What's new at Sneaky Universe?

With Book Week around the corner, if you were going to dress up as a Sneaky Universe character, who would you be? Would you be Sneaky Puss, Bunyip or Henrietta? Or would you be one of the Krittas? Or Perhaps you want to be a superhero and think that Monicow: Bovine Superhero is the right choice? Or maybe you prefer to be a human character and want to be Sofie Rose Marin? So many choices? Let us know who your favourite character is. New releases in the last month include Sneaky Puss Goes to the Beach, in English and a heap of other languages and you can finally get your copy of Monicow: Bovine Superhero – The Great Tiger Rescue.
