibitors barred from showing at the Ohio State Fair will not be permitted to exhibit at the Clermont County Fair for the same amount of time barred from the Ohio State Fair.
5. Animals suspected to have had substances administered to change the conformation and/or temperament of the animal may be subject to veterinary inspection while on the Clermont County Fairgrounds. Any market animals, including those sold through the fair sale, are subject to such tests at any time during the Clermont County Fair or during harvest.

Health

1. All livestock must meet the inspection and health requirements of the state of Ohio and Clermont County. The official fair veterinarian may remove any sick, injured, contagious, infectious or diseased animal from the fairgrounds.
2. The fair veterinarian or Senior Fair Board vet designees will be present at pre-fair and fair tag-ins/check-ins/weigh-ins to check for proper castration, proper dehorning (except some goats, see goat rules for additional information) and health problems. The responsibility of the designees or fair veterinarian also is to inspect livestock for evidence of any contagious or infectious disease. Exhibitors may engage their own veterinarian for any usual consultation, diagnosis and treatment work. Duties beyond this will be at the discretion and decision of the fair veterinarian and Junior and Senior Fair Board department chairs. See castration section in General Livestock Rules for more information.
3. Feed verification forms for ruminant animals will be collected by the fair veterinarian or his designee at fair weigh-in/check-in. Drug use notification forms are due between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. in the Junior Fair Board office Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the fair begins. Forms are available in the Junior Fair Board office. Without the drug use notification forms and feed verification forms, completed and appropriately signed, animals cannot weigh-in, which means animals cannot be shown and/or sold.
4. If an animal should die while on the fairgrounds, it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to remove the animal from the fairgrounds within 3 hours.

Mandatory Assuring Quality Care for Animals Training

1. Quality Assurance programs will be scheduled each year to discuss tampering, violations and other state rules. Previous year attendance does not apply; participants must attend a program each year they participate with market livestock at the fair.
2. Quality Assurance training must be completed by June 1st of each year to meet the Ohio Department of Agriculture minimum of "45 days prior to exhibition" requirement.
3. Youth who are between the ages of 12-14 or 15-18 as of January 1 of current year are eligible to take a test developed for their age level in either large or small animal. 4-H members who pass the test with 70 percent or higher will be exempt from the Quality Assurance requirement until they move to the next age bracket, or are no longer a Junior Fair market livestock exhibitor.
4. All exhibitors in market steers/large market heifers, feeder calves, market lambs, market hogs, market goats, lactating dairy cattle, lactating dairy goats, market poultry and meat rabbits are required to complete an approved Quality Assurance Program in an Ohio county.
5. FFA exhibitors may meet this qualification through their Agriculture Education coursework, providing the instructor is certified through Ohio Quality Assurance training guidelines and recorded with OSU Extension 4-H Animal Sciences as a qualified trainer. FFA advisors must hand in paperwork that lists the FFA class members who completed the requirements.
6. Exhibitors who attend a Quality Assurance program in another county must submit paperwork to the Ohio State University Extension Office no later than June 1 of the current year to prove attendance. If this paperwork is not submitted by June 1, the member will not be allowed to show at the fair.

Pen Assignment Program

1. Stall, pen and cage reservations are due between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. the second Saturday in May in the JFB Office.
2. Exhibitors will be assigned to requested stalls, pens, and/or cages according to the requests made by exhibitors and club advisors. If two club members want to be side by side, they must state that on the pen reservation form. No exhibitors will be allowed a stall, pen and/or cage

- outside their club unless otherwise stated on a reservation form, if room permits.
3. There will be no moving of pens once assigned, unless approved by Junior Fair Board specie consultants.
  4. Empty pens will be reassigned by the Junior Fair Board. If exhibitors want their animals in one pen, they must submit one reservation request. For example, if two exhibitors raised their animals together and want them in the same pen, they need to state that on the reservation form. No members may submit two requests to use the second stall, pen and/or cage for tack. If this occurs, the stall, pen or cage will be relinquished to the Junior Fair Board for use at their discretion.
  5. The assignments made will be permanently written on a diagram of the barns. These diagrams will be used at the end of the week to make sure each exhibitor cleans their stall, pen and/or cage. Moving pens may mean you are fined $50 because the exhibitor in the stall, pen and/or cage assigned to the original exhibitor did not clean up properly.

Protests and Grievances

1. Protests and grievances relating to Junior Fair rule interpretation or other Junior Fair matters that occur during the fair should be brought in writing to the Junior Fair Board junior and adult consultants of the appropriate show or activity within one hour of the incident in question with a fee of $200 cash. The Junior Fair Board junior and senior consultants will look into the matter. If the protest is deemed valid, a non-partisan committee with at least one Senior Fair Board member, one Junior Fair Board member, junior specie consultant, senior specie consultant, 4-H educator, Agriculture and Natural Resources educator and another person chosen at large will be formed to rule on the matter. If a member of the committee files the grievance, he or she will be excused from the committee. Decisions will be made within 24 hours of the original filing of the protest. If the person filing the protest or grievance loses, the money will be given to the Junior Fair Board. If the person filing the protest or grievance wins, the money will be returned to that person.
2. If protests and grievances fall between the July JFB meeting and midnight Saturday before the fair, the protest must be brought in writing to the Junior Fair Board junior and adult consultants of the appropriate show or activity within one hour of the incident in question with a fee of $200 cash. The Junior Fair Board junior and senior consultants will look into the matter. If the protest is deemed valid, a non-partisan committee with at least one Senior Fair Board member, one Junior Fair Board member, junior specie consultant, senior specie consultant, 4-H educator, Agriculture and Natural Resources educator and another person chosen at large will be formed to rule on the matter. If a member of the committee files the grievance, he or she will be excused from the committee. Decisions will be made within 24 hours of the original filing of the protest. If the person filing the protest or grievance loses, the money will be given to the Junior Fair Board. If the person filing the protest or grievance wins, the money will be returned to that person.
3. Protests and grievances to be handled any other time of the year must be brought in writing to the next JFB meeting and given to the Junior Fair Board junior and adult consultants of the appropriate show or activity with a fee of $200 cash. The Junior Fair Board junior and senior consultants will look into the matter. If the protest is deemed valid, a non-partisan committee with at least one Senior Fair Board member, one Junior Fair Board member, junior specie consultant, senior specie consultant, 4-H educator, Agriculture and Natural Resources educator and another person chosen at large will be formed to rule on the matter. If a member of the committee files the grievance, he or she will be excused from the committee. A recommendation will be made to the entire JFB board at the next meeting. A decision can be made that night or at the following JFB meeting. If the person filing the protest or grievance loses, the money will be given to the Junior Fair Board. If the person filing the protest or grievance wins, the money will be returned to that person.

Showing

1. Exhibitors belonging to more than one organization must exhibit separate and different projects. Examples: Both hogs must be shown as either a 4-H project or an FFA project. An exhibitor may show steers in FFA and heifers in 4-H.
2. All Junior Fair exhibitors must make every effort to show their own animal. If in the case of exhibitor sickness, serious injury or an instance of two animals in the same class, another current Clermont County Junior Fair exhibitor may be asked to show an animal. The Junior Fair Board must be notified and permission must be granted by the Junior Fair Board junior and senior specie consultants prior to the class in question.
3. For the protection of all Junior Fair exhibitors and others, animals considered uncontrollable during the fair or in the show ring may be disqualified. That determination will be made by a judge and/or a specie junior and senior consultants and JFB co-coordinators.
4. No animal may be shown in both breeding and market classes. A decision about how the animal will be shown at the fair must be made at the pre-fair tag-in/check-in and cannot be changed later in the year.

Showmanship

General Showmanship Rules:

1. Animals used in showmanship classes must be the exhibitor's own project exhibited in the Junior Fair of the current year. The exhibitor must use the same animal for the entire showmanship contest. These animals are housed at the fair the entire week.
2. Showmanship sign-up sheets are available in the Junior Fair Board office prior to the showmanship shows. Each exhibitor is responsible for signing themselves up for the showmanship contests.
3. Rabbits and chickens may sign up in the rabbit and chicken barns.
4. The champion showman of each species is eligible to compete in the Showman of Showmen Contest, unless:
  - The showman is a previous winner of the Showman of Showmen Contest.
  - The showman represented the specie the previous year in the Showman of Showmen Contest.
5. If the champion showman of a species is ineligible for the Showman of Showmen Contest, the judge will determine an alternate.
6. Show order is oldest to youngest followed by adult and then peewee. Beef cattle cannot be used for peewee showmanship.

Showmanship rules for Beef, Market Goats, Poultry, Rabbits and Swine:

1. Beef, market goats, poultry, rabbits and swine showmanship classes are divided into 11 classes, by exhibitor age as of January 1 of the current year.
2. Exhibitors may choose to sign up for any age class above their actual age as of January 1 of the current year. All Champion Showmanship exhibitors are required to move up at least one age class the following year and not ever return to their actual age class.
3. These species will chose winners in each of the 11 age classes. These winners will compete for the champion showman within each specie.
4. Poultry showmanship will include all varieties of birds at the fair in one class based on exhibitor's age and follow the general showmanship rules above.

Showmanship rules for non-market goats (dairy and pygmy):

Exhibitor may enter only one class in the showmanship competition:

- A: Advanced (age 16 to 18)

- B: Intermediate (age 13 to 15)
- C: Beginner (age 8 to 12)

Showmanship rules for sheep and dairy cattle:

- A: Adult - 19 and over: not eligible for Junior Fair membership
  - B: Advanced – age 16 to 18
  - C: Intermediate – age 13 to 15
  - D: Beginner – age 8 to 12
1. Past winners in the beginner and intermediate divisions must move up to the next level, regardless of exhibitor's age.
  2. Past advanced division winners may compete again in the advanced division.
  3. Winners will be chosen in each division. These winners will compete for champion showman within both species. The champion showman is eligible to compete for Showman of Showmen, unless:
    - A previous winner of the Showman of Showmen Contest.
    - They represented the species the previous year in the Showman of Showmen Contest.
  4. If the champion showman of a species is ineligible for Showman of Showmen Contest, the judge will determine an alternate.

Weights and Tags

1. All species must be registered in the appropriate project, tagged, checked and/or weighed in before the fair on dates specified in the rules for each species. Failure to do so will result in not being able to exhibit, show and/or sell at the fair of the current year.
2. When cattle are weighed in and/or tagged, they must be on a halter for the safety of everyone.
3. Any market animal not properly checked-in before the fair begins at the designated time as stated in specie rules must be removed by the owner from the fairgrounds by midnight the day the specie is to arrive on the fairgrounds.
4. Any animal may be reweighed. However, it must be done immediately, before the animal is returned to the barn. Animals may not have water or feed before going back on the scales. Animals not reweighed immediately will not be allowed back on the scale and the first weight will be official.
5. Weights will determine market classes and will be listed as the sale weight. If an exhibitor is not present, they must make arrangements to have the animal weighed. Completed drug use notification forms and feed verification forms must accompany all animals.
6. ALL animals must be weighed dry.
7. Lightweight and heavyweight animals may remain on the fairgrounds and can be shown in showmanship classes, but will not be permitted to sell.
8. It is the responsibility of the animal owner or his designee to move their animals through the scales and the chutes.
9. 1. See General Rules for Junior Livestock Exhibitors for more information.
2. The Junior Fair Horse program will be conducted according to the following rules, as set forth by the Clermont County Junior Fair Board Horse Committee. Penalties for infractions of these rules will be determined by the Clermont County Junior Fair Board Horse Committee and may include exclusion from the State Fair Qualifying Show, Clermont County Fair and the Ohio State Fair.
3. The term "Junior Fair" is used to mean 4-H, FFA or other organizations recognized as part of Junior Fair. All members of other organizations must adhere to the Junior Fair rules.
4. The term "horse" is used to mean all equines, including ponies, mules and donkeys.
5. The Junior Fair Board Horse Committee consists of junior members and the Adult Consultants assigned to the committee.
6. Penalties for infractions to the Horse Rules will be determined through the county grievance procedure for Clermont County Fair events. See the general livestock rules.
7. It is required that anyone showing a horse project at the fair obtain and review a copy of the Ohio 4-H Uniform Horse Rules, as well as, county fair rules, which are in the fair book, for further information and clarification. Everyone should be aware of the Clermont Junior Fair Board Horse Committee Constitution. Everyone is responsible for knowing the rules. The Ohio 4-H Uniform Horse Rules book may be obtained from the Ohio State University Extension Office at a cost of $6.
8. To exhibit at the Clermont County Fair, all Junior Fair horse exhibitors must be properly enrolled by March 1 of the current year and must have a horse picture/description form on file in Ohio State University Extension Office by the second Saturday in May of the current year.
9. A horse picture/description information form is to be completed and turned in to the Extension Office no later than the 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. the second Saturday May of the current year. The picture information form is available at the Ohio State University Extension Office or from your club advisor. The form must include a color photograph of the project animal (side view with the head turned to camera). Picture information forms for a production project not yet foaled require a photograph of the mare and are to include names of sire and dam and anticipated date of foaling. Projects should be measured by advisors and height included on the form. All ponies must be no more than 14.2 hands or 58 inches. See the State Rules.
10. All animals carried as Junior Fair projects must be in the continual care of the Junior Fair exhibitor by the second Saturday May of the current year. If project animals are boarded out or kept at a boarding stable, the exhibitor is expected to regularly clean, care for and exercise the animal(s). Exhibitors may share a project animal, maximum of two members per equine. Shared equines should be due to a hardship or mentoring less experienced youth.

11. Exhibitors with shared horses (leased or owned) may show both at the county fair but on different days. Horses will only compete with one exhibitor per day, with the exception of immediate family members (i.e. brothers and/or sisters.)
12. Leased animals are permitted only after Junior Fair Board Horse Committee, Adult Junior Fair Board Consultants, Ohio State University Extension Educators and Adult Horse Committee approval of the Standardized State 4-H Lease Form. The Lease Form must be submitted and be on file at the Ohio State University Extension Office between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. the second Saturday May of the current year. Lease forms and hardship cases will be reviewed at the May Junior Fair Board Horse Committee meeting. Failure to comply with the above will cause you to be ineligible to show at Clermont County 4-H horse fair events.
13. After the second Saturday in May of the current year, Junior Fair horse project animals may not be in the hands of a professional trainer. The horse may be boarded at a trainer's stable, but cannot be in a professional training program conducted by a professional trainer. Member and horse may take riding lessons together. Any instruction given to the member and their project animal whether on the ground or the instructor mounting the horse for training is acceptable provided the exhibitor is an equal participant.
14. Clermont County Junior Fair horse exhibitors may take two equine projects to the county fair. They must designate which horse/pony they are attempting to qualify on at the Ohio State Fair Qualifying Show. The animal that the exhibitor qualifies on must be the one that they compete on at the Ohio State Fair. Exhibitors also may carry a production project, driving, and/or basic training project.
15. Unsportsmanlike conduct toward judges, show management or other exhibitors will not be tolerated. Physical abuse (this includes hitting, whipping a horse with reins or excessive spurring) will not be tolerated. Violators will be dismissed from the show. Show management or the judge will determine unsportsmanlike conduct. No one found to be unsportsmanlike will be allowed to show the remainder of the fair.
16. A Junior Fair exhibitor is on his/her own at the time of judging. Sideline coaching will cause disqualification from all horse show events.
17. The Junior Fair exhibitor, with the following exceptions, must handle all horses in the ring: Driving classes - one person from the ground must assist exhibitor. Donkeys and mules - exhibitor may be assisted by the ringmaster to trot in showmanship. Production - exhibitor may have another exhibitor handle the second animal.
18. GROOMING OF THE JUNIOR FAIR PROJECT ANIMAL FOR SHOW IS AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE, THEREFORE: All horse grooming at the Clermont County Fair must be done on the fairgrounds by the exhibitor. They may have assistance from their immediate family members, Clermont County 4-H Advisors or other current Clermont County Junior Fair exhibitors (showing at the Clermont County Fair in the current year). The Junior Fair exhibitor seeking assistance must be present at the time the grooming is taking place. Failure to observe this rule may result in being disqualified from showing at the Clermont County Fair Junior Horse Show. (All State Fair bound exhibitors are asked to review the sections of the Uniform Horse Rules dealing with "instruction" or other pertinent topics.)
19. Lessons, instruction and advice for the member are encouraged. As long as the member is present in a learning situation, such assistance can include occasional riding or handling of the horse by another person, but cannot include regular training and care of the horse within 30 days of competition in any State Fair Qualifying Show or the State Fair Junior Horse Show. Showing a 4-H member's project in a class at a show is not considered training. However, if the project animal is shown by someone other than the 4-H member in an open or breed show within 30 days prior to the 4-H competition, the 4-H member must be present and must show the project in that show. Family members can ride a

- 4-Her's project horse without the 4-H member being present within the 30-day limit as long as it is not a daily occurrence and is merely for pleasure (example: Trail riding with relatives or friends) and does not include training the horse for the show ring.
20. Horse stall assignments for the week of the Clermont County Fair will be made by the Junior Fair Horse Adult Consultants determined by taking into account the number of days the exhibitor will be showing and the number of stalls requested by each club. No exhibitor will be assigned more than one stall.
  21. Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning their stalls and area. See Rule 3 under Care and Handling in the General Livestock Rules.

  24. An exhibitor must be in the Basic Training Project to compete in Basic Training classes.
  25. Mares in the production project also may be shown as a saddle project. Showing a mare in a production class does not eliminate the animal from other Junior Fair classes. The exhibitor must be enrolled in a production project to show in production classes.
  26. Pony classes may be divided into large pony and small pony classes, if necessary (as per size guidelines in the Uniform Horse Rules).
  27. To be eligible to participate in the Mix It up Class, you must be 16 to 18 years of age by January 1 of the current year and must show in your age group division to compete.   34. The Champion Equine Showmanship winner will be determined by means of a special class, to be held Thursday of the fair after the Western Showmanship classes. This contest will include the Western, English, and Donkey/Mule showmanship Champions. First- and second-place winners of each age group showmanship division qualify to compete in the Equine Showman of Showmen Championship. Past winners of the Equine Showman of Showmen Contest are eligible to compete every other year. The Equine Champion will compete in the Showman of Showmen contest Friday of the fair. Exceptions to this are stated in the Showmen of Showman Contest Rules. First- and second-place winners of horses, ponies and donkeys/mules may compete in Equine Showman of Showmen.

35. Winners of Novice and Intermediate Horsemanship or Equitation must move up to the next class the following year no matter what the age of the exhibitor or after two years of being novice or intermediate. The Clermont County Junior Fair Board Horse Committee may take special circumstances into consideration. Exhibitors who show Novice/Intermediate are not eligible to qualify for the Ohio State Fair.
36. Members showing in novice and intermediate classes cannot participate in any age group classes, which include all contest classes. 40. Exhibitors participating in the Hunter Showmanship Classes (horse or pony) have the option of showing in either a leather bridle or leather halter.
41. Bumping a barrel will not cause disqualification or penalty. Knocking over a barrel or pole will be a five-second penalty. Touching a barrel or pole with the member's hand is a disqualification. The starting line for all contest events is designated as the invisible line between the timers. If two stopwatches are used, one will be designated as official with the second stopwatch as back-up. An electric timer is preferred, if available. In case of timer malfunction, the rider will not be informed until after the run and a re-run will be granted with no penalties carried over for barrels and/or poles.
42. Flags will be run according to A.G.C.A rules that will be displayed the day of show.
43. The Championship Contest Horse/Pony will be determined by the following two classes on a point system basis.

English and Western Day Champion and Reserve Champion will be decided by a combination of points from three classes offered per division (Showmanship, Pleasure and Equitation/Horsemanship). The points system to be used is the same as the Champion Contest Horse/Pony. If a tiebreaker is needed, the winner will be determined by the score in Showmanship. If this is not available, then a verbal question from the judge will be used.
45. Junior Fair exhibitors receiving an incomplete for the current year may not compete in the Clermont County Junior Fair shows, including qualifying for State Fair. A copy of each club's bylaws must be on Ponies and horses will be judged together for the State Qualifying Show and separately for the Clermont County Fair shows.

  47. State Fair Qualifying: Junior exhibitors must designate, from a list of State Fair classes, the classes in which they wish to qualify. They are limited to no more than four classes. A youth must qualify in two classes in order to go to the State Fair. If a person qualifies in more than two classes, they can choose which two they will enter at state fair. Horses should be in reasonable health and condition. If an animal is questionable, the Clermont County Fair veterinarian will be asked to look at the animal. The veterinarian will determine show ability. The show judge also may dismiss a horse if he/she determines the animal is not in reasonable health or condition, with no questions asked.

1. Contestants will show each specie as a group class. Species will show in the following order: Horse, swine, goat, sheep, dairy and beef.
2. Show animals will be furnished by the Junior and Senior Consultants of each species. Contestant's contest animal will be selected at random by a drawing. No contestant will show their own animal or an animal owned by a member of their immediate family. If possible, only feeder calves will be used for the beef classes.
3. Classes will be judged and placed like a regular showmanship class. Points will be awarded as follows:

  - Fifth – 5 points
  - Sixth – 6 points
4. The contestant with the lowest number of total points will be named Showman of Showmen.
5. In a case of a tie, one specie will be pulled out of a hat, except horses since that animal will be shown in the horse arena and contestants will not return to that area after leaving. The species will not include the animals shown by the two tied showmen. The two showmen will show the specie pulled from the hat again and the lowest score wins.

6. Contestants are asked to wear comfortable and appropriate clothing for showing large animals at a fair, (boots, jeans, plain oxford shirt, plain polo-type shirt, etc.). It is the committee's desire that the judges not know the representative from each specie. Because of this, participants are not allowed to wear clothes that are specific to their specie. White clothes for dairy and dairy goat showmen and western clothes or English riding wear for horse exhibitors are examples of what is not allowed.
7. One exhibitor may not represent more than one specie in the contest.
