There is no sense of self-discovery if one is busy rifling through a tarot book looking for the card meanings and then try to stitch everything together like a poorly conceived quilt.

It is then a big mish-mash. I now understand that the card spread to be like a master painting where every element is in its correct place. Just step back to take a look at it. It will all make sense. My advice to everyone. Throw out your other books. This is the one! I like his teaching style so much that I just purchased his new book, Advanced Tarot Secrets.
