Scripture Passage [Job 23:1-9, NRSV]

<sup>3</sup> Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling!

<sup>4</sup> I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup> I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.

<sup>6</sup> Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me.

<sup>7</sup> There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

<sup>8</sup> “If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him;

<sup>9</sup> on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
